

Collaborative Strategies for Successful Library Design and Innovative Use

August 10-11 2016, Illinois Institute of Technology, Chicago

Day 1: Wednesday August 10, 2016

Collaborating with Clients	8:45-9:30	Registration
	9:30-10:00	Opening remarks and welcome / Diane Koen, Chair & Sharon Bostick, Host
	10:00-10:30	Keynote / Frances Bronet, Provost, IIT
	10:30-11:00	Break / coffee, tea, and snacks supplied with registration
	11:00-11:30	Student engagement and collaboration: Creative approaches to an evidence-based learning space design and management framework / Hanken and Cribb
	11:30-12:00	Stakeholder engagement at the Regina Public Library and the University of Saskatchewan: Consultation methods that are inclusive but targeted / McKenna, Plosz and Smith
	12:-12:30	Breaking the mould - stateholder engagement to build a case for and then deliver a transformation of a 1960's library into a 21st century library and learning space / Sotillo and Winstanley
	12:30-1:30	Lunch / provided with registration
	1:30-3:00	Workshop / Hosted by Elif Tinaztepe, Senior Architect, Schmidt Hammer Lassen and Marie Ostergard, Project Leader of Dokk1
Collaboration: Tools and Strategies	3:00-3:30	Break
	3:30-4:00	Collaborating for a successful master plan - art or science? / Blackburn
	4:00-4:30	Opportunistic incrementalism as a strategy for user driven design of library spaces / Eigenbrodt
	4:30-5:00	Discussion and Wrap Up
	5:00-7:00	Cinq à Sept Reception / provided with registration

Schedule is subject to change

Day 2: Thursday August 11, 2016

Collaborating Out of the Box	8:30-9:30	Optional Tour of Mies van der Rohe campus by IIT Library Staff
	10-10:30	Not Boxed In: Art Becomes a Platform for Collaboration in the Renovated Madison Central Library / Lesneski
	10:30-11:00	Cooking and multiculturalism, Living Lab and Fab Lab as a result of collaborative strategies in the Municipal Library Network of the province of Barcelona / Romero and Sabater
	11:00-11:30	Preserving assets and maximizing investments: Emory and Georgia Tech's Library Service Center as a collaborative model in process-focused facility design / Klimek, J. Forrest and C. Forrest
Collaborating For Cultural Change	11:30-12:00	Collaborating for success: people, places, form and function / Soules and Shepstone
	12:00-1:00	Lunch / provided with registration
	1:00-1:30	Library design and community transformation. A case study of Driving Park and Northside Branch Libraries, Columbus Metropolitan Library System / Perry and Suriano
	1:30-2:00	Enhancing staff collaboration: defining needs and designing spaces / Bostick and Irwin
Collaboration: Challenges and opportunities	2:00-2:30	7 into 1: Integration and collaboration: The new Library for Humanities and Social Sciences at ULB Halle, Germany / Sommer
	2:30-3:00	Break
	3:00-3:30	"A resounding success!" A case study of the transformative impact of the new library at Maynooth University / McCauley and Murphy
	3:30-4:00	Multiple stakes in the ground: Ryerson University Student Learning Centre and collaboration in action / Lefebvre
	4:00-4:30	Discussion, Wrap Up and Farewell / Sharon Bostick, Host and Diane Koen, Chair
	7:30-9:00	Optional Twilight Architectural River Cruise / paid separately by attendees directly to supplier

Schedule is subject to change