Take home your whole baby. Say NO to circumcision.

Circumcision is Unnecessary

No national medical organization in the world recommends routine infant circumcision. The majority of the world's men are intact.

Circumcision is Painful

Before being amputated, the foreskin is ripped away from the glands to which it is fused at birth. Anesthesia is not always used and even if it is, there is no way to be certain that it has taken effect.

Circumcision is Harmful

An adult foreskin is roughly fifteen square inches (the size of this leaflet). Removing it impacts its many functions such as reducing chafing during sex and providing pleasure via its thousands of specialized nerves.

Circumcision is Risky

Risks include excessive bleeding, skin bridges, infection, loss of the glans or entire penis and even death.

Circumcision harms babies and the men they become

- Did you know that circumcision...
- removes the penis's most sensitive parts
  - diminishes sexual pleasure for both a man and his partner
  - increases chafing during sex
  - decreases the size of the penis
  - does not effectively prevent HIV
  - violates one's right to bodily integrity
  - is not practiced by most of the world
  - kills an estimated 100-200 infants in the United States every year
  - removes more tissue than the most commonly practiced form of female genital mutilation

Why do jews cling so hard to circumcision? It's ridiculously barbaric.

I have visited Israel, although our tour group was not allowed near Gaza. I have seen what is happening in Israel. I have read all about it, including about Rachel Cory, I have blogged about it, but truly the most eye opening was: I saw it with my own eyes. I spent 3 weeks touring Israel. What is happening there is beyond reason. The fact that the US government supports it and floods their govt with millions every week is absolutely unconscionable. I completely see your point. They are tenaciously insane.

NO MA'AM, IT'S NOT A PRANK ... "I actually had one of my worst nightmares happen today... I am a server and I had a party of 17 people come in. Went to say hello and to start service. I ask them "what are we celebrating?" And they yell "a circumcision!" I literally felt like I was on a prank TV show .. I just stared at them like....what....and then they were like "well, a new baby and a circumcision! He's not here yet"... As I stand there completely immobilized and speechless, one young man goes on to say "but don't worry, now we have more tip for you!" And it's like the room is shrinking in on me and I'm starting to have an anxiety attack. There are gifts and blue balloons and people laughing and telling disgusting jokes about the child being mutilated and I'm spinning into and full in panic. I'm sweating and shaking and barely made it out of the room before I felt myself holding back tears. I looked at the other server who was taking care of them and just said "I'm not going back in that room". He didn't even ask questions because he knows and just said OK and took care of them alone. I was ready to lose my job over not serving a mutilation party but no one questioned me. I couldn't even bear to look at the helpless newborn as they toted him in a few minutes later. He's a victim and they celebrated his abuse. Sick. Sick." ~A friend

I've been a server for 7 years and this was the first time it's happened to me.

It was a foreskin joke. In retrospect I could have said I refuse to serve them but I was struggling just to comprehend the situation . I still can't even believe of all people I was the one to get them. I even had my savingsons bracelet on under my uniform ....what are the chances

Loving Mommyhood I don't agree with leaving it where she left it. All 3 of my boys and circ'ed and if I have more boys they will be as well! 😊 *mommyx4

Keryn Miller I don't think there is any harm in spreading info, although I disagree with her position on circumcisions, she isn't floosing them or arguing with them. Just leaving behind a little info.

The Antisemitic Roots of Intactivism She left anti-circumcision literature in a JEWISH TEMPLE.

That's like wrapping a mosque's doors with bacon.

That's like telling Christians they worship a false prophet.

It's a slap in the face to the Jewish community who opened their doors for her and her yoga class.

Niomi Faith Davidson Ah boohoo there's a difference this has to do with mutilating the most sensitive part of the genitals there are only cons to genital mutilation or as you people call it "circumcision"

There needs to be a MAJOR lawsuit against these judges and the lawyers who have allowed this nonsense to continue for so many months. This is outrageous and the entire thing reveals what a total mockery the JEWdicial system truly is (pardon my bluntness but this is precisely what is behind this atrocity). [REDACTED] has been placed in the hands of a despicable "man" who I am sure [REDACTED] is terrified of. He has been kept from his mother, who sought only to protect him from sexual torture, genital mutilation, and outright abuse. This child has been SEVERELY HARMED by this disgusting excuse for a court system. What needs to happen and pronto is that a NON-jewish lawyer needs to be sought out and a major lawsuit against every one of these criminals needs to be filed. They should all be rounded up and arrested. They are being paid off and you better believe that some of us know exactly who is doing the paying. This has gone on long enough. I am so angry.

Please let's all keep civil if we're going to discuss this. I would hate to have to add this to the banned topics because when you really think about it, this is something we really need to discuss as we are all accused of daily, if not weekly.

My concern is that a lot of Jewish doctors promote circumcision, very hard core. My Jewish OB/GYN LIED to me and said that circumcision HAD to be done in the hospital before we left (this was my first born child, a boy, and I was not an intactivist then. I told him I was CONSIDERING it as a way to push him back and stall for more time. He kept pushing and pushing until I said, 'I'm sorry, I can't do that to my son.' He left in a huff.

During the holocaust, many escaping Jews were identified because they were circumcised. I have always wondered if being able to hide in plain sight was at least partially to blame for so many jewish physicians and politicians pushing for it and defending it with sick fervor

I have also known for a long time. I have SEVERAL different profiles. One is a Jewish regret mom of 5 boys, 7 intact grandsons. I have Lindsey, a 32 year old Jewish woman who has her PhD in human sexuality (the idiots believe everything she says). I have a 20-something nerdy, cute girl who is into D&D. Everyone would SHIT if they even knew of the profiles I run. haha.

I MIGHT be able to save a baby! I need a female from here to either pretend to have lost a child from circumcision, or speak of your complication stories. The mom doesn't believe Web links, or photos. Only "personal accounts"...this may sound cruel/morbid but together we can save her sons life. He gets circumcised tomorrow if we don't try!

YES, I am INTACT. :)

And my father is German, but my mother is American of German-JEWISH and Filipina descent. She's extremely religious, but thankfully had the brains to protect me from circumcision. I think my German father also persuaded her not to cut me.

I could easily have become a victim of circumcision. I escaped the knife. And because of this, I feel obligated to speak out against circumcision. I created this profile to channel my rage and anger at this barbaric practice, also because I saw what was needed was an "angry cut man".

I hope you can forgive deception and I hope you don't tell everyone, because "David J. Bernstein's anger" works very well in discussions! :)

David J. Bernstein

PLEASE DON'T TELL ANYONE. Only a handful of people and now YOU GUYS know about this.

I worked hard to get the David Bernstein profile where it is. If this leaks to the cutters or other intactivists, it'll be a major blow to the movement.

So please, shhhhhh. :)

There is Judaism as a faith and a collection of ritual practices.

There is Jewishness as a secular ethnicity.

There is Zionism, namely support for Israel as a nation state.

Anyone who makes derogatory comments about any of these three concepts is at risk of being accused of being anti-semitic.

Public policy that disparages Judaism violates the First Amendment. Public policy that disparages Jewishness violates the equal protection of the law. Private opinions that disparage either Judaism or Jewishness are ill-mannered. The ban on anti-semitism protects both Judaism and Jewishness.

Zionism is part of geopolitics since WWII. We are all free to form our own opinions about the merits and demerits of Zionism, just as we are free to make up our own minds about the policies of any government around the globe. There are those who insist that to disagree with Zionism is anti-semitic, but that is a category mistake.

I believe that ending RIC in the USA is not possible until a fair number of religious and ethnic Jews are on board. If I am correct, that means that intactivists must carefully proscribe anti-semitism directed at Judaism or Jewishness. Otherwise, few Jews will get on board.

And am I mistaken, but is Dr. [REDACTED] Jewish by any chance? And so does he have a pro-circumcision bias?!

[REDACTED], no problem. I wasn't offended.

Also, here is some additional background about myself to put my comments in context: Not only am I one of the people who was involved with the San Francisco mgmbill, I have also had many encounters with ACLU representatives face-to-face in San Francisco. I couldn't speak for the organization as a whole but locally there seems to be a strong Jewish presence within the organization.

If you've studied world history, you know that something evil like baby circumcision doesn't take over a nation by accident.
