Activity 2 – National Forest Reference Level
Task 5 – Submission

The aim of Activity 2 is the development of the National Forest Reference Level (NFRL) and its submission to the UNFCCC. The submission of the NFRL is one of the key requirements under the UNFCCC for countries to be able to receive results-based payments as agreed in several COP decisions. The NFRL will be developed consistent with all relevant UNFCCC decisions and IPCC Good Practice Guidance and Guidelines and in the context of national development objectives. The submission of the NFRL to the REDD+ Info Hub on the UNFCCC REDD+ Web Platform will comply with existing international guidance on REDD+.

One of the tasks under Activity 2 is Submission. The final draft of the NFRL will be reviewed by the country national focal point and other relevant national authorities and finally submitted to the UNFCCC for public and international consideration.

Term: 11 Days

The preparation of the Submission is based on the following sub actions:

- 1) Collection of final comments from national authorities
- 2) Adjusting the format and final considerations
- 3) Submission to the National Authority

Methodology

- Collection of final comments from national authorities (5 days)
- Adjustment of the format and finalization of the NFRL (6 days): the NFRL will be formatted according to the UNFCCC requirements and finally submitted to the National authorities for their submission to the UNFCCC by the national focal point
