In today's technologically advanced world, scams are becoming a grim reality. People all across India have been receiving fake calls on WhatsApp and IMO in the name of JIO lottery through which they get scammed. To avoid JIO lottery scams, participants are encouraged to contact JIO Head Office through call service, e-mail or live chat service. KBC is already warning the customers continuously to beware of fake calls that might ask customers to transfer tax money in order to claim their 25 lacs cash prize. Official websites of KBC and JIO have been flashing scam alert messages continuously to save viewers from online scams about KBC Lottery.

JIO LOTTERY SCAMS:

Many fake websites are operating at the moment who claim to be the official websites of KBC and JIO. Few such websites have also announced KBC winners 2021 to lure internet surfers into their scams. They provide e-mail addresses and phone numbers of KBC and JIO on their websites that are fake to trap potential participants. It is to be noted that the only credible source of information about registration method and lottery check are the official Sony Prize and KBC websites. Other websites that claim to be related to KBC or JIO lottery are counterfeit. Users can easily identify such websites through the content available on these sites.
