Leading with Courageous Vulnerability

Embrace Your Authentic Self through Transformational Change

TRUTH BOUNDARIES FREEDOM

Book Description (Draft):

What's wrong with leadership today? All around us, countless leaders are failing the well-being of their employees, their communities, and the environment, though their ineptitude, corruption, or downright tyranny. The current trend of win-lose leadership is leading to environmental and social collapse.

In Leading with Courageous Vulnerability you'll learn how a lack of vulnerability could be costing you as a leader, and actually make you more vulnerable to global threats.

If you feel overwhelmed, need support, or merely want to inspire future leaders through your own example, learn the answer to: "What connects great leaders across all time, space, and culture, and more importantly, what could I do to create that sense of leadership for myself?"

With a background in technology, Mathias has shared the principles of leading with courageous vulnerability worldwide, with major financial institutions as well as young entrepreneurs.

You'll learn what connects soldiers, mystics, and innovative entrepreneurs, as well as the power of failure, curiosity, and courage. Discover proven biological principles to boost your creativity and innovation, and practical ways to shift your perception to affect what truly matters most in your life and business.

If you're looking for the courage to do what you know you need to do, or are clear you need to look at things in a different way - read this book.

TRUTH BOUNDARIES FREEDOM

Table of Contents:

Chapter 1. “Moving from Complacency to The Power of Curiosity”:

- Why is curiosity an essential starting point for clarity, and leadership?
- What is the benefit of being able to listen to the Universe “whisper?”
- What connects the great leaders across all time, space, and culture? But even beyond that, what’s the thing that each of us can do to embody that sense of leadership for ourselves? (pg. 3)

Chapter 2. Moving from Invisible, to Visible, to Transparent (Part 1)

- Why can applying the principles of Visible, Invisible, Transparent, can help you better understand yourself, and put your focus on the things that matter most?
- Why is Acceptance, Skill, and Integration essential to being at choice, rather than at effect of a belief, event, or situation?
- Do you know how and why it’s possible to move from being “at effect” to “at cause” in as little as a moment? (pg. 4)

Chapter 3. Moving between Invisible, Visible, Transparent (Part 2)

- Learn how mastery, and transparency of perception can give you a “superpower” to “compress” time.
- Learn how societies “forget” past events and though doing so, put millions of human lives at risk
- Experience how shifting from “looking through fear” to “looking through love” could transform an area of life for you that matters most

Chapter 4. Understanding the Value of Transparency(Part 3): pg. 36

- Learn the one key that will help you make empowered choices that will ultimately serve you, your community, and the world.
- Are you transparent as a leader? What you can do to help others to skillfully interact with you in a way that generates results
- What exactly is the value of transparency, and how it has helped one company generate literally trillions of dollars in market share.

TRUTH BOUNDARIES FREEDOM

Chapter 5. “Ignorant, Arrogant, and Disconnected: the Real Costs...” : pg. 49

- What is the Dunning-Kruger Effect, and how confidence based on ignorance can work against you. As well as how being an expert can make you less confident in your skills and abilities.
- Learn the price of arrogance in leadership (think 9 figures) and its risks: (think financial losses, and jail time)
- The distinction between confidence and arrogance, and how it effects your life and business.
- Discover four types of Vulnerability, and how by NOT being emotionally vulnerable, you actually increase your physical vulnerability, and that of your city

Chapter 6. Caring for Yourself, your Team, and the World: pg. 61

- Learn how Care, and Love are an essential component to leading yourself and your Team
- Hear why (despite the reason) sacrifice alone is not enough
- Discover why Love is essential for the perception and understanding of the complete Truth
- How can spiritual maturity help unlock the “secrets” of the Universe?

Chapter 7 : Connecting Soldiers, Mystics, Innovative Entrepreneurs: pg. 68

- Learn about the “Participatory Anthropic Principle”, and how observing something helps you create it as an innovator
- Discover how true wisdom can only be gained by studying the history of war
- Learn about the “hard problem” of consciousness, and why more than 99% of scientists are unscientific in their approach
- Why should you prioritize training and readiness in the most important areas of your life?

Chapter 8: Failing to Success: pg. 80

- Learn the importance of psychological safety to discuss and experience failure, and how that’s directly tied to learning, creativity and innovation
- Learn why even when you fail, your are never “The Failure”
- See how “good intentions” are necessary but not sufficient, and why deep listening is critical to success

TRUTH BOUNDARIES FREEDOM

Chapter 9: “Couraging” to Success: pg. 86

- What courage really is on the inside out
- What connects Motivation and the strength of your “why”
- How willingness to be yourself is foundational for true freedom

Chapter 10: “Being Vulnerable - Open to Possibility

The Power of Vulnerability pg. 91

- Learn the one thing all humans need, that vulnerability is required to have
- Why your strong beliefs may be holding you back or may even kill you
- What Trust and Surrender have to do with confidence, and why to use both
- (in the right amounts)

Chapter 11: Leading with Courageous Vulnerability pg. 100

- Learn what connects the great leaders across all time, space and culture, but more importantly: "What can each of us can do to embody that sense of leadership ourselves?"
- Discover how the Principles of Leading with Courageous Vulnerability are essential to life continuing on Earth
- The importance of nurturing everyone’s creativity and what happens when we don't (Think WWII)
- Why to leverage the Power of creating from Unity (love, joy, peace) instead of Duality (creating from hate, being anti-something)

Chapter 12: Using the True Leader Triangle

- Learn whether you're a True Leader, or not-yet-a-True leader.
- You may be "Clearly an Asshole" Leader, an Ignorant Artist, or perhaps a Wounded Strategist. (Don't forget to bring your sense of humor when you read this chapter. ;) (pg. 109)

Chapter 13: “Innovating from the Edge”: The Power of the Edges

- You'll learn about a simple biological principle you can use in your life and business to increase your creativity and innovation.
- You’ve experienced this if you've ever been to the beach, or squished your toes in the mud of a riverbank. (pg. 121)

TRUTH BOUNDARIES FREEDOM

Chapter 14: “Living in the Fields of Possibility” pg. 128

- Learn why “organization porn” is on the rise and the benefits of energy flow
- Learn about your bodies’ “high-speed wireless system” and how to use it for your maximum health
- Learn how values and company culture are linked, so you can help create a cultures that aligns with what you value most

Chapter 15: What do we do with the "Bad Guys?" pg. 150

- This potentially controversial chapter is an open letter to those people and beings who are trying to manipulate our world with fear and control to accomplish their own ends.
- What if there was a declaration that anyone on the planet could agree to —so could start to deal in a constructive way with these individuals?
- Learn with those who are in “service to self” do what they do, and how we can take away their source of power, with love and maturity.
- Learn why to integrate our own “dark side” so we can have a clear head to deal with them, and create the world we really want to see.

 Full Chapter Included below! ***

Chapter 16, “Feeling Turbulent? You’re not Alone!”

- Find out the power of first principles, and how to save millions on building your first rocket ship.
- Learn how understanding what kind of system you are dealing with will help you to save the human race from total annihilation
- What are some of the foundational rules or building blocks that nature uses to create patterns that eluded scientists for years?
- Learn how could you use the building blocks of leading with courageous vulnerability to create an enlightened society

TRUTH BOUNDARIES FREEDOM

In Chapter 17, Harmonizing for Success

- You'll learn how to harmonize yourself with your purpose and your Soul.
- You'll also learn how you (and all other humans) are connected to the Earth the Sun, and to the stars beyond.
- You'll learn what billionaires need (but millionaires don't)
- Do you know how sunspots correspond with revolutions, and renaissances?
- How does studying history literally help someone successfully predict the future?
- Finally you'll learn about an advanced guidance system powered by the Cosmos itself.

In Chapter 18, Internationalizing and Connection:

- You'll learn how to bring the harmony you've created, and communicate it by learning your next language.
- You'll take the first steps to engage with and start to learn your next language of choice you feel inspired to learn, as well as learning a powerful sentence to drive your passion and purpose home to those who you listen to you.
- Finally, you'll write and powerfully translate words that you use that are most relevant to you, and hear an example of one woman making a difference that changed thousands of lives, and who may have even helped prevent a nuclear war.

Chapter 15. What do we do with the "Bad Guys?"

“The only thing necessary for the triumph of evil is for good men to do nothing.”
- Edmund Burke

In the previous chapter “Living in the Fields of Possibility” You learned about why, and how to sensitize yourself energetically in order to navigate more easily and effortlessly, as an individual, as well as learning questions to help you tune into the values of organizations, and whether they are primarily using the energies of love, or of fear and control.

This chapter will likely be far more controversial, but as a luminous leader in this specific time in history, you deserve to know some of these foundational components of the Universe. I trust that as you do, this expanded understanding will help integrate knowledge and wisdom within you, that you have learned throughout your life.

Whether you are energetically sensitive or not, have you experienced that this planet, everyone has ample enough food, shelter, and a bunch of opportunities to find and pursue their souls greatest unfoldment?

Or in many places on the planet do we exist within a system of laws, governmental regulations that are slowly appearing to strip humans of their God-given rights, and trying and attempting to put forth an agenda that instead of being based on truth and for the benefit of all, appears to serve only a small group of people at the expense of the many?

If you're like me, you've experienced the world like the latter, and working to make it more like the former. Now imagine we succeeded in creating a world that works for everyone and everything. Won't it be awesome?

Imagine we're all living in that beautiful world, and consider then what do we do with those that caused all this havoc in the past? Or said another way “what do we do with the “bad guys?”

TRUTH BOUNDARIES FREEDOM

“Do not answer questions have not yet been asked” - Is a very wise piece of advice, which ensures that the seeker of knowledge, only receives that which they are able understand and handle.

That said, for myself, and I think everyone in history, at some point has asked themselves this question: What do we do with the “bad guys?” Those individuals who to most of us, have done and said things that are psychopathic, greedy, and incredibly damaging to many many people, as well as environments and ecosystems.

If you consider yourself to have a weak stomach, or not ready to consider really confronting ideas about good and evil, that’s totally ok. I want to thank you and acknowledge you for getting this far in the book. I trust that that what you've read so far will be of benefit for you. I strongly suggest to just skip the rest of this chapter, and go to the next one. You can always come back later.

... Ok, if you’re still reading, that means that you’re ready to dive into some challenging and perhaps difficult material.

As I have shared before, please don’t believe a word I say, run everything through the filter of your own experience. If this is helpful, great. If not - no problem. Just let anything you don’t understand and agree with here just stay on the page, or audio book, if you’re listening to this.

CENSORING, PANDEMIC-ING, ALL THE THINGS...

By now, it’s practically common knowledge that the world seems to be run by a small group of people, that seem to be accumulating power for themselves, while subjugating the rest of us in various ways, some subtle, some blantly. This has only been amplified by the global Covid-19 pandemic, where many of the facts and ways of testing and measuring have appeared to be unscientific at their foundational level.

In addition, there has been widespread censorship and vilification of anyone, including legitimate medical professionals, who have pointed to the threat of our rights and civil liberties, by views propagated by global and national medical organizations. These organizations over-exaggerate the very real health risks caused by Covid-19, and the necessity of waiting for a “vaccine” to cure the issue, rather than using medication that has been FDA approved for over 50 years.

I am not going to argue that this situation has been planned, though there is some compelling evidence I have seen pointing to that fact.

It's also outside the scope of this chapter to consider “What do I do about this?” I trust that this book in its entirety, as well your own self-inquiry, research, and collaboration with others, including experts who do not have an alternate agenda, will support you in providing an answer to this daunting question. The answer, of course will vary widely over time, and depending WHO you are, and what are your own personal goals, obligations, and responsibilities.

What I'd like you to consider, in this chapter, is how could you, and by extension, the whole of humanity, could come to a place of deep understanding, and a stable mind-space to empower you to not just react emotionally, but see things with a deeper level of spiritual understanding, about how to deal with and handle those individuals who are perpetrating these acts onto humankind.

This is not a small ask. It takes massive amount of spiritual understanding and maturity to get to that place, especially considering the massive negative acts these individuals have perpetrated.

What if there was an open letter that everyone on the planet could sign that recognized and acknowledged these individuals for their role in our collective evolution while claiming our own sovereignty to create the world we want to live in? ... A declaration that anyone on the planet could agree — that if they did, authentically and really, could start to provide a balanced space of understanding, such that we, both individually and collectively, could start to deal in a constructive way with these individuals?

THROWING YOU INTO THE "DEEP END"

Earlier on in the chapter, you read: “Do not answer questions that have not yet been asked” Often times the most lasting lessons I've learned is one where I've been thrown into to deep end, then learned by my experience. Since you're still reading, regardless of your level of understanding, I'm going to give you that benefit of the doubt.

TRUTH BOUNDARIES FREEDOM

I'm going to metaphorically "Throw you in the deep end," then answer questions, that I believe may naturally arise from what you've read, and the experience of thoughts and feelings that may have come up as a result of what you have read.

WARNING: What you're about to read may be difficult, or bring up strong feelings. Please in no way make that mean anything about you. You are wonderfully perfect just how are made, and right where you need to be, in order to learn the lessons your soul needs to learn. Consider that ANYTHING outside yourself - that causes strong emotions or feelings to arise is a mirror to your own consciousness. I have found being offended and blaming are not helpful reactions... but rather just sitting with and being with whatever you're feeling, as a next step.

NOTE: Also, to be clear, this letter is not just written for "the 1%" or for "people who have money" — if you're on a path of light, prioritize service-to-others, or all, you're fully committed to making the world a better place, and have millions or even billions in the bank, this letter is not directly written for you, though you're welcome to agree with, and sign it. Also, may this chapter and book be a further reason to put everything you've got into supporting this transition. As someone who has resources, and knows how to wisely use them, we need your support now more than ever.

FINAL WARNING: If you're reading this, and you happen to be part of the service-to-self elite (you know who you are) be prepared to be seen and acknowledged in a way that you may not have been seen or acknowledged before - maybe ever. Yet, know that by reading this, you may open yourself up to an idea that could grow and jeopardize everything you've worked for. Consider yourself warned.

Ok! With those requisite warnings, here is "the deep end":

TRUTH BOUNDARIES FREEDOM

DEAR SERVICE-TO-SELF ELITES,

Dear Service-to-Self Elites, and those beings that are on the path of service-to-self on Earth. You know who you are.

We recognize and thank you for your path of service-to-self, by doing so, agitating and ultimately causing the raising of consciousness of billions of Souls on this planet to fully embrace a path of Unity, light and service-to-all.

We recognize that many of you have grown up with horrific childhoods. While despite receiving training to rule, and “the best” of what the material plane has to offer, you may have been subject to, and forced to participate in, acts of torture and unthinkable cruelty that tried to strip you of your humanity.

We also recognize that you are likely living under the constant fear of torture or death, in this life, or beyond, IF you stepped out of line, and turned from service-to-self, to service-to-all. Not only for yourself, but you could very well be living in fear of that happening for your family, and those you care the most about.

We recognize and forgive you for your seemingly horrific acts of human slavery and subterfuge through existing systems and carefully designed plans for human depopulation, recognizing that that may have been the only thing to you could do to wake us up.

We recognize that it is essential to acknowledge and accept the darkness, density and distortion within ourselves, to enable us to understand and accept you. Even though this is may be difficult, we understand we must be able to do this, so we that we can learn and embody the power of love, over hate, and transcend this current lesson for humanity.

We recognize that this does not take away or lessen the consequences you will face for what you’ve done, but rather the ability to understand and embrace the darkness inside, and outside of ourselves, enables each of us to be in a state of balance and harmony within and to be fully At Choice - which we know is essential to move forward both individually and collectively.

TRUTH BOUNDARIES FREEDOM

We also recognize and forgive you for harvesting the life energies of negative emotions of the rest of us on the planet, such as fear, sadness, and despair.

We understand that by having chosen a path of service-to-self, you've cut yourself off from being able to receive the all-pervading light, and love of God, and thus, the only energy and sustenance that can sustain you, is from the harvesting of the life-force of other beings.

However, we understand that on a Universal level that there are no truly no victims, and we recognize our complicity in allowing you to harvest and steal our life energy.

That said, we gently but firmly draw the line to say that we will no longer continue to give you sustenance from any fear, sadness, or any negative emotion, and that we will no longer be easy prey, but stand up in peaceful non-compliance, while demanding Truth and ethical behavior from those who call themselves our "leaders."

We recognize that taking the path of fear and control, instead of light and love, is a great sacrifice. We deeply acknowledge and thank you in advance for the suffering and disconnection you will endure yourselves, which could be for thousands of our earth-years, based on the negative karma you have accrued. We understand this will be to balance out the suffering and disconnection you caused others, to successfully fulfill the roles you chose to play in this Great Awakening.

We firmly and peacefully reclaim our individual and collective sovereignty, and the necessity to create a world that works for everyone, where each of us embraces an all-win paradigm.

For those of you who are politicians, we get that you were offered "the best" of what life had to offer, which could have included drugs and sexual experiences that violated the principles of free-will and consent for those involved. We understand and get that other elites have evidence of this, and are using it as leverage to blackmail you into compliance. This is not new in human history, nor unexpected.

TRUTH BOUNDARIES FREEDOM

What could be unexpected, is, whether, despite this, you would choose to stand with humanity, and take actions that while they could be called “political suicide” would support the thriving of everyone on the planet. Who knows? Maybe this was an agreement you made before this life to be involved with the dark to such a level — then turn, to benefit millions or billions of people? Only you can make this choice.

We recognize that if we continue to play win-lose games, by pitting country against country, race against race, ideology against ideology, that would ultimately be a self-terminating scenario for humanity, based on accelerating technologies that will eventually enable a small group of people to have the power to easily kill everyone on the planet.

We acknowledge both the light and the dark and the roles that we all have been playing. We choose to transcend from either position, by recognizing and acknowledging the essential roles of both light and dark in our spiritual evolution.

We embrace the Unity that surrounds them both, to claim a vision of full thrival for all people and beings on this planet.

We recognize and celebrate the wakening of humanity, that may have been impossible without your intervention and agitation of the status quo.

We bless you and wish you a successful transition to a higher negative dimension, on your continued path to service-to-self — that will ultimately lead you to back home — to embracing the Oneness and Unity of all.

Sincerely,

TRUTH BOUNDARIES FREEDOM

So upon reading that, you may have had a number of thoughts and feelings come up.

In the text I've also made a number of assertions you may have never heard, some of which might piss you off, alarmed you, or both. Don't worry, this is totally normal and natural.

You may have also read this, and had a number of epiphanies, and thought "Wow. No one ever put things together like this before."

If you are a service-to-self elite, or politician reading this, you may have felt recognized in a way that you have never been before, and be deeply considering a choice to support the All - that you previously may have thought unthinkable... the choice is now up to you.

If what you've read is new to you, it may take a while to understand, integrate, and even longer to do the internal work needed to agree with and be willing to sign a statement like this. I get that too, and that's fine. It's important to not rush or pressure anything.

Also, my intention is for you to stay focused with me as you continue reading... my interest is to support you to be the best luminous leader you can be, so please just stick with me here, instead of going down the rabbit hole searching for more information about things I may have mentioned. My request is you just set that to the side, knowing you could do it later. There's more than enough time.

There may be a number of thoughts and feelings that came up when you read this.

I invite you to take a moment and write them down now, so you can revisit them, and so they can serve as a mirror and record to wherever you are at now...

TRUTH BOUNDARIES FREEDOM

Awesome! I acknowledge you for doing so, recognizing that the capacity for self reflection is essential as a leader.

Ok, on to questions that may have arisen based on what you read. Thank you for bearing with me, as this letter sits within a deep context, and is advanced. If you're advanced, please bear with me as I answer questions you already are very familiar with. If all this is new to you, and something doesn't make sense, don't worry — just keep reading, and trust that everything will be made clear in time. If you read something you immediately disagree with, please try and suspend your judgement — just allow it to be, and take what is beneficial to you.

Where I am getting these answers? These answers are result of spiritual understandings that I have received and experienced. You can also find them in various texts that are available here on the physical plane, most notably: The Law of One.

Questions:

“You said Service-to-self? Service-to-all? What does that mean?”

We live in a Universe that is defined by opposites. To explain as simply as possible,

In order for a soul to progress in consciousness, there is essentially two paths. A path of service-to-others, and a path of service-to-self. A relevant metaphor, though not exact, you can apply from Star Wars - The Jedi vs. the Sith - the “light side” vs. “the dark side.”

You as a soul have to make a conscious choice to follow either path — either service to self, or service to others. Before that, you are, as the Bible says “neither hot nor cold” if you don't make a choice either way, you will continue to experience multiple lifetimes on multiple planets in that state, until you make a choice to follow either path.

If a Soul chooses a negative “service-to-self”, then you can think of this being like what you've seen as “a deal with the Devil”... you will get power, influence, control. In order to maintain control you will have to hurt a lot of people. This continues, over millennia. In order to maintain the Karmic balance, you will have to experience what could be considered “hell” — planes of existence that are incredibly dense and challenging... At some point, after a loooooong time. you as a Soul will have paid your Karmic debt, have integrated these experiences, then be “re-integrated” back into the Unity and oneness of all.

If a Soul choose a path of “service-to-all” they have essentially committed to a path of oneness, unity, and serving others, as a path of growing their own knowledge and consciousness. They have transcended acquiring for their own personal greed but are in true service to others. This doesn’t mean that you don’t do things for yourself, but that you care and nurture yourself, so that you are ultimately able to share and contribute to others. Examples are numerous in human history, of spiritual teachers or leaders that have a service-to-all emphasis, including Buddha, Jesus, Gandhi, and many others. The whole point of this book, is to support you — as a leader — who has a service-to-all orientation!

POWERING UP

If you’re a service-to-others being, in a body, while you may eat and drink, ultimately your power comes from the Divine! Right from the source, through many ways, but ultimately from the Divine. Why do you think the Prophet Muhammad instructed his followers to pray 5 times a day? I believe it is because he knew how important it was to connect right back to the source — to God. Connecting to the Divine could look like countless other ways, from prayer, meditation, yoga, to being in Nature, feeling the sun on your head and grass under your bare feet... you know how you feel afterwards... refreshed, renewed, ready to tackle the next challenge.

If you’re in a service-to-self orientation, your options are much more limited... if you’re in a body, you may eat and drink, but unfortunately, you don’t have access to unlimited energy — you’ve chosen a different path, a path of control, where your sustenance is not received joyfully, but extracted.

Anything that controls other people, other beings, creates fear, anger, extorts them to pad your own pockets. Activities that service-to-self beings engage in, are things like profiting out of war, profiting from addiction, the drug trade, human slavery, child trafficking, and much worse. You have chosen a path that is apparently separate from the Divine - you can do a little bit of good, but not too much. If you do, you risk losing the “negative karma” you’ll need to get you to the next level of consciousness on your further journey of “service-to-self.”

You might think “I don’t care about those goody-two-shoes humans. If they were stupid enough to fall into our trap, then they deserve it. Anyways, it’s more fun over on our side... we’ve got more money, power, girls, drugs, women than you could ever want.” The only problem is, just as you are extracting things from others, you are getting extracted... you’re just one in a large food chain, and you are not the guy at the top. You’re like a middle manager... for evil. You may “gain the world”, but it will likely cost you your Soul.

UNDERSTANDING SERVICE-TO-ALL, SERVICE-TO-SELF

.... But wait, you might think... you said:

“We recognize and thank you for your path of service-to-self, by doing so, agitating and ultimately causing the raising of consciousness of billions of Souls on this planet to fully embrace a path of Unity, light and service-to-all.”

If someone is in a path of service-to-self, how could they ultimately be of service-to-all? And also, how could the bad things that beings of service-to-self have done, help fraise the consciousness the human race?

Great questions. In order to really hear what I’m about to say, I invite you to expand your perspective... Who is your favorite hero? It could be a real person, or a fictional hero like a comic book. Who is their villain?

Every hero has to have a villain. The villain could be another character (Batman vs. The Joker, James Bond vs. an evil super-villain or syndicate) or it could be something more abstract, like a mind-set that exists in others, like Martin Luther King and racism. In the blockbuster movie Avatar, it was the blue Nav’i fighting to protect their planet from others who wish to mine a valuable mineral called “unobtainium.”

Like it or not, conflict of one sort or another can and often does drive things forward.

TRUTH BOUNDARIES FREEDOM

This is how a being can be in Service-to-self, while just like the “villain” of the story, their role ultimately can serve all, because they are the very thing that can cause the hero (that you, by the way) to wake up!

Said another way, “And we know that all things work together for good to those who love God, to those who are the called according to His purpose.” Romans 8:28.

The more someone is asleep, the more is required to wake them up! Remember about how the Universe whispers first, before it shouts? This principle is absolutely in play on a collective level. Do you not want really extreme things to happen, or lessen their intensity, then WAKE THE F*CK UP!

So if you're saying you want to embrace the dark forces, does that mean you agree with what they've done, or want to go soft on them? What about things like child pedophilia? How could we ever forgive something like that?

Absolutely not. The crimes on this planet that those that are service-to-self have done, individually, and collectively as a group, are mind boggling. They must be brought to justice and held to account. Since criminal sentencing / justice is not my area of expertise (even if it was) I believe they should held to account in a court of law, where those that are involved are honorable and uncorrupted. Furthermore, things like child pedophilia and human and child trafficking are one of the darkest most damaging acts that anyone could inflict on another human being. It creates damage not just for that one child, but for generations, and in many cases, if not stopped, the one abused continues the cycle of abuse.

This is some really, really heavy sh*t, and I don't claim to have specific answers. The solutions must be specific, depending on the details of the case. I am clear that it is right and just to do whatever we can as humans, to stop the perpetration, and cycle of abuse. That said, the metaphysical truth remains: We must come to a place where we are able to handle and integrate both the light and dark of a situation within ourselves, however difficult, before being able to effectively respond (not react) to a given situation.

TRUTH BOUNDARIES FREEDOM

“The Truth will set you free — but first it will piss you off” - Gloria Steinem

Remember the larger context; we are all here to be stewards of our gifts, skills, and tools on this planet, as well as all others, and the planet itself, at this momentous time of change.

Regardless of what external situation you find yourself in, know that your Soul itself, is eternal and timeless. One way or another, you, and we will get through this. It's up to each of us to determine how we'll get through it, and whether we choose to embrace being a leader, in alignment with the highest good of all.

SUMMARY

Phew! Quite a heavy chapter... to start you were presented with the question: “What do we do with the “bad guys?”” and the idea that the world has been controlled by a very small number of people, who are only working for their own interests, not that of the whole of humankind. I then shared a question: What if there was a declaration that anyone on the planet could agree to — that if they did, could start to provide a balanced space of understanding, such that we, could start to deal in a constructive way with these individuals? You then read a number of warnings; that the following open letter was written not just for someone who may be in the top “1%,” of wealth holding, but expressly for individuals who are of service-to-self, then a final warning for those who may be service-to-self.

Next, the open letter itself, which acknowledges those service-to-self beings for their role in helping humanity wake up, while not removing their culpability for what they've done. Then emphasizing the importance and necessity of each of us to integrate both light and darkness within each of us, so we are able to appropriately respond, rather than react to what they've done. Also, affirming that we will no longer be complicit in allowing them to siphon our energy away from us, and creating an opportunity for those in service-to-self to come clean, on behalf of all humanity.

You then had an opportunity to write down and thoughts or feelings that came up as a result of reading this letter, to make a note to review and inquire within yourself how and why those things came up. I then covered some questions that may have come up for you as a result of reading the letter, like distinguishing the path and focus of a soul that is either service-to-self, service-to-all, and that a soul will experience multiple lifetimes, on multiple planets until they choose one of those two paths. You then read about the differing ways to “power up.” For service-to-all beings, we can access Divine energy directly, while those service-to-self beings are wired to gain energy by generating negativity and extracting energy from other beings, through fear and control.

The next section you read about how all the negative things that service-to-self beings have done could ever be of service to the greater good... in short — because often conflict, or challenging circumstances can, and often do drive things forward, and the Universe whispers before it shouts! If you want to lessen the intense circumstances you’re experiencing, Wake up!

Lastly, I cover a question about how we could ever forgive these people for their evil deeds, and that the bottom line is that you need to integrate the light and dark within yourself (and that includes forgiving yourself) before you can appropriately respond (not react) to a given situation. In all, it’s essential to remember that our role is to be wise stewards of the planet and everything on it, in this momentous time of transformation.

In the next chapter I will cover first principles, understanding systems, and a first take about how we can make to create all-win game here on this brilliant Earth.

Note: If you’re feeling a particularly heavy energy, I invite you to take a short break from reading, get up, and if you can, go for a short walk, and hug a tree. Else, put on one of your favorite upbeat songs and DANCE! I believe in you! You’re making awesome progress!
