Víctor González

Based in Bremen, I have been teaching Modern Languages and IT for 20 years, conducting workshops and seminars for language teachers at international level.

My interests lie in the fields of language curriculum and materials design through innovative digital tools. I am an official International Baccalaureate® Language B examiner and a subject leader in IT Competencies in Translation, Interpretation & Applied Languages at UOC (Open University of Catalonia).

My publications include articles for IS Magazine, Global Insights, Catalonia Today, El Punt Avui and Cambridge University Press. I am also an Adobe Education Trainer and a Certified Microsoft Innovative Educator Expert.
