Caucus Runs Smoothly

This year's caucus was more organized than last year's, with four part ballots given to each Charlestown resident who proved residency. However, the ballots were never cast as nominations were closed after the required number of delegates were reached in each category. No one protested the rushed nomination procedure, and the gathering of approximately 75 residents seemed pleased with the caucus turnout.

Last year's caucus saw the recounting of ballots, multiple voting, and numerous accusations that the caucus rules and regulation had not been followed. Contested before the Compliance Review Committee, the caucus was upheld.

Governor Michael S. Dukakis will deliver the opening remarks at the conference which will be the first of its kind in Massachusetts.

Dr. Vivian C. Fox, director of the Center and professor of history at BHCC, has organized the program.

The purpose of the conference is to gain a deeper understanding of the ways unemployment affects the condition of the family. It will provide valuable insight and guidance at this time because unemployment is higher than it has been since 1940, affecting people from all socio-economic groups,

Civil Service Finding "Just The Tip Of The Iceberg"

The findings by the state Civil Service Commission that the City of Boston violated state law in firing and demoting Boston police officers is "just the tip of the iceberg in a pattern of official actions jeopardizing the public safety of Boston residents," stated Boston City Councillor Raymond L. Flynn.

Flynn urged public participation at a previously scheduled hearing by the Council's Committee on Public Safety requested by Flynn to investigate complaints by Boston neighborhood residents and firefighters on the continuing lack of public safety protection in the city.

"Public safety protection in Boston has never recovered from the massive layoffs of police officers and firefighters in 1981 which were criticized in unusually sharp terms in the Civil Service Commission report," Flynn said. "While the Commission's report rightly charged the city with acting in 'bad faith' in demoting and firing officers while more than $1.3 million in funds were available," Flynn noted, "there may be a tendency to believe that the problem has now been addressed. It hasn't."

"For example, on several recent occasions in many areas of the city little or no firefighting equipment has been available in case of an emergency back-up or cover situation."

Flynn went on to note, "Concerned neighborhood residents and elected officials who protested the layoffs of police officers and firefighters in 1981 were accused by the city administration of 'grandstanding.' Undoubtedly, similar charges will be leveled when the extent of present gaps in neighborhood public safety protection is revealed. Two years ago, in response to police and fire layoffs, the Mayor said the public would have to 'see a little blood' before the Tregor Bill would pass. Today, Boston residents have every right to ask 'What do we have to do this time before we get the basic levels of police and fire protection which other cities have managed to provide as a routine matter?"

The Committee on Public Safety will begin neighborhood hearings on Thursday, February 10, 1983 at 8:00 p.m. at the South Boston Branch Library, 646 East Broadway.

TO MY VALENTINE

BY ELLEN T. McCREVAN

The valentine I send today,
Love from me to you.
I hope that every other one
Is filled with dreams come true.

The message from a heart to heart
Is what it's all about
The thoughts that come to mind are sent,
Sincere, without a doubt.

It comes our way but once a year
To let our loved ones know,
The feelings that we have inside
And let love overflow.

The simple wishes we express
Can mean a lot, I'm sure
The truth is, I love you and hope
Our friendship will endure.

BHCC Sponsors Conference

from blue and white collar workers to executives and professionals. In addition, even those presently employed in industries and business fear that they too may soon join the army of the unemployed.

As the family function may be undermined by having a family member or members out of work, the conference is designed to examine, on a variety of levels, the nature of the effect of unemployment on families as well as to distinguish its impact among individual family members.

The focus will be primarily on families whose providers have been recently "laid off"; who have declared themselves to be financially bankrupt, or who expect that their jobs may be in jeopardy, rather than to those families who chronically suffer unemployment.

Maurice F. O'Shea of 51 High Street, Charlestown, acting president of BHCC, will greet the conferees and the morning moderator will be Jeffrey J. Zorintsky, executive director of the Massachusetts Department of Manpower Development. Dr. Fox will preside at the opening of the conference and moderate the afternoon program.

For more information, call 241-8600, ext. 565 or 320.

Is Charlestown An Impacted Area?

Dear Gloria:

In the late nineteen fifties, the Commonwealth of Massachusetts divided a new state agency. The name of this newly appointed firm was the Massachusetts Port Authority, or more commonly known as MASSPORT.

Since its inception, Massport has grown bigger and more powerful due to its holdings in communities such as Charlestown. In case some residents are not fully aware of those holdings please allow me to inform those residents here and now.

Massport controls in Charlestown alone, the following facilities: the Mystic-Tobin Bridge, Mystic Pier, Moran Terminal, and Hoosac Pier. Now let me ask the residents of Charlestown, if it is safe to say we are an IMPACTED AREA with those facilities operating within our community?

Now let us get to the theme of this letter. If Charlestown is an impacted area, what is Massport's policy regarding this matter? Does Massport have any guidelines which it adheres to pertaining impacted areas? Having answers to these informal questions could enlighten our community greatly.

While you're tossing those questions around inside your heads, let us move on to the crux of this dilemma. During the course of a year at Massport, a lot transpires. In that period some new jobs are developed, older employees retire, after school work programs and summer jobs for youths are set up, all which are processed by Massport's internal departments. Wouldn't it be comforting to know our residents were being considered for some of those positions due to Massport's impact on Charlestown? Too bad there isn't a liaison in the community to keep us abreast of Massport's activities.

Well, lets not put the horse before the cart, as the saying goes. Again I would like to reiterate the question, "IS CHARLESTOWN AN IMPACTED AREA?" My guess is that it will always be NO until WE ask the questions.

Sincerely,
John P. Kelly
30 Prospect Street

Open Letter To Charlestown Residents

roughly fifty Charlestown residents now on the Bunker Hill Development waiting list will be offered housing at the development as their turn comes up, over the course of the next two years. At the same time, we expect some black and Hispanic applicant families to be offered housing, as applicants move up the chronological list. The first such move-ins would likely occur in the fall or early winter of 1983. The BHA will not force or induce any family, of any race, to move into a development they do not wish to move to. If a minority family rejects occupancy at Bunker Hill, they still can obtain housing at either of whatever other two developments they have applied for. But the BHA will not deny any applicant family their right to live in the community of their choice.

By July 1983, all applicants for public housing in Boston will be screened for their rent paying history and suitability as tenants. Those same screening standards will be applied to all Bunker Hill applicants.

3. The Future of Polk Street

At the present time, there is not enough money to complete the renovation of the buildings along Polk Street. The BHA hopes to work with the Bunker Hill resident community, and representatives of the larger Charlestown community, to develop a plan for these buildings. Should they be reoccupied? Converted to elderly use? Demolished or made into recreation and social service space? Converted to town houses for Bunker Hill's larger families? These are the questions we hope to answer, in consultation with the community.

4. Multi-Service Center for Bunker Hill and the Community

As we proceed to reoccupy Bunker Hill Development, we hope to provide space for a comprehensive multi-service center at the development. We have identified a potential location in a substantially vacant building, and we are discussing possible funding and programs for the development with local Charlestown social service agencies.

In the last two years, Bunker Hill Development has made substantial progress towards the goal of stability, decency, and full occupancy. Together with the resident community, we have accomplished improvements that many of us would not have thought possible two years ago. We hope that in the next two years, we can advance the restoration of Bunker Hill, and secure the stability and tranquility of the development for years to come.

Sincerely,
Lewis H. Spence
Receiver/Administrator
Boston Housing Authority

Cinseruli Announces Councillor Candidacy

Joseph V. Cinseruli has officially announced his candidacy for District City Councillor. The district will be comprised of Charlestown, East Boston, and the North End.

Mr. Cinseruli, a lifelong resident of East Boston, has been active in community affairs for the past twenty-five years. Cinseruli, now an outspoken member of the Land Use Council, has many civic accomplishments to his credit.

He has been instrumental in helping East Boston to acquire both the Paris Street Pool and East Boston Stadium. The Heritage Apartments for the elderly in Maverick Square are another result of his longstanding involvement with the elderly. More recently, Cinseruli has been very visible in the protest against a genetic research firm which wanted to locate on Saratoga Street and is attempting to solve problems which have occurred due to the breakdown of the Chelsea Street Bridge.

Cinseruli states that he is especially concerned with those issues which face the basic needs of the elderly and lower and middle income families of East Boston, Charlestown, and the North End, including; public health and safety, problems surrounding a third harbor tunnel, and supervised recreational facilities for youth. He feels that similarities that exist among the North End, Charlestown, and East Boston will help to make this a very harmonious district.

For twenty-five years, Cinseruli's involvement, activism, and achievement have been solely in concern for the people of the community. He has always believed in standing up and being heard for what is right. He feels that this long standing record earns him the right to now seek this office. Cinseruli intends to transform his community activism into a candidacy that will reflect the same concerns he has always strived to attain.

Thinking Out Loud

by Sal Giaratani

WHAT A GUY—That guy who went cross country marrying rich, lonely women ought to have his head examined. Imagine marrying over 100 different women! The guy should be certifiable without a doubt! And what's worse, he looks terrible. An emotional Ponzi scam if I ever saw one. He only proves there's a sucker born every minute and in his case at least one hundred added to the list...

WHAT HAPPENED—Saw Joe Cocker on Saturday Night Live and just wanted to know what happened to his voice, it sounded like he swallowed a chain-linked fence.

KUDOS TO MICHAEL LANDON—This week's special episode of "Little House: A New Beginning" was an excellent anti-drug drama that should be repeated on a regular basis.

Who says "Little House" is escapism, not this past Monday anyways...The only thing I want to know though, what happened to Landon's hair. He looks like the Silver Fox now.

NIXON'S COMING BACK—Don't worry, it's not to the White House. He's scheduled to host an upcoming Cable TV series on world leaders. Gotta hand it to Nixon, it takes a big man to come back into the limelight as he has done.

HARE RAISING IDEA—Watch out Bugs Bunny, Richard Stewart has "hare raising" plans for you. Stewart hopes to sell franchises across the country for Hop Scotch restaurants. The menu will feature - you guessed it - southern fried bunny.

None of this, I suppose is earth-shaking except that, somehow I just don't cotton to the idea. I don't wish him any bad luck but somehow eating southern fried wabbit seems un-American.

To me the whole idea is Elmer Fuddish!

GOOD SHOWING—Showed citywide candidate Diane Modica around the K. of C. Hall last Friday during the Community Center's Birthday Party and she was well received by all.

BOTTOM LINE—Hope everyone has a Happy

Valentine's Day. Give someone a rose, tell them what your feelings are. It never hurts to tell someone special, something special.

Louise Shields, Volunteerism At It's Best

by Karen Miller

Since Louise Shields has been volunteering at Charlestown's Rutherford

Avenue Nutrition Site, she's hardly missed a day. She sincerely feels that these past years in Kit Clark

Senior House's hot lunch program have been three of the nicest years she's spent.

Charlestown born and raised, Louise was the oldest of nine children — eight girls and one boy. Her parents came to this country from Cork, Ireland, with relatives in Galway and Roscommon. Louise feels fortunate to have been able to visit Ireland four different times. She's travelled all throughout its beautiful countryside and kissed the Blarney Stone on each of her four trips.

From Ireland, her parents settled in Charlestown to raise their family. Louise's father worked for the Boston & Maine Railroad and her mother waitressed at Marston's, a then-famous restaurant on Hanover Street in the North End.

As a young girl, Louise attended St. Mary's Grammar School and Charlestown High. She then worked three years as a counter girl at the Old Thompson Spa, a very popular restaurant on South Street in Boston.

Louise married and raised three children. Her family now consists of fourteen grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. Louise says, "There's always something doing — an anniversary, a christening, a birthday, — and we love to get together for any and all occasions."

She later returned to work as a night supervisor for seven years at the Navy Yard cafeteria. She then enjoyed another seven years as a matron at the John Hancock Company until she retired over five years ago.

She continued to remain active in the community volunteering for three years at St. Mary's Monday night beano games. But as Louise explains, "For me, as for many people, retirement tended to be a let-down. You can really get in a rut if you don't keep busy. Working keeps you active, it keeps you feeling younger."

Her first introduction to the hot lunch program was through Gertrude Baranow, a friend who brought her down to Rutherford Avenue one day. To Louise's surprise, she knew many of the people who attended the meal site. "It wasn't at all like I thought it was going to be," says Louise. "The site is quite pleasant and the people are all very friendly and I love helping Margaret Turner (the site manager); we work very well together. I truly look forward to coming in each day."

Margaret Turner has been Rutherford Avenue's manager since the site opened nine years ago. On behalf of the site participants and herself, she appreciates Louise's hard work. "Louise is a warm and understanding person as well as a conscientious and dependable worker. She is always there when I need her. It would be hard to get along without her. We all hope she knows how much she's appreciated."

Cooking and reading are some of Louise's favorite activities. She also enjoys walking which she does from her apartment on historic Main Street to the nutrition site and back again.

Louise's love for Charlestown is still quite strong. She says she's seen lots of changes but feels that Charlestown is still the friendly, close-knit community she's always remembered.

Reunion Planner

Pop Warner Corner

The Pop Warner Banquet was held on Saturday, January 22, 1983 at the Knights of Columbus Hall. It turned out to be a real fine time for all.

We would like to thank Bill Connell for the fine job he did as Master of Ceremonies. The John McCormick Scholarship was a tie and went to both Dorine Cannarazzo and Shawn Farley. Also thanks to Dennis McNeil for his fine donation.

We would like to thank following stores for their donations of food and tonic: Collier's Market, Middlesex Market, Speedy Wong's Badger Coin Shop, Steve's Variety, and Deli Delight. Thanks to Maureen Kane, Ronnie Raymond, and Pat Locke for their assistance and to all the people who worked on making the sandwiches and serving the meals. We would also like to say thank you to the businesses and clubs in Charlestown for their fine support throughout the year. We hope more businesses and clubs will help us out next year so we can keep the program going strong.

There will be a general meeting on Monday, March 28, 1983 at 8:00 p.m. at Memorial Hall, 14 Green Street to discuss fund raising. We would appreciate a big turn out for this meeting.

Thanks,
The Board

Get "Friars" The "Must" Win

by Bob DeCristoforo
Boston University was never noisier than this past Saturday as Christopher Columbus and Bishop Fenwick met in another Must Win situation for both teams, and the results was a superb Columbus win as the Friars walloped Fenwick 7-4 to go back into the top spot in the tight Catholic League race.

It was an outstanding team victory as the "Town team" did just what it had to do. Keying the victory was the goaltending of senior Jimmy Nichols, who as usual, came up with the big save when it counted most.

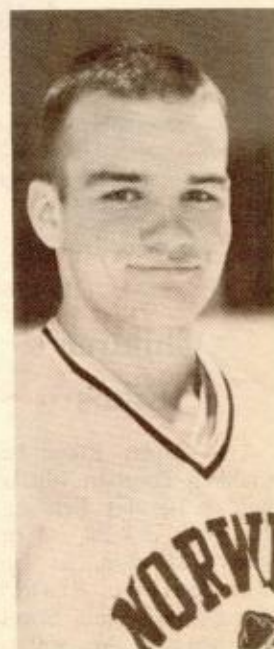

Jimmy Vesey continues to prove who is the best as he turned in another 5 point performance (2 goals - 3 assists).

Paul Wrenn scored 2 goals, Brian Ward, Billy Nolan, and Mike Fowkes chipped in one each in the very exciting game.

The Hockey Friars are now 11-3-1 overall and 8-3-1 in the league.

John Martin At Norwich

John Martin

by Bob DeCristoforo

Right now, according to Public Relation Director George Turner of Norwich University, the Cadets are in first place in their ECAC Division II (West) with a record of 9-3-0. Overall the team is 11-4-0 and if they make the playoffs this season it will be their sixth straight berth.

Playing a left wing position is freshman cadet John Martin of Charlestown. Going into Friday's game against Middlebury, John has 3 goals and 4 assists.

Breaks Scoring Record

Congratulations to Dan Fitzpatrick, a senior guard at Pope John High School, for breaking the all-time Pope John leading basketball scoring record. Dan has 812 points with still more games to play. His present score beats the previous leading score of 806 points.

Dan is also the leading scorer in the Catholic Central League with an average of 20 points per game.

Dan is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Fitzpatrick of 46 Allston Street, Charlestown.

C.Y.H.A. News

Last Saturday's dance was great! C.Y.H.A. is a little stronger financially thanks to the many parents and friends who attended.

The dance was Joan O'Brien's idea and she and Pam Enos made it happen. Thanks also to Denise Ezekiel, Marty O'Brien, Kevin Roche, Mike Walsh and the Team Managers.

Our sponsor money is coming in slowly but surely. Hockey still has a magic ring to it here in Charlestown. We want the boys to have every opportunity that their successful counter-parts from the "Golden Years" once had. Volunteers make it all happen. C.Y.H.A. will be looking for lots of instructors, coaches, and managers, as well as Board members for the coming year.

Anyone interested can leave his or her name with Kevin Roche at 241-8200 and you will be contacted.

MDC Considering New Pumping Station

by Maria Girvin

No objections were made at the recent MDC hearing concerning future plans for the Charlestown Pumping station.

Although no definite decision has been made on the pumping station, it appears the MDC wants to build another, larger station in the same vicinity as the old one, near MBTA property located on the opposite side of the Alford Street Bridge. The MDC's study of the pumping station is part of an overall study of the existing sewer system.

This option of rebuilding appears more practical than rehabilitating the existing station, now located at the foot of the Edison Plant.

Should the station be built, it would be completed in 1989 and paid for through the cherry sheets of Boston, Somerville, Cambridge, and Medford.

The new station would help prevent sewer overflows into the Mystic River, which does occasionally happen now at the Amelia Earhart Pumping Station. MDC spokesmen claim the new station could handle any industrial growth which is expected in Cambridge. However, no population growth is expected in the areas surrounding the Charlestown station.

The pumping station conveys wastewater from surrounding areas to the Deer Island Sewerage Treatment Plant in Winthrop. Constructed in 1890, the plant is presently functioning properly, having undergone several engine overhauls and other maintenance procedures as would be expected of equipment nearly 100 years old. However, according to Associate MDC Engineer Phil Carbone, now is the time to consider overhauling or rebuilding the pumping station before the existing station malfunctions.

To date, the pumping station uses diesel engines to pump approximately 29 million gallons of sewerage per day through miles of underground pipe to the Deer Island Treatment Facility. The last pumping station built by the MDC was on Deer Island in the 1970s.

The Deer Island Treatment plant is scheduled to be expanded.

Views On Dental Health

by Jeffrey D. Cohen,
D.M.D.

THE ABCESED TOOTH

When an abcess hits you, you'll know it! The pain is severe and constant, with the side of the face swelling in a few days. This is an emergency.

The abcess normally starts with a cavity which is left untreated. The bacteria begin their treacherous work by destroying the outer case of enamel, then the inner (more sensitive) part of the tooth called the dentin. Eventually, the cavity will invade the innermost part of the tooth, called the pulp where the nerves and blood vessels are. Now, you've got trouble and you'll know by the pain. It is caused by the swelling of the blood vessels against the nerves since the pulp is surrounded by rigid walls.

The pulp loses the battle and slowly dies, leaving the tooth full of decomposed tissue and swarming with germs. When the germs reach the tip they will set about making an abcess. Then they will proceed to gradually destroy the surrounding jawbone and tissue.

A filling will not help a root abcess. The decision now (after the infection is treated) is whether to save the tooth by root canal therapy or have it extracted. This pain and possible tooth loss can be prevented by having cavities filled early.

A Real Estate Office On The Move

Very few local real estate firms offer as diversified an array of services as Century 21 Silva Realty Associates.

Established in 1974 by Dan Silva, Century 21 Silva Realty Associates has grown from a small independent (Silva Realty) dealing primarily in the sale of single, two and three family houses into a large franchised operation offering in addition to residential, condominium and investment property sales, a separate division which offers rental services and property management.

With a sales and support staff now numbering over 21 and the assistance of the most advanced computerized Real Estate Software Program (Century 21 Silva Realty Associates made the transition to total computerization in 1980) the firm looks eagerly to the future and plans, in conjunction with Century 21 International, to add Real Estate syndications to its portfolio of services.

The Century 21 Syndication program is a program in which even the small investor can afford to purchase shares in limited partnerships which own large real estate investments.

When asked about the future of Real Estate in the Greater Boston area, Dan Silva, President of the firm, said, "The future of real estate really lies in the Condo Market, the two and three unit dwellings are becoming quite scarce these days, a lot of them have already been converted and the people who own the few remaining two and three family homes are holding on to them as they realize how valuable (particularly three deckers) they have become."

And finally, as any optimistic real estate professional would respond when asked when is the best time to buy, "today is always the best time to buy".

Century 21 Silva Realty Associates services the Somerville, Cambridge, and Charlestown markets and is currently interviewing persons interested in a career in real estate sales. Anyone interested in more information concerning a career in real estate sales please call Diane Nicholas at 776-6464.

CENTURY 21 REGIONAL DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS, Robert Hutchinson, recently visited the offices of Century 21 Silva Realty Associates at 176 Broadway, Somerville to present the 1982 Gold Club award. The award is presented to the Top 21 offices in the New England Region and is based on both the number of Sales and total dollar volume. Mr. Hutchinson also spent some time investigating the firm's computer. Century 21 Silva Realty Associates, which deals primarily in Somerville, Cambridge, and Charlestown, is the first local real estate office to offer computerized appraisals of both residential and commercial property, mortgage qualification and property management.
