ATTN: Ignacio Diego, President of the Government of Cantabria

Address

Dear President Diego,

I'm hereby writing as a citizen concerned with an issue that you should assumingly be fully aware of. Nonetheless, for your information, I still find it necessary to enclose several documents [court rulings published in this blog related to the case.

We sincerely hope you could personally intervene in an issue that has been causing great suffering to the family of the minor W as well as widespread bewilderment amongst the citizens who have been supporting this family for years. We have always believed in the fairness and good will of our institutions, yet we still strongly hold the innocence of this family. Further, we are deeply concerned with the mental well-being of W and his future as a person.

Hence, I respectfully compel you to take appropriate action in accordance to both the Court's acquittal ruling and the recommendations of the Juvenile Prosecutor so that this minor is turned back to his family as soon as possible. We consider that the current situation of the minor, back-and-forth to host families, clearly infringes the human right to his real family, who never mistreated him, as it was undoubtedly demonstrated at court.

Let me thank you in advance for your interest in this case. I'm willingly placing confidence in your good judgment and capacity to take the necessary measures within a public institution, namely the ICASS, which is not acting neither rigorously nor professionally in this instance.

Sincerely yours,

Name & Surname.
