The CWT urges every resident, company and/or organization to contribute during this vitally important campaign so our community can again enjoy the benefits of the Charlestown Working Theater. Your name will appear in the "Patriot."

Please send your contributions, in any amount, to:
The Charlestown Working Theater
442 Bunker Hill St.
Charlestown, Mass. 02129

All donations are tax deductible. Receipts upon request.
The new telephone number is 242-3285.

Bunker Hill St. was founded as a resident professional theater, and opened its doors in 1975 with the performance of "Lottery Day" by Shirley Jackson. Since that time, the CWT has presented over 200 productions and received critical acclaim for its works by O'Casey, Brecht and other distinguished contemporary playwrights.

Included in this public acclaim were awards from Boston Magazine for Best of Boston; the Boston Theater Critic's Circle Award; and the Top 10 Best Shows as selected by the Boston Phoenix. It is this history which has attracted the attention of the Charlestown community to come forward and to assist in announcing the exciting plans to reopen the CWT.

After a year of ambitious planning, the CWT is ready to reopen its doors under the professional management and theater direction of Kristen and Jennifer Johnson. Both Kristen and Jennifer bring a wealth of knowledge to this position, and both have extensive backgrounds in the performing and visual arts.

Lifelong residents of Charlestown, Kristen and Jennifer together bring to the theater the unique blend of theatrical expertise and community understanding. This capable team has been busy preparing for the reopening and has developed a series of fund-raising activities to assist in this effort.

The fund-raising efforts

began this week with a letter of appeal to the organizations and businesses of Charlestown followed by a campaign entitled "Light The Lights" which appears in this week's Patriot. Both appeals give each and every resident an opportunity to contribute in whatever way possible. All contributions will be listed weekly in the Patriot.

On Saturday, Oct. 3, a Tag Sale will be held at the Theater from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Items to be sold include furniture, clothing, costumes and a wide variety of household items and accessories. Spend time browsing for that special Halloween costume or find that interesting piece of furniture you've always wanted.

Halloween face painting will again return to the CWT on Saturday, Oct. 31 from 2 to 5 p.m. Bring your favorite Halloween character and it will be painted on your face.

A money raffle has been established to assist the fund-raising efforts for the theater's reopening. The grand prize will be $10,000! Only 200 tickets will be sold, which brings the chance of winning better than the Mass. State Lottery! Remember — only 200 tickets will be sold!

The drawing will be held

THE MULTIPLE LISTING SERVICE

Over the past 10 years, the Multiple Listing Services around the country have revolutionized the way real estate is sold. When an agent lists your home for sale, he takes all of the pertinent information about the property and places it in a computerized inventory bank.

Once a home is placed on MLS, agents all over town have immediate access to information about price, location, the number of bedrooms and baths, the kitchen equipment and other appliances that convey with the home, the size of the yard, the type of heating and air conditioning systems, the garage, and a host of other features. The system allows agents to feed in their buyers' basic needs and match them up to the listings of all area Realtors. When you list your home, you, in effect, employ not only the listing agent to market your home, but hundreds of his colleagues all over town. They can then work cooperatively to get your property sold as quickly as possible.

By placing your home on the Multiple Listing Service, you have the most effective advertising there is, because it reaches the people who are so influential in getting homes sold — the Realtors working with qualified buyers!

If there's a move in your future, call the professionals at Monument Properties. Our number is 241-5900 or just drop by our offices at 85 Warren St., Charlestown. We're happy to serve all your real estate needs.

WORKING IN YOUR DUNGAREES

You always did the best you could
To make us children grow up good.
You always worked to make ends meet
And give us children food to eat.

I saw you down on your knees
Working in your dungarees.
Working hard to get us by
But never once did I see you cry.

You gave me all you had to give
You tried to teach me how to live.
But I grew up wrong and grew up bad
And so many times I made you sad.

I guess I didn't understand
What it took to become a man.
But you taught me right from wrong
And now I sing a different song.

I sing a song of happiness
And I sing a song of love.
I sing a song to you, Ma
And I thank the Lord above.

For giving me a day in the sun
Just like you thought it would be.
For giving me a chance to shine
And make you proud of me.

Not For Nothin' ... But Have You Heard ...

• Congratulations ... to this year's Charlestown winner(s) of the ABCD Community Service Award — CHAP volunteers Zelma Lacey and Sister Ann Rita, O.P. These two lovely ladies are being honored for their tireless work with Charlestown's elderly population. The awards dinner will take place on Oct. 23 at the Sheraton Boston Hotel ... Stay tuned for details!

• They Came From Near And Far ... to wish Billy Griffin a happy retirement from the Postal Service. Many gathered at the old Sully's last week for the gala event. Billy arrived in full tuxedo (we're told he wore it on his last day of work). Among those present was the Mayor of the village of Palatine, Ill. (20 miles out of Chicago), Hon. Rita L. Mullins, who took time during a visit to Boston to express her good wishes to Billy. Word has it that Billy might become one of her new constituents, being so impressed with her kindness! ... Not! ... We add our hearty congrats, Billy, for many years of happy retirement.

• Historic Trivia ... Sept. 16th marks the 371st anniversary of the Mayflower's departure from Plymouth, England for the New World. Some 102 pilgrims set sail for a trip that ended on America's shore on Nov. 21, 1620. Shortly after the landing, the colony of Plymouth, Mass. was founded.

• Blankets And Towels Are Needed ... by the Animal Rescue League of Boston. Homeless pet shelters are in desperate need of these items. If you can help, bring them to 10 Chandler St. (corner of Arlington and Tremont streets), Boston.

Charlestown Teen To Be Profiled On 'Lean On Me'

Shannon McLaughlin, a Charlestown teen-ager, will be profiled on the locally produced documentary "Lean On Me," scheduled to air at 5:30 p.m. on Monday, Sept. 14 on WFXT-Fox 25.

The half-hour Fox 25 Kids Club special was developed to publicize some of the success stories of Boston youth. McLaughlin is one of three teen-agers profiled who have turned their lives around and are volunteering in their communities. "Lean On Me" is an inspirational look at the circle of empowerment that is at work in our communities.

Emmy award-winning producer Tom Todisco has spent the summer talking with McLaughlin, Haywood Rogers of Roxbury and Jorge Palmarin of the South End. Having lived through difficult childhoods that included gang activity, drug dealing and divorce, these teens have developed a strong, caring relationship with a mentor.

With help from their mentors, Carolyn Shannon of Charlestown, Pastor Bruce Wall and Ralph Ortiz, they are now emerging into adulthood as respected, successful members of their communities. Understanding how crucial this mentor relationship is to them, they are now serving as mentors for younger children.

"Lean On Me" talks with the teens, their parents and their mentors to explore how and why they changed the direction of their lives and the impact they have on others around them.

Poll Results Spur Unique Media Buy

Poll results showing that only two percent of the 6th Governor's Councillor District voters know the name of their Councillor have spurred a unique media buying plan by Democratic Primary candidate Vincent J. Ragucci, III.

Ragucci, a seven-year member of the Everett City Council, said his campaign would supplement its sizable print campaign buy with "a strong presence on local cable television. We want people to know about this office."

The 6th District includes Ragucci's hometown of Everett, Malden, Medford, Somerville, Revere, Winthrop, Chelsea, Melrose, Stoneham, Wakefield, Woburn, Arlington, Reading, Burlington, Winchester, Lexington, Saugus and selected precincts of Cambridge and Boston, including Charlestown.

According to David A. Paleologos, president of DAPA Associates Inc., who is assisting the Ragucci campaign, "the decision to go heavily into cable TV comes as a result of almost zero recognition among the public as to who their present Councillor is. The Ragucci TV campaign is aimed at being informational . . . letting people know something about this very important position and its duties."

The Ragucci TV blitz will focus heavily on CNN, the cable news network, as well as spots on ESPN, USA, MTV, Lifetime, Headline News and TNT Sunday Night NFL games.

"People who watch CNN are interested in government and political matters," Ragucci said. "I want to keep the voters informed. It's an embarrassment that voters don't know who their Governor's Councillor is. I blame the politicians — not the people."

"We think this is an unprecedented cable TV buy for a Governor's Council campaign," Ragucci said. "With just two percent of potential voters knowing who their present councillor was, I believe this campaign is as much about education as it is about qualifications and persuasion."

Joe Kennedy. Fighting for All of Us.

Joe Kennedy has earned a reputation for leading the way on difficult issues a lot of other Congressmen wouldn't touch.

He wrote the Kennedy amendments — laws requiring banks to report all their loans so they can't hide discriminatory lending practices.

Congressman Kennedy authored the only major federal affordable housing initiative to be enacted in the last decade.

Joe Kennedy has worked hard to ease the local "credit crunch" that's squeezed first-time home buyers and small businesses.

He fought to get a shelter in Boston for homeless veterans.

And he sponsored and passed legislation to fund Youthbuild, offering construction jobs for inner-city youths.

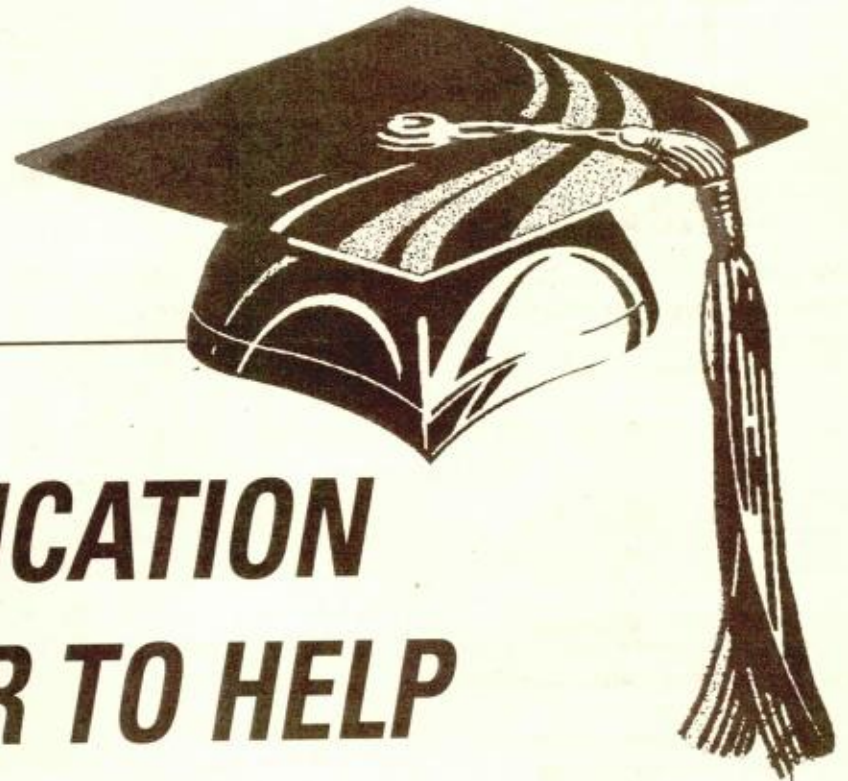

Congressman Joe Kennedy. He never stops fighting for all of us.

Of Things Now Passed By Time

by Charlie McGonagle

I read it in The Boston Globe of Sunday, Aug. 30. "The last single-screen picture show in Boston, the 600-seat Paris Cinema on Boylston Street, across from the Prudential Center, will be replaced by a Walgreen Drug Store."

I guess I never really stopped to think about it before, but after reading this short note in the Globe, I came to realize that in the entire city of Boston, there is not a single one-screen movie house. There are no more "Hippies" (Thompson Square Theater), no more Hollywoods, no more Lancasters, Pilgrims, Mayflowers, Astors, Savoy's and so many others whose outsiders were often lined with people waiting to purchase tickets to view, perhaps, a double feature, news of the day and a cartoon or two.

With the closing of the Paris Cinema, another chapter in this city's history has been written.

With the demise of the single-screen movie house, other things began filtering through my mind, thoughts of things that used to be, but are no more.

Although their skeletons can be found scattered about in various locations, the drive-in movie is also a thing of the past.

Gone also is Johnny who "Called for Philip Morris," as is the pack of Philip Morris, Fatima, English Ovals, Old Gold, Raleigh and Embassy.

And how about the Nash Rambler, the Packard, the DeSoto, the V.W. "Bug," the Belair, the Imperial, the Edsel, the Impala and the Belvedere?

The Cyclone, the Wild Mouse, the Dodgem Cars and all the other amusements at Revere Beach. And what of Paragon Park and its amusements at Nantasket Beach?

The Prescott, Copley, McDonald, Frothingham, St. Mary's, the Warren and the Holden schools.

The small park at Dewey Beach and Dewey Beach itself.

Penny candy, buttons, root beer barrels,

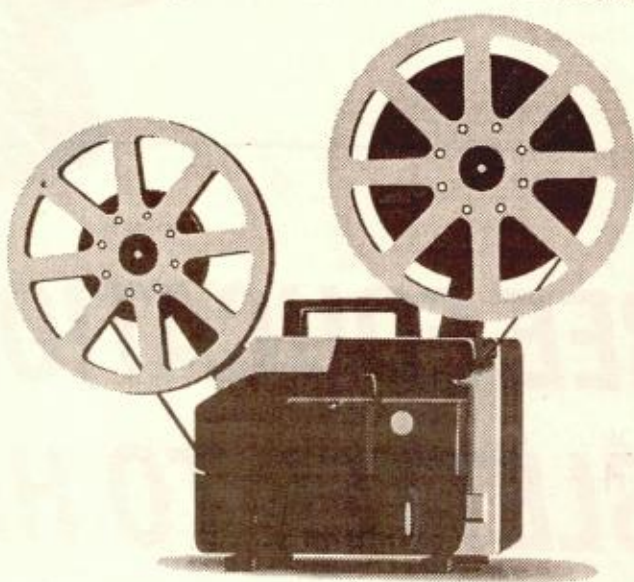

Mike and Ikes, Chum gum, Bolsters, Mint Juleps, Bazooka gum, Double-Bubble, green leaves, drakes and Squirrel Nuts, to name a few.

Nickle pickles, pushups, drumsticks and Winslow Potato Chips.

Ovaltine, Bosco, lard and yellow buttons

Nehru jackets, leisure suits, string ties, Mr. "B" collars, woolen baseball uniforms and leather football helmets.

The Alibi, The Shamrock, Kelly's, Charlie's, The Point, The Pilsen Garden, The D & H, McCarthy's, The Stagecoach, O'Neil's, Scalli's, Jack's, Doherty's, The Blue Mirror, when mixed together made butter (?), powdered milk, milk bottles with a couple of inches of cream floating at the top, the milkman, the pony boy, the ragman, the streetcar and the Lobster House Restaurant.

Hitching rings, bootscrapers and coal furnaces.

St. Catherine's dances, ice skating at the "Oily" and the "Neck," steel rollerskates, scooters made of an old skate and a two-by-four and an orange crate, and taped baseballs.

Blacksmith, Relievo, Polly, Buck-Buck, Greenlight, Tag, Hide and Go Seek, Redlight and Dodge Ball.

Snapjacks, bombardiers, saddle-stitched pants, knickers, pedal pushers, bandanas, pork pie hats, Garrison belts, P.F. Flyers,

The Polka Dot, Driscoll's, and Monroe's.

Matt Green's, Hughes', Charlie Murphy's, Cummin's Drug, Sam Cohen's, The First National (all three of them), Kennedy's Butter and Egg, The Gray Shop, The Green Store, Sender's, Hop Lee's, George's, Dally's, Sam's Sub Shop, O'Guy's, Mike's Sub Shop, The Clinton Market, Dr. Jablow's, Gordon's, Tilken's, Army and Navy Surplus stores, Connie McCarthy's, Glendale Coal and Oil, Culkeen's Feed and Grain, Winnett's Flower Shop, Home Quality Laundry, Smith's Bakery, Brockway Smith's, Winde and McCormick, Raftell's, Donato's, Mary and Phil's Coffee Shop, The Five and Ten, and Gustafarro's Cobbler Shop.

The Hardtop Softball League at Hayes Square, The Falcons, The Eagles, The Shamrocks, The Blackhawks, The Crusaders, The Copperheads, The Mystic A.C., The Jokers, The Cardinals and the Frisco Hoods.

Big families, women sitting at their windows, men and women sitting on their doorsteps, knowing everybody on your block, "Watch your language, here comes a lady," being spoken by several in a group of boys when a woman, any woman, approached, and mothers calling kids to supper from a third floor window.

Novena of Grace, the Latin Mass, the Mission, the Ladies' Sodality and the required hat or bandana for women attending church.

Leave It To Beaver, Father Knows Best, Mr. District Attorney, Sky King, The Range Rider, The Colgate Comedy Hour, Mr. Peepers, Howdy Doody, Kukla, Fran and Ollie, Beanie and Cecil, Death Valley Days, The Lone Ranger, Gene Autrey, Roy Rogers, Lux Video Theater, John Cameron Swayze, Ed Sullivan's Toast of the Town, Milton Berle, Ed Wynn, Mayberry, R.F.D., The Fugitive, The Honeymooners and Pinky Lee.

Cap guns, pimped balls, skate keys, Hula Hoops, Cheerio Yo-Yo's, Photo Electric Football, Chinese Checkers, Pick Up Sticks, The Slinky, Nutty Putty, tattoos and "Nickle Brick" baseballs.

Dip pens, ink wells, Carter's Washable Blue Ink, dress codes, demerit lists, being graded for something known as "Hygiene" but never knowing what it meant, sitting somewhere from first row, first seat to last row, last seat, depending on your report card average, and 35 cents for school supplies.

★ Charlestown Neighborhood Council . . . The CNC Committee-of-the Whole will hold a public meeting at 7 p.m. on Thursday, Sept. 24 at Bishop Lawton Hall, St. Francis de Sales Church, 313 Bunker Hill St. to discuss the plans of J. M. Cashman Inc. to use the Charlestown Marine Park at 425 Medford St. as a transfer site for landfill from Deer Island as part of the Boston Harbor Cleanup Project.

Representatives from J.M. Cashman Inc., the Massachusetts Water Resources Authority, Marine Park Ltd. Partnership/Harold Brown, Boston Health and Hospitals and the Boston Environmental Department have been invited to attend.

The public is welcome.

★ 425 Medford St. . . . The city of Boston Public Safety Commission, Committee on Licenses, has denied without prejudice an appeal by Harold Brown's Marine Park Ltd. Partnership to store fuel and house a garage at 425 Medford St., the site of the former Amstar Sugar refinery. The Sept. 9 hearing took place before Inspectional Services Commissioner Thomas McNicholas, Boston Fire Department Fire Prevention Captain Maurice Mahoney, Boston Transportation Department Official Donald Kehoe and Commission Secretary William Keddy.

Brown's legal advisor, Attorney Bernard Shadrawy Jr., informed the Commission that the appeal was made on behalf of Baystate Express, a tenant of the property. McNicholas stated that the request was not a legal use of the site and the appellant should not have come before the Commission prior to holding a public hearing in Charlestown. McNicholas informed Shadrawy to go before the Charlestown Neighborhood Council before reapplying for permits.

Health and Hospitals Inspector John Shea stated that there was a major asbestos problem at the site, adding that it was the most contaminated site he had seen in 10 years.

Judy Evers, community liaison for the Mayor's Office of Neighborhood Services, stated that she was asked to speak on behalf of 200 families from CharlesNewtown and hundreds of residents from the Bunker Hill Housing Development to express their strong opposition to the request because of public safety issues.

Representatives of the community at the hearing included Charlestown Neighborhood Council Chairman Peter Looney, Second Vice Chairman Mel Stillman, Secretary Jim Mansfield and member Bob Scalli.

Boston City Councillor Robert Travaglini had notified the Commission of his opposition based on the lack of community notification on the appeal and public safety issues. He urged the Commission to demand community participation on any planning for the site.

Sen. Thomas Birmingham also sent representation to the hearing in support of the community's opposition.

★ Police Officer Injured . . . A Boston Police Officer was seriously injured by five Charlestown men after one of the men was placed under arrest by the officer for public drinking and the possession of a class D substance. The incident occurred on Friday, Sept. 4 at 1:15 a.m. on Main Street at Mishawum Park.

Officer Michael Calabro spotted the group of men outside 230 Main St. and noticed one of them drinking from a can of beer. Upon closer observation, Calabro also found the man to be smoking marijuana. As Calabro was placing the man under arrest, four of his friends attacked the officer, knocking him to the ground. The four, who have been identified, proceeded to kick the officer and beat him. Calabro suffered facial lacerations and injuries to his back, neck and chest. He was taken to Boston City Hospital for treatment.

A call was placed for "an officer in trouble," bringing five police cruisers into the neighborhoods. The four suspects fled on foot from the scene when the additional police officers arrived. After a search of the area, two were apprehended and placed under arrest for assault and battery with a dangerous weapon and aiding in an escape of a person under lawful custody. Complaints for the remaining suspects were sought in the Charlestown District Court.

According to Area A Community Services Officer Joseph McNulty, all suspects were in their early 20s. A crackdown by local patrols has taken place since the incident, McNulty stated, adding "no more warnings are being given."

★ Charlestown Navy Yard . . . The Spaulding Rehabilitation Hospital on Nashua Street is scheduled to be razed as part of the Central Artery/Third Harbor Tunnel (CA/T) project. In searching for an appropriate site to relocate the hospital, the Charlestown Navy Yard's Yard End section has received serious consideration.

The report of the Charlestown location was released in a Boston Globe article on Sept. 5. According to the article, the hospital would be removed to make space for a series of tunnels under the Charles River connecting the new highway system with Storrow Drive and I-93. The tunnel scheme is part of the revised Central Artery/North Area (CANA) connection with CA/T, replacing the controversial Scheme

Z proposal.

Representatives from the Boston Redevelopment Authority and State Transportation Secretary Richard Taylor have reportedly held a series of meetings regarding the relocation of the hospital to Charlestown. The site mentioned would be adjacent to the Mass. General Hospital buildings in the Navy Yard.

Confirmation from BRA Director Paul Barrett could not be attained by press time.

★ Ironsides Toastmasters . . . seeks new members. Improve your communication and leadership skills, join the Ironsides Chapter of Toastmasters International for an hour of structured speaking, listening and speaker evaluations. The club meets on the first and third Tuesdays of every month from noon to 1 p.m. at Mass. General Hospital East, Building 149, 13th Street in the Charlestown Navy Yard. Guests are always welcome.

There will be a special new member meeting on Tuesday, Sept. 15 in the seventh floor auditorium of MGH East. Look for the large yellow Toastmaster Banner outside of the room.

The Ironsides Chapter was founded by past employees of the engineering company Metcalf and Eddy who came to work for the Mass. Water Resources Authority. The chapter is comprised of members from MGH East, the National Park Service, MWRA, Charlestown residents, college students and business persons.

For more information, contact Mary White at 242-0230, ext. 4805.

★ Olives Restaurant . . . The city of Boston Licensing Board has set a hearing date of Wednesday, Sept. 23 at 10 a.m. to consider a petition by Olives, Inc. "Olives," 67 Main St., Charlestown, holder of a C.V. 7-day malt and wine beverage license to remove a restriction forbidding "take out" from the premises.

The hearing, which will take place in Room 809A at Boston City Hall, is open to the public.

The location, 67 Main St., is the former site of Olives restaurant. A new eatery opened at 10 City Square this past June.

The Mayor's Office of Consumer Affairs and Licensing granted a request by Olives restaurant at 10 City Square to increase the restaurant capacity from 125 to 145 seats. The Sept. 9 approval requires the restaurant's owners, Olivia and Todd English, to return by Oct. 15 with a detailed floor plan outlining the increased usage, along with an inspection report by the Boston Fire Department.

Commissioner Diane Modica informed the Englishes that she had received a number of complaints from residents of Park Street regarding improper trash disposal. To eliminate the abutters' complaints, the restaurant owners agreed to place a dumpster at the rear of the building as a trash-disposal unit.

★ Street Reconstruction Update . . . Bryant Associates Inc. engineer Ralph Cunningham reports that the bonding company, St. Paul Mercury Insurance Co., is evaluating the street contract in preparation for the rebidding process with prospective new contractors. This process, Cunningham stated, should take a few more days and new contractor is expected to be chosen by next week.

Cunningham stated that the Middlesex Paving Co. will be taking on the responsibility of handling any emergency repairs needed during the interim between the departure of the John Mahoney Construction Co. from the streets of Charlestown until a new contractor is hired. Emergency calls may be made to Judy Evers, community liaison for the Mayor's Office of Neighborhood Services, at 635-3485, or Peter Looney, community liaison for the street reconstruction contracts, at 722-4300 ext. 5674.

According to Cunningham, the Mead Street Stairs (40 Flights) reconstruction project continues to proceed on schedule. At the present time, concrete is being poured for the foundations of the stairs. This time-consuming, precise and meticulous work is approximately one-third complete, and is expected to be finished within 10 weeks. Cunningham added that the recent rain storms have caused delays in the schedule.

★ School Begins . . . Can Christmas Be Far Behind? Two meetings are being held to begin preparations for two annual holiday events.

Tonight, Thursday, Sept. 10, the "Townie Santa" Committee meets to start planning for the delivery of Christmas packages to elderly, needy Charlestown shut-ins. The meeting will get underway at 7 p.m. at the Mary Colbert Apartments, 20 Devens St.

On Monday, Sept. 14 at 5:30 p.m., the first of the season's meetings on the annual Christmas Walk will be held at the offices of Otis and Ahearn at 92 Main St. The Walk has been set for Sunday, Dec. 13.

Both of these committees are open to the public, and helping hands and interested persons are most welcome.

RICHIE CARES . . .

Acting on public safety issues is not new to Richie. He's had guardrails installed on the Gilmore Bridge, got traffic engineers out on Rutherford Avenue, brought an ambulance to Charlestown and secured more policemen for CANA.

Senior citizens have Richie's respect. He fought for a COLA for retirees and beat back the governor's bid to make it harder to gain access to a nursing home. That's why 32 elder organizations granted Richie their 1992 "Award of Excellence."

Enhancing Charlestown has been a top priority of Richie's. In addition to securing $4.5 million for a new park in City Square, Richie has successfully moved state officials to repair Main Street and renovate boarded up Bunker Hill Development units.

Richie's proud of Charlestown and is glad to help local residents and groups any way he can. Whether it's youth activities, community issues, senior needs of charitable endeavors, Richie is there to lend a hand.

Kids count on Richie, so he's fought for more funding for skating rink repairs, head start renovations and new educational aid for local kids.

USS Constitution Museum Receives Conservation Grant

The USS Constitution Museum was awarded a $25 thousand grant by the Institute of Museum Services (IMS) this week to improve storage of the museum's valuable collection. Of 431 grants applied for this year, IMS awarded 208 grants with the $2.94 million in program funds available. IMS is a federal agency that offers conservation project support to the nation's museums. The USS Constitution Museum is required to match the federal funds.

The 1992 Conservation Project Support Grant will be used to rehouse the museum's varied collections within the existing climate-controlled secure storage area to accommodate as many artifacts as possible. This is one step toward improved collections care as outlined in a long-range conservation plan adopted by the museum's board of trustees in 1990.

"We're pleased to have the funding necessary to preserve treasures from Constitution's past for future generations to enjoy," said museum executive director Ellen J. Kraft. "As we plan the museum's physical expansion it's equally as important to have the facilities to accommodate our rich collection now as well as room for future acquisitions."

The rehousing and reorganization of collections storage will be a long-term upgrade in the museum's collection management. Reorganization of the library space will protect all paper collections, and will improve security within the facility. The museum's textile collection will be rehoused and all rare books will be boxed. Future additions to the collection will be housed as like objects are stored, and all artifacts at the museum will receive better care in an orderly storage area. These rehousing projects will make the best use of the present facility.

The USS Constitution Museum, which opened in 1976, is in the Boston National Historical Park in the Charlestown Navy Yard.

The museum was created as an interpretive complement to USS Constitution, the oldest commissioned ship afloat in the world. The museum's mission is to bring to life the events, people and lifestyle of the Federal Period through historical and interactive exhibits.

It hosts 75,000 visitors a year, and has more than 3,000 artifacts in its collection. Two major new exhibits opened in May 1992, representing nearly 90 percent of the total exhibit space.

The Charlestown Healthy Aging Program (CHAP) is planning its programs for the coming year. The goal of CHAP is to enlist interested people in forming a group ready to take action and find solutions to health-care problems and concerns. There will be a few social activity programs as well.

The program is targeted toward the elder citizens of the community, but persons of all ages are encouraged to attend the workshops and meetings. Each reader of this article is a day older today than he or she was yesterday, and the days turn in to years quickly and pass rapidly.

The first workshop, entitled "So You Thought You Were Powerless," will be held on Friday, Sept. 18 at 10:30 a.m. in the Community Room at 42 Park St. The presenter will be Harold Reinstein, speaker and writer for the Massachusetts Association of Older Americans. In view of the upcoming elections, this will be an opportunity to learn how to face issues and what to do to be heard and involved in decisions affecting our lives.

Watch for upcoming dates and topics for future workshops in the Patriot. Circle your calendar now for Sept. 18 at 10:30 a.m. at 42 Park St., and bring a friend.

Thank You

Dear Gloria,

The members of the Bunker Hill Tenants Task Force Board of Directors would like to take this opportunity to thank those who so generously donated their time or made a contribution to our 11th annual Summer Cookout and Carnival. More than 300 residents, mostly seniors and children, attended the event. Besides a cookout, there were games and raffles at the carnival. The music was donated by Dennis Moore.

All of this would not be possible without the generous support we received from the community, especially the businesses and merchants of Charlestown. We are greatly indebted to St. Catherine's Church for its support and use of the schoolyard. We received generous contributions from Rep. Richard Voke, Boston City Councillor Robert Travaglini, Mayor Raymond Flynn and the McCarthy Brothers Liquors. We wish to acknowledge and thank each of those who supported this year's event. Also, if there is anyone we overlooked, we wish to acknowledge and thank each of you.

We also wish to thank Boston City Councillor Rosaria Salerno, Sen. William M. Bulger, Sen. Thomas Birmingham, Boston City Councillor John Nucci, Dennis Moore, E. Hanscum, Gloria Payne of the Mayor's Office of Cultural and Business Affairs, Carr Funeral Home, Groomtown, Sawyer Funeral Home, Charlestown Vision Center, The Boston Housing Authority, Johnnie's Foodmaster, Charlene's, Mt. Vernon Restaurant, The Red Store, Bernie and Judy Evers, Jeffrey A. Goldman, D.D.S. and Bob DeCristoforo.

Birmingham Denounces Plan To Truck Sludge Through Charlestown

Douglas MacDonald, Executive Director
Massachusetts Water Resources Authority
100 First Ave.
Charlestown, Mass. 02129

Dear Chairman MacDonald:

I am writing to register my strong protest to the recently announced plan to truck sludge through the streets of Charlestown. I vehemently object both to the scheme on its merits and the procedure by which the decision was made.

As to the merits, the community of Charlestown is one of the most densely populated areas in the Commonwealth. It is inconceivable that the small streets and heavy traffic in the town provide the optimal — or even appropriate — venue for 400 sludge-carrying trucks per day. Such an intrusion would merely exacerbate the disruption being caused by the transportation projects presently in progress.

As to the process, it is my understanding that the Neighborhood Council had reluctantly agreed that the staging area at the Revere Sugar site could be utilized solely for the transportation of personnel to Deer Island with the tacit understanding that noxious substances would not be transported through the community. The surprise announcement concerning the sludge transport is interpreted in Charlestown as a breach of faith by the MWRA, as is the agency's apparent failure to communicate community opposition to the contracting parties.

Please rest assured, Charlestown will not acquiesce in this decision nor will it accept it as a fait accompli.

Very truly yours,
Thomas F. Birmingham
State Senator

Thank You To The Charlestown-To-Charlestown Committee

Dear Members,

I would like to thank you for the wonderful tour of Ireland. The country was beautiful and the company was great. I will always remember my week in "Charlestown, County Mayo," meeting the Roses from Ireland, the United States, England and Italy. It was great! I would like to thank Arthur Hurley and Marty O'Brien Sr. for all their help. Marty, I am sure you never want to hear "Is the gown on the bus?" again!

I never thought a small town contest would lead to such wonderful times. The Charlestown-to-Charlestown Committee should be very proud of their wonderful organization.

I would like to especially thank my mayor Pat Harty. She is great and I am proud to be her Rose.

On a personal note, thank you to everyone on the tour who gave me the giggles everyday (you know who you are).

Sincerely,
Shannon Kiely, 1992 Charlestown Rose
P.S. Joey C., you were certaining the "Rose among the Thorns!"

Thank You To The Charlestown Kiwanis

To the Editor,

Thanks to Charlestown Kiwanis over 20 Charlestown boys and girls were able to attend overnight camp in Duxbury this past summer. These boys and girls, between the ages of 7 and 12, had the opportunity to participate in horseback riding, archery, arts and crafts, and lots of swimming in a beautiful country setting.

The money to support this wonderful program for Charlestown boys and girls comes from the many nickels, dimes and quarters and yes, even dollar bills, that are thrown into the Kiwanis blanket during the Bunker Hill Day Parade. Thank to the generous people of Charlestown, some of our youth had a special summer they'll always remember. Start saving those coins for next year's parade, now!
