The Klessens Team Up For The Annual Provincetown 'Swim For Life'

A whale tangled in lobster gear caused some anxious moments for over 200 people on Sept. 12 as they prepared to take part in the "Swim For Life," a fundraiser for AID charities.

It was determined that the whale might endanger the swimmers along their planned swim route, so volunteers moved flags and buoys inshore and out of the way of the stranded whale, and the swim got underway some 90 minutes later. In the meantime, rescuers worked to cut away the lobster gear and the whale swam free.

Among those taking part in the charity swim were Sally and William Klessens, who teamed to participate in the 11th annual event to raise funds for local HIV/AIDS social service organizations. The swim was a 1.4 mile open water swim across Provincetown harbor with

210 swimmers from across the country participating this year!

For the second time, Sally, a former Miss Somerville, entered the $1,000 Club for raising over $1,000. She was also the recipient of the Top Female Fund-Raiser trophy this year, raising a total of $1,835. As always, she is very grateful to all those individuals and business sponsors from the local area and in Provincetown who so thoughtfully and generously sponsored her swim this year!

Sally noted, "Your support is conducive to the maintenance of my positive attitude and enthusiasm to participate in this yearly event. Special thanks to the Citizens Bank, Store 24 on Main Street, the 99 Restaurant and Johnnie's Foodmaster, who donated a delicious sheet cake for the social event post swim."

While it's William's first year participating, he too was quite successful, raising $310. Both extend a big thank you to all their sponsors and want you to know that you are held in the highest regard.

Dog Owners To Meet On Sept. 30

There will be a meeting of Charlestown dog owners at 7:30 p.m. on Wednesday, Sept. 30 at the Mary Colbert Apartments, 20 Devens St. (use basement entrance).

The meeting will enable dog owners to discuss the possibility of requesting the Metropolitan District Commission (MDC) to build a pooch park in the new Paul Revere Park near the Charlestown Bridge.

Recently, the MDC completed a pooch park on a spacious Storrow Drive median and it has been welcomed by dog owners and non-dog owners alike. It is very important that as many people as possible attend the meeting as the only place for a pooch park in Charlestown would be in the Paul Revere Park, and time is of the essence.

Dog owners are encouraged to notify other dog owners of the importance of their attendance at this meeting.

HOW TO HELP YOUR REALTOR SELL YOUR HOME

Once your home is listed for sale, it may be difficult for you to step aside and let your agent take over. When prospective buyers arrive, you may want to stand by to point out the closet extenders, the hidden spice cabinet behind the kitchen door, the energy-saving storm windows, or the updated copper plumbing. If you really want to help, however, you'll leave the house whenever it is being shown.

We've found that the sales process does not really begin until buyers begin to voice their objections about a property. Sometimes these concerns are serious and would remove your house from consideration. Often, however, people voice objections as a defense mechanism because they really love the house and they want to buy it. We're trained to know the difference. If a seller is standing at the agent's elbow, the buyer won't be comfortable enough to let this process take place, and we could lose the sale. It may be hard for you to do, but it's crucial that you get out of the way and let the agents go to work.

For professional advice on all aspects of buying or selling a home, talk to the professionals at Monument Properties.

Friends of Charlestown Catholic To Sponsor Salute To Public Service

The Friends of Charlestown Catholic Elementary School are planning a Salute to Public Service and vacation package raffle for Sunday, Oct. 25 from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Knights of Columbus Hall, 75 West School St. The fund-raising event will include a Salute to Public Service award ceremony, brunch and entertainment by Charlestown's a cappella group "Wednesday at Seven," former members of the Majestic Knights Drum & Bugle Corps, along with an opportunity to win a vacation package.

In recognition of the many illustrious alumni of the three former parochial schools in Charlestown, St. Catherine of Siena, St. Francis de Sales and St. Mary's, the Friends Committee has chosen to hold an annual event honoring former students who have achieved distinction in their careers.

This year's awards will honor four individuals whose lives in public service exemplify the qualities, values and work ethics that Charlestown Catholic strives to instill in each student that passes through its doors.

The honorees include: Judy Powers Evers, regional coordinator of the Mayor's Office of Neighborhood Service and graduate of St. Catherine's Elementary School; the Honorable Allen Jarasitis, associate justice of the Charlestown District Court and graduate of St. Mary's Elementary School; William McCabe, former commissioner of Public Safety and Lt. Col. in the Mass. State Police, now director of Public Safety at Emerson College, graduate of St. Francis de

Wodiczko To Portray 'Let Freedom Ring' On The Bunker Hill Monument

The Institute of Contemporary Art (ICA)/Vita Brevis inaugural exhibition of "Let Freedom Ring" continues with the showcase of artist Krzysztof Wodiczko's three-night projection on the Bunker Hill Monument in Charlestown, beginning at sundown on Thursday, Sept. 24 and ending on Saturday night, Sept. 26. The 30-minute projection will begin at 8 p.m. each night, and is scheduled to run four times until 10 p.m.

In the Bunker Hill Monument projection, the artist will literally project video images with sound onto the historic monument. Wodiczko animates the monument through projections of interviews with citizens of Charlestown who speak freely of personal experiences.

Wodiczko recently became the fourth artist in the world to win the Hiroshima Art Prize, which is awarded every three years to a contemporary artist whose work contributes to world peace.

"Let Freedom Ring" is the inaugural exhibition for ICA/Vita Brevis, a bold new approach to contemporary art and audiences. It commissions artists from around the world to create temporary works of art in untraditional and unlikely settings: public parks, abandoned buildings, historic sites, rooftops and riverbanks. The Freedom Trail was chosen as the first of the Vita Brevis sites for artists to transform.

Other artists in the exhibit a Jim Hodges, Mildred Howard and Barbara Steinman. Hodges creates an aural landscape at the Old North Church using sound via wind chimes as a counterpart to the lanterns that signaled Paul Revere's famous ride. Howard evokes struggles to emancipation through her railroad tracks and cannon balls inside the Old South Meeting House. Steinman observes and reconfigures the meaning of the monuments in the Boston Commons through banners lit at night in the Parkman Bandstand.

For recorded information about "Let Freedom Ring," call (617) 266-5152. For additional information about the artists and the exhibition, please call the ICA at (617) 927-6617.

Note to residents: According to the ICA, some parking spaces on Monument Square will be reserved for the production companies on Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Charlestown Artists' Group To Present 'An Evening With Claude Monet'

The Charlestown Artists' Group and the Boston National Historical Park invite the public to join them for an evening with Claude Monet and Professor Paul Hayes Tucker on Thursday, Oct. 8, at 7 p.m. at the Commandant's House in the Charlestown Navy Yard.

Professor Tucker, a Charlestown resident, is donating his expertise and time to the community to enable the Artists' Group to bring art programs to the Charlestown community, educational as well as cultural. In the planning stage, for example, is a children's program at the Charlestown Branch Library, scheduled over several Saturday mornings this winter.

Tucker will speak about Claude Monet's life and art which spanned the last two centuries (1840-1926). Monet's 19th century influence is evidenced by his leadership in the impressionist group with the painting, "Impression: Sunset." Later in the century, he devoted his art work to several series - the Rouen Cathedral, his cypress trees and his grain stacks, for example - all of which were exhibited at the Museum of Fine Arts Boston in 1990, curated by Tucker.

In this century, one of Monet's concentrations was another series: a number of views based on the water lilies and the Japanese bridge seen from his water garden in Giverny, France, his home outside Paris. These works and other paintings, totaling over 85 in all, are currently in the smash exhibition, "Monet in the 20th Century," guest-curated by Tucker.

The exhibition opened at the Museum of Fine Arts Boston on Sept. 20 and runs through Dec. 27.

You will not want to miss the opportunity to hear Tucker speak on one of this and last century's premier artists, and to participate in this unique Charlestown happening. Autographed copies of Tucker's books will be available to purchase.

Tickets for the event are available through the Artists' Group of Charlestown, P.O. Box 281, Charlestown, Mass. 02129, or by telephoning 242-4046 or 242-4485.

Mayor And AT&T Wireless Services 'Ring In' The School Year

Mayor Thomas M. Menino marked the start of the school year by presenting each school with a valuable communication tool - a wireless phone.

The phones and airtime were donated by AT&T Wireless Services and Ericsson Mobile Phones as part of a nationwide Safe-Schools program brought to all Boston public schools - elementary, middle and high schools. Valued at $125,000, the gift represents one of the largest donations under this national program.

"Each of the 128 schools in Boston received a wireless phone as part of our ongoing efforts to modernize the technology of our schools," said Menino. He went on to say that "this is just the type of public/private partnership that we are focusing on to harness the strength of the private sector to support our schools."

Free Depression Screening At MGH*Charlestown Health Center

MGH*Charlestown HealthCare Center invites you to learn about the signs and symptoms of depression and to participate in a free screening as part of National Depression Screening Day, Thursday, Oct. 8.

You are invited to join with friends and health center staff to learn about this common problem that affects more than 17 million Americans each year and is believed to cost our economy $27 billion annually through lost productivity, higher susceptibility to illness and, on occasion, even death.

One in every four American women and one in every 10 American men will experience at least one episode of major depression in their lifetime. Sadly, fewer than half of these 17 million Americans seek treatment, even though treatment significantly helps 80 percent of those affected.

Common symptoms of depression include loss of interest or pleasure in activities, feelings of hopelessness, worthlessness, restlessness, irritability, changes in sleep and appetite, loss of energy and, on occasion, thoughts of death or suicide.

Two free screenings will be held in the second floor conference room of the MGH*Charlestown Health Care center from 10 to 11:30 a.m. and from 5 to 6:30 p.m. on Thursday, Oct. 8.

There will be a short talk, a question and answer period, a video presentation, a free screening and an opportunity to meet privately with a mental health professional to discuss the results of screening.

Screening results will not yield a definite diagnosis of depression, rather they will indicate whether referral for further evaluation is needed.

For further information or to make a reservation, please call 724-8200.

BOB D'S BEAT BY BOB DeCRISTOFORO

◆ Making Strides . . . On Sunday afternoon, a group of Charlestown kids, a group of college kids and a group of Boston Police Officers had more in common at the Boston Common than they may have ever realized. The Charlestown kids were our Tampa-bound Newtowne Street Hockey/Roller Blade Champions, the college kids were the members of the Boston College Ice Hockey team, and the police officers were some real good guys from Area A, which serves our community. The "Mini-Hockey Tournament" was part of the first annual Making Strides for Cancer Day, organized by the Boston Police Department.

For me, the day was a triple success, because I knew many of the participants on all three teams, and seeing them come together for a real good cause is what it is really all about. I must thank our Youth Officer Ted Boyle and Officer Cecil Jones for the invite. A very special thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Jim Tallent and all those who came to watch and, of course, thanks to the Newtowne team of Jimmy Tallent, Mike Sweeney, Brian Dole, Greg Poole, Paul Hennessey, Joe Tallent and Jamie Hutchins for their very active roles. I think we made even more than we might have imagined.

◆ High School Prep Notebook . . . Charlestown defeated Dorchester 32-6 in a Boston City League home opener. Townie Tri-Captain senior Lamont Harris had a pair of touchdowns. His first of the year, a nifty 33-yard run, was the game winner. Tri-Captain Cedric Warren gave the Townies an early lead, and Andre Channer's fumble recovery that marched home 40 yards was the football buster. Tri-Captain Tony Hobbs' 48-yard TD run put the icing on the victory cake. Phil O'Neil was the QB of record, replacing injured starter Fred Arroyo.

In other league action, 'F to G' will be the words heard around South Boston. F is junior quarterback Billy Finklea, and G is senior captain Manny Goncalves. The duo combined for two touchdowns as the City Pointers topped O'Bryant 19-0. East Boston needed a big second half to defeat Madison Park, and they got it jetting off to a 22-6 win piloted by Rick Brisson. Furlance Bascombe had two touchdowns as West Roxbury buried Burke 31-0. In non-City League games, Latin Academy was rocked by Cathedral 30-0, and Boston English took a solid hit falling to Shawsheen 28-8.

Over in the Catholic League, it was an enjoyable morning catching up with Savio Prep Athletic Director Jim Doherty and Arlington Catholic Athletic Director Dan Shine in East Boston. It brought back some very pleasant memories. On the field, Savio Prep took an 8-0 lead late into the fourth quarter, but AC star Ryan McInerney erupted, scoring three touchdowns for the Cougar 23-8 win.

Our other Catholic friends had a very tough weekend. Oliver Ames stopped Malden Catholic 18-7. Tyngsboro defeated Pope John 13-6. BC High was upended by Bridgewater/Raynham 28-14. St. Clement was shutout by Manchester/Rockport 6-0, and Catholic Memorial was shutout by East Bridgewater 26-0. Bayo Owolewa and Steve Barry had the touchdowns for Boston Latin as the Wolfpack tipped Matignon 13-0.

In the battle of nonleague giants, Everett rolled 28-14 over Tewksbury. Nick Nazario and Dianond Ferri, remember them?, led the way. Everett has its mind on another Super-bowl run.

On the soccer board, Charlestown split its opening pair, defeating South Boston, but falling to Eastie. Charlestown opens home today at the field.

◆ Pop Warner Corner . . . On Sunday morning at the field, I saw a tremendous program. Charlestown Pop Warner was hosting South Boston Pop Warner, back in operation after 20 years. Seeing so many actively involved in such a very positive experience is a tribute to both the Charlestown and South Boston communities. Hopefully, many of these same participants will move on to the high school prep and college scene in the future. This is where it all begins and the support here must continue there. You can all be proud of what you are doing!

◆ College Board . . . Boston College is certainly a great place to watch a football game, and on Saturday afternoon I did just that. BC is off to its best record in years, and I expected to see a win. I wasn't disappointed. The Eagles spotted Temple a 7-point lead, but then it was all BC. Mike Cloud led the way in the 31-7 victory. Sitting over at BC, I wondered how one could not want to go to college!

Northeastern fumbled away a big opportunity in the closing minute, and fell to William and Mary 24-21. Merrimack pounded Assumption 42-12. Don Bosco alum Calvin Bryant had 194 yards rushing and one touchdown.

Salve Regina kept Bridgewater State winless defeating the Buccaneers 21-17. Plymouth State made it two straight, defeating Brockport 21-16. Let's give Greg McNeil's school a high five! Curry College snapped a 17-game losing streak, topping Maine Maritime 19-8.

POP WARNER CORNER

In what was described as the most successful weekend since this program's inception, over 2,000 fans jammed Charlestown High School field throughout the day as the Fighting Irish of South Boston got corned beefed and cabbageed as they were sent home with four losses and one win on the day. The folks from Southern Boston are a program to be reckoned with as this is their first year of organized football in over 20 years and are already competitive in the Bay State League. They won't be a pushover when they return here to close out the season.

Neil Gillis, Matty Dyer and Joey Burke all hit paydirt to lead the "D-Team" Townie offense to a 21-12 victory. Joel Castillo, John Collins, Tim Buhay and Taylor Simpson shut-down the Southie offense late in the game to defuse any thought of a Southie comeback.

P.J. Arroyo had another multiple touchdown day to lead the "C-Team" to a 33-6 trouncing of the Fighting Irish. Angel Quinones, Jason Castillo and John Woods also recorded scores on the day against a much-improved Southie defense. David Grace, Reuben Calderone and Kevin Smith's fine play improved the C-Team to 2-0 after two weeks into the season.

Quarterback Chris D'Anjou engineered one Townie drive after another to lead the "B-Team" to a 39-12 victory. Jon "Bucky" Jones and Jimmy Murphy registered five Townie touchdowns and John Allen scored on a 20-yard touchdown pass as this team has an arsenal that league foes are becoming quite concerned with. Donald Twomey, Paul Johnson and Anthony Vitale were stalwarts on defense throughout the game.

Ryan Getchell and Ryan Arroyo busted through a tough Southie defense on their way to a grinding 13-6 "A-Team" victory. Mike Doe hooked up with Mark Matarazzo for the all-important conversion which clinched victory as the A-Team improved to 2-0. Antonio Cepeda, Kevin O'Neil and Rizneil Rosa combined to stop a late Southie drive, which secured the fourth win on the day and the eighth in two weeks.

Ramblin Cameron Ortiz had a two-touchdown afternoon for the "E-Team" 11 who are ready to bust out as they ended up on the short end of an 18-12 score. Matt McLaughlin, Luis Vasquez, Matthew Whalen and Tommy Fasano played exceptionally well in a total team effort.

Once again, all the cheerleading groups deserve special recognition as they cheered on the blue and white to victory. The league's cheerleading competition has been scheduled for Oct. 17, and we hope to send busloads of fans to cheer them on to victory.

Special thanks to Jimbo Tucker who hustled and busted his way to exceed all 50/50 expectations and thanks to Jimbo Murphy, Jack Uberti and all the players and cheerleaders whose efforts on Saturday made this weekend a success. Thanks also to the city of Boston Parks Department for their efforts this past week and to the Boston Housing Authority and Boston Police Department for their support. Thanks to all our concession workers, especially Beth Taglilatela, who did not get to relax until the last penny was counted at 7:30 p.m. and to the many parents who helped out throughout the day.

Come join us at MOTOWN NITE on Friday, Oct. 16 at the Knights of Columbus hall as Kevin McGoff and "That Old Black Magic" bang out the hits of the 70's. Tickets are available down at the football field for $10 and we hope all parents and friends attend our first fund-raiser of the year.

The Townies are home again this weekend against a tough Dedham program, so come on down as games begin at 9 a.m. Disc jockey Brendan Coleman has again been informed to pump up the volume.

Thanks,
John Taglilatela

News From Charlestown Catholic Elementary School

During the week of Sept. 27 and Oct. 4, students from Charlestown Catholic will be selling candy bars and boxes of candy. All items sell for $2. The fund-raising goal for the school is $30,000.

This money that is raised goes into the regular operating budget of the school. In order to maintain the tuition level, these fund-raising goals need to be met. Students and parents appreciate the support and assistance that the residents, organizations and business people so generously give to this and to all of our school activities.

There will be no school at Charlestown Catholic on Friday, Oct. 2. Teachers will join with the faculties from the Catholic schools of South Boston, East Boston and the North End to participate in a workshop on respecting and appreciating differences. This workshop will be held at Gate of Heaven School in South Boston.

Each person is unique and that uniqueness is what makes each person special. At Charlestown Catholic, teachers and students strive to appreciate and respect the unique gifts and talents of one another. This theme of respect is integrated throughout the school day.

Through this workshop, teachers will learn techniques to address the multitude of differences teachers and students meet in their interactions with one another.

'Here We Go, Charlestown!'

"Here we go, Charlestown, here we go!" These words could be heard all over Medford Street from our 90 well-behaved young girls during our first Pop Warner home game against Southie last Sunday.

I want to again thank everyone who came out to watch and, what I appreciated the most is the fact that you all stayed to watch not just one team, but all five teams. Parent and town support is very important to all these kids, and to the Pop Warner staff.

Our concession stand was booming under the direction of Beth Burton Taglilatela. If it was not for her organizational skills, Tank's running around and all the parents who volunteered for a couple of hours during the day, it would not be so successful.

I hope everyone noticed how well-kept the field was. Again, a few board members and some of our excellent coaches worked real hard the day before the game to make our field look so good.

MORE TAX LAW CHANGES TO CONSIDER

As we move into fall and you focus on your year-end tax planning, don't over-look tax legislation passed this summer. The Internal Revenue Service Restructuring and Reform Act of 1998 was signed into law on July 22. The law contains a wide variety of provisions. You will want to factor those that affect you into your tax planning. Among the key provisions in the new law are the following:

• A change in the capital gains holding period. Under prior law, assets had to be owned for more than 18 months to qualify for the 20% and 10% capital gains tax rates. Retroactive to January 1998, the new law reduces the holding period for these rates to more than 12 months.

• Modifications in the rules applying to Roth IRAs. One provision closes the loophole that avoided the 10% early withdrawal penalty when converting a regular IRA to a Roth IRA and then withdrawing some or all of the funds before the required five-year holding period. Another provision will make it easier for older individuals to convert regular IRAs to Roth IRAs. Starting in 2005, minimum required retirement plan distributions will not have to be included in the calculation of income used to determine whether one qualifies for a Roth conversion. Also, taxpayers who convert a regular IRA to a Roth IRA in 1998 may elect to have all the income recognized in 1998, rather than ratably over a four-year period.

• Shift in the burden of proof in certain tax court cases from the taxpayer to the IRS.

• Relief for innocent spouses. For example, divorced or separated taxpayers can make an election to be separately liable for the income each spouse earned rather than being jointly liable for the total tax bill on a joint return.

• Extension of attorney-client privilege to accountants and their clients. The privilege does not cover criminal cases, nor does it apply to advice given to corporate taxpayers in connection with tax shelters.

If you would like more information about the new law, or help in determining how any of its provisions might affect your situation, please contact us.

Join Your Friends And Neighbors For A Five-Mile Walk To Fight Breast Cancer

On Sunday, Oct. 4 a team from the MGH*Charlestown HealthCare Center will join the fight against Breast Cancer by walking in the sixth Making Strides Against Breast Cancer five-mile pledge walk.

The Health Center team would once again like to invite the residents of Charlestown, their families and friends to join them in this walk. The center will be open at 8 a.m. for the participants to have breakfast and drop off their pledge sheets. Transportation will be provided to the Hatch Shell for the festivities and the start of the walk. Because of the large number of participants, the start time is staggered from 8 to 10 a.m.

According to the American Cancer Society, approximately 4,500 Mass. women will be diagnosed with breast cancer this year, and 1,100 Bay State women will die from the disease. One of these women could be your mother, sister, wife, daughter or best friend.

Funds raised from this walk will support scientific research on the causes of breast cancer and ways to prevent it; Reach to Recovery, a one-to-one support program for women with breast cancer; a mobile mammography van that makes breast cancer screening accessible to all women; support for legislation on mammography quality standards, insurance coverage and educational efforts.

To join the MGH* Charlestown Health Center Team or to sponsor the team, call Karen Murphy-Lind R.N. at 724-8155.
