Honestly- I'm super anxious. I never thought I'd say this about steroids but I'm scared to start weaning! I want to stay on them! They are 100% keeping a lot of my reactiness under control & it terrifies me how much I would be having anaphylaxis if I wasn't on them. I feel like I'm volunteering myself for death row by starting this weaning process. But I know I don't have a choice.
