And didn't I wake with a weeping and a wailing
 But now all around me is so dark and so dreary
 He said t'was to better his fate, he went roaming

The grief in my heart was too deep to conceal
 All dark and all silent, no piper, no reel
 But what would be gold to the joy I would find

My mother cried "Nora dear, what is your ailing?"
 Not even the sun through my casement shines cheery
 If he'd only come back to me tender and loving,

But all I could answer was Teddy O'Neill.
 Since I lost my darling love, Teddy O'Neill.
 Though poor, but my own darling Teddy O'Neill instrumental break

The instrumental break consists of two systems of three staves each (D, A, D). The first system is numbered 1 to 5, and the second system is numbered 6 to 10. Fingerings are indicated by numbers 1-5 on the staves. A repeat sign is present between the two systems, with first and second endings marked '1.' and '2.'.
