

U.S. Audience Profile and Segmentation

Prepared for the Church History Department

Research Information Division

December 2012

Background

- Sample = 785 active LDS adults (U.S)
- Data collected June 2012

Research Questions

- 1. How interested are members in Church history?
How relevant is it to their testimony of the Gospel?
- 2. Are there events or issues in Church history that are troubling to members?
- 3. What is their experience with Church historic sites?
- 4. What is their preferred method of receiving information about Church history?

Research Question 2

How interested are members in Church history?

How relevant is it to their testimony of the Gospel?

Interest in and Importance of Learning about Church History

■ Very ■ Extremely

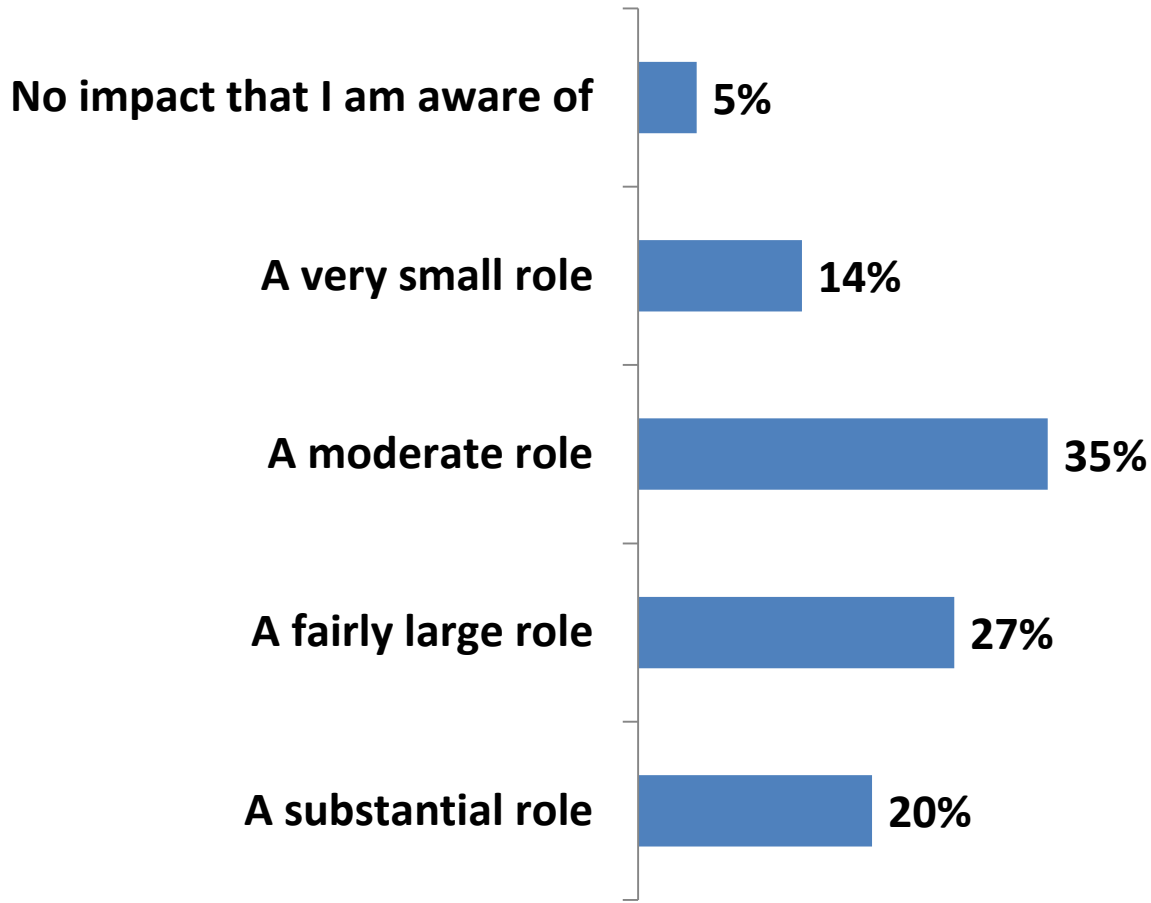

Strengthening Testimony

(% “very” or “extremely” helpful)

Role of Church History in Efforts to Make and Keep Sacred Covenants

Research Question 3

Are there events or issues in Church history that are troubling to members?

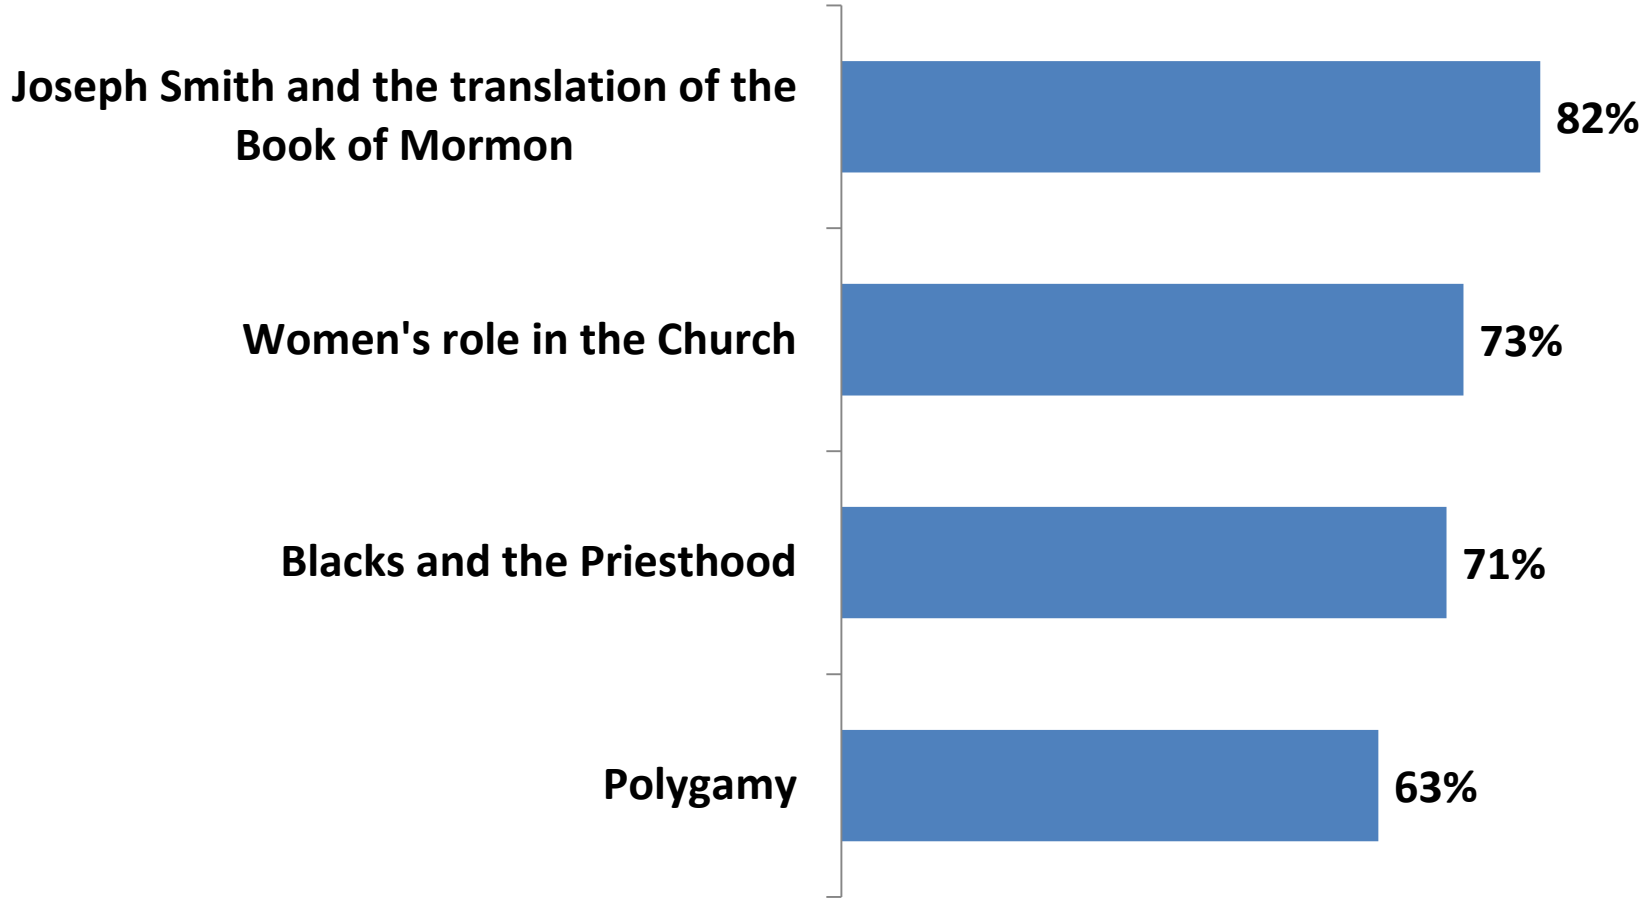

Attitude toward “True but Troubling”

(% responding “describes me ‘very’ or ‘extremely’ well”)

Controversial events in our Church history cause me concern.

Value of More Information on “True but Troubling” Topics (% “very” or “extremely” valuable)

Research Question 4

What is members' experience with Church historic sites?

Church Historic Sites (1)

Ever Visited

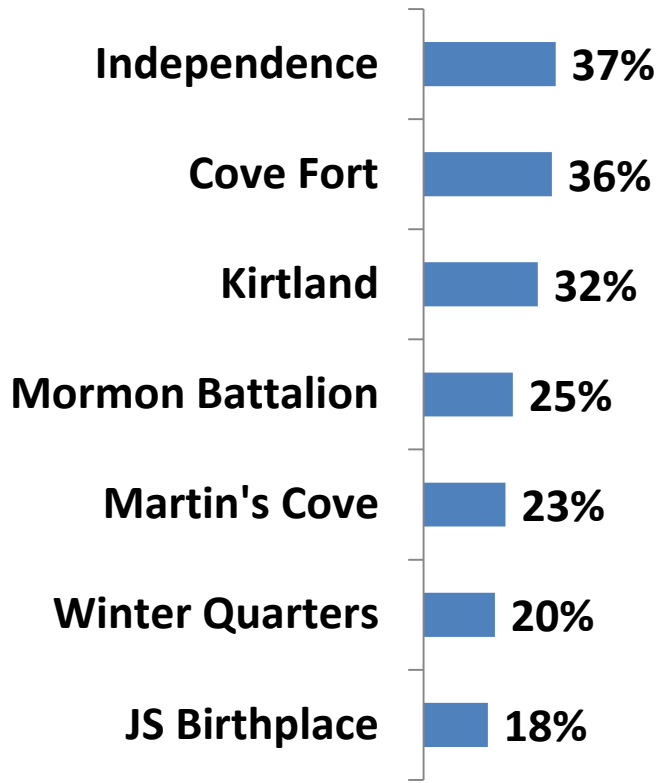

Strong Influence on Testimony

Church Historic Sites (2)

Ever Visited

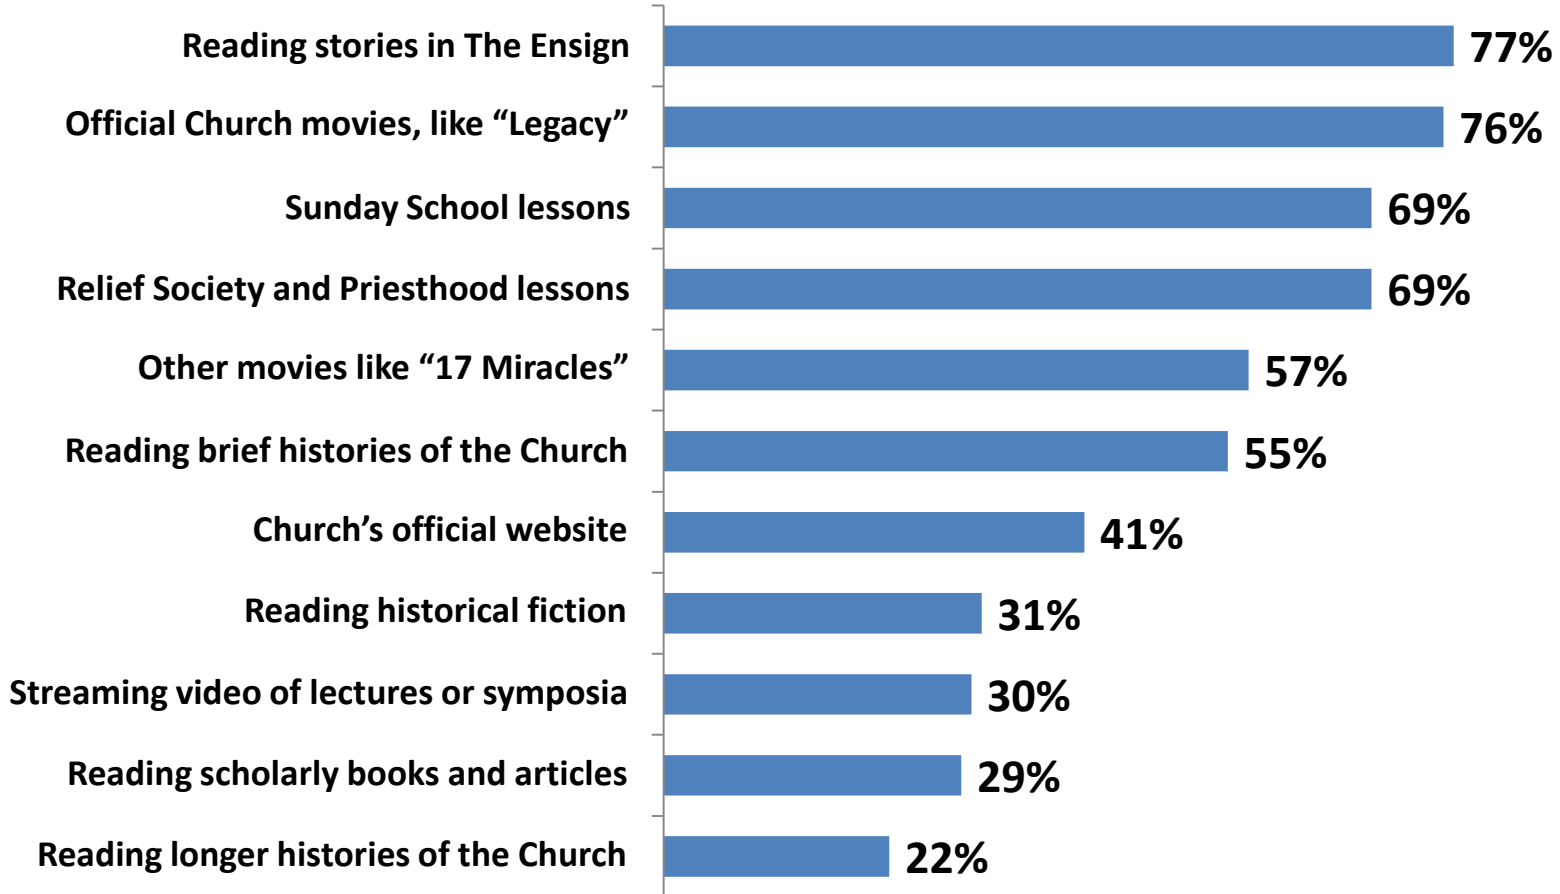

Strong Influence on Testimony

Research Question 5

What is members' preferred method of receiving information about Church history?

Preference for Learning about Church History

Market Segments

- Men / Women
- Education
- Age
- Interest in Church history

Market Segments

Groups:

- Women
- Less education

More likely to prefer:

- Relief Society / Priesthood lessons
- Commercial movies
- Stories in *The Ensign
- Historical fiction
- Sunday School lessons

* Women and older members

 Women only

 Less education only

Market Segments

Groups:

- Men
- More education
- Younger (under age 70)
- Higher expressed interest in Church history

More likely to prefer:

- Scholarly books and articles*
- Longer histories*
- Streaming video of lectures or symposia
- Church History's official web site

* No difference by age

 Men / Younger

Market Segments

Groups:

- No significant statistical differences among groups

More likely to prefer:

- Brief histories
- Official Church movies

Summary (1)

- A majority of active members are interested in Church history and think it is important to learn more about it.
- Most members want more help in responding to questions on “true but troubling” topics.
- About half of members said Church history played large role in their efforts to make and keep sacred covenants.

Summary (2)

- Members tend to prefer Church history delivered in easily digestible chunks:
 - Ensign stories
 - Videos/movies
 - Short accounts
 - Biographies
- However, there is also a niche for more scholarly materials.

