Bunker Hill Day Parade, June 17

Charlestown To Commemorate The 215th Anniversary Of The Battle Of Bunker Hill

The highlight of the celebration of the 215th anniversary of the Battle of Bunker Hill will be the annual Bunker Hill Day Parade on Sunday afternoon, June 17 through the streets of Charlestown.

This parade is sponsored by the Charlestown Veterans/Bunker Hill Day Commemorative Committee, under the auspices of the city of Boston.

Giving the command "Forward March," starting the parade up Bunker Hill Street from Hayes Square at 1 p.m., will be Chief Marshal William McCabe, the Commissioner of Public Safety for the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

As of July 1, McCabe will be the commanding officer of the State, Metro, Capitol and Registry of Motor Vehicles Police Department under the consolidating act of Massachusetts.

McCabe served 26 years in the Massachusetts State Police, attaining the rank of Lieutenant Colonel by the time he reached the mandatory retirement age of 50.

McCabe, a lifelong resident of Charlestown, is a Korean-era veteran of the U.S. Army where he served as an E/5 (staff sergeant) in the Signal Corps.

McCabe has served in various capacities in several Charlestown organizations.

Monique Pare Selected Charlestown Rose

Excitement permeated the Knights of Columbus hall the evening of June 8 as family and friends of eight contestants awaited the results of the judging of this year's Charlestown Rose Contest. The long-awaited announcement came shortly after 9 p.m. when the name of Monique Pare was read from the contents of a sealed envelope as the 1990 winner of the Charlestown Rose Contest.

This is the eighth year that the Charlestown-To-Charlestown Committee has sponsored this annual event at which a young woman of Irish heritage from this community is selected to represent Charlestown in the Western Rose Festival in Charlestown, County Ma-

CHARLESTOWN AGAINST DRUGS WISHES EVERYONE A HAPPY, SAFE AND SOBER BUNKER HILL DAY
SHOW YOUR TOWNIE PRIDE AND SAY NO TO PUBLIC DRINKING ON PARADE DAY — SUNDAY, JUNE 17

As a Charlestown resident, we need your help to create, encourage and support a community environment that does not tolerate alcohol and drug abuse especially on our most celebrated day. You can make the parade a proud, fun and responsible event:

- Don't tolerate or promote public drinking;
- If you're having an open house, make it clear that you don't want guests to drink outside your home;
- Support the police. When the police do their job, support them and thank them.

CHAD is a cooperative effort among Charlestown residents, businesses and agencies to foster a healthy attitude and make a statement against drug and alcohol abuse in our neighborhood. CHAD operates under the umbrella of Boston Against Drugs, and The Raymond Group is the corporate sponsor.

CHAD is pleased and proud that the following groups have joined us in promoting a safe, sober and fun Bunker Hill Day in Charlestown:

Boston National Historical Park

Jack Sheehan Testimonial Set For June 21

by Kathy Giordano

It's hard to believe — but it's true. Jack Sheehan is not a "Townie" — at least not under the definition of the word. Legend has it that a Townie is a person born in the community. But if the truth be known, "Townieism" is much more than that. It is an intangible spirit that can only be seen through a glimmer in the eye or through the warmth of a smile. The essence of that spirit is one of neighborly caring and sharing, doing for others and an unmatched sense of generosity to the need at hand.

Through no fault of his own, Jack cannot claim the birthright of a Townie. But after 24 years of service to this community, especially to its youth, his other qualifications to the title are undisputable.

On June 1, 1965, Jack Sheehan joined the staff of the John F. Kennedy Family Service Center. Although hired as a youth worker, his first duties were to establish a surplus food program in Charlestown. Not only did he get it off the ground, he watched it grow into the large distribution and certification center that exists today.

Jack's involvement at the center grew to include the Summer Youth Employment Program which introduced hundreds of Charlestown youth to the world of work. In addition, he established a tutorial program in conjunction with local colleges and universities for both public and parochial school students, and personally assisted many high school students and their parents in the preparation of financial aid forms for college tuitions.

Jack directed the Charlestown Headstart Program in 1966 and 1967 and continued to oversee several youth programs throughout the years. He has been active with several local and city youth-serving committees representing the Kennedy Center and the Charlestown neighborhood.

His efforts to bring the various community youth-serving agencies together in a collaborative program resulted in the establishment of the College Club and the Charlestown Collaborative Day Camp.

Jack's ties to the community are immeasurable and the friendships he has bonded over the years are unbreakable. In the spirit of the Bunker Hill Day festivities, when Charlestown displays its neighborhood pride, his friends have set aside a night to show their appreciation at a testimonial dinner to be held in his honor at the Knights of Columbus hall on Thursday, June 21 from 7 p.m. to midnight.

Tickets for the testimonial are $20 per person, which includes a buffet dinner catered by Bob Scalli, and the music of a disc jockey. Many of Jack's old friends wil be there. Tickets are selling fast. To reserve your seat, call Jamsie at 242-5042, Eleanor Mary at 331-1643 or Anne Kelly at 242-2770.

Jack Sheehan, although no longer working in the community, will long be remembered by the youth and parents he serviced as a caring and dedicated person. His colleagues remember him best as a strong and effective leader. All who know him consider him a friend.

Graduate From Pope John

Thirteen Charlestown residents were among the 182 students who received their diplomas at the 21st annual commencement of Pope John XXIII Central High School in Everett on May 29.

The graduates were addressed by William Kilmartin, a former teacher and assistant football coach at Pope John, who is presently comptroller for the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

The local graduates were: Renee L. Conte of 39A Tibbetts Town Way, Susan Marie Stella of 24 Lyndeboro St., Leyla Howard of 30 Mt. Vernon St., Noreen Haggerty of 69A Dunstable St., Kelly Anne O'Neil of 302 Bunker Hill St., Joanne Catherine Wallace of 11 Mt. Vernon St., Daniel F. Hooley Jr. of 49 Polk St., James Michael Allwood of 89A Tibbetts Town Way, Rachel Ann Coleman of 10 Lawrence St., Elizabeth Agnes Gallagher of 91 Pearl St., Julie Veronica Doris of 45 Chappie St., Rita Ann D'Urbano of 8A Tibbetts Town Way and Derek Michael Melendy of 53 Walker St.

UNDERSTANDING THE FINE PRINT

An important part of being an informed buyer or seller in any real estate transaction is to understand clearly the purchase contract. This means taking a look at the forms used in your community before you sit down with an agent to make a written offer or, if you're the seller, before that offer is presented to you.

In many areas, Realtors use boiler-plate contracts approved by the local Board of Realtors. In some jurisdictions, lawyers draw up the agreements, and these, too, contain a significant number of standard clauses. In either case, try to get a copy of whatever paperwork you will be signing before you need it. This way, you can read it at your leisure and ask questions about any clauses you do not understand. If any of the standard clauses do not fit your particular situation, you may discuss alternative language that you would want to have inserted. The key here is to do it before you've found your new dream house or the perfect buyers for your current one. This way you can be calm and cool and really absorb the information.

If there's a move in your future, the real estate professionals at Silva Realty are ready to serve you. Call us at 242-7470 or drop by our office at 371 Somerville Ave. in Somerville.

The Ellingtons Honored As Outstanding Foster Parents

Virginia and Robert Ellington of Charlestown were recently honored as outstanding foster parents at the fifth annual Foster Parent Recognition Event sponsored by the Massachusetts Association for Professional Foster Care. The Ellingtons, along with 50 other foster families, were chosen to be award winners for the dedication, compassion and professionalism they bring to their daily job of foster parenting.

Jean Bergstrom, MAPFC President, was joined by Department of Social Services Commissioner Marie A. Matava of Charlestown and Springfield's WWLP-TV22 Newsanchor and "Today's Child" host Dave Madsen in officiating the day's events. Stories were read about each honored foster family.

The Ellingtons have cared for some 50 foster children since 1977. They believe in community activities. They involve their foster children in most of what the community has to offer, from Girl and Boy Scouts to the Charlestown Boys & Girls Club. The children placed in the Ellington home are assured of a warm welcome in a safe happy home.

Matava said: "We are grateful to our honored foster parents and each and every foster parent across Massachusetts for working together with us to further children's progress and well-being. We are especially grateful to the Ellingtons and our other award winners for representing the very best in foster parenting."

ROBERT AND VIRGINIA ELLINGTON of Sackville Street were honored as outstanding foster parents at a May celebration to recognize foster parents across the state.

Graduate From University Of Lowell

Two Charlestown residents were among the nearly 2,300 students who were graduated from the University of Lowell on June 3.

University President William Hogan conferred 1,621 undergraduate and 646 graduate degrees during commencement exercises. He awarded an honorary doctor of humane letters degree to prominent environmental scientist Barry Commoner, who also served as commencement speaker.

Members of the graduating class included Wesley P. Taylor of 16 Brighton St., who received a bachelor of business administration degree with a concentration in marketing, and John C. Whitlock of 16 Parker St., who received a bachelor of science degree in engineering with a major in electrical engineering.

Keane Fund-Raising Breakfast To Finance Harvard-Kent School Computers

Keane Inc. and the Harvard-Kent School will host an informational fund-raising breakfast to support the school's computer learning program on Wednesday, June 20 at 7:45 a.m. at the school facility located at 50 Bunker Hill St. in Charlestown. Local businesses as well as all other interested individuals and firms are invited to attend.

The school is seeking to raise $29,000 by a June 30 deadline and a total of $145,000 over the next five years in order to purchase computer equipment loaned to them by IBM over the past year. The school was the beneficiary of the loan as a participant in the Boston Public Schools' PS 2000 plan for using technology to improve reading, mathematics and science education for all Boston students so their achievements will equal the nation's best by the year 2000.

Keane Inc., a custom software development firm headquartered in Boston, has pledged, as a Technology Partner, $10,000 in the campaign to save the elementary school's computers. According to the company's president, John F. Keane: "Keane Inc. is pleased to be able to make this investment in the future of the children of Charlestown and surrounding areas that attend the Harvard-Kent School. We realize the importance of the introduction of technology in the classroom both as a learning tool and as a means to provide skills needed by the businesses of Boston."

Statistics show that with use of computer technology Harvard-Kent School student scores in various areas of study in kindergarten through grade five are climbing. The integrated learning systems allow teachers to monitor student performance, accurately assess student progress and prescribe appropriate individualized lessons as well as group lessons.

According to Harvard-Kent School Principal Joanne McManus: "In using the computers, students are allowed to develop skills while remaining continually challenged. Many times, our Charlestown students come to school early just so they can work on the computers. Through our Chapter I Reading Program, we have also been able to provide students from neighboring St. Catherine's School with the opportunity for computer learning on a daily basis."

A CHAPTER I READING PROGRAM participant, second grade St. Catherine's School student Candice Griffin of Charlestown, works on improving her reading skills via the use of a computer with speech capability under the guidance of Chapter I Reading Teacher Sheila Tilton at the Harvard-Kent School.

Each of the 45 workstations at the Harvard-Kent School includes a 640K computer with color monitor and extensive courseware. Some computers also possess speech capability to facilitate such programs as "Writing to Read," designed to teach kindergarten and first-grade students how to write what they can say and to read what they can write. Other equipment being utilized under loan includes a printer, several headphones and a Model 60 server.

Installation, maintenance and professional development costs for the systems have been incurred by the Boston School Department, however, the assistance of the private sector is now needed to finance equipment and courseware obtained on loan. Contributions are tax deductible and pledge cards will be available at the breakfast.

For more information on the breakfast, contact Maryann Bartolo, manager of Internal Communications for Keane Inc. at 241-9200, ext. 420.

HARVARD-KENT SCHOOL Principal Joanne McManus looks on as fifth grade students, (l. to r.) Shervonne Tucker of Roxbury and Danny Jones and Frankie Figueroa of Charlestown utilize computer technology for learning in the classroom.

"It's easy to criticize but why not leave all that behind us."

There's a great deal of negative talk and finger pointing going on these days about who is responsible for our state's current problems. It's time to leave all that talk behind and move on to solutions.

My name is Mark Strahan. I'm a life long resident of Everett and a candidate for state senator. I've entered the race because I'm concerned about the future of our district and our state.

The future is especially important to me now, because, in the fall, I'm getting married and will start to build a family of my own. As a public servant, I am deeply concerned about the area's future. As a husband and a future father, I'm deeply committed to ensuring my family's future.

The problems that we all face are difficult, and the solutions are not easy. With your help, I will be your senator at the State House who is committed to making the hard decisions that must be made.

Please support me in this September's Democratic primary.

Thank you.

Children's Films

The Film Program for Children will be presented at the Charlestown Branch Library, 179 Main St., on Tuesday, June 19 at 10:30 a.m. and 3:30 p.m.

The features will be "A Boy, A Dog, And A Frog," in which a frog hunt ends in surprise for a boy and his dog; take a tasty trip through the 12 months in "Chicken Soup With Rice;" find out whether Donald Duck survives a visit from his three angelic nephews in "Donald's Nephews."

A mysterious minstrel puts on an impromptu concert in "Ty's Homemade Bread," shown only at 3:30 p.m.

The suggested readings in conjunction with these films are Chicken Soup with Rice by Maurice Sendak, Making Musical Things by Ann Wiseman and Frogs and Toads by Kate Petty.

Not For Nothin' . . . But Have You Heard . . .

• We're So Glad To See Ya! . . . Welcome home to all transplanted "Townies" who have come back for this year's Bunker Hill Day activities . . . And greetings to all newcomers who will be experiencing the excitement of Charlestown's Pride Week for the first time. Enjoy!!

• Tip 'O The Hat . . . to all who have worked so hard to bring to the community the array of activities that we are enjoying this week! We appreciate your dedication and months of hard work.

• Today Is Flag Day . . . June 14th. Proudly display that flag but perhaps more important, think of what it represents. In the words of John Boyle O'Reilly, "The veteran of the war is dearer and nearer than the flag. He is a living flag, starred and scarred."

• News From St. Mary's Parish . . . to all former, present and new residents . . . The ongoing Preservation Fund Drive is starting to show benefits from its efforts. But much more is needed to adequately restore the Church to its original magnificent splendor. Built on Warren Street in 1888 by architect Patrick C. Keely, the well-maintained building needs your help. To be included in the exciting plans to preserve the Church, send a donation to: St. Mary's Preservation Fund, 1 Monument Square, Charlestown, Mass. 02129.

• Mary Giarratani . . . of Constitution Co-op is beaming about her three granddaughters' achievements. Danikka graduated from Boston Latin and is accepted as a political science student at Whittier College in California, Tanya will turn 17 on the 17th; and little Nealia graduated from nursery school on June 12th. Congrats to all the Giarratani ladies!

• What A Way To Mark An Anniversary! . . . It is one year this month since the first family moved into the Bricklayers affordable housing in the Navy Yard. Private celebrations are taking place family-by-family ... but, now for the rest of the story! Unbeknownst to the inhabitants of this enclave by the sea, one eccentric fellow took matters in hand and ventured onto First Avenue and 13th Street baring all, in the spirit of celebration. Wearing only a hand-held fan (suppose the whole event gave him palpitations) he was quickly carted away by the men in blue. Asked who the adventurous soul was, a local resident remarked, "Who looked at his face?"

• Happy First Anniversary . . . to John and Kelly Ann Lynch, who tied the knot last June 17th. Have a wonderful day.

• Birthday Wishes Go Out To . . . Gale Monaco of O'Brien Court and Florence Poole of Medford Street who'll be celebrating on June 15th. (It will be Florence's 71st!) . . . and Judy Burton who'll turn 39 (again) on the 19th. Have a great year ladies!

• Belated Birthday Wishes . . . go out to Glenn Luce who turned 60 on June 11th . . . Mel Stillman who turned 68 on June 12th and Margie Turner who turned another year younger on June 12th. Hope it was a good one, folks.

• Outdoor Concert . . . at Boston's Waterfront Park, Atlantic Avenue on June 16th between 7:30-9 p.m. The free concert will feature Broadway and American tunes with a special salute to Irving Berlin, performed by the Longwood Symphony Orchestra.

• Tid Bits . . . Psst! Let you in on a little secret . . . Monique Pare, 1990 Charlestown Rose, can be seen every week in the Patriot as the Victorian Maid in her brother's advertisement for Maid to Perfection . . . One of the newest of Boston's Finest is Officer Joseph Gallarelli of Charlestown who was sworn in on May 25th at Faneuil Hall . . . Omitted . . . and we're sorry . . . was Kelly Fitzgerald's name under the Kiwanis Club Awards Dinner photos. Kelly did a great job and should be so recognized . . . Congrats to Mike Tognarelli for his prompt response in rendering First Aid at a three-car accident in City Square on June 6th . . . Joey Porter, youth extraordinaire at the club, manned the CHAD table during last Saturday's Field Day and did a great job. Joe gave up a barbecue to take on the post. Later that weekend he was involved in a bad auto accident, we're told, but happy to report he's doing well . . . If you see Ann Martin this weekend wearing her new spring jacket, ask her where it came from.

• Tick, Tick, Tick . . . Time is passing . . . It has now been 83 days since a Charlestown Community Liaison has been on the job in City Square to oversee the CANA project. As the weeks go by, more questions come from the community inquiring as to when he or she will be placed at the multimillion-dollar excavation project that is so heavily affecting Charlestown. Stay tuned.

• Whatever You Do This Weekend . . . DON'T FORGET DAD! . . . Sunday, June 17th is FATHER'S DAY. Have an extra special day, Dads!

Happy Bunker Hill Day, Charlestown!!!!

Voke Recognized By J.F. Kennedy Family Service Center

Rep. Richard A. Voke last week accepted an award from Charlestown's Kennedy Center Headstart program for his continuous efforts in raising funds and working toward the rebuilding of the center's Moulton Street facility, which was seriously damaged by fire in 1987. Voke received the award, an engraved brass schoolbell, from the center's Executive Director Katherine McDonough and Board of Directors President Nancy Keyes. Voke secured a $50,000 capital improvements grant for repairing the ailing structure in June of 1988, and dedicated the award in the name of the late Charlestown activist, Gus Charbonnier.

Despite being recognized for his efforts in landing funds for the renovation of the building, Voke insisted that the importance of revamping the property had little to do with the building itself, and more to do with the services the Kennedy Center has been providing for the area's children for over 20 years. "The children are what made doing this (rebuilding the facility) so necessary," Voke noted. "The Kennedy Center has offered the best in care and services through its Headstart program, and has consistently provided Charlestown's kids with opportunities they would have gone without." Voke continued, "This is about children, not a building. The kids are who we are fighting for!"

Voke, who is Chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, was the first state official in the nation to use state funds to supplement Headstart, a federal program that provides educational services to children below the poverty level. Since Voke began channeling state dollars into the program, the account has grown from $2.5 million to its present level of $6 million. In Voke's budget recommendation for fiscal year 1991, he has again added to the account, suggesting another million to bring the level of funding up to $7 million for the children of the Commonwealth.

REP. RICHARD A. VOKE, chairman, House Ways and Means Committee, took time from his busy schedule to visit with the children and tour the newly renovated Headstart facility in Hayes Square.

Voke is clearly ambitious about Headstart, and admits it is a program that he favors: "The Headstart program has proven results, when one considers that children participating in the program are twice as likely to be literate, twice as likely to acquire post-secondary education, and half as likely to need public assistance, and thus enjoy the level of independence that every citizen of our Commonwealth has the right to obtain."

In addition to continuously expanding Headstart funding, Voke also increased the Department of Social Services budget by $16.2 million above the administration's recommendation for fiscal year 1991. A substantial amount of these funds will retain day care and other child welfare programs which are provided by organizations like the Kennedy Center.

"This is a great day for the Kennedy Center and for the children of our community who rely on this facility for the miracles it works for them," Voke concluded, "I feel privileged to have had the opportunity to lend a helping hand."

Groomtown In Charlestown Means Clean Beautiful Pets

by Lynn Peters

All the cats and dogs in the neighborhood are buzzing about Groomtown, Charlestown's long-awaited full-service pet-pampering salon. The 269 Main St. shop is where chic-minded pets are gathering since it opened for business this month. And why not? All the primping and preening is producing some very well-coiffed pets about town.

Greeting clients and their proud "parents" are owner Diane Grant Brennan, manager Eileen Christopher, and fellow groomers Sheila Cuff and Jeannie Ogar. Newly selected Charlestown Rose Monique Pare also serves as a veterinary student and grooming assistant when not attending classes at Boston University. Visiting on Wednesdays is Dr. John DeJong, of the Boston Mobile Veterinary Clinic who provides routine medical care for animals.

THE FOLKS AT GROOMTOWN will pamper your pets with grace and style at their recently opened facilities at 269 Main St. Groomtown offers full grooming and bathing services, pet food and supplies, and Wednesday visits with the vet. The crew includes (l. to r.) Sammy and 1990 Charlestown Rose Monique Pare, vet and grooming assistant; Angelo and Diane Grant Brennan, owner and groomer; Choate and Dr. John DeJong, DVM; former Groomtown mascot Rex Trailor and Linda Rea, friend; and Jeannie Ogar, groomer. Missing are Eileen Christopher, manager and groomer, and Bo Donahue, Groomtown's very first customer. (photo by Lynn Peters)

Groomtown's first customer Bo Donahue, a whopping golden retriever that accompanies master Tommy, has already enjoyed a bath and a brush. Word travels fast. The Groomtown team has seen six to seven animals each day since its June 1 opening, according to Brennan. At Groomtown, pets are treated to a variety of services, including complete groomings, hot oil treatments, flea baths and dips, and medicated baths. Pet food, supplies and pest-prevention products will also be on sale.

All of the groomers have graduated from training programs and are certified. All have experience in the field of grooming and have beautified animals in Medford, Burlington, Weymouth and Somerville before combining their talent in a Charlestown business.

DeJong operates the Boston Mobile Veterinary Clinic and spends two days a week at Brighton Animal Hospital when he's away from Groomtown. Last year he was voted Best of Boston in Boston Magazine and says his chief concern is "providing good quality preventive care to animals at fair prices." DeJong specialized in surgery and is a graduate of Tufts. A Back Bay resident, DeJong is making a run against Billy Bulger for state Senate.

The folks at Groomtown invite pet owners to drop in for a special open house during the Bunker Hill Day Parade on Sunday for coffee, cake and a tour of their brand-new facilities. Stop in, meet the Groomtown gang and schedule an appointment for your pet.

yo, Ireland in August. Pare will receive a trip to Ireland for her and her chaperone for a tour and the festival She will also receive a gown designed especially for her by Priscilla of Boston and a complete make-over from Fancy Fingers.

Besides Pare, this year's contestants included: Susan Burke, Marykathryn Crilley, Kathleen Evers, Tracie Jacob, Marytheresa Lynch, Keri O'Brien and Virginia O'Brien.

The contestants arrived at the hall shortly before 6 p.m. on Friday night and drew numbers to determine the order in which they would meet the judges and be presented to the audience.

The judges were Mary Pat Caputo of The Flatley Co.; Ellen Mary Carr of "Sound Of Erin" Irish radio program; and Joseph Leary, president and chief executive officer, Irish-American Partnership.

Following a three- to five-minute interview with each of the contestants, the judges turned their scoring sheets over to the tabulators and the winner and runner-up were determined. The tabulators were Rev. Martin McVeigh of the Irish Pastoral Centre and Larry Reynolds, president, Comhaltos Ceoltoir i Eiregnn. Eleanor Smith served as overseer, a position she has held since the inception of the contest.

MARYTHERESA LYNCH is presented her award as runner-up in the 1990 Rose Contest by 1990 Mayor of Charlestown Florence Johnson.

As the gathering awaited the announcement, a delicious dinner was served by Scalli Caterers, and Andy Healey and his band began the entertainment.

Peter Looney, Charlestown-To-Charlestown Committee chairman, welcomed the gathering, introduced past Charlestown Roses and Mayors and acknowledged committee members. He extended thanks to Thomas Flatley, sponsor of the 1990 Rose, the Knights of Columbus for the use of the hall and Jay Farris for the decorations. Looney presented master of ceremonies John Curran, host of the "Sounds of Erin" Irish radio program on WNTN 1550 AM.

Each of the contestants was escorted into the hall by her father or her brother, introduced to the gathering and then seated with their respective families to await the announcement. Following the introductions, 1989 Charlestown Rose Barbie Marsden and 1990 Mayor of Charlestown Florence Johnson were given an envelope containing the decision of the judges.

The first announcement was the name of the runner-up, who would carry out the duties of the Rose if she was unable to serve her term. Marytheresa Lynch was announced as the runner-up, and was congratulated with a big hug from her father Ed Lynch. She was awarded a $250 prize.

Johnson then made the long-awaited announcement that Monique Pare had been selected this year's Charlestown Rose. The Scalli family jumped to their feet, hugging Pare as she made her way to the stage in the midst of applause from the audience to accept her crown, sash and, of course, a bouquet of red roses. Pare took the traditional walk down the runway and was joined on stage by her parents, Bob and Carol Scalli.

In reflecting on the contest, Pare stated that it was "a good experience." She added, "It gave me insight on what an interview for vet school would be like," leading to her planned career as a veterinarian.

Pare said that she wasn't really nervous about the contest until "I got in the room and sat down with the judges. It was hard coming up with answers without having any time to think about what I would say."

A graduate of St. Francis de Sales and Charlestown High schools, Pare has just completed her freshman year at Boston University's College of Liberal Arts. She is in the Pre-Veterinary program and lives in a dormitory during the school year. Attending BU on a full Boston High School Scholarship, Pare comments that "college is a lot of work. If you put the amount of work aside, it's good."

A lot of work will be in Pare's future if her goal to be a veterinarian is to be realized. During her summer vacation, she is working with a veterinarian and is at Charlestown's new animal care center Groomtown three days a week. She says that when the vet is in she holds the animals and calms them down. "I'm learning how he gives shots and examines the animals so I can do it. I'm also bathing the animals," she said.

Pare's hobbies include horseback riding, skiing and, of course, animals. She loves horses and a favorite story is how she rented a horse for eighth-grade graduation and rode it around Charlestown. She said, "I wanted something different for graduation."

Eighteen-year-old Monique resides on Sackville Street with her parents, Bob and Carol Scalli. Her brothers and sisters are Bobby, Beth, Michelle, Steven, David and Julie. She traces her Irish roots to her grandmother's family who hailed from Cork.

Pare is excited about her trip to Ireland in August to compete in the Western Rose Festival and is looking forward to her official duties as Charlestown Rose.

The Charlestown-To-Charlestown Committee will now be finalizing plans for the Aug. 7 to 19 tour of Ireland, highlighted by the Rose Festival. Members of the committee include: Looney, Peg Bradley, Jim Fitzgerald, Arthur Hurley, Norita Lee, Barbie Marsden, Carol McClellan, Paul Morceau, Marty O'Brien Sr., Marty O'Brien Jr., Allyson O'Callahan, John Reveliotis and Mary Lou Tracy.

1990 MAYOR OF CHARLESTOWN Florence Johnson was escorted into the hall for the Rose Contest by her son Eric.

Bunker Hill Associates To Honor 11 Fallen Firefighters Of Charlestown

by Charlie McGonagle

Several months prior to the celebration of Bunker Hill Day 1986, 35 men gathered at the first meeting of the Bunker Hill Associates. The Associates were then and continue to be an organization whose purpose it is to provide funds to help support youth-oriented programs and activities in the Charlestown community. The group's major focus is on Bunker Hill Day and the surrounding activities of Charlestown Pride Week.

Each year the Associates sponsor a holiday breakfast on the morning of Bunker Hill Day. One of the unique features of the breakfast is the dedication of its program to a person or group whose contributions to the Charlestown community have made a significant impact on the area's residents.

This year the Associates have unanimously agreed to honor 11 Charlestown firefighters who have made the supreme sacrifice to their community by giving their lives while in the line of duty.

As with the previous honorees, the Associates, through this 1990 dedication, are determined to keep the names of these valiant men etched firmly within the minds of the good people of Charlestown.

The 11 men who have given their lives so that we who remain may have a safer neighborhood in which to live are:

• Firefighter Laurence J. Harvey, Ladder Co. 9. He was born Feb. 19, 1889 and was appointed to the department in 1917. Harvey died from injuries received when thrown from the tiller seat of Ladder Co. 9 on Aug. 12, 1942.

• Firefighter Robert J. Clougherty, Engine Co. 3. He was born April 17, 1933 and was appointed to the department in 1961. Clougherty died in the collapse of a front wall at 34 Trumbull St. in the South End during a five-alarm fire on Oct. 1, 1964.

• Fire Lieutenant John J. Geswell, Ladder Co. 26. He was born on March 30, 1924 and was appointed to the department in 1955. He was promoted to Lieutenant in 1964. Geswell died in the collapse of a front wall at 34 Trumbull St. in the South End during a five-alarm fire on Oct. 1, 1964.

• District Fire Chief Richard E. Sullivan Jr., Districts 1 and 2. He was born on Aug. 12, 1914 and was appointed to the department in 1941. He was promoted to Lieutenant in 1947, Captain in 1954 and District Chief in 1966. Sullivan died of over-exertion and inhalation of heat, smoke and gases during a working fire on Nov. 23, 1968.

• Firefighter Edwin H. Foley, Engine Co. 30. He was born on July 28, 1920 and was appointed to the department in 1943. Foley died when he was thrown from and run over by an engine while responding to a fire on Dec. 30, 1970.

• Fire Lieutenant Daniel T. McInness, Engine Co. 8. He was born on March 31, 1920 and was appointed to the department in 1947. He was promoted to Lieutentant in 1969. McInness died of a heart attack while fighting a fire at the Boston Navy Yard on Aug. 17, 1971.

• Firefighter Patrick J. Kelly, Engine Co. 26. He was born on Feb. 17, 1929 and was appointed to the department in 1957. Kelly died from a fall in an elevator shaft at 132-144 Lincoln St. while fighting a five-alarm fire on Nov. 22, 1971.

• Firefighter Thomas W. Beckwith, Engine Co. 32. He was born on March 22, 1937 and was appointed to the department in 1966. Beckwith died in the partial collapse of the former Hotel Vendome on Dartmouth Street and Commonwealth Avenue during a four-alarm fire on June 17, 1972.

• Firefighter Joseph F. Boucher Jr., Engine Co. 32. He was born on Jan. 10, 1944 and was appointed to the department in 1970. Boucher died in the partial collapse of the former Hotel Vendome on Dartmouth Street and Commonwealth Avenue during a four-alarm fire on June 17, 1972.

• Firefighter Hugh F. O'Brien, Ladder Co. 5. He was born on July 18, 1920 and was appointed to the department in 1948. O'Brien suffered a heart attack on April 11, 1977 at a fire near the Bellevue Tower.

• Firefighter James M. Gibbons, Engine Co. 37. He was born on May 6, 1949 and was appointed to the department in 1974. Gibbons died when the third floor collapsed into the second floor during an eight-alarm fire at Arlington and Newbury streets on Jan. 6, 1981.

At a recent meeting of the Associates, it was said of the fallen firefighters, "They should not be forgotten, and they shall not be forgotten."

Charlestown Pride Week Opens With Field Day

IT WAS HOT DOGS AND HOODSIES at the Charlestown Pride Week Field Day at the Oilies on Saturday. Serving the food to the hundreds of youngsters were (l. to r.) Commissioner of Public Safety for the Commonwealth William "Bill" McCabe, Chief Marshal of this year's Bunker Hill Day Parade; Rev. Thomas Reilly, pastor, St. Catherine's Church; Mayor Raymond L. Flynn; and Jackie Pierce, president, Bunker Hill Associates.

MAYOR RAYMOND L. FLYNN couldn't resist a ball game, and he joined with local youngsters during the Charlestown Pride Week Field Day on Saturday.

Cape Cod Band To Participate In The Bunker Hill Day Parade

The Spirit of America Band from the Community of Jesus in Orleans, Mass., will march in the Bunker Hill Day Parade, starting at 1 p.m. on June 17.

Under the direction of Betty Pugsley, the Spirit of America is a 95-piece band whose members range in age from 10 to 65, and play traditional patriotic marches by Sousa, Goldman, Alford, Hall and many others.

In addition to the 69 musical instruments, the band features a color guard, drum majorettes and a precision flag corps.

First selected in 1986 by an international committee to represent Massachusetts in the National Independence Day Festival and Parade, the band was one of eight bands out of 105 entries chosen for award recognition. The band was invited to return to Washington, D.C. and Philadelphia last year to represent the Commonwealth of Massachusetts in the 1989 National Independence Day Festival and Parade.

Last year the Spirit of America band received a record 67 invitations to appear in parades across New England and was able to schedule 29 appearances throughout the season. In 1990, the band has scheduled 30 appearances.

All the members of the band are members of the Community of Jesus on Cape Cod, an ecumenical Christian community of approximately 300 resident members.

Bunker Hill Day Parade, June 17

He has been a member of the Board and served as Treasurer of the John F. Kennedy Family Service Center, a member of the Bunker Hill Council 62, Knights of Columbus, a member of St. Vincent de Paul Society of St. Francis de Sales Parish, a charter member of the Bunker Hill Associates, and he served on the Steering Committee of the Charlestown Fire Victims Fund.

He resides on Bunker Hill Street with his wife Margaret "Peggy" (Hartigan), his daughters Lynda and Maureen, and his mother Rose.

This year the celebration is being dedicated to the "Thin Blue Line — All Our Law Enforcement Officers" and representatives of various area police departments will join in the line of march.

The Chief Marshal's Band, leading off the parade, will be one of Charlestown's favorites — the Joseph F. Hill Post 156, American Legion Band of Waltham, under the direction of Dorothy Slamin Hill. The band will be sponsored by our local 520 Club. This band recently made national headlines when it marched and performed concerts in Russia. From all reports, the people of Russia were thrilled by the spirit and the music of this outstanding band as the residents of this community have been for many years.

Other stellar attractions in this year's parade will include:

- the Polish American String Band of Philadelphia, the first-place champion in this year's Philadelphia New Year's Day Parade;
- the Boston Crusaders Drum and Bugle Corps;
- the Spirit of America Marching Band of Orleans from the Community of Jesus; and
- the Kevin Barry Irish American Pipes & Drums.

Assisting Chief Marshal McCabe in organizing the parade is Chief of Staff Patricia Farris, past commander of Bunker Hill Post 26, The American Legion, and Parade Chairman/Adjutant James W. Conway, Past National Historian, The American Legion.

McCabe expressed his thanks to the dedicated few who work diligently each year on the Bunker Hill Day Parade Committee in the organization of the parade and on the fund-raising committee, for without them there would be no parade.

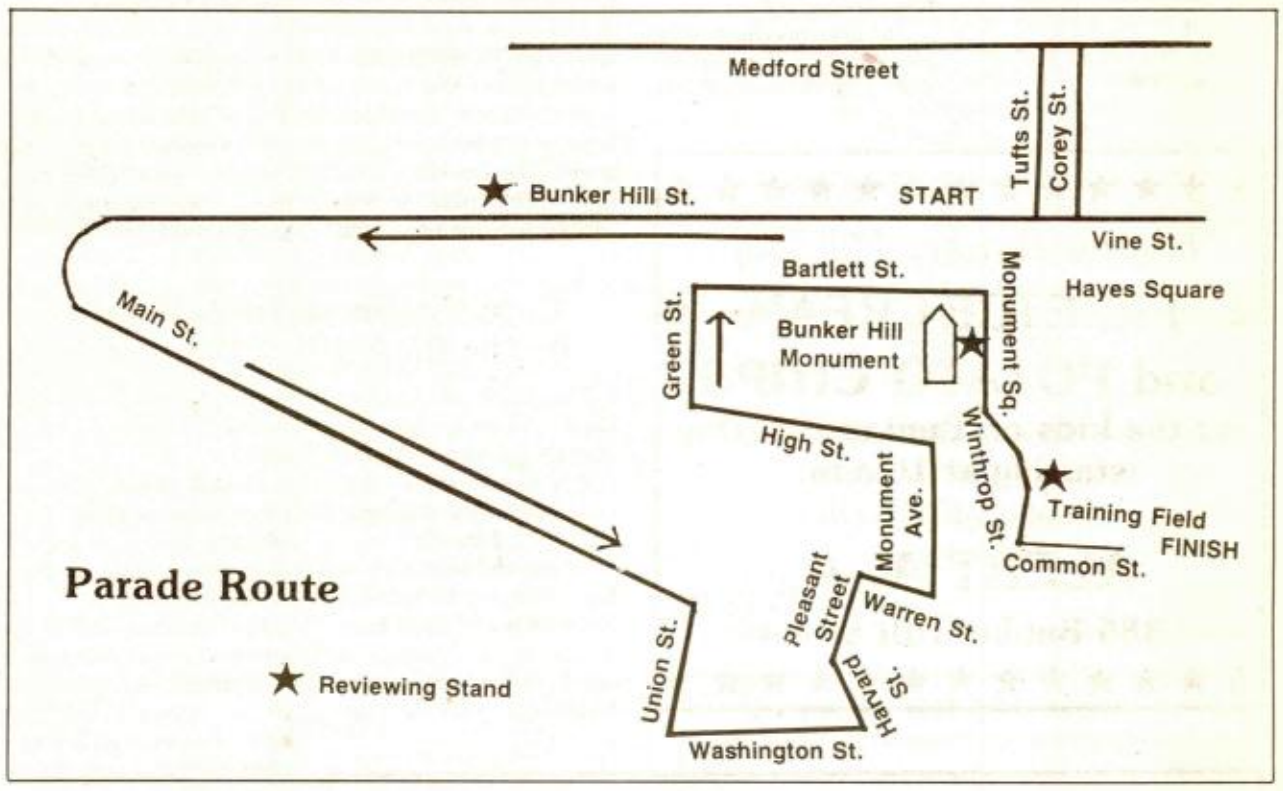
Through its hard work and tireless efforts, and with the generosity of the residents and some of the businesses, clubs, organizations, elected officials and candidates for public office, the committee has been able to raise the necessary funds to supplement the limited budget provided by the city of Boston to put a great parade on the streets of Charlestown. The town has once more rallied together in support of our celebration.

"This Bunker Hill Day celebration, commemorating the 215th anniversary of the Battle of Bunker Hill and dedicated to law enforcement officers, promises to be a great day," stated McCabe, "one of which the town can be proud. So many contributed to the success of this day, whether it be from buying a raffle ticket to making a generous donation ... each one was significant and each contribution was received with thanks.

"Let us, the residents of Charlestown all make the Bunker Hill Day Parade and celebration a happy one by putting out the welcome mat for all our guests and visitors. Remember that the bands, drum corps, bagpipes, militia, military, veterans and other marchers are here to help us celebrate Bunker Hill Day. They are our guests and let us treat them as honored guests," added McCabe.

"The Bunker Hill Day Parade Committee has worked tirelessly to bring you one of the largest parades in this part of the country, and it is now up to each and every resident to consider themselves a proud Townie and do all in their power to make this a grand celebration. With the cooperation of all, this can truly be a memorable day. Let's all make sure that none of the 'wise guys' mar the day, for too many have worked too hard to make this a topnotch family parade, one that we can all be proud of," concluded McCabe.

Residents, guests and visitors are requested to clear cars from the parade route and assembly area on Sunday by 8:30 a.m. Your cooperation will be greatly appreciated in order to facilitate the formation and the movement of the parade through the streets of Charlestown. (See map of parade route and the article on the streets posted: no parking.)



Cars Will Be Towed On The Parade Route

Residents of Charlestown, their guests, visitors and businessmen are warned that they must remove their cars from the parade route and assembly area by 8:30 a.m. on Sunday, June 17 so that the parade may proceed in an orderly fashion without obstructions. Any cars left on the streets after that time will be towed by the Boston Police Department.

Streets that will have a No Parking provision from 8:30 a.m. until the conclusion of the parade are:

- Bunker Hill Street from Chelsea Street to Sullivan Square;
- Main Street from the intersection of Main, Bunker Hill and Medford streets to Union Street;
- Union Street to Washington Street;
- Washington Street to Harvard Street;
- Harvard Street from Washington to Main streets;
- Pleasant Street from Main to Warren streets;
- Warren Street from Pleasant to Moument Avenue;
- Monument Avenue from Warren to Monument Square;
- Monument Square from Monument Avenue to Pleasant Street;
- High Street from Pleasant to Green streets;
- Green Street from High to Bartlett streets;
- Bartlett Street from Green to Concord streets;
- Monument Square from Concord to Lexington to Winthrop streets;
- Winthrop Street from Monument Square to Common Street;
- Common Street from Winthrop to Park streets.

Also the streets where the parade is assembling will have a ban on parking from 8:30 a.m. until the parade leaves the area, sometime after 1 p.m. Those streets are: Lowney Way, Chelsea Street from Gate 1 to Medford Street, Decatur, Vine and Hunter streets.

Bunker Hill Day Parade To Be Presented On Cable Television

For the seventh year, Norita and Bruce Lee of Charlestown will be hosting the coverage of the annual Bunker Hill Day Parade on BBN-TV cable channels A3 and A8.

The Sunday afternoon parade on June 17 will be carried on these community access cable channels beginning at 4 p.m. The two hours of coverage will include marching units, floats and interviews with the principals who planned the celebration of the 215th anniversary of the Battle of Bunker Hill.

The Lees, who are both well known in the communications field in Greater Boston, will conduct interviews and comment on the parade. This year's parade is dedicated to The Thin Blue Line/All Our Law Enforcement Officers.

In order to host the parade program, the Lees have to do their homework. They research little-known historical facts about Charlestown, current events and the background of some of the units. They will also incorporate information from the Bunker Hill Day Parade committee into their narrations.

The Lees are a husband-wife team. Norita, who was born in Charlestown, is a public relations specialist. Bruce, formerly from Kansas City, Mo., is a WEEI news anchor and interviewer. They have been married for 19 years, and have lived in a mid-1800s home in Charlestown since their marriage.

Once again this year, there will be several Charlestown residents on the BNN-TV crew covering the parade. These crew mem-

HOSTS of the cable television coverage of the Bunker Hill Day Parade will be Charlestown residents Norita and Bruce Lee. The parade will be cablecast on channels A3 and A8 at 4 p.m. on Sunday, June 17.

NO PUBLIC DRINKING

On, Sunday, June 17, the Annual Bunker Hill Day Parade will be held, a celebration enjoyed by young and old alike.

On this day, the police officers of this district have been requested by the Bunker Hill Day Parade Committee and CHarlestown Against Drugs to strictly enforce the No Drinking Ordinance.

There will be no drinking allowed on the streets of Charlestown. Those drinking in public will first be warned, and if they persist, they will be arrested under the provisions of the city of Boston Ordinance Number 14 which reads as follows: "No person shall in any public way or public alley, whether in or upon a vehicle or on foot, drink any alcoholic beverage."

This city ordinance will be strictly enforced on June 17, the day of the Bunker Hill Day Parade, so that the community may have a pleasant day, a successful parade and a celebration not marred by any unpleasant incidents.

CHARLESTOWN'S REPRESENTATIVE

RICHARD A. VOKE

The Polish American String Band To Appear In Concert At Bunker Hill Monument On June 16

A foot-tapping, hand-clapping good time is in store for residents on Saturday, June 16 at 5:30 p.m., as the Polish American String Band from Philadelphia presents a concert on Monument Square in front of the Bunker Hill Museum.

This concert, sponsored by the Bunker Hill Day Commemorative Committee, will feature the colorful costumes and award-winning music of the famous Polish American String Band — the first-place winner in the 1990 New Year's Day Mummers Parade in Philadelphia.

A mummer is defined as "one who goes merrymaking in disguise during festivals." Mummery can be traced back to medieval Europe when men and women would lead festal rites during the Christmas holiday season. History records that when the pioneer Swedes came to this country, they settled in an area known as Tinicum, bringing with them many customs of the old country. Important among them was the age-old habit of visiting friends the day after Christmas through the first day of the new year. They would travel in bands of men through South Philadelphia engaging in a series of festivities. This informal celebration continued until Jan. 1, 1901 when the first organized parade was established, and hence, tradition was set.

The band, whose theme this year asks "Are You From Dixie?", will allow listeners to revisit the sights and sounds of the era when the dignified South was on the rise as they travel below the Mason-Dixon line for their 1990 championship presentation.

Members of the band will be attired in various colorful outfits. One section will be dressed as elegant Rhett Butler-type Southern gentlemen in brilliant blue and gold tuxedos trimmed with blue pom-poms, wearing white-feathered backpieces displaying a mock confederate flag. Other members include Dixie minstrels dressed in pink and green costumes with green pom-poms, and rebel soldiers will be outfitted in silver and red confederate military uniforms with red pom-poms. The band will be led through its routine by Captain Stan Magenta Jr., who will wear an elaborate white and silver Southern gentleman suit.

All are invited for an old-fashioned minstrel show as part of their concert performance. Of course, no performance of the Polish American band would be complete without a sample of its famous strut and polka sound.

Since its founding, the Polish American String Band has been thrilling audiences of all ages with consistently fine music, beautiful costumes and outstanding presentations. Organized in 1933, the band became an immediate favorite throughout the Philadelphia area.

The band has been a consistent top prize-winner in the Mummers New Year's Day Parade, amassing an unequaled record of placing in the ranks of the coveted top five bands over 40 times, and placing first more times in the past 50 years than any other band.

Rivalry among the string bands is strong. Each band

bers, known for their "Moments In Charlestown" productions, will include Kevin Burke, Rob Borden, Ron Taylor, Billy Marsden, Carol Zanstruck and Francis Kirk.

They will be using three cameras to pan the crowd as well as working from the BNN-TV van which is a traveling studio on wheels. Brian O'Sullivan, van technician, will be a coordinator of the coverage, and Tom Clifford of Hyde Park will be an assistant producer.

In addition to her duties as co-host, Norita will serve as executive producer.

The coverage of the parade will be repeated on Sunday, June 24 at 3:30 p.m. on cable channels A3 and A8.

Costume Parade Set For June 17

A popular Bunker Hill Day event will be reinstituted this year as the Costume Parade returns to the Doherty Playground on Bunker Hill Street, starting at 10 a.m. on Sunday morning, June 17.

Chairperson Cis Greatorex asks that youngsters dress in costumes and come to the playground on Bunker Hill Day for what promises to be a fun event. Prizes will be awarded in various categories. The event is being sponsored by Laidlaw Waste Systems Inc.

For further information, Greatorex may be reached at 242-3956.

Planning Reunion

Members of the Charlestown High School classes of 1939 and 1940 will be holding their 50th Reunion on Friday, Sept. 7 at the Somerville City Club, adjacent to the Holiday Inn in Somerville.

Joseph Warren — Martyr of Bunker Hill

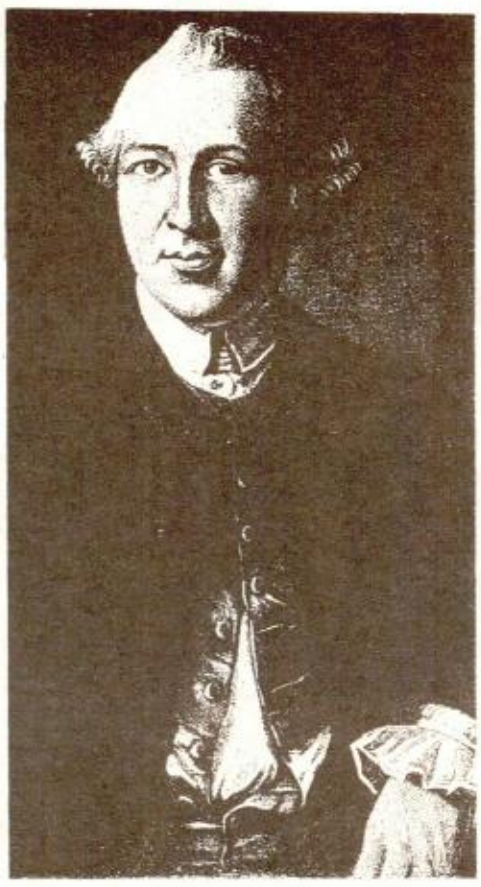
by Robert W. Williams III

On a quiet summer afternoon about 230 years ago, some Harvard College students shut themselves in an upper dormitory room to arrange some affairs pertaining to their class. Another class member desired to be with them — knowing they intended to thwart some fondly cherished purpose of his own. They refused to admit him; the door was closed, and he could not gain admittance without violence, which he chose to avoid.

Reconnoitering the premises he discovered that one of the windows in the room was open and he noticed a nearby waterspout that extended from the roof to the ground. He climbed to the top of the house and slid down the eaves, then laid hold of the spout and descended until he was opposite the open window. With a prodigious physical effort he thrust himself through the window and landed in the room! Simultaneously, the waterspout crashed to the ground; had it fallen a moment sooner the boy would have been thrown to the pavement below and, undoubtedly, seriously injured. He cooly remarked to himself, "It served its purpose!"

That Harvard boy was Joseph Warren, later to be known as Doctor Warren and General Warren, the martyr of Bunker Hill and the Grand Master of Masons (Massachusetts Provincial Grand Lodge) in North America. The boy had already given promise of the man in whatever he undertook. The fearless act of getting into that room was the swelling bud which opened and blossomed and bore fruit in his adult life.

Born in Roxbury in 1740, he graduated from Harvard and was made a Mason in the Lodge of St. Andrew in Boston on Sept. 10, 1761. He received the Second Degree on Nov. 2 of the same year, but it was not until Nov. 28, 1765 — four years after his initiation — that he was made a Master Mason. The delay was in the spirit and practices of the time.



JOSEPH WARREN

In December 1769 Warren received a commission from the Earl of Dalhousie, Grand Master of Masons in Scotland, appointing him Provincial Grand Master of Masons in Boston and within 100 miles of the same. The commission was dated May 30, 1769. When the Earl of Dumfries succeeded Dalhousie as Grand Master of Scotland he issued another appointment to Warren dated March 7, 1772, constitution Warren "Grand Master of Masons for the Continent of America," thus extending his original limits. He was indefatigable in the discharge of his Masonic duties and, coupled with the labors of his extensive medical practice, the care of his motherless children, together with his patriotic devotion to his country, won for him the highest regard of the public and the Craft. His name is indelibly engraved on the mystic temple of Freemasonry, just as it is on the pages of American History.

Somewhat impetuous in his nature, but brave to a fault, Warren craved the task of doing what others dared not do — the same courage imbued in Paul Revere, Samuel Adams and other patriots. On the anniversary of the Boston Masssacre on March 3, 1770, Warren was the orator. While it was a duty which won him distinction, it was also one of peril. English military officers usually attended in order to heckle Warren and it required a brave man to stand up in Old South Church, in the face of those officers, to boldly proclaim their bloody deeds. It required a cool head and steady nerves, and Grand Master Joseph Warren had both.

The crowd at the church was immense, the aisles, the pulpit stairs and the pulpit itself were filled with officers and soldiers of the garrison, always there to intimidate the speaker. Warren was equal to the task but entered the church through a pulpit window in the rear, knowing he might have been barred from entering through the front door. In the midst of his most impassioned speech, an English officer seated on the pulpit stairs and in full view of Warren, held several pistol bullets in his open hand. The act was significant; while the moment was one of peril and required the exercise of both courage and prudence, to falter and allow a single nerve or muscle to tremble would have meant failure — even ruin — to Warren and others.

Everybody knew the intent of the officer and a man of less courage than Warren might have flinched, but the future hero, his eyes having caught the act of the officer and without the least discomposure or pause in his discourse, he simply approached the officer and dropped a white handkerchief into the officer's hand! The act was so adroitly and courteously performed that the Breton was compelled to acknowledge it by permitting the orator to continue in peace.

On June 14, 1775, three days before the Battle of Bunker Hill, Dr. Warren was elected Major General by the Provincial Congress of Massachusetts. Without military education or experience, he was placed in the presence of the whole British army. Against the protests of Gen. Artemus Ward, Gen. Israel Putnam and others, Warren chose to shoulder a musket and join the fighting men behind the barricades on the hill. He had felt a premonition of his death and declared to Betsy Palmer, whose husband joined the Tea Party and the Battle of Lexington, "Come, my little girl, drink a glass of wine with me for the last time, for I shall go to the hill tomorrow and I shall never come off."

The shooting lasted less than one hour but only because the Patriots ran out of ammunition. Warren had been shot in the back of the head and thrown to the ground. His body was thrown into a ditch by a British officer and buried with the others. It was discovered months later and identified by Paul Revere who recognized a false tooth he had made for Warren. He was next buried in the Granary burial ground at Tremont Street in Boston where he was laid after Masonic ceremonies in King's Chapel and, thirdly, he was buried in the Warren Tomb in St. Paul's Cathedral, Boston. Finally, on Aug. 3, 1855, "The precious ashes were carefully deposited in an imperishable urn and placed in the family vault at Forest Hill Cemetery where they now repose." (G.L. Proc. 1855-69 p. 511.)

On April 8, 1777 Congress ordered a monument to be erected over the grave of Gen.

Warren in the Town of Boston, but like many other things that Congress resolves, it was never accomplished. In 1794 King Solomon's Lodge of Charlestown, now meeting in Somerville, erected a monument on Bunker Hill on land donated by Benjamin Russell for that purpose. It was "a Tuscan pillar 18 feet in height placed on a platform eight feet high, eight feet square, and fences around to protect it from injury."

The Bunker Hill Monument Association was formed in 1823 for the "purpose of erecting on Bunker Hill a more fitting and enduring monument to the memory of the brave men who fell there in the cause of human liberty." King Solomon's Lodge then gave the Association the ground which it owned, together with the monument it had erected to the memory of Warren, on condition that "some trace of its former existence" might be preserved in the monument to be erected.

THE FIRST BUNKER HILL MONUMENT

On June 17, 1825, the Grand Lodge opened at 8 a.m. and a procession was formed on the Common which proceeded to Bunker Hill in Charlestown. There in the presence of Marquis de Lafayette, representatives from every New England state except Rhode Island, along with the Grand Lodge of New Jersey, Grand Master John Abbot and Senior Past Grand Master Isaiah Thomas, assisted in laying the cornerstone and Lafayette and Daniel Webster addressed the great gathering. The monument was completed and dedicated June 17, 1843, but without the presence of the Grand Lodge. It was during the anti-Masonic era and a resolution to attend was defeated.

Inside the present obelisk is a model of the first monument that had been erected by King Solomon's Lodge. It is made of the finest Italian marble and, including the granite pedestal on which it stands, is about nine feet in height and bears substantially the same inscription as the former one. The memorial is now under the jurisdiction of the National Park Services and anybody can climb the 294 steps to the top without charge. From windows you can view Boston and, in particular, the Charlestown Navy Yard where the USS Constitution is berthed.

Joseph Warren, like Revere, John Hancock, Samuel Adams, George Washington and many others including Henry Knox, John Sullivan, Thomas Jefferson and Benjamin Franklin, seems to have been born and raised to inaugurate the glorious struggle for freedom, and then gathered to the heaven of the virtuous dead to herald the coming of their successors who have fought to preserve the freedom gained by the Patriots. From the writ-of-assistance trial of 1761 to General Washington's resignation from the Continental Army in 1783, Masons, men and women fought the most powerful nation at that time and forged a new nations of democracy that today links itself as the strong ally of the nation it defeated.

Bunker Hill Day Commemorative Exercises On Sunday, June 17

The Bunker Hill Day Commemorative Exercises, sponsored by Bunker Hill Post 26, The American Legion under the auspices of the City of Boston, will be held on Saturday morning, June 17.

According to Standing Committee Chairman James W. Conway, commander of Post 26, the program will begin at 8:30 a.m. with an Ecumenical Service at St. Francis de Sales Church at 313 Bunker Hill St.

Following the service, the veteran, military, militia and patriotic organizations will assemble outside the church and form a procession. The participants will march to the Bunker Hill Monument Grounds to the music of the Colonial Band of Lawrence for the Patriotic Exercises, commencing at 9:15 a.m.

The Monument Orator on this, the 215th anniversary of the Battle of Bunker Hill, will be Dorothy Slamin Hill, past commander of the Joseph F. Hill Post 156, The American Legion in Waltham.

Hill, who is director of the famous Hill Post Band, is the retired director of several nursing homes and is a prominent business person in her community.

She worked for several years through the United States and Russian governments to arrange for a trip to Russia for her and her band. The way was finally cleared, and last month Hill and her band took off for Russia where they marched and played, singing "God Bless America" in Moscow's Red Square.

Hill and her group had the opportunity to tour and play in several Russian cities and to talk with many Russian people. She will share her experiences with the community at Sunday's exercises at the foot of the Bunker Hill Monument.

At the conclusion of the formal ceremonies, a wreath will be placed at the base of the statue of Colonel William Prescott on the Monument Grounds.

Conway and the committee, extend a warm welcome to all residents, organizations from within and outside the community, to join with them on the morning of the 17th of June — the 215th anniversary of the Battle of Bunker Hill, at both the Ecumenical Services at St. Francis de Sales Church at 8:30 a.m. and at the Patriotic Exercises at the Monument at 9:15 a.m.

With the cooperation and attendance of all, these commemorative exercises will be truly a fitting tribute to our fallen heroes of Bunker Hill.

must develop a theme and evolve it throughout the year. Costumes, music and drilling supplement the theme. Bands spend many thousands of dollars on costumes, and each new year every unit must present completely new costumes and presentation to be eligible for competitive prizes in the New Year's Day Parade.

Performing throughout the United States has spread the name of the Polish American String Band and introduced Mummery to the country. Perhaps the most thrilling performance for the band came in 1979 when they performed for His Holiness, Pope John Paul II. The band has also made several appearances on national television.

Although the membership is no longer exclusively Polish, the band still promotes the slavic heritage of its founders. Band members include policemen, firemen, college/high school students, accountants, bankers, laborers and bus drivers, to name a few, who share a love of music and performing that keeps them busy with parades, concerts and holiday celebrations, adding their special touch to the Philadelphia Mummers tradition.

In addition to Saturday afternoon's concert, the Polish American String Band will strut through the streets of Charlestown during the Bunker Hill Day Parade on Sunday, June 17.

All are welcome to join the Polish American String Band in concert on June 16 at 5:30 p.m.

In the event of rain, the concert will be held at the Charlestown Community Schools Gym, 255 Medford St. at 5:30 p.m.

(Note: Although the Bunker Hill Day Parade will be held rain or shine, the Polish American String Band will not march in the rain due to the damage that would result to their elaborate costumes. In the event of rain, the band will perform a concert from 3 to 4 p.m. on Sunday, June 17 at the Charlestown Community Schools Gym at 255 Medford St.)

More Than 600 Runners Expected At Bunker Hill Road Race 1990

by Charlie McGonagle

For the first time in its more than 20-year history, the Battle of Bunker Hill Road Race has been designated the New England 8K Championship NEAC Grand Prix Road Race by The Athletic Congress. This prestigious designation is expected to attract more than 600 runners from the six-state New England area on Sunday, June 17 starting at 9:30 a.m.

The challenging course will begin in front of The Raymond Group offices located in Building 149 in the Charlestown Navy Yard and wind its way through the streets of Charlestown before returning to the Navy Yard for the finish line. During the race the runners will traverse Bunker Hill, pass the Monument and test their stamina against the hills of one of Boston's most historic neighborhoods.

A two-mile novice race will start at 8:30 a.m. and will also begin in front of The Raymond Group offices.

All proceeds for the road race, now in its 22nd year, will directly benefit the Charlestown Boys & Girls Club. The event was created in the late 1960s by the group's predecessor the Charlestown Boys Club to help commemorate Bunker Hill Day. The event's chief sponsor The Raymond Group is a major developer of the Charlestown Navy Yard, the largest historic redevelopment project in the country.

"The Boys & Girls Club is a wonderful organization with a vitally important role to play in the community," says The Raymond Group President David Francis. "We are proud to do anything we can to support this deserving institution."

Pat Sweeney, a member of the executive board of the Charlestown Boys & Girls Club and Road Race Committee chairman, says: "The road race is tremendously important for us, not only as a fund raiser, but also as an awareness booster. Thanks to The Raymond Group's sponsorship and the Championship Grand Prix designation bestowed upon the event by The Athletic Congress, we are certain to have our best year in 1990."

Proceeds from the race will be used to maintain the Club's youth and social services through recreational and educational activities, according to Sweeney.

Participants in the first few Bunker Hill Road Races came primarily from the ranks of the Charlestown Boys Club. As the event began to gain awareness in the running community of Greater Boston it began to attract high caliber athletes, and its popularity grew with each passing year. Finishing times are now on a par with most other TAC sanctioned and certified races in the area.

In the past the event has drawn many full marathoners to its field, most notably John Treacy who competed in 1989. Tracey placed third in the Boston Marathon in 1988 and 1989. Organizers of the Battle of Bunker Hill 1990 Road Race anticipate the largest field in the event's history.

For more information, call the Charlestown Clubhouse Director Jerry Steimel at 242-1775.

The Ladies' Fair

by Doug Cummings

Warren, Prescott, Stark, Putnam!

These are men whose names leap to mind today. These are men whom poets and painters, sculptors and scholars have memorialized for 215 years. These are men who, with their 140 fallen comrades are listed on the Training Field tablets. These are the heroes of Bunker Hill who changed the world.

Mrs. Sarah Josepha Hale, Mrs. Jonathan Chapman, Mrs. William Prescott, Mrs. John Warren, Mrs. George Durracot, Mrs. Thomas B. Wales?

These are women whose names we find unmemorialized, unsung and almost unknown. These are women without whose efforts the Bunker Hill Monument would certainly never have risen beyond the height of 87 feet it reached in 1837. These are women to honor today.

We celebrate not only the Battle, but the Monument itself. Its magnificent presence soars above us daily. Not unlike the majestic USS Constitution, the Monument belongs especially to Charlestown.

The earliest Monument was an 18-foot wooden Tuscan pillar erected in 1794 by the Charlestown Freemasons on pasture land donated by James Russell. In 1823 the Bunker Hill Monument Association was founded for the purpose of building a permanent structure. The Association moved quickly. By 1824 it had raised $55,000 and acquired 15 acres, and the cornerstone was laid.

The following 18 years, however, were a tale of fits and starts, enthusiasm and despair almost as harrowing and thrilling as that of the one-day Battle. A national depression, the Panic of 1837 and a threatened mortgage foreclosure forced the sale of 10 of the precious acres. Several selfless citizens who had given surety on pledges faced financial ruin. No work was done from 1836 to 1840. The Monument stood frozen at 87 feet.

Enter the women named above. As early as 1830, Sara Joseph Hale, editor of "Ladies Weekly," had urged women to participate in efforts to complete the Monument through articles in her magazine and by extensive correspondence throughout the country. Their decision was to hold a seven-day Fair in Faneuil Hall in September 1840 which would coincide with the national Whig convention meeting in Boston. some condemned the women publicly for "stepping out of their sphere." But inspired by the requests of these Charlestown and Boston women, their sisters through Massachusetts and beyond toiled to knit, crochet, embroider and sew articles for sale at the 47 tables at the Fair. Thousands thronged the aisles on opening day, and thousands more throughout the week.

The final profit, presented in a meticulous down-to-the-penny financial report was an unbelievable amount — $30,035.53. The heroines of this tale had raised approximately 25 percent of the total cost of the Monument — construction began again and the capstone was emplaced in 1842.

A full and heartwarming chapter Fair and its participants is found in George Washington Warren's "History of Bunker Hill Association," James R. Osgood, publisher, Boston, 1877. The motto for that chapter reads:

Next to God we are indebted to women — first for life itself and then for making life worth having.

New England Aquarium To Host Environmental Fair

Mark your calendars for "The Great Outdoors," a free environmental fair, on Saturday, June 23 from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m., on the New England Aquarium's front plaza and rear harbor terrace. Come celebrate the environment and meet Sea Squirt, an underwater robot, get a close-up look at a live seal pup, have your face painted and draw on an environmental chalk mural. Don't miss this afternoon of entertainment, exploration, and learning.

The Aquarium and several environmental agencies will present displays and interactive exhibits to promote ecological awareness and appreciation.

Learn about Save the Harbor, Save the Bay programs, and household nontoxic cleaning products. The League of Women Voters will distribute hazardous waste wheels, and the U.S. Coast Guard Marine Safety Division will display equipment used to respond to oil and chemical spills. Listen for live music, try your hand at knot-tying and paper-making, and learn about live animals and rain forest plants.

CANA Central Artery North Area Project

by Ed Barr
CANA Coordinator, Mass. Dept. of Public Works

We have received a lot of input in the last two weeks from abutters, neighbors, members of the North Area Task Force and interested citizens. Our thanks to all of you.

We would especially like to thank a concerned citizen of the Lowney Way area who alerted us to a potentially dangerous situation on the Chelsea Street ramp one Friday evening.

Next week we will make a change in the traffic pattern on Front Street. Traffic will be rerouted through the second portal under the North Washington Street Bridge, between Rapids Furniture and the old Maxwell Box building, past the Constitution Marina and then it will turn back onto the original Front Street.

For pedestrians, the hike from City Square to Downtown Boston will be increased by a couple of hundred feet. You will now have to pass in front of the Maxwell Box, cross the new detour road and then proceed to Downtown Boston by way of the pedestrian ramp or across the Dam. If you follow the painted red Freedom Trail, no one should get lost.

Anyone who would like to take a tour of the CANA project should call the Hotline at 241-5560 to sign up. If there is enough interest, we will set up a tour on Wednesday evening, June 20 at 7 p.m., or on Saturday afternoon, June 23 at 2 p.m.

For information or questions on the CANA project, contact Ed Barr on the CANA hotline at 241-5560.

THE ROAD AHEAD:

BENEFITS FROM THE CENTRAL ARTERY/TUNNEL PROJECT

Massport is playing an important role in the Central Artery/Tunnel Project. We believe it is important for residents to understand the benefits of this massive project.

FRESH AIR: Air quality will be improved throughout the city, with 23 percent reduction in carbon monoxide along the project.

CROSSING THE CHARLES: The design of the Charles River Crossing has shifted several hundred feet west, away from City Square and the neighborhood. This design will also eliminate one of the most dangerous and congested interchanges in the state.

PAUL REVERE LANDING PARK: Moving the roadway to the west removes it from historic Paul Revere Landing Park and from the MDC locks, which many residents use as a walkway.

EXPANDING THE ESPLANADE: Historically, the stretch of the Charles River east of the Esplanade has been an industrial and transportation corridor, inaccessible to the public for 150 years. When the project is complete about 70 percent of the river bank on both sides will be open park land.

American Heritage Unit To Participate In Bunker Hill Day Parade

Charlestown will be fortunate this year to have members of the American Heritage Association from Fort Devens in the line of march in the annual Bunker Hill Day Parade on Sunday, June 17.

The association is comprised of members from the 112th Military Intelligence Brigade and the unit represented on Sunday will be the 14th Continental Army, the Spirit of America Brigade and the color guard.

The 14th Continental Army Regiment has had a long and proud history. It was organized in 1634 and in 1775 officially became a regiment under Gen. John Gover of the Marblehead Mariners. Its Revolutionary War battles include the Siege of Boston, the Battle of White Plains and the Battle of Trenton. The unit was deactivated at the end of 1776. In 1967 it was reactivated under the Freedom Foundation Program at Fort Devens. Today, the 14th takes part in many events, including parades, musket shoots, colonial musters and re-enactments of historical battles throughout New England.

THE SPIRIT OF AMERICA

The Spirit of America Brigade is the youngest special activity unit. Its uniforms depict the history of the U.S. Army from inception to the present day. A few of these uniforms are originals, and the rest are exact reproductions made in the same way and with the same type material as the original would have been. A Brigade goal is to have each member knowledgeable about his uniform's period of history and able to discuss the soldier's way of life in that period.

The color guard consists of four soldiers: two carrying rifles and two carrying the National Colors and the Army Flag.

The association was established at Fort Devens to stimulate public awareness of our American heritage through participation in celebrations and parades throughout the New England area. Soldiers volunteer their off-duty time to fill the ranks of these units.

Ryan Stationed In Oklahoma

New Kids Concert Ticket Raffle

The March of Dimes Birth Defects Foundation is conducting a raffle of four concert tickets to the New Kids on The Block's July concert at the Foxboro Stadium. The tickets were given to the March of Dimes by Steve Grogan in an effort to help the March of Dimes Campaign for Healthier Babies, a five-year initiative to increase the number of high risk women receiving prenatal care.

With the concert being sold out, this is one of the few chances left for getting tickets. Tickets are being offered for a donation of: one ticket at $2; three tickets for $5 and nine tickets for $10. Send your donation with a self-addressed stamped envelope to the March of Dimes, 865 Providence Highway, Dedham, Mass. 02026.

The drawing will be held on July 13.

A Father is a great teacher,
Through him a child will see
That miracles are all around
Inside God's galaxy.

A Father is a man that builds
Toward a bright tomorrow,
And from the knowledge he will gain,
His child may someday borrow.

A Father is the name given
The person you have been
I have loved you as a Father
And have known you as a friend.

"May You Rest In Peace"

Thank You, Dad, For Everything

I have such special memories, Dad,
Of you and me together —
Of all the special moments that we shared.
I still remember all the times
Your love and understanding
Reached out to show me
Just how much you cared.
I'll always be so thankful, Dad,
For everything you've done . . .
For everything your life has taught me, too.
You've always meant so much to me
As a father and a friend
And that's why I'm so very proud of you.

Happy Father's Day

'USS Kidd' To Visit Charlestown

The guided missile destroyer USS Kidd (DDG-993) will visit Boston at Piers 4 and 5 in the Charlestown Navy Yard from June 15 to 20, in support of Bunker Hill Day.

According to Cmdr. Robert Gillen, USN (Ret.), military coordinator for the Bunker Hill Day Commemorative Committee, USS Kidd will be invited to participate in the "Salute To Charlestown" cruise of the frigate USS Constitution on June 16. Crewmen from Kidd will also march in the Bunker Hill Day Parade on Sunday, June 17.

USS Kidd is the leader of its class of only four guided missile destroyers, sometimes referred to as the "Ayatollah Class" due to the fact that these ships were originally built for use by the Imperial Government of Iran when the Shah was in power, and were canceled by the succeeding government. The U.S. Navy acquired them in 1981 and 1982.

The ship, homeported in Norfolk, Va., is 563-feet long and 55-feet wide and carries a crew of 25 officers and 297 enlisted personnel. Its armament includes two five-inch guns, two twin missile launchers, Harpoon anti-surface ship missile launchers, torpedoes and two Vulcan Phalanx rapid-fire Gatling guns. The ship is also capable of carrying two helicopters.

Other ships of the Kidd class are USS Callaghan (DDG-994), USS Scott (DDG-995) and USS Chandler (DDG-996).

The general public is invited to visit USS Kidd from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. on June 16, 17 and 18.

Visitors to the ship are advised to dress appropriately. Slacks and rubber-soled shoes without heels are recommended.

Lyons Graduates

Susan M. Lyons was one of 329 students who received bachelor's degrees from St. Michael's College in Colchester, Vt. Lyons received a bachelor of science degree in biology.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Lyons of Quincy, formerly of Charlestown.

Ring Honored For Outstanding Service

by Kathy Giordano

Boston Municipal Police Department Patrolman Daniel Ring received dual honors at the annual BMP Awards Banquet held on June 1 in Florian Hall, Dorchester. Ring, a Charlestown resident, was named Police Officer of the Year and, as such, was the recipient of the Robert McGrath Memorial Award. He was also presented the prestigious Police Medal.

In order to be eligible to be considered for nomination as Officer of the Year, a candidate must have been named Officer of the Month once during the year. Ring received that designation twice last year.

Ring was chosen to receive the Police Medal for his "outstanding individual effort and exceptional performance of duty."

Ring is a member of the BMP Gang Squad, responsible for the protection of city-owned buildings and public areas such as parks and playgrounds. He was applauded for the record number of arrests he made during the year for drug possession, unlawful possession/use of firearms and disturbances.

DANNY RING

Patrolman Ring is the son of Terry Ring, prominent Charlestown political activist, who proudly sat in the audience during the ceremonies.

Sing Out For Girl Scouts

What has 10,000 legs, Daisies, Brownies, a Hatch Shell and great rhythm? The answer is Sing Out For Girl Scouts, Patriots' Trail Girl Scout Council's 10th anniversary celebration at the Arthur Fiedler Hatch Shell on the Esplanade. On Saturday, June 16, from 1 to 3 p.m., children and adults from the Greater Boston area will gather to raise their voices in song and celebration.

This event is designed to involve people from all corners of the city and to capture the attention of all ages. There will be song leaders to reacquaint you with old favorites and introduce you to new hits. Whether you're a beginner or a veteran singer, this event is for you.

My American Flag

Opus Number One

O my Red, White and Blue Stripes —
Fly with pride.
Both of us together, side-by-side.
We would meet the foe in battle —
Come what may!
The American Way!
Countless shells fell in salvoes, round-by-round;
Felling faithful Banner to the ground.
Yet, you'd rise again in glory. Save-the-day!
The American Way!
Oh such pain, when we lost Bunker Hill.
Redcoats trained to kill ... Minutemen lay still.
But Wait!! My brilliant, braven Flag spurned defeat.
Stalwart Flag schemed their plight.
Britain's fate loomed in sight.
'Twas the King's darkest day.
No Escape! From Boston Bay!
Drowned beneath the waves ...
Doomed to salty graves.
Helplessness prevailed,
High-Command had failed,
Victory, now waned; Ne'er to be regained;
Britannia drained!
Captains wept in shame.
Frigates sank in flame.
England's worst defeat,
Gruesome loss of Men and Fleet.
My American Flag — Battle won!
But there's more to this War — Just begun!

Charlestown Senior Town Meeting

The city of Boston's Commission on Affairs of the Elderly will hold a Senior Town Meeting in Charlestown on Wednesday, June 20 from 1 to 2:30 p.m. at the Golden Age Center, 382 Main St.

Representatives from the commission will advise senior citizens of the wide range of programs and services offered by the city. They will also seek feedback from the elderly about the problems and concerns that affect their lives.

Refreshments will be served.

CHAP To Sponsor Elderly Housing Panel Discussion

The Charlestown Healthy Aging Program will sponsor a panel discussion on the issue of elderly housing in Charlestown and across the state. The managers from the various elderly housing developments in Charlestown will be panel members, along with a housing analyst from the Executive Office of Elder Affairs.

The panel members will provide information about eligibility and availability of subsidized elderly housing in Charlestown and the state. The discussion will also focus on some of the options available to elderly people today such as congregate housing and shared living arrangements.

Please try to attend what should be a very informative discussion. Mark your calendars for the discussion which will be on Thursday, June 28 at 1 p.m. in the meeting room of the Charlestown Branch Library, 179 Main St. — and don't forget to bring a friend.

For more information, call the Kennedy Center at 241-8866.

CARD OF THANKS

Perhaps you sent a lovely card,
Or sat quietly in a chair;
Perhaps you sent a floral piece,
If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words,
As any friend could say;
Perhaps you were not there at all,
Just thought of us that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts,
We thank you so much whatever the part.

THE WORD OF GOD ON IDOLS

Webster's dictionary defines an idol as, any object of ardent or excessive devotion or admiration. The Bible says, "And God spake all these words, saying ... thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image ... thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them," Exodus 20:15. "Lest ye corrupt yourselves, and make you a graven image, the similitude of any figure, the likeness of male or female," Deut. 4:16. "Neither shalt thou set thee up any image; which the Lord thy God hateth," Deut. 16:22. "Confounded be all they that serve graven images, that boast themselves of idols," Psa. 97:7. "They have mouths, but they speak not: eyes have they, but they see not: they have ears, but they hear not ... they that make them are like unto them; so is every one that trusteth in them," Psa. 115:5-8. "Their land also is full of idols ... therefore forgive them not," Isa. 2:8,9. "And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? II Cor. 6:16. "Ye turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God," I Thes. 1:9. "Little children, keep yourselves from idols, Amen." I John 5:21. BNHP To Host Pilot Program For Youths

The Boston National Historical Park has been selected by the National Park Service as one of seven nationwide sites to host a new pilot program designed to encourage minority youth to pursue careers in the conservation field. The new program, announced in Washington, D.C. last month, is called the Conservation Career Development Corps Program.

Funds for this program will come from the U.S. Labor Department. Participants selected will receive approximately $1,200 for the summer program which is expected to run from July 2 through Aug. 24.

BNHP Superintendent John Burchill has selected Ranger Jonathan Schafler from the park's Protection Division to coordinate the program. Schafler was instrumental in developing BNHP Junior Ranger Program. The local program which involves 15 Charlestown youths is only the second such Junior Ranger Program throughout the National Park Service.

"Ranger Schafler has been of immense value in establishing the Junior Ranger Program," said Burchill, "that his selection to coordinate the Conservation Career Development Corps Program is a natural."

Schafler, along with two other seasonal park rangers, will manage the daily operations of the program during its eight weeks of operations. Individuals selected will range from 15 to 17 and will undergo training covering the entire spectrum of responsibilities within the National Park Service, as well as an introduction to other federal, state, local and private conservation agencies.

For more information on the Conservation Career Development Corps Program, call Schafler at 242-5632.

News From The Boys & Girls Club

15 Green St. 242-1775

• Honors

This year the Teen Center, along with the Keystone Club, entered the Colgate-Palmolive Co.'s 17th annual Youth for America Campaign. The contest judges included "Jeopardy's" Alex Trebek, teen star Chris Young and Olympic champion Jackie Joyner-Kersee. The judges selected our project, the club's first annual Decathlon, from among the thousands of entries. The Decathlon also won a national award from the Boys Clubs of America.

• Club Closing

The club will be closed this Saturday for the staff to attend the annual Boys & Girls Clubs of Boston staff cookout at the Duxbury Stockade.

Also, the last day of the spring season is June 23. The club will reopen for camp on Monday, July 2.

• Track & Field Day

There will be a track and field day today, Thursday, June 14 at the Charlestown High School field in collaboration with Charlestown Community Schools. These events for youngsters 6 to 14 will start at 3:30 p.m. So come on down and compete. There will be refreshments for all participants.

• Camp Sign-Ups

The Summer Club is still accepting applications for the four sessions. Each session costs $60, and runs from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Birmingham Opens Charlestown Campaign Headquarters

STATE SENATE CANDIDATE Tom Birmingham officially opened his Charlestown campaign headquarters on June 9. Approximately 100 enthusiastic volunteers attended the opening at 182 Bunker Hill St., near the corner of Green Street. The telephone number is 242-5552, and everyone is invited to become involved in the campaign. Birmingham has been campaigning heavily and going door to door in Charlestown recently and hopes to reach every registered voter in the town before the primary election on Sept. 18. Birmingham is seeking election from the district which includes Charlestown, Chelsea, Revere, Everett, the North End and part of Saugus. He lives in Chelsea with his wife Selma and their two daughters, Erica and Megan.

POLICE LINE

From the desk of Deputy Superintendent Robert T. Hayden
Area A, Boston Police Department

Monday, June 4

An attempt was made to steal a boat that was moored at the Constitution Marina.

An automobile parked at 99 Main St. was vandalized by someone who smashed the window.

An automobile parked on Baldwin Street was broken into during the evening, and a radar detector was stolen.

A stolen automobile was recovered at Main and Dorrance streets.

Wednesday, June 6

An automobile parked on Medford Street was vandalized by someone who smashed a window.

There was a fight between two individuals at Charlestown High School which resulted in students being suspended. A group gathered outside the school later in the day in an attempt to continue the altercation, but they were dispersed.

At 8 p.m., Officer Olson arrested a 29-year-old Orleans resident on Rutherford Avenue for operating a motor vehicle after suspension of his license.

Thursday, June 7

A bicycle was taken from the basement of 34 Bartlett St.

At 3 a.m., Officers Boyle and Lee observed an individual discard a marijuana cigarette and a small bag with assorted pills at Pier 11 in the Navy Yard. The suspect, a 23-year-old Somerville resident, was placed under arrest for possession of drugs.

Sometime between 10 and 11 a.m., someone went to the rear of 58 Baldwin St., broke the screen on the kitchen window, entered and stole several Hummels.

At 4 p.m., a resident was walking to the store at 90 Medford St. when an automobile with four occupants stopped and they exchanged words. The victim entered the store and when he walked outside, one of the suspects attacked him from the rear, knocked him to the ground and fled in an automobile.

An automobile parked on Austin Street was broken into during the evening.

Friday, June 8

At 5:30 p.m., two teen-age males entered the store at 140 Main St. and began to take items from the shelves. The clerk approached them, they struck him across the face and then fled on foot.

A stolen automobile was recovered on Spice Street.

Saturday, June 9

A stolen automobile was recovered at 385 Main St., and another was recovered on Terminal Street.

An automobile parked at Pier 12 was broken into during the evening.

At 10 p.m., officers responded to Old Landing Way where a delivery man reported that he was approached by three individuals. One of them took out a handgun and placed it to the victim's head while the other two went through his pockets and took his cash and the two cases of beer he was delivering. Detectives Hennessey and Saggesse showed the victim some photographs, and a suspect was identified. A short time later, an 18-year-old resident was placed under arrest for armed robbery.

At 11:30 p.m., Officers Hassen and MacPherson observed two individuals at Park and Warren streets breaking into an automobile. As the officers approached, the suspects ran, with the officers in pursuit. One of them, a 26-year-old resident, was apprehended. The other individual was identified, and a warrant has been issued for his arrest.

Sunday, June 10

At 11:30 p.m., Officers Hassen and MacPherson observed an 18-year-old resident on Harvard Street who was wanted in the break of the automobile the previous night on Park Street. The officers placed him under arrest.

These incidents are under investigation by the detectives of Area A.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Letters to the Editor must be signed and include name, address and telephone number for verfication. The name will be withheld if the writer so requests. Anonymous letters will NOT be published.

Thank You

Dear Gloria,

I'd like to thank all my friends, neighbors and relatives for their kind remembrances during my recent hospitalization. Your prayers, cards, flowers and good wishes meant so much to me.

Now that I'm home and on the mend, I hope to get the chance soon to see each of you and thank you personally.

Sincerely,
Mary Holobowich

My Sincere Thanks

I would like to extend my sincere thanks to my family, my husband's family, relatives, friends and neighbors for the beautiful flowers and cards they sent to me while I was in the hospital. I especially want to thank my sisters for all their help, the guys at Conley Terminal in South Boston, and last, but not least, my husband Mickey.

Thank you again,
Janice Murphy

Thank You

I would like to thank the city crew, Tom Donahue, Jim O'Brien and Peggy Suprey — all Charlestown residents — for the wonderful job they did on the Rutherford Avenue clean-up.

Old Memories Blend With New On Bunker Hill Day

To the Editor,

Once again another Bunker Hill Day holiday weekend is upon us. When I think about this holiday, I think of younger days when my parents would take the family to watch the parade from our annual vantage point in City Square across from Station 15. The bands, clowns, pols and marching units would wind their way through Charlestown streets until they hit City Square.

My mother is a Townie and every year she would make it a point to return to visit childhood friends who remained in what the Yuppies and real estate folks now call Town Hill. My father was pretty sick last year and neither of my parents were physically able to watch the parade. This year my mother is widowed and will surely miss my father not being at her side, but she has every intention of relaxing along the parade route cheering on the bands as they pass her by. Some things never change.

My funniest remembrance was watching my mother chasing after her elderly father through the crowd lining the sidewalks of City Square. The more I watch my mother now, the more I see my maternal grandfather. Both of them lived half their lives in Charlestown. My grandfather Jimmy Harrington adopted Charlestown in 1907 after leaving Ireland and either lived or worked here until 1947. Each of them were definitely Charlestown (as my grandfather said it) Irish, and my mother is still going strong today.

My best Bunker Hill Day parade memory was back in 1981 when I marched with the Peoples Firehouse No. 2 Committee shortly after the Engine 50 apparatus was reactivated by the city following the successful neighborhood takeover of the firehouse on Winthrop Street. As we marched to the cheers of parade watchers lining the route, I never felt better about my neighbors or community.

The Bunker Hill Day parade route is memory lane for me. Who can forget the free Hoodsies at the police station or watching the old ladies run out to James Michael Curley with red roses or the fire trucks with sirens blasting in anticipation of the mounted police leading off the parade? Each year new memories blend in with the old and, hopefully, good memories grow to savor in later years.

Sincerely,
Sal Giarratani

Thank You

I would like to thank the Michael Quinn Scholarship Committee for selecting me as this year's scholarship recipient. It was an honor for me to accept this award and to be counted among the most privileged group of past scholarship recipients.

Thank You,
Chris O'Brien

Open Letter To The Merchants Of Charlestown

The Friends of the Junior Rangers are currently seeking sponsors. We are a separate group of parents whose primary concerns are in the best interest of the Junior Ranger program.

The Junior Rangers are a group of local youths who participate in various activities and are also active assisting the Park Rangers at the Navy Yard. Presently, they are preparing a monthly magazine "Freedom Trail Times."

We would appreciate the assistance of anyone who wishes to sponsor these youth who have represented the town in many events, including a trip to Washington, D.C.

Also, if you wish more information about the Junior Rangers program and would like a copy of the "Freedom Trail Times," please feel free to contact Wally Southern at 29 Allston St., Charlestown, Mass. 02129.

Thank you for your help,
The Friends of the Junior Rangers

My Thanks

I would like to thank all my family and friends for your love and support at the Charlestown Rose Contest. I appreciate it more than you could ever imagine.

Love always,
Tracie Jacob

Congratulations!

Dear Gloria,

I would like to congratulate Monique Pare on being chosen the 1990 Charlestown Rose, and Marytheresa Lynch for being chosen first runner-up. I also feel congratulations are in order for the other six contestants — just having the courage to participate in the contest is a tremendous victory in itself, which, in my opinion, made all the Roses winners.

As we were told last August in Ireland: ". . . you are all already winners, and tonight there will be chosen an equal among winners . . ." This year's contestants did an outstanding job — best wishes to you all and thanks for your participation!!

Best regards,
Barbie Marsden

Marra Graduates From Wentworth

William Marra of 15 Harvard St., Charlestown, was among the 603 students of Wentworth Institute of Technology to graduate at recent commencement exercises.

Marra received an associate in engineering degree with a major in architectural engineering technology.

Benjamin Quinn: A 1990 High School Graduate

by Bob DeCristoforo

June is the month of graduations. All over the city young people are donning their caps and gowns, walking up on a stage and picking up their well-deserved and hard-earned diplomas much to the satisfaction of proud parents, relatives and friends.

Benjamin Quinn of 74 Medford St., son of Julie

BENJAMIN QUINN

Quinn, graduated from Don Bosco Technical High School in Boston in a ceremony at St. James Church. Quinn hopes to attend Northeastern University in the fall.

Graduation is a most significant event, for a high school diploma is a key that opens many doors. It moves a person from one step to another and it is a true sign of accomplishment.

Graduation is noteworthy and newsworthy. To all those who have graduated and to all those who will be graduating in the near future, congratulations on a job well-done.

Recent Graduates

Three Charlestown residents graduated from Boston College High School in Dorchester at commencement ceremonies on May 27. Rev. John Brooks, S.J., president of Holy Cross College, was the commencement speaker.

The local graduates were: Robert F.X. Hart Jr. son of Alice and Robert Hart of 80 Washington St.; Christopher O'Brien, son of Cheryl and Arthur O'Brien of 7 Oak St.; and Kenneth J. Giordano, son of Carol and Carmen Giordano of 17 Cook St.

Foley Named Acting Deputy Superintendent Of BNHP

Boston National Historical Park Superintendent John Burchill has announced that Bill Foley will assume the duties of acting deputy superintendent pending review, recruitment, and selection of a permanent replacement. Foley's temporary assignment will begin immediately.

In making the announcement, Burchill said, "Bill Foley's ability to assist me during this transition period will be essential for effective coordination of park operations."

Foley replaces Wendall Simpson who left BNHP in early May to become superintendent of Cape Canaveral National Seashore Park in Florida.

Foley has been director of interpretation for BNHP for the past five years and has been instrumental in developing many of the park's interpretative programs. Upon learning of his new assignment he said he looked forward to his temporary assignment as a "challenging and enriching" experience.

Education Contest Winners

THREE STUDENTS from St. Francis de Sales School were recognized for winning awards in the poster categories of the 1990 Education Contest sponsored by the State Court of the Catholic Daughters of the Americas. Winners were announced at the CDA convention held last month in Plymouth and the local students were awarded their certificates by Court St. Jude 1123 Regent Gertrude Roche and Contest Chairlady Marion Considine. Shown front row (l. to r.) Jonathan Heelen, first-place Division II, grade 8; Shannan McLaughlin, honorable mention Division II, grade 8; and Timothy Healey, honorable mention Division I, grade 4. Back row (l. to r.) are Roche; Rev. John Stagnaro, St. Francis principal; and Considine. Heelen's entry will be forwarded to the National Court for further judging.
