"where are you gaia man are you coming back and answer our questions?"

Dear souls,

No I am still here. But all the questions are creating a chaos in my mind. When I close my eyes many things I see. They come to me, sometimes in color, sometimes in black and white.

Time periods are mixed. When I talk about the Great War it will be on a worldwide scale. I see different locations, but I try to get it clear where and when. Sometimes its easy, sometimes its hard and sucks the energy out of my body.

The views or visions if you want, which I can see are not always easy to deal with, because the World future is not always a pretty sight, but that will not come as a surprise to you.

Most questions here are about The Great War and the Virus. The coming time I will put more energy in that. I also will try, to tell more about where, when, who and how. I hope you respect this change of giving you more information, but its very important for me to keep a clear mind, because it makes my "tuning" easier and I can see more and better when I am in a comfortable mood. For now, take care and see you all soon, with more info.

Hello Dear Souls, like I wrote in the earlier post:

Dear souls,

No, I am still here. But all the questions are creating a chaos in my mind. When I close my eyes many things I see. They come to me, sometimes in color, sometimes in black and white.

Time periods are mixed. When I talk about the Great War it will be on a worldwide scale. I see different locations, but I try to get it clear where and when. Sometimes its easy, sometimes its hard and sucks the energy out of my body.

The views or visions if you want, which I can see are not always easy to deal with, because the World future is not always a pretty sight, but that will not come as a surprise to you.

Most questions here are about The Great War and the Virus. The coming time I will put more energy in that. I also will try, to tell more about where, when, who and how. I hope you respect this change of giving you more information, but its very important for me to keep a clear mind, because it makes my "tuning" easier and I can see more and better when I am in a comfortable mood. For now, take care and see you all soon, with more info.

I am still working on this way.

But let me say, because there are people who are thinking that "The Law of One" and myself are 1 person, they are wrong. I do not have a problem when people want to talk about some things in this Thread, but let me make this clear, I am 1 person. (you can check the User ID, and the way of writing).

I came to rest the last couple of days, and had some clear views or visions about the Great War. The next coming days, starting on tomorrow I will begin with the writings of which I saw.

The most difficult of everything is adding dates to specific events. Because its not

	a book I read, but only pictures I see when I "tune" in, some times in color, sometimes in black and white. But sometimes I can see numbers. But in my eyes its very clear that the time periode of what I am seeing is that between 2005-2012. The seven years journey to the moment the portals will open on different locations all around the planet. For what I see, sometimes makes me very sad and afraid, but when I saw the end of this period and looked to the Great White Light, it didn ´t matter anymore because it was of unknown beauty. That vision of the Light was so strong, that it gave me a lot of joy and energy. But the journey to it, will be very hard, and different for every living soul of the planet. Every continent has it own special locations. Even oceans have their spots. Both have their dark and light spots. At the end there only will be Light spots. Sometimes the visions are very clear to me, and come to me in a state of meditation. Sometimes they come to me at night when I am sleeping. Those who come at night are the most difficult to remember. Sometimes I can see numbers or even writings. For example, this week somebody asked me about where the first big earthquake would be. When I "tuned" in on that question, it took me 15 minutes when I saw the first pictures. They were not very clear in the beginning, but I saw some houses falling down from a hill. A minute later I saw the word "Welling" New Sea, and those words were very, very clear and strong! So for me it was Wellington in New Zealand. 2 days later I saw the same picture(houses falling from a Hill in NZ) on the TV news. But I thought It would be a major big earthquake in 2007, because I also saw the numbers 2007. But anyway, I will go on writing here with what comes to me. I already have some things on paper, but not enough to post them already. The next 3 days, I have more time, because I don ´t have to go to work, so I can spend more time on this. The results I will post here. Something on The Great War, I can give already to you. It will be very important that the people of the continents of North-America, Australia and Europa stop with their war on words, because they will need each other to the bitter end. Take care, Gaia Man
Gaia Man User ID: 308 5/23/2005 5:54 pm EDT	Dear Souls, I am back, because I promised to do. There were many questions about all sort of things. Like I told you already, it was to much for me, and it created some chaos in my mind. The most questions were about The Great War and The Virus. Thats why the last couple of days, I tuned in on these questions. Like I told you before, these views, or visions come to me in pictures. Sometimes in color, sometimes in black and white. Sometimes I even can see Numbers and writings. Because I took the time to see, without any pressure the last days, I did see a lot during this past weekend. And now I am in doubt! In doubt to tell you all, what I have seen. Because if you all could see, what is awaiting us, you would blind your own eyes. Try to see the old pictures of World War 2, they will look as a cartoon for what is coming. Should I share the Visions with you? Why should I spread the fear? What will it be worth?

	Maybe its better to talk more about The Great Light and the Portals. I will think about it. Take care

For the coming of the creator, I can not tell you, because I do not have that wisdom. For what I have seen when you enter a Portal, is a journey through a tunnel or some kind of tube system. You will travel very, very fast but have plenty of time to look around. I saw many colors, they were so bright, and beautiful. They will play a role in the Great War. A new Leader will come and preach peace, but he will not shut his eyes for the dark forces. The Temple will fall, but rebuild by the people of Israel. Saddam Hussein is given a last chance to talk live to the muslim population of his country. Al Jazeera will show it live to the whole Arabic World. He will say, I have a message from Allah for you. He will declare himself as a descendant of Mohammed. The message he will give to the Muslims worldwide is to fight the Christians, Jews and those who have no religion, because there is only 1 truth and that is what is written in the Holy Koran. After this they will shoot him. He will refuse the Blindfold, and will die as a Martyr. This will be in mid or late 2006 and start the Great War. More later, take care

Yet you say great cold is coming for many countries in Northern Europe. Iceland is definitely one of the most northerly of those. I would not rate a great cold as nothing special. So, can you see how Iceland will fare in this great cold that is coming? ----- Dear Soul, The Great Cold will pass your country in a straight line. It maybe even will get warmer, because I can see Ice melting. I do not see earthquakes and volcanic activity! I can not see clear what is under the ice. Something is there, but I only could guess. The Storm will begin. It will take 7 years, and take us to the year 2012. This will be the year, when you can go by free will through the portals.

	For now we will see, what earthchanges,climatechange and changes by man will do to our planet. The greater Earthquakes will come from South-America to North-America, Asia and even big ones in Europe. The Great Cold has started but is only small at this moment. Europe will already see big floods this year due to the changing of Climate. In Europe we will see the fall of 2 leaders. I think it will be the leaders of France and Germany. The Political crisis in Europe will be big. Its important to get this right again, because the Western countries will need each other very bad for things to come. The Middle East..like already said, after the execution of Saddam Hussein things will heat up. When the King falls in Saudie Arabia, his Kingdom will fall. The one who hides will return, and bring the Law of Allah. In the Great land of Egypt we will see a massive political change into the same direction. (Portals at the pyramids!) Dear souls, The Artic, the Artic!!!! The Ice is melting, it will be catastrophic! The RED DRAGON will have their propaganda games in 2008 like Hitler had his games in Berlin. After the games, another "game" we will see. The smaller Dragon will fire its rockets and will be destroyed. But the new Red Army together with the Old Red Army and the Army of Allah will be huge! In 2009 I see nuclear explosions in Asia. Oh Japan, I shed tears because of grief for you. More later. Take care

Saddam Hussein is given a last chance to talk live to the muslim population of his country. Al Jazeera will show it live to the whole Arabic World. He will say, I have a message from Allah for you. He will declare himself as a descendant of Mohammed. The message he will give to the Muslims worldwide is to fight the Christians, Jews and those who have no religion, because there is only 1 truth and that is what is written in the Holy Koran. After this they will shoot him. He will refuse the Blindfold, and will die as a Martyr. This will be in mid or late 2006 and start the Great War. Take care

He will join the Western forces (NATO) and that will be the key moment in the Ending of this War. 2011 or begin 2012 this will be. I prefer to talk about this, more then wars etc. etc.

	Before this happens there will be 3 nights of darkness after each other. Then the Portals. They will open when you hear the sound of the horn. The Great White Light will appear. You will see the Light and hear the sound. It does not matter where you are at that moment,in the year 2012! I had a clear vision about this and what will happen. A voice will speak to you, but you cannot see who is talking. Everyone is getting his or her own message. The voice you hear will be sounding very peaceful and it will give you instructions and directions to a Portal. You will have your free will to listen or/and follow. Arriving at the portal, you will see your soulguide. You may not enter yet, but first you have to answer some questions! (For some they may not enter). When you enter,the journey will begin, your guide is staying with you all the time. For what I have seen when you enter a Portal, is a journey through a tunnel or some kind of tube system. You will travel very, very fast but have plenty of time to look around. I saw many colors, they were so bright, and beautiful. I even saw colors I never saw before, and I can not describe them to you. At the end there are many different worlds. I think you have the ability to travel between different worlds. You are in the Fifth dimension. When I had the vision, it looked like travelling through a tunnel system. Wormholes? I was relaxed like never before. Take care.

Boy, 4, Dies After Spin on Disney Ride By MIKE SCHNEIDER, Associated Press Writer
40 minutes ago

LAKE BUENA VISTA, Fla. - A 4-year-old boy died after a spin on a Walt Disney World spaceship ride so intense that some riders have been taken to the hospital with chest pain.

Daudi Bamuwamye lost consciousness Monday aboard "Mission: Space," which spins riders in a giant centrifuge that subjects them to twice the normal force of gravity. The boy's mother carried him off the ride, and paramedics and a theme park worker tried to revive him, but he died at a hospital.

An autopsy was scheduled Tuesday to determine the cause of death.

The sheriff's office said the boy met the minimum 44-inch height requirement for the ride.

The $100 million ride, one of Disney World's most popular, was closed after the death but reopened Tuesday after company engineers concluded that it was operating normally.

Disney officials said in a statement that they were "providing support to the family and are doing everything we can to help them during this difficult time."

The ride recreates a rocket launch and a trip to Mars. A clock counts down before a simulated blastoff that includes smoke and flame and the sound of roaring rocket engines. The G-forces twist and distort riders' faces.

An audio recording and a video warn of the risks. Signs advise pregnant women not to go on the ride. Motion sickness bags are offered to riders. One warning sign posted last year read: "For safety you should be in good health, and free from high blood pressure, heart, back or neck problems, motion sickness or other conditions that can be aggravated by this adventure."

etc. etc.

Thanks for all of your help and such an interesting thread! Do you see anything for Dayton Ohio or Ohio in general? It's alright if you don't. Don't stress.

Dear Soul,

Tuning in on Ohio, I see butterflies all around me. I do not know what this means. Also the sky is dark and I see big Thunder to come. It will bring a lot of rain for many days. Also I see an old white Lighthouse on fire. A Riverboat accident, with people jumping in the water. Other boats and 2 helicopters come for rescue, but there are strong winds and heavy rain. Its not easy, but most people will survive.

The Time will come,
that The Great Lake will open to the people and Portals will be seen.

Take care

G'day Gaia man, fascinating thread - entertaining at the very least and informative anyways.

I a wondering about the Murray River region in Australia, particularly the drought/salinity ravaged areas around Victoria and New South Wales.

Thanks

Dear Soul,

From the waters of Abel Tasman Ice will come from the Pole. Before that, dozens of lost dolphins and whales will come to the sandy beaches of this region. Many people will help them back into the waters, but for the most of these animals it will be to late. I do not see more about this area. Its calm. For what I saw about The Great War and Australia, please read my earlier postings.

Hi,Gaia Man:Have you any visions regarding the future of mankind and Earth after all these natural- and man-made disasters,or will all be whisked away to some other planet or sphere?At one time I was shown a vision,whereby the old Earth became uninhabitable,a desert-like planet and a new paradise-like Earth was visible above the old one.I noticed the bluish haze round the new Earth,which indicated for me the possibility ,the new Earth is created from etheric substance.Life on new Earth seemed very abundant,with very vivid colours and ydillic settings.For what it 's worth...

Dear Soul,

By entering the Portal you will set the next step in the The Great Journey of the Soul.
You will go to another location in another dimension. There a many planets in this universe.
You will be able to travel between some as a Soul. We will leave planet Earth, for what we made of it. We did not do well with this planet.
It is written. We should take it as a learning process. Because still, most of us, may enter the new garden. Its worth everything.

Take care, Common Sense

Gaia Man,

I appreciate the effort you put into all your posts. Could you give us some background on how you go about receiving this information? And what impact do these visions have on you personally? Does the receiving of these visions affect you physically? I imagine the process could leave you physically and emotionally drained.

Thank you.

Dear Soul,

When I open my eyes, I see today.
When I close my eyes I see tomorrow.
Its what I get, I can not shut off.
It sucks the energy out of my body.
It is as it is.

Take care.

side",the way of equal opportunities? What about the role of benign E.T. 's and their motherships? I've seen UFO's on several occasions and always believed they're here to prevent worse calamities and guide us slowly into better living conditions.Many people seem to remember more and more their connections with other planets and levels of awareness,especially young children.Are they here to facilitate global transformations on every level,or has that particular agenda been abandoned in favour of the portal scenario?I'm interested to know about your insights on this matter.Many thanks as usual.

Dear Soul,

For deceased entities, there is no need for them to enter. Because the road of their journey went on a different road then ours to come. But both will be able to meet each other again, like we did many times in the past. Most of us, howerever can not remember this. The lights be seen in the skies on different locations, are the good! They will guide us. They were sent for our protection too, yes. Young children souls are closer to their last life. At what age of a human, his studyability is the most essential and best? The age of a child! Children will be the first to enter The Portals. They are smart.

Take care, Common Sense

Gaia Man User ID: 7284 7/8/2005 11:22 am EDT 	Dear Souls, This is another quick visit on the GLP forum, after not have been on the Internet for a couple of days. I still do not have an internet connection at my home, and I am still waiting for the service man to come connect me with an ADSL connection. Again I do this posting from my friends computer in his house. I saw some replies in another Thread, that because I did not say anything about the Disaster yesterday in London, it would proof my posings were fake. I did tell you that London would get the Olympics in 2012. I saw this in a vision. The vision was a view of Trafalgar Square with a rainbow above it. The different colors of the Rainbow started to move into rings. That was the sign for me that London would get the Olympics. After that I had more visions, but I was not on the internet and this forum anymore. Now, it would be easy for me to say, I saw The disaster in London which happened yesterday, but I was not able to post it, because at that moment I had no access to the Internet. It would be a lie, if I said that, because I had no vision about it that it would occur. But for those who have doubts about my postings, I have visions, about some places and events. I am not your tomorrow newspaper. Then I won the lottery every week. Look to other writings I did, let the events come! Look to my interpretations. Look what I wrote about dates and locations. When I am off at a location 100 or 200 miles, that makes me a liar? Please then skip my postings.

The colors started moving in rings. For me was that the sign, that London would get the Olympics. Tuning in again I see a picture of Trafalgar Square. Now I see an Eye above it, and the words NOT LOST. The meaning of it, is the same question for me as for you. But it looks as a big human Eye. Earlier I had a vision about your Leader Blair. He is a man that I saw with a white light surrounding him. I already know for myself, that that means, its a "good" person. This was the first and last time I was talking about persons good or evil. Sometimes the fingers on the keyboard are fast. Maybe its not smart to write some things about persons. The next question could be, what about Chirac,Bush, Sharon etc.etc. And I want to avoid those questions. But however, Trafagar Square in London must be a special spot I think. Who is this guy standing on top of it? Why? I do not have that wisdom. But It gives me food for thought. I suffer with the people of The Great City of London. It feels like a strike in my heart, and I am not from England. I am from GAIA! Take care

Thanks again Gaia Man.

"Who is this guy standing on top of it?"

"Nelson ´s Column is the focal point of Trafalgar Square. Admiral Nelson was one of Britain ´s best-loved heroes, who fought valiantly for his country and won four notable naval battles, at the personal cost of losing an arm and one eye. Nelson ´s last and most famous battle was fought off the Spanish cape of Trafalgar, when he defeated Napoleon and the French and Spanish fleets; during which he lost his life, dying aboard H.M.S. Victory."

Dear Soul,
Thank you for your information, because I did not have that knowlegde.
Spanish cape of Trafalgar? Spain will close his borders again! There will be a new battle.
History will repeat. One eye lost, one eye to watch. Thanks for me to study besides.

Dear Gaia Man,

Brian, at Briansprediction.com, says he dreamed of a B52 malfunctioning and exploding a nuclear bomb on board that would affect a 100 mile area in the U.S. Do you see anything about this and where it might be?

Dear Soul,

Why should I be the only person, who is seeing things? I don't know, for there may be many.
But I did not see this airplane nuclear disaster, and I am glad I did not see it. I follow my own visions, and thats more than enough to me. I do not say it will not happen, because I do not have all wisdom. But I am very confident this will not happen.

Dear Gaia Man,

We were having a discussion on the City of Wind.

<http://216.180.244.91/bbs/message.php?message=125670&mpage=1&topic=3&showdate=7/10/05>

Can you help with this?

Also it seems that you have not talked about New York City. It will no longer be #1?

One last ? Could you talk more about these guides. Who are they? Where are they from? Are they aka. angels? Should we test THEM as well?

Dear Soul,
If I have time left, I will take a look at that disussion. I do not know if I can help, but where you can help, you must help, for that I know. There are many names for what we call God, there are many names for the Guides.
Listen to them, will be a good start.

Gaia Man User ID: 6878 7/10/2005 2:50 pm EDT 	To: AZ User ID: 13009 7/10/2005 2:27 pm EDT Hello agian Gaia Man, I had this vision/dream about 4 months ago. I was standing in my bedroom and as I walked by my closet, the door being opened, I was wisked quickly into it. I felt paralyzed at first but then knew just to

	relax but keep my mind aware of being aware. After this I felt beings touching me but was not scared nor did they seem aggressive. After this I was standing in my room again looking at a large screen like a theater screen. In my room I have a large mirror that almost spans the length of my dresser and the screen was where the mirror is. while I was looking at the screen I began seeing a projection. It began with the very beginning of a construction like a network. I saw the first two corner stones if you will and then the construction began to take form. I saw it span the whole earth and it was called, The New Earth. There were lots of spheres and connecting points like a molecular model but there were other shapes too. Some of them were on the ground but most were elevated and some of the shapes and types of construction I had never seen before till then. The geometry was perfect and very beautiful. The earth was so vibrant green and sparkled like new. The construction was a perfect marriage of geometry and earth and the construction of the cities were all connected and built to accent the earth and not to be over bearing but complimented and respected the whole world. I was in awe as I saw the first two cornerstones connected and then watched the whole construction take place before my eyes. It was magnificent. The whole world was sparking and clean and void of any violence. I was just in awe of its beauty. After this the screen changed and it projected a scene before the new construction took place. The vibrant earth that I was just looking at became grayer and duller and I saw a magnitude of space crafts almost bombarding our planet. They were coming in from what seemed the south and moving towards the north but if the direction of the mirror was literal it would have been east to west. They were everywhere and I got the feeling that some were good and some were not like it was some sort of cosmic war or emergency and they all streamed in quickly. After this I was just speechless. I felt like I was in my own time looking into the future. I walked out of my room which was during the early afternoon and I was thinking to myself, will anyone ever believe my story. I felt like I had just witnessed the secrets of our world that have been kept hidden and it was like I would never be the same again and it changed my disposition having being shown this towards everything. I think I wanted to tell others but felt it was a gift I received and sharing it would not do it any justice anyway. From that moment on I just walked around feeling like I was separated from the masses by seeing this. I did not feel better or more important just detached from the prior mindset all together. It really was so beautiful. End of dream-vision. ----- Dear Soul, Thank you for sharing. I think your guide is close to you. You are on the right path, but dreams can give a false view. So do not go blind on them. But it belongs to awareness. I think you will do fine! That is not a vision, but only a feeling. But I know I can trust my feelings. Take care

I was wondering, not just for myself but others also, about a woman whom many are talking about lately. She has been affectionately called Destiny. She is supposed to be a great helper in these times. I am just wondering if you see anything about this woman who is doing God's will. I know there are many, however, this one has been quite the topic of interest.

	Thanks for your time today and blessings to you. ----- Dear Soul, For I do not know her. If she is a great helper in these times, I would be glad to meet her. For those who help, are the lights in dark times to come. Take care

Will we know when the storm is here or will it happen suddenly with no warning?

Dear Gaia man,

What will happen to Thailand?

Dear Soul,
For there will be another wave to come from the sea for the Land of Thailand. You will be at the brink of war with the Land of Cambodia.
I see a Royal funeral in red, blue and white flowers. Flowers with the same color will be thrown in the waters .

In the south of your country the man in Black will fight against the man in Orange. Explosions, blood and people will get killed by the many.
From the Land of Malaysia will come a man, who will preach more hate. He will heat up the fire.
On an Island where boy is girl, at a festival, there will be terror.

Take care

Then when asked about Finland, you also said Finland will join Denmark and

Dear Souls,
I like you to see my postings 5 days ago.

Dear Soul,

About his sadness, its because he knows the time is approaching, a similar attack will hit France.
But it will be bigger. The Jihad has come to Europe with the attack in Madrid. He knows the Base is in Paris. He knows he will have to step down as a Leader, a younger man will come to replace him. For France I see a bus accident with people . I already wrote about the biker, don 't shure its this year, but my feeling say yes. The bus accident will be followed bij a traincollapse in France.
The Netherlands and Italy will have attacks from the dark forces soon. It will bring riots on there streets. I already told you, The Storm is on the Loose. Hurricane Dennis, will be followed by many, which will reach different states in the US.

Cuba: After many years The Dictator will die, starting a revolution in Cuba. Many people from Florida shall return to their families.

Tensions will heat up between Syria and the USA the coming time. It will come to an American Invasion in Syria.
For a long time there was not seen any fire in Israel. This soon will end.

Tokyo will get his terrorist attack to.
The people want the troops to come back.
The President says no. After another attack he steps down from his post.

For the London bombings, arrests are not far away. But the Dark forces are with many all over Great Britan. Spain will close its borders. Europe opens it eyes, but its already to late. The war will spread.
Warsaw in Poland, they will loose people at a shopping centre or something like that. A huge explosion.

Please look what is occuring.
But it will pass. Prepare.

Take care.

Dear Souls,

I am not anti-christ.

Christ was a man of peace, I hold his hand.

I pray for some visions not to come true.

I am only 1, not part of a organisation.

I do not preach the new, I am telling you the old. Symbols are many to see, but diffecult to understand. Many are connected.

The Eye, is connected with the Rainbow and Temple. Not only look to the victims of Kings Cross in London, look at the Symbolics.

And keep your eye on the stars.

Earlier I told you I saw the word MARCH.

I saw it again with the numbers 23-24-25

I did not see the Year.

I will come back, for now its the time for my work and family.

Take care the coming times.

Gaia Man, I was thinking. So far you've come across as benevolent and truthful.

But my inner voice has been telling me that it's the white people in power who are orchestrating terrorist attacks to further their agenda against the muslims.

Not that the muslims are innocent, but the white folks in power certainly have egged them on and continue to do so, this is indisputable.

The visions you very graciously share with us seem as though the leaders of the white world are all good and that when the UN arrives and invokes 'fascism' under the guise of protecting us from the virus, and when President Bush 'changes the rules' by overstaying his welcome as president, this, too, is a good thing.

So, while I am intrigued thus far, I can't help but wonder whether I am misled in my personal view or whether you are perhaps misreading the intentions of world leaders.

Or maybe you are watching what you say to protect yourself?

Best of luck to you Mr. Gaia Man

Dear Soul,

The color of the faces of the Dark Forces do not have one color. The color of their skin have many colors. The pain of a muslim,hindu,christian child is the same when the father or mother is killed. Tears are tears, it does not matter from which eyes they fall.

The pain is the same. At the end of it all, the smiles will be the same.

Take care,Ghostsister

Gaia Man,

I sincerely thank you for coming on to this site. You sound very honest and caring. I know it must not be easy for you to have all these visions.

I just want to thank you again for what you are doing here. You are truly performing a service to those to us who are seekers.

Bless you

Dear Soul,

Thank you for your words,

for they make me stronger.

And Strong I want and must be,

A few questions and thoughts:

1-The Illumenati/Free Masons and the NWO do they exist as an organised entity with an agenda???

2-You wrote that Israel will manage to overcome but how come that those that are excercising violence will carry on to be the winners.

I know all humanity is one and through reincarnaron one learn that lesson, what I am now I will be you in the next life, especially in conflict situations.

People do realise that their ancestors, e.g. those who built the British Empire and whose pictures are hanging on the walls of palaces may be today are being reborn as Africans who are abused by their own so called next in kin in this world materialy, to learn the lessons of not killing or hurting their next.

The total fixation of humans to the material DNA and total disregard for the spirit (soul) developmnets is only the proof of immaturity and total spiritual impotence.!!!

Carry on the good work.

Dear Soul,
Many questions in one.
Please give me time

Gaia,

The US and China/Russia has been having a "war of words" lately. Will this escalate into anything that we should be worried about? Also, will any confrontation happen between these countries during the rest of this year?

Dear Soul,
Read my postings about The Great War.
Taiwan will be a marker. The Dragon against The Eagle. I pray and prepare.

Hello Gaia Man

Could u tell me what will happen to Ireland?

Thanks and much blessings to u

Dear Soul.
From me to you in Ireland.

Oh Danny boy, the pipes, the pipes are calling
From glen to glen, and down the mountain side
The summer's gone, and all the flowers are dying
'Tis you, 'tis you must go and I must bide.
But come ye back when summer's in the meadow
Or when the valley's hushed and white with snow
'Tis I'll be here in sunshine or in shadow
Oh Danny boy, oh Danny boy, I love you so.

And if you come, when all the flowers are dying
And I am dead, as dead I well may be
You'll come and find the place where I am lying
And kneel and say an "Ave" there for me.

And I shall hear, tho' soft you tread above me
And all my dreams will warm and sweeter be
If you'll not fail to tell me that you love me
I'll simply sleep in peace until you come to me.

I'll simply sleep in peace until you come to me
Take care.

Do you know something on Mexico, I Live in Monterrey and you say get out of there when the time comes, it's because you see lava ??? (I too see dreams come true and i see this before the big comet - really really big rock - coming closer to earth). What will happen to the rest of mexico?

Thank you and hope you see my message this time!

Dear Soul,

The Lights to been seen in Mexico will not come from the volcano neither come from man. They come to guide.
You will see the Red Ball like it was in your dreams. For what was in your dream, it was in my visions. The time will come, every soul on this planet will see this Red Ball.

On another thread someone said, you were Prince William...did you know that?

However, after reading so much of this thread, I am sure you are not a young person. You appear to have been around for a very long time...a very old soul, too.

Gaia Man, thanks for your reply to my post. If a glass of water is worth more than a 50 Euro note, do I assume that all Currencies would be in deep trouble, or since you like China's economic development, it is safe to assume that China's Yuan will do OK? Also since India and Brazil are going to be doing well (relatively) their currencies will be OK. Since you are advising all of us to prepare, I thought money may be a part of preparation.

Dear Soul,
Yes prepare. For you will need money, if you do not prepare. There will be black markets for goods after the empty shops. People will go on mass for the goods left. At the end the bottle of water will be a bigger value than a money note. Be wise and prepare, so you do not have to stand in the line.

Gaia Man,
did you see just young people in the draft or did you also see older people called up?

Dear Soul,
I see young and old.
I prefer not to tell you,
but The clock is going fast.
Draft will be, in many countries.

Take care

Good morning, Gaia Man,
Apologies in advance if this question was asked before, do you think that Planet X exists? Take care.

Dear Soul,
I do not have that knowledge.
Many things to study, not much time enough.
But I did not have a vision.

Take care,Merry

Gaia man,

Someone asked and you answered:

"When we go into the portals will we be of flesh or of spirit?"

Dear Soul,

For in my visions it was by spirit.
Going to the new, leaving behind the old."

How is this different from just dying?

Dear Soul,
For every day people are dying.
For not every day, Portals will be seen and open.
For that is the difference.

Dearest G.M.,

The virus you mention, are the symptoms that you saw flu like or is it a marburg/ebola type, or is it entirely different? I won't go into detail but you know what I mean.

One more ?...The City of Wind. Is this the Windy City, Chicago?

Did you know that your avatar was used by MGBWYA...anyway, that one is rhetorical.

Thanks for your sharing

Dear Soul,
For I am not the man, to give you more details.
I said more than enough on this issue.
I hope you respect that I will not be more specific. Just prepare for you and the ones you love. You can not stop The Storm. If man could stop it from happening, I would be the first. Just prepare. But The Storm will pass.

Take care

Dear Souls,

First I want to thank you for the many private mails I did receive. I hope you understand, I cannot reply. But they give me strength on the things which I must do now. This is a spiritual time periode for me, which I have to follow.

For these times, I have many visions! Some are very personal and they tell me certain things to do.
Many of you will get a spiritual message soon!
For the one it will be by words, for the other it will come in pictures or a symbol. It belongs to your awareness! You will understand when it comes to you and what to do with it. It will come from your Guide.

I had a vision that was so strong and told me what to do with my writings to you all.
It told me to take a pause.
I will follow this vision, because it was a message from The Light, from The Good.

Its not the time yet, to come back with my writings, and I wait for the "green light" on this. Its not far away.
By this posting I want to let you know, I am still here and will return, like I said.

From September to March we will enter a special periode with event after event. In these times,
I will be here and advise you, and answer certain questions. I hope you did pay some attention to my writings so far, it would make me very grateful.
Again, I like to thank those who took the time and send me a Private Message.

Prepare for the coming dark times on the way I told you before. But remember, It will pass!

Until that time,

Take care.

I came to this forum to share my VISIONS!
There are so many questions, many questions
I already did answer in earlier postings.
Look what It brought me now.
Stone throwing, they call me a false prophet.
I am NOT a prophet, neither do I predictions.
I just share with you, what I see, when I close my eyes. I can see things. Then I have to give it a personal interpretation. I need the time, for every answer I give. I am not on the net 24 hours each day. I have a normal life. I go to bed, I have to go to work, walk the dogs and I have a family.
When I answer questions, I will try to do that with care.

Selectiveley ignoring some people who post questions?

No, I look to the question, not to the User Name.
Yes, I focus on some, because their questions will add more to my writings.
No, you are polite, I know.
But you start:

"I have a few questions Gia man, Please feel free to answer or guide as you see fit"

After that you ask me 4 or 5 questions in 1 posting, some deep. But after 1 day now, you are complaining that your questions are ignored.
If you look to my writings, some questions are answered after a few minutes, some after a few hours, or days.(In fact, I will answer some posted a few weeks ago during my absence)
Maybe I come back on your questions.
For I am not working at MC Donalds, to serve you within 5 minutes or less.

I ask for your understanding.
If it will get to much for me, I maybe forced to stop my writings, which I consider sometimes.

Again many visions I already gave here, we saw a few already come true. But most of my writings did not happen yet. Sorry, I hope you understand,
I need to protect myself sometimes.
This is the only forum where you can find my writings.

	I do not have a website or a newsletter. I just want to share my visions on this way. Maybe some in the beginning are not so clear for you. Time will give you the picture. You are free, to pay notice, or free to ignore them. Again, I hope you understand. If more people agree with you, that I only spread fear, I will draw my conclusions and stop my writings on this forum. I want to be the last one to spread fear, but the first on to help. If there was 1 person in the Katharina area who took notice on my advise to prepare, and thanks to that, he still has food and fresh water, it was worth of it! Thank you, Take care, Appollynon

Sometimes I am telling you by opening my mouth. Sometimes I prefer not to tell and close my mouth. Why? For I do not want to bring fear. I think its wise from me. I do not bring fear. Dear Gaia man,
Thank you for your support and help, from the very heart.
Here I would like to tell and ask something.
For the last few years, I begin to see the floods and other natural disasters in my dreams. Each time the same message- do not fear, for all what comes it is OK. IN one of them I even could breathe under the water. In the same time, I more realizing that for me to move, or to go somewhere- make no sense at all. IN some way I feel that I have to stay, where I am now for this moment, no matter what comes.
This feelings it is like a destiny to me, which I cannot avoid.

Please, can you tell is this correct?

Thank you.

=====

Dear Soul,

	For the message is the most essential! Do not fear for all to come! It will will pass. Your guide is giving you that message. You should hear the voice of you inside. Follow your feeling. You should prepare, whatever your location is. I think its wise for you to stay, because you guide is already close to you. Listen to your guide. There is the island with the big Eagle Statue. A cable car with tourists will fall from the mountain. I see a small harbour with houses of different colors. At that place there is a red large house. A museum or something. I am standing on the red balcony, looking out on the water. Inside are the clothes of the King. It will go up in flames. Near the Eagle Statue is a big green park. On the other side of the street is a Mc Donalds restaurant. There will be an explosion. It will come from a Islamic group. In the city of George with the long Bridge, tensions will heat up. I see demonstrations against a Islamic State. Are there many chinese people here? I see a big Chinese market. People fighting over politics. Sitting in the Metro or Monorail above the ground in the city of Kuala Lumpur, I see a luxury hotel in flames. Something with Istan...people say the Palace is on fire. People are jumping. From the Metro, or skytrain I am looking down on the streets. Many lights, all colors. At a shopping mall I get off. It is very big mall. It has a theme park (indoor) for children. Do not go in the Roller Coaster. Its not safe, and it will chrash. People are killed. In 2008 The Tower on the hill, with the fountains in front will shake and will be closed due to the damage of a earthquake. The two other Towers will be fine. ----- I did not have a new vision. Will I have a new vision about this Land, I will post. Take care, Stardust

I hope you understand, I cannot reply. But they give me strength on the things which I must do now. This is a spiritual time periode for me, which I have to follow. For these times, I have many visions! Some are very personal and they tell me certain things to do.

Many of you will get a spiritual message soon!
For the one it will be by words, for the other it will come in pictures or a symbol.
It belongs to your awareness! You will understand when it comes to you and what to do with it. It will come from your Guide.

I had a vision that was so strong and told me what to do with my writings to you all.

It told me to take a pause.

I will follow this vision, because it was a message from The Light, from The Good.

Its not the time yet, to come back with my writings, and I wait for the "green light" on this. Its not far away.

By this posting I want to let you know, I am still here and will return, like I said.

From September to March we will enter a special periode with event after event.
In these times,

I will be here and advise you, and answer certain questions. I hope you did pay some attention to my writings so far, it would make me very grateful.

Again, I like to thank those who took the time and send me a Private Message.

Prepare for the coming dark times on the way I told you before. But remember, It will pass!

Until that time,

Take care.

This is not already the time for my new words.

That time, will come soon from today.

Now its the time to Pray,

I hope you will join me in this.

It will pass.

Thank you for joining me.

Take care,

=====

Dear Soul,

Why should I ask me to join in prayer,

and not believe in God?

For there is a God.

The Eye is watching. The Eye is from God.

Dear Gaia Man, you say in your message under replies: ...But if you wanna know, I Gaia Man will give you the answer... It's not your style this selfassured sentence, you're too modest for that in your replies. By the way, curious how you happen to know the english translation of butterfly for the dutch word "vlinder" and where did you learn to write Maleis, the language spoken in Indonesia? (formerly Dutch East Indies) Any dutch connections in your family or friends? Your predictions concerning The Netherlands this fall are coming uncomfortably close, understandably I'm hoping they won't happen! Still unclear about difference between astral portal passage and ordinary death into the astral realms, the Hereafter, please clarify and thank you once again for your services.

=====

Dear Soul,

I did many travels, I have many connections.

I know my writings about your country are not good. But I told you before, I hope it will make you aware and prepare for things to come.

I wish, I could tell you something better.

I cannot. Your country will see many tears.

An attack on your country, from the dark forces is very close. Terror will come, and set the streets on fire.

Try to find your other questions in my writings.

Hello Gaia Man

Could u tell me what will happen to Ireland?

Thanks and much blessings to u

Dear Soul.
From me to you in Ireland.

Oh Danny boy, the pipes, the pipes are calling
From glen to glen, and down the mountain side
The summer's gone, and all the flowers are dying
'Tis you, 'tis you must go and I must bide.
But come ye back when summer's in the meadow
Or when the valley's hushed and white with snow
'Tis I'll be here in sunshine or in shadow
Oh Danny boy, oh Danny boy, I love you so.

And if you come, when all the flowers are dying
And I am dead, as dead I well may be
You'll come and find the place where I am lying
And kneel and say an "Ave" there for me.

And I shall hear, tho' soft you tread above me
And all my dreams will warm and sweeter be
If you'll not fail to tell me that you love me
I'll simply sleep in peace until you come to me.

I'll simply sleep in peace until you come to me

Take care, Irish Eyes

I know you have a lot of questions to answer here but I asked three times before about CYPRUS but I guess the question was lost among so many others. You have predicted an earthquake for Turkey, which is very nearby. What do you see for CYPRUS?

Thank you for your time

Dear Soul,
For the beautiful island of Cyprus, I saw oil at your southern area. The sea will black.
I am am not sure, about the Turkish Earthquake which to come and its affects for your Island. But prepare if it comes.
The fight between Greece and Turkey about your country will escalate.
Dark Forces from the North and East will come.

Dear Gaia Man, people are having trouble with your Danny Boy interpretation for Ireland, can you be more specific.....Please.
Thank you.

=====

Dear Soul,
I saw the trouble to come to your streets.
Sometimes lyrics say more than words.
Listen to the song. The pipes were blowing!
And maybe it will be sound strange on your ears,
but those who fight now in the streets of Eire.
They will walk hand in hand again.
Now they fight, tomorrow they share.
They will find each other, and be 1 Nation.
Ireland!

Take Care, Danny

Gaia Man,

When portals appear, how much time do we have to enter? Is there time to find love ones and gather them together? Or are we faced with a decision that must be made immediately, without knowing where our family members are?

=====

Dear Soul,
When The Portals open, Time as we know, will be gone. Trust your guide, he will advise you. He will also ask you.
You will be able to travel with the ones you love and stay close to them.
But before that moment wil arrive, You should be close to the ones you love.
Because until the opening of The Portals, we will see many disasters worldwide.
You should prepare to help yourself or to offer help for those who knock on your door.
For the last page of your book is written on the day Portals will open.

About the Great Warning, is this the same as the appearance of the Great White Light you mentioned in another post? I have been watching messages about this great event. There are some visionaries saying it's possible that this will take place in a few months time until January 2006 and the Great Miracle between March to May 2006. Can you hazard a guess as to the timing, as to the year only if that is possible.

Some Seers also see that a huge comet or asteroid is going to hit the earth during the Great Warning while some others say only a collision of bright objects in space but away from earth. Can you figure out what really shall take place during the Great Warning besides the illumination of the soul?

Thanks a lot!

Dear Gaia,

Can you explain why you choose this 'not so intelligent and non serious' forum to tell the people of the world your visions?

Because while on THIS forum the majority of intelligent people will not take your visions very seriously....???Why not a more respectable forum?

Not trying to make you uncomfortable, just hoping for a serious answer...

Dear Soul,

For it brought me together with you!

I think you are a respectable soul.

I did not choose this forum, I did not ask for my visions! I was directed, I think.

My only choice is to share my visions with you. It told me when to start sharing, It will tell me when to stop.

Attempt # 4: I have a young family of 4, and live on the beach, West coast Florida. Without telling me what you see for our state, could you tell me if I am better off moving to a mountainous area, say in East Tenn. Should I wait to find out, or just make plans and go. I'd really appreciate a reply, even if it's a yes/no answer. Thanks in advance....

Dear Soul,
Take care of your young family. Yes, make plans to move to higher grounds. Do it in calm, not in panic.
This is to do, for everybody at the East and South Coast of the United States!
Do not wait until the last minute.
Study and listen. Be Aware and Prepare

Dear Gaia Man, is there some reason you avoid my question about the magn./geoph.poleshift scenario, is it perhaps too overwhelming to respond to? I hope there's not a personal background behind it for avoiding my question. Anyway, I hope you'll be able to reply some day if ever?

Dear Gaia Man,

Have time for a minor-level question?
When did you began experiencing visions/remote views of these profound earth changes and strife? Was it as early as 2002?

On a personal note--> typically I don't recall my dreams. Recently, within the past few months, I've begun to remember the occasional fragment. Mostly about floods and rising water. I'm sure I'm not the only one with bad dreams and a new increasingly sober outlook on life.

Thanks for your consideration.

=====

Dear Soul,
My visions started around the millenium, I think.
Before that I had only 1.
It was 1995. This Vision was the strongest I ever had! It was a Crystal Clear one.
Not one after that it was such clear.
It was very personal.

Unfortunaly you lost your creditbilty to me with your last post to me.Now i think you are more likely just a lonely elderly balding man with nobody to play with,and i hope you enjoy making people scared,by telling your lies.

NOT ONE OF YOUR PREDICTIONS HAVE COME TRUE SO FAR!Correct me if i ´m wrong!

Dear Souls,

Like many times I told you!

I have Visions! The interpretation of these Visions I have to figure out myself.

I am not a Prophet or what ever you call me.

I like to call me a Visionair.

Like I told you, we have enter a Special time periode from September to March.

You have the free will to judge me.

For I have the free will to share my Visions, stop or take a time off.

I now will take a time off, to spend more time by writing my book of which we will be asked.

Maybe I will return, when my Guide tells me.

Now its advise to me is to take some time off.

I will follow that advise.

For those who doubt my writings,they will ask for my return!

Be Aware and Prepare like I told you, where ever you are on the Planet. Write your book, for the time is approaching, they will take your pencil, and ask to hand over your book of life.

Take care from Gaia Man.

Thank you Gaia man for sharing your vision.

My question is for the animals of this planet.

Do you see them moving into the portals as well as humans? If so, could their behavior be helpfull to those humans who are hesitant from fear?

also, what kind of music do you find most enjoyable, classical? asian? afro-cuban?

peace to you always, dear Gaia man

Dear Soul,

For the animals will move into the Portals.

Before you, besides you, after you or carried by you. I think you will carry one.

For your eye sees the value of the animal, given to Man.

Was their behavior helpfull to you in the past, in times of joy or sorrow? That is your answer.

They will not leave us. They are best friends.

Keep them close, watch them. They tell you things.

Hello Gaia Man,

Your word about the animals was very comforting as I have one now that is getting old (cat, 17) and it's good to know that the universe has a plan for them -

- I couldn't bear it otherwise.

One other question...

Will Rita be the one to cause the US economy to crash?

Dear Soul,

I saw the collapse at a later stage.

But it will affect your economy.

Be prepared for that. Prepare, it will knock on every door! Whiskas catfood is part of it.

Gaia Man. Just want to say that I think you're just so Gaia.

Your Avatar is very convincing. Everything you say must be true. (Not like those loud and proud prophets!)

Not that I wish to test your abilities, but I wonder if you would be able to predict one specific significant event that will occur in the near future? Details would be nice but sometimes those visions from the beyond are just so obscure and murky that one's hands are tied. That's what happens when one is an intermediary.

If this is too much of a strain on your mental faculties....I understand. Being a prophet can be a bit of a bitch sometimes, I know. Low pay, long hours...unappreciated. All those nay-sayers.

=====

Dear Soul,

For you call me a Prophet. I am not.
I have Visions, I share. It is up to you, you can pay attention or ignore. Free will.
If my writings are taken serious only by one person, I am rich.
For that I can say to you, I am rich!
It is appreciated, that I know through replies and Personal Message.

For you may call me a dreamer.
I am, but I am not the only one.
Thank you for thinking I am so Gaia.

Hello Gaia Man,
Do you have any population figures for both the US and world from 2005 through 2012? It would be interesting to see how many succumb to the coming changes, and how many go through the portals.

Also, do you see this winter in Virginia to be exceptionally cold or snowy? Do you see the electricity off here permanently by the end of the Sep-March timeframe?

=====

Dear Soul,

For there will be many Souls Worldwide, who will not see the year 2012.

I have no specific numbers.

Most of the World population will reach it, I think.

I see a very strong winter in Virginia, with massive snowfall. When it melts,
there will be big floods.

Yes, electricity off.

GAIA MAN!!!
WHAT IS THE DEAL WITH THE BLACK CLOUD OF DOOM COMING THIS WAY.....WHAT WILL IT DO??

EVERYONE REALLY REALLY REALLY NEEEEEEEDS TO KNOW!!!!!!!

Dear Soul,

For it will not bring doom.
It will bring The Great Global Warning!
The Sun or the Moon will not be visible to any eye on this Planet. In the black Darkness, we will look up into the Sky and see what is approaching us. Nobody can hide.
We will watch it, and feel the heat when it comes closer and closer. Then it will leave, like it came. For us to decide, what to do with this.

I am glad, that you have returned, Gaia Man.
You much and several times speak about the different countries, but it is not enough about Russia.
I hope, that you will answer my question about Russia which I already asked.

"Dear Gaia Man!
In your messages about Russia political events are described only. But nothing is told about natural cataclysms in huge territory of Russia. Please, tell to me something about the south of Russia if it is possible about Southwest Siberia? For what acts of nature to us to prepare? Whether there will be a strong earthquake and destructions? If yes, multi-storey houses to which we live are unsafe, and I should arrange for good safety my relatives.
Спасибо Вам, Gaia Man"

=====
Dear Soul,

Yes, you should prepare.
This region will see an earthquake.
It will be 9 or more on the Richters Scale.
The houses are weak, I know.

Almost everything you said for Romania has come to pass... except the cold winter and light. Are there other things we should know about? or do you see anything else? will there be more floods to come next year?

Thank you and love to all.

Dear Soul,

For the winter will still have to come!
It will be very strong. Snow will melt.

G'day Gaia man, fascinating thread - entertaining at the very least and informative anyways.
I a wondering about the Murray River region in Australia, particularly the drought/salinity ravaged areas around Victoria and New South Wales.

Thanks

Dear Soul,
From the waters of Abel Tasman Ice will come from the Pole. Before that, dozens of lost dolphins and whales will come to the sandy beaches of this region. Many people will help them back into the waters, but for the most of these animals it will be to late. I do not see more about this area. Its calm. For what I saw about The Great War and Australia, please read my earlier postings.

I am having very troubling dreams about the 24th of October. I cannot remove them. How do you deal with such things when your heart breaks at things you don't want to see or hear?

Have you any idea what will happen?

Dear Soul,

Sometimes you need to protect yourself.
Disconnect and go to the mountains, forest or the open field! But stay alert on things to come. You have to allow your self some breathing space. I will allow me this very soon.
We will see which way all will go.

Hello Gaiaman,

Despite of me being convinced of your authenticity, for some reason I have the urge to ask you, whether it was you writing the following, or someone else.

In a German Forum-comunity, someone wrote in your name:

Liebe Seelen,

ich bin Gaia Man.

Ja, ich spreche deutsch wie auch englisch. Meine Visionen verbreite ich aus einem einfachen Grunde in einem englischsprachigen Forum: ich erreiche so die ganze Welt.

Etwas staunt mich die Unkenntnis meines Namens. Gaia hat wenig mit "Frau" zu tun. Gaia ist der Name der Mutter Erde. Googelt einmal.

Ich kenne deutsche Prophezeiungs-Foren, auch das von Johannes. Meine Visionen sind aber doch anders und mir eigen, meint Ihr nicht? Ich brauche nicht zu stehlen.

Weitere Antworten im englischsprachigen Forum, liebe Freunde.

Seid beschirmt vor allem Schlimmen  so I wanted to ask you, if this Posting really came from you.

Believe me, I have my reasons to ask this, maybe you even might know this.

As far as I am concerned, it does not matter to me, whether you are, what people call a "Fake" because many of your predictions have become true, so this doesn't matter at all. And already because of this, they should not call you a "Fake" anyways.

I just feel sad, that some people can't jump over their own shades and just hold on to some stupid prejudice, just because they got a hold on their own lack of self confidence. Well, on one side that's ok too, everybody has to write his/her own book, as anonymous mouse said before, and everybody has to take the responsibility for his/her own thoughts, because they will come back to them in one way or the other.

For you I wish the very best, be blessed, especially in those times, all of us are expecting to lead us in a better world !

Take care...

Dear Soul,

Like I told you many times in this Thread, my only writings are to find on this forum!

I do not write on other forums. Not in The US, Russia, France nor Germany or other countries. My writings are only to find here under my Blue Name! I do not write back on the PM's I receive!

Yes, I am reading them, but can not answer!

Because people then can say, "look what Gaia Man wrote to me"! Neither do I react in other Threads on this forum about me, only in this one:

"The Future of your country?..ask and I will tell you,..."!

There always will be people who will throw stones, there always were. Let them throw, for the moment will come they put down the same stones. I am not to worship, in fact when I read that it makes me very uneasy to go on with sharing my writings. You have the free will to do something with my writings or to ignore them and go on with your search. I did many travels, learned from the people I have met in many countries. On every continent I was. From some I learned the language a bit. Others gave me their teachings. Sometimes I give them a personal note in their language to urge my writings.

	For the confusion on your board, let it be, let it rest, its not worth of fighting with words. There is hate and fighting enough all around us. I do not have all answers. I can not see everything. I am not send by God or otherwise. I am just a normal man, who did not ask for his visions. They just appeared to me. After that, I started sharing. It is not important where I live. Because in my eyes, there are no borders. I am from Gaia, I was from Atlantis, like many Souls here. Most of them, can not remember they came from the same Atlantis like me. I can remember. Thank you for you wishes, and best wishes with writing you book. Make sure you can give a positiv book of Life, even if its not a perfect one. Mine is not perfect one !But you will not be asked for a perfect book. Liebe Grusse fur dich Take Care,D.F.

Dear Gaia Man,
I am concerned, about the Rio Grande Valley of Texas. It is the southern most part of Texas that shares borders with Mexico. Do we have any destruction here, battles, sickness. What are the problems faced by this part of the country? What does the future have for us?

I appreciate your help. May God be with you and yours always.

Thanks

Dear Soul,

If I would live at your place.
I would prepare for Power black outs and rain to come.

If I would live at your place,
I would dance on the Mariachi Music.
I would watch for the stars, see the Indian Signs in the Sky.
Keep an eye on the many birds and butterflies.
The birds will stop singing, butterflies will fall. Prepare for those times.
New times will come. Better times.

Dear Gaia Man,

I am concerned about Hamburg, Germany. Do we have any destruction from flooding or nuclear bombs during the next World War?

Thanks

Dear Soul,

The city of Hamburg will see flooding after a great Storm, yes. I see a dark toxic cloud coming from the harbor. It will not go to the city, because the winds are taking it from the Land.

But there will be some panic about it.

Economic problems will be big, many people on the street to protest for loosing their job.

Many Ships will go to other habours.

New Governments are not always good for the hard workers. Hard times will come for Hamburg and other industrial cities in Germany.

The new Goverment will fall again.

For the small country of the Netherlands I see dark clouds. In the month of october there will go a shock through the nation. I see political murder. I see riots from north to south. Flames in the streets of many cities. But it will calm, due to natural disaster. The fight against The Great Flood will start mid 2006. For the Netherlands I see much pain.

The Goverment will fall.

The future looks not good. They will have big problems with France and Germany.[/quote]

It's just to funny that you American think you are the best of the world and we would need your help. We don't need the USA en the whole world starts to hate the USA more and more because of your attitude en your president who thinks he owns the world!!

Dear Soul,

Yes, I remember I said that some time ago.

Maybe you can remember I was talking about dates and interpretation of my Visions.

You give me laugh, I return you a smile.

For every time I am wrong, I feel joy.

I do not feel joy about Holland, because the Vision were very clear, you will see very serious problems. Time will tell.

I know you will come back to here, with other eyes. I will not give you that date, because maybe again its wrong . I hope you and your dear ones will be fine.

I think it will be in the Asia region. I saw dark clouds over Indonesia again! Explosion in Jakarta. We will see some terrible pictures coming from Indonesia. There will be riots on several Islands, like Java, Bali, Suwalesie and Maluku and a long the chain from Lombok to Flores. Christians will get a hard time there. Their Churches will burn, we will see executions like we saw in the Land of Iraq. Old people and children, no mercy. Terrible details I saw, I will not share, but the knife is sharp. It will get out of hand. For Italy there will be the risk of some earthquakes in the coming time. Turkey, Greece a major will come. I think it is not far away. Take Care

Gaia Man, do you see any UFO mass landings? Some people await masses of aliens, others say thats stupid fantasy. What show your visions?

Dear Soul,

For I saw what will come from the Sky.
I am not ready to talk about this, because I am still looking for the right words.

"This week was a bad week for me in my personal circumstances."

Sorry to hear that, Gaia Man. I hope things are improving for you, and I hope, at least, your birthday was nice and filled with love.

Dear Soul,
Man has good times, Man has bad times.
When eveythings looks perfect and life is shining to you, and you are celebrating, it only needs one message to replace the joy in sadness.
For that is our school. From the first day we saw light untill the last day we will see Light.
Between those Lights, we will see sunshine and dark clouds. It is the Great Teaching. It will make the Soul stronger.
For me tomorrow the sun will shine. The next day maybe another shadow will come. For me to give it a place, and study and understand it, that it belongs to the Great Journey we all make.
The Light is stronger than the Darkness!
I will be fine, whatever happens, thank you for your concern. You will be fine as well!
I know.

Take Care, Susano

Dear Souls,

The coming week, I will be back and do my best to give you more answers.

For now.

For what is seen in the Streets of Paris.

Like I told you, its the base of the Jihad to come in Europe. From here it will spread.

The approval has come from he who is in Pakistan.

It will set Europe on Fire.

It will spread to many cities in France.

It will not stop at the borders.

We will see the same in Spain, Madrid and Barcelona. Brussels,Liege and Antwerp in Belgium.

Netherlands, Amsterdam, Rotterdam, The Hague and Utrecht. South to Germany, Cologne, Frankfurt, Karlsruhe, Munich and more.

Then to Austria, Vienna, Salzburg, Innsbruck.

Denmark with Copenhagen will see the same.

Italia! From Roma to Milano fire in the streets.

England, London, Birmingham, Liverpool, New Castle. Scotland, Glasgow and Edinburgh to Aberdeen. Many cities and even small villages throughtout Europe.

Soon we will see the same in Africa and Asia.

The clock is ticking.

When it takes a pause, do not think its over.

I think it will pause because of a new big Earthquake. Watch your skies, all around the World! Fire is falling, its a sign of times to come. Go outside, take your time and you will witness it. When it seems to ease, then Europe will be in the Eye of The Storm.

Europe, PREPARE, PREPARE!!!!

We can make a difference!

Light a candle and pray. For every candle that will burn, is Seen. For every prayer said, it is heard!

Do not flow on the wave of Hate.

Its all about Love and Forgiveness!!!!

Stay close to your parents, brothers, sisters and children. The Storm will come in many ways.

Prepare for a very cold winter. Do not let the Indian Summer fool you.

Take Care

Hi Gaia Man,
I don't know the song "Feel", but thank you Susano for the lyrics. It describes how I've been feeling, too. Like a big hole in my soul.

Take care, my friend, and rest easy and I will do the same.

Merry

Dear Souls,

For those who feel lost,
I will share the second and last song for this Day of Rest. Read the lyrics, but do not forget to hear the music.
After this, I will take the periode of rest.
I will not set my alarm-clock. I need a good sleep. There will come flowers and stones to me during this time. Please stay or leave this thread by free will. But please, do not bring in a War of Words. I thank you for this.

For you are not lost. Listen with your heart.

To all Souls,

Karan from Sri Lanka in Saint Denis, Paris, for you an extra candle is burning in my home.

Dear Souls,

The time to return with new writings has not come yet for me. I am waiting on the Green Light from my Guide!
But there are some things I liked to be said. First, I am fine at the moment. Thank you for you concern and worries. I am okay.
Second let me thank you for reading my posts on this forum.
Also I like to thank, the owners and admins on this forum, for the giving me the chance and tool to share my visions. My native language also is not English, but this is a English spoken forum, where people meet from places, all over the Planet. If you can, please write in English, or try to find somebody who can translate your questions or opinions in English.

Nothing is going to change my tone.
Thank those who give me flowers, for those who throw stones. It is okay, because I know, the moment will come you will put down these stones, or you will leave the thread. You always have you free will.
If there are stones to be thrown, throw them to me and not to each other. When I started writing here, I was aware what would come to me. Because I was aware, I did prepare. I handle it on my own way. Sometimes its easy to deal with, sometimes its not. So be it.

Also again I like you to know, that I seek no power and glory! I am guided where,what and when to write.
I was told when to start and I already told you all, it will tell me when to stop. I know the time has not come to stop all the writings, also the time has not come yet, to continue!
It will come, even when it was for 1 final writing. I am on a path, you are free to follow. In my last post, I hope
I will be able, to drop you off at the doorstep. You are the one to give the value on my writings. Not me!
I share, you decide what to do with it. Again Free Will. I never claimed all wisdom. Like said in the song, my head sometimes speaks a language, I don't understand. My visions are followed by my interpretation. I share both.
Some I did not share, because I am not sure, or I can not find the right words for it.
Some I do not share, because my guide is telling me, not to share. Some I doubt my self.

I hope like I shared my first writing on this forum with you, this will be the location I will share my last words with you. Again thank you GLP.

However,
I was told by my guide to hand you a alternative to keep in touch with me, if you want.
For that use, I made me a email account. By free will, you can join my contact list.
I will not answer any questions. It is pure, if we will loose contact, you will be able to receive my writings. Today, I do not know, if it will be necessary to use this email.
For now my writings only were to find in this thread on GLP. I will continue this, as long, I am able.

By sending me a emailadress, I will put you on my contact list. If I send you a email, I will send it to all on the list.
You all will receive the same message. I will not answer on personal questions. I might read them.
I only answer questions in this thread on this forum.
Your emailadress is only for the contact list. I will not give it out to a third party. I do not ask money or donation or whatever. I am happy with my life style, and I already belong to the "rich" people on the Planet.
Again, by free will, you can join the contact list.

If you like you can join it by sending a mail to: gaiamancontact@yahoo.com.

A special thank, for those who have light a candle on my request. It was a big help.

At the moment we are in the Eye of the Storm.

And for the questions about the language used here..let us meet at this place.

At the moment I think, it will be. But also on this, I am not sure. My Guide, is telling me, when,what and how. Maybe, suddenly I will restart writing in november, december or in 2007. I don't know. Yes, there will be 1 important post I think, maybe with 1 or 2 pictures, that I know. Yes, also I did not wrote all of my visions. Why? For there are to many. What happened yesterday in Egypt, I knew it would come. I also know the Leader of Egypt will fall. Dark forces will come to power. But these are details, and only a piece of things to come. 41 shots, it felt like 41 shots in my stomach on the 25th of March. It hit me hard. It was painfull, but also on that date I had the Eyes of an Astronaut. I could look into deep dark space. There was the event, I expected. Also I saw The Portals again. So beautifull, The Light, The Good. Someone asked me, if he ever would meet with Jesus. For I can say, that you will meet him, if you really want. Also you will be able to meet other Souls, who are or were important to you. I am still here, now more in silence.
---	--

Much is already written by me.
 I have a life beside all the writings.
 I have my family, my work.
 I want to play my guitar.
 I go into the fields, and enjoy the runnings of my dogs.

For that I wrote: "I keep singing in the rain". Because many rain is on the way.
 Dark Clouds every where on our Planet. This Planet given to us.

For those who will throw stones,
 I refuse to be your enemy
 I can not give you anger,
 only friendship

Always keep an eye on the stars.
 From above it will come.
 The intervention, The Warning.
 We all will look up and be silent.
 It will tell us, how small we all are.

All Souls, small,same,scared.
 The Muslim child feels the same joy
 playing the first time with a balloon, as a Christian child playing his first game on its playstation 3. The joy is the same.
 The pain of loosing your parents is the same for both. The tears are salt on both children. The Buddhist fears the earthquake, the Jew fear the rockets.
 The fear is and feels the same!
 Both feel sitting on top of the volcano!
 If only man could see...

We will see it with other eyes when Portals open. I am sitting in the classroom.
 Paying attention.
 Learn real good now
 Open your Soul, to those who need it.
 Simply, start people making happy close to you! Write you book. It will be asked.
 Maybe out of the Portal, I will be waiting for you! We both smile, I know.

I am very fine, I hope you also are alright.
 Time has not come for me to start writing again, but it will come again.
 Lot of things I wrote need time, before
 I can explain the meaning of it.
 Yes, I noticed the World cup, but it doesn't change my vision on it.
 Until now, it puts a smile on my face.
 It will get clear in a later stadium,
 like many writings.

Time will come, trust me.

Dear Souls,

Hello again,
Soon I will change to a new avatar!
And start writing again.
I thought, a change of a new avatar after a year would be nice.
I will try to find a nice one.
Glad to be back. Sorry it took a little long, but I was enjoying a short holiday and the Worldcup football. Almost saw every game, and looking forward to the Final France against Italy.
Trouble times to come to the Planet.
Trouble times to many doorsteps on all continents. With a clear view and mind on world events to come, you can help another Soul.

You write your own book, and time will fly. At the end, you will find the escape.

Yes there are many things happening the world now that all seem to indicate that something disasterous is about to happen.

Do you get the feeling that this will be an outbreak of War or is it more likely a space event? Comet impact, etc???

Quoting: Anonymous Coward 74448

Dear Soul,

I had visions about all the things you name. To place them in the right schedule or timeperiode is not clear enough to me. It can happen today or in the next six year. You should prepare for major changes, in different ways.

Wars, Celestial events, Climate, Deceptions and Dark times.

But you also should prepare for the Light and Good that will end all the sorrow!

Prepare yourself to make the next step in the devolping of your Souls journey.

Gaia Man, my husband in on a business trip in Taiwan until mid August. Do you see/feel that their will be a Pacific 'impact' or outbreak of war in that area before then?

I do not fear your honest answer and recognize time frames are difficult.

Dear Gaia man,

Good to have you back.

I have a dying question. I have read all of your posts. And little is written about the future of Asia. And the posts that you wrote about Asia gives me the impression that Asian countries are evil-doers and will not get salvation from above. I do not believe that. Please clarify more about your vision.

I`m particularly interested in China. You realized that they have a large population.

What will happen there?

How can people there prepare, apart from doing good deeds?

Any other portals apart from the one in India?

Thanks a lot

Dear Soul,

I did many travels, and the most wonderful people I meet where through out Asia. People and Governments and Politics are different issues. There are many poor people in that region. Looking to North Korea for an example my heart cries. We do not see the gas chambers on TV. We do not see the children who lost his or her parents, and are to weak to walk.

	But they will set free and smile again. The Light will come for them also. Like for every Soul, on this Planet. They will not be forgotten. Portals are in reach for every Soul on every continent. Take Care

For Mankind stays on the path of hate and destruction. After the second World war, Man said: Never again, when they saw the concentrations camps in Europe. Now some even say, it did not occur. How sad to see. We did not learn.

It will get worse, but it shall pass.

Dear Gaia Man,

a warm welcome back - very glad to you made it back here - and obviously in good shape.

Have had a hard job on making others aware. Now around two dozen are even preparing ;-)

May I ask you two questions?

1st: Pacific meteor impact NOT an extinction level event End of July / beginning of August??

2nd: your current sightings and visions about Germany in the next future / months?

No need to repeat what you've already said - got everything completely documented from page 1 up to today.

Thank you very much and Best Regards

Its alright, as long you don't forget your good "allgemeine hofflichkeit" That would be very nice. Frankfurt Airport, something will go wrong, its not clear to me what. Since we have war all over, where do you see things really heating up? Who will attack whom? Do you have any ideas of what this cosmic impact will do to the earth? I get really nervous about this stuff because I don't have the money to set myself or loved ones up as survivalists. We all just make it (financially) from one week to the next. What are we supposed to do? When you speak of how we'll all see the light and be in peace, are you refering to physical death, and moving into spirit? I hope this post finds you well and at peace, Gaia Man. Dear Soul, We are living in troubled times. Where will things heat up, you ask me. That was a question asked to me last year in 2005. Asia and the Middle-East was the answer, nothing changed that. The only difference, we are now 1 year further on that road. The one moment, it looks like the situation in North Korea will escalate, the other moment it looks that the situation in the Middle East will explode. Again I had the Visions since the beginning of the year 2000. I only can say, it seems to go the way, like it was shown to me. But my writings here are my own interpretations. Since I am a normal human being or Soul like you are, I can have wrong interpretations. What will come first? That is the most hard to say. BUT....how more proof the eye needs to see, that the World will become 1 big chaos? More soldiers are ready to go. The War will spread all around the world. It will come to every doorstep, to every house. Prepare, how many times did I use this words. If you can, stay close to the ones you love, and be a guide for the blind. When I speak of how we all will see the light and be in peace, I am talking of the next dimension after entering the Portal. Remember....it all will pass! Intervention will come from He, who gave us this Planet. God will not allow us to destroy his greatest gift to man. Trust, pray and light a candle everyday. At the end, we will smile and look back over our shoulder, and say...how stupid we were at that time. At the same moment in great joy we will accept, the new gift from God. We are lucky. Dark clouds will be gone, and we will see a golden rainbow and total peace. Close your eyes, and imagine your paradise. It will be better. This, keep in mind, during the Chaos to come. Take Care, Susano

Hello Gaia Man,

I followed your thread from the beginning, and I must say, its the most fasinating in all the years I visit GLP.

I know you prefer not to talk about you private life, but maybe you can say a bit more about yourself?

I wish, I could talk to you personally sometime. Through you words, I did some adjustments in my private life and I only can say, that changed my life to the good. I like to thank you for that.

I mentioned you writings at my work, and in the beginning people just made fun of me, but when they started to read your writings that changed.
Now everybody went to GLP to check out your writings, and we discuss them at work. Most of them never heard of GLP, but now they are here every day.

Sorry for my bad English.

But I hope, you will stay here.

I am aware that you can not answer every question, and spend time here every day. But I just like to thank you, for how you try to get people more positiv against eachother.

But, please, tell us a littlebit more,
of the man, behind Gaia Man.

Thank you, Love Rene

Yes GM, I am also interested about the man behind Gaia Man!!

Could you tell us more?

Why do you not open your personal site?

The weirdos would stay away, and I would like you to ask some personal questions about my life. I would be willing to pay for that advise, if its not to expensive.

Please consider, to come online with a website.

Thanks

Dear Soul,

This was asked before.

But again for you.

Dear Soul,

I only have my Visions since a couple of years.

The time you talk, I was not born or I was a small boy. The small boy grew up. He had his falls and he stood up again. He went to School, had his first girlfriend, a second and a third.

Was in love with that special girl, but could not reach here. She did pay attention, but suddenly moved to another place. Never saw her again. Did my schools, had my parties, had my funerals. They put a gun in my hand and did my "duty" in the Army. Found another job, a social job. Did many travels all around the World. I was standing on the highest mountain and the highest building. Yes, the WTC in New York. After that my Visions started.

At one night I was ready to go to bed.

I was alone at that time. Then it came. In a Light. TOTAL PEACE, TOTAL LOVE! It spoke to me, it was a very personal message. I can not share this with you. But it told me what I should do. I went on with my life, but always remembered that Vision. Travelling again. Found my Girlfriend at the other side of the World.

It took me more the 30 hours to fly.

After that more visions came. In the beginning I did not believe them. (even today sometimes I have doubts) But after they start to occur in real life, it changed me totally.

Why me? I don't know, thats is still a question to me, I can not explain. I am sure, I am not the only one, at least I think.

I just share them with you.

I know it will come back, to tell me when to stop. Maybe the Visions will stop. I would not mind, because I saw enough. I know of what is coming. The same LIGHT, the same TOTAL PEACE and the same TOTAL LOVE, for every Soul on this Planet. It will be allright at that moment.

Leaving behind the hate and war. Going into the next dimension.

Take Care

Re: The Future of your country?..ask and I will tell you,...

Dear Souls,

The time to return with new writings has not come yet for me. I am waiting on the Green Light from my Guide!

But there are some things I liked to be said. First, I am fine at the moment. Thank you for your concern and worries. I am okay.

Second let me thank you for reading my posts on this forum.

Also I like to thank, the owners and admins on this forum, for the giving me the chance and tool to share my visions. My native language also is not English, but this is an English spoken forum, where people meet from places, all over the Planet. If you can, please write in English, or try to find somebody who can translate your questions or opinions in English.

Nothing is going to change my tone.

Thank those who give me flowers, for those who throw stones. It is okay, because I know, the moment will come you will put down these stones, or you will leave the thread. You always have your free will.

If there are stones to be thrown, throw them to me and not to each other. When I started writing here, I was aware what would come to me. Because I was aware, I did prepare. I handle it on my own way. Sometimes it's easy to deal with, sometimes it's not. So be it.

Also again I like you to know, that I seek no power and glory! I am guided where, what and when to write.

I was told when to start and I already told you all, it will tell me when to stop.

I know the time has not come to stop all the writings, also the time has not come yet, to continue!

It will come, even when it was for 1 final writing. I am on a path, you are free to follow. In my last post, I hope I will be able, to drop you off at the doorstep. You are the one to give the value on my writings. Not me!

I share, you decide what to do with it. Again Free Will. I never claimed all wisdom. Like said in the song, my head sometimes speaks a language, I don't understand. My visions are followed by my interpretation. I share both. Some I did not share, because I am not sure, or I can not find the right words for it.

Some I do not share, because my guide is telling me, not to share. Some I doubt myself. I hope like I shared my first writing on this forum with you, this will be the location I will share my last words with you. Again thank you GLP.

However, I was told by my guide to hand you an alternative to keep in touch with me, if you want.

For that use, I made me an email account. By free will, you can join my contact list.

I will not answer any questions. It is pure, if we will lose contact, you will be able to receive my writings. Today, I do not know, if it will be necessary to use this email.

For now my writings only were to find in this thread on GLP. I will continue this, as long, I am able.

By sending me an email address, I will put you on my contact list. If I send you an email, I will send it to all on the list.

You all will receive the same message. I will not answer on personal questions. I might read them.

I only answer questions in this thread on this forum.

Your email address is only for the contact list. I will not give it out to a third party. I do not ask money or donation or whatever. I am happy with my life style, and I already belong to the "rich" people on the Planet.

	Again, by free will, you can join the contact list. If you like you can join it by sending a mail to: gaiamancontact@yahoo.com. A special thank, for those who have light a candle on my request. It was a big help. At the moment we are in the Eye of the Storm. And for the questions about the language used here..let us meet at this place. Its worth wile. A place to united. [link to www.gratefulness.org] Take Care

Gaia Man,

What is the next event to watch for here in the USA?

Dear Soul,

Seeing that question,
I see the city of Houston.
I do not know yet why,
but Houston keeps coming back for me.
Maybe I am wrong, and it will be at a later date. But Houston is on my mind.

ARE WE ALREADY IN 2010?

Posted By: Norio

Date: Sunday, 16 July 2006, 6:38 p.m.

It is my understanding that the present-day Gregorian calendar was initially based on the birth year of Jesus Christ. In other words, the death (and resurrection) of Jesus was assumed to have occurred in 33 A.D.

It is also my understanding that most contemporary biblical scholars place the birth of Jesus Christ to have occurred most likely between around 4 B.C., or between 4 B.C. and 6 B.C. (Some say Jesus was born in 2 B.C., some say He was born in 5 B.C., and some others say He was born in 6 B.C.)

If Jesus was indeed born in 4 B.C., then is it not correct to say that our calendar is off by 4 years? In other words, instead of 2006, we are presently in 2010?

If Jesus was born in 5 B.C., then we are presently in 2011.

If Jesus was born in 6 B.C., then we are presently in 2012!!!

All of us, I am sure, are closely watching the rapidly changing turn of events in this present-day escalation of the conflict in the Middle East.

No one can predict what will happen.

If indeed, Israel launches an attack on Syria, who is to say that Iran will not get involved immediately? And if Iran should fire any missile towards Israel, ALL HELL will break loose. It could easily become the initial phase of Ezekiel 38 scenario, long prophesied.

The gist of the so-called Ezekiel 38 scenario is the attempted invasion into Israel of all Islamic forces (led and orchestrated by the northernmost power, i.e., Russia). The alignment of the nations in that scenario chillingly seems to correspond with today's scenario.

According to Biblical Prophecy (as interpreted by most pre-tribulationist/dispensationalist believers), the Ezekiel 38 event will conclude with the miraculous victory of Israel, immediately after which a charismatic global leader (i.e. the "Anti-Christ" to the fundamentalist Christians) will declare a seven-year Peace Treaty between Israel and all Islamic confederation. (Iran's Ahmadinejad seems to believe that he could be the one that will welcome the arrival of the coming "Imam"). The Ezekiel 38 scenario results in the death of so many that it will take about 7 years to bury all the dead in this conflagration.)

At that precise point in time, most so-called pre-tribulationist/dispensationalist believers believe that the "Rapture" event will mysteriously take place, and the world will be in a state of total confusion. It will be at that point that the Anti-Christ will explain to the totally astounded and fearful populace what really took place with the mysterious "disappearance" of perhaps millions of people. (Perhaps the Anti-Christ will use some ingenious explanations such as "extraterrestrial" intervention to explain away that Rapture event.) No one knows.

Most fundamentalist Christians believe that the Anti-Christ will rule for 7 years in his "New World Order" system, the second half of which will be the Great Tribulation when he declares himself to be God and will rule with iron fist.

On the 7th year of the global rule of the Anti-Christ, those nations such as Red China (and the "Kings of the East") will challenge the Anti-Christ's New World Order system by crossing the Euphrates and make a move towards the plains of Armageddon.

The battle of Armageddon will be the final global battleground. During the climactic moment of this global battle, the celestial forces of Jesus Christ (along with all those who had been "raptured") will descend from above and defeat all earthly forces in Armageddon.

Sounds like science fiction? Maybe. But maybe not. No one knows.

They say that the Mayan calendar concludes with 2012. What is the significance of that?

Does it mean that the old system of things will conclude in 2012 and that a brand new system of things will start in 2012?

Does it have anything to do with Armageddon and the coming of the new Kingdom?

Again, going back to the Gregorian calendar.
If Jesus was born in 5 B.C., then we are presently in 2011.
If Jesus was born in 6 B.C., then we are now in 2012.
If we are now in 2012, will something happen this Fall?
Will the "Trumpet" blow in October?

Or, if we are now in 2011, will this present day escalation of the conflict in the Middle East lead the way to Ezekiel 38 scenario next year?

No one knows.

It is simply fascinating to think about all this.

Perhaps there may be nothing to all this.

But no one knows.

What do you think?

Hi Gaia Man,

A lot of things seem to be happening in the Middle East. Some time ago you mentioned something like an American beeing captured near Syria. That would be a thing triggering a big war.
Are the things happening now in Libanon actually the events you mentioned, but instead of US-people Israelian people.

Something pups up in my head. What actually happened on 27th of March, or is it just the thing that dates are hard to say?

Anyway, hope you got things under control, it must be hard these visions.

All the best...

Quoting: J-Man 103208

Dear Soul,

I wrote about mid march.
I planned a long time to stay home at that periode.
I found my own way, to deal with the Visions. Because I know, what comes after the Dark Times.
For you my posting from that March periode.

Dear Soul,
Mid May last year, I started writing.
I think mid May this year I will stop.
But again I am not sure about the date.
Like always, I am not sure about the date. Calendar is made by man.

Will it be my last post? At the moment I think, it will be. But also on this, I am not sure.
 My Guide, is telling me, when, what and how.
 210/221
 Maybe, suddenly I will restart writing in november, december or in 2007.
 I don't know.
 Yes, there will be 1 important post I think, maybe with 1 or 2 pictures, that I know.
 Yes, also I did not wrote all of my visions. Why? For there are to many.
 What happened yesterday in Egypt, I knew it would come. I also know the Leader of Egypt will fall. Dark forces will come to power. But these are details, and only a piece of things to come.
 41 shots, it felt like 41 shots in my stomach on the 25th of March.
 It hit me hard. It was painfull, but also on that date I had the Eyes of an Astronaut. I could look into deep dark space. There was the event, I expected.
 Also I saw The Portals again.
 So beautifull, The Light, The Good.
 Someone asked me, if he ever would meet with Jesus. For I can say, that you will meet him, if you really want.
 Also you will be able to meet other Souls, who are or were important to you.
 I am still here, now more in silence.
 Much is already written by me.
 I have a life beside all the writings.
 I have my family, my work.
 I want to play my guitar.
 I go into the fields, and enjoy the runnings of my dogs.
 For that I wrote: "I keep singing in the rain". Because many rain is on the way.
 Dark Clouds every where on our Planet. This Planet given to us.
 For those who will throw stones,
 I refuse to be your enemy
 I can not give you anger,
 only friendship
 Always keep an eye on the stars.
 From above it will come.
 The intervention, The Warning.
 We all will look up and be silent.
 It will tell us, how small we all are.
 All Souls, small, same, scared.
 The Muslim child feels the same joy
 playing the first time with a balloon, as a Christian child playing his first game on its playstation 3. The joy is the same. The pain of loosing your parents is the same for both. The tears are salt on both children. The Buddhist fears the earthquake, the Jew fear the rockets.
 The fear is and feels the same!
 Both feel sitting on top of the volcano!
 If only man could see...
 We will see it with other eyes when Portals open. I am sitting in the classroom.
 Paying attention.
 Learn real good now
 Open your Soul, to those who need it.
 Simply, start people making happy close to you! Write you book. It will be asked.
 Maybe out of the Portal, I will be waiting for you! We both smile, I know.

Why do you try to convince people these posts are false, because you don't see these visions?

Even if I had those visions and would see them as clearly as I can see anything around me in pure daylight, I would deny its claim to be a mirror of our nearest global future. To have visions doesn't mean they become physical and social reality. Many people have got visions. Most of 'em never got true. It's not possible that in a short period of only six remaining years up to 2012 those huge changes shall take place. This is not possible.

But now stop twaddling. The Master is online to reply your requests.

Seeing what happened to the West Coast of Java, I am glad we canceled! We planned to stay in Yogyakarta where the earthquake was and the Merapi Vulcan, and we planned to go to Pagandaran where the Tsunami was 2 weeks ago. Hello GM, since yesterday, I know what you mean by saying, more and more people will be contacted by their guides.

Something happened in the house to me and my husband, and we are sure our Guide was here. It is a long story, which I will email to you. But to give you an impression,
(I think we both had a look, how a portal looks like, because it was showed to us)

Now we know that our guide will be my father who died 8 years ago.

First I thought I went crazy, until my husband, who was sitting next to me said: Do you see, what I see? What's that? It looks like your father.

The room was filled with peace, and the lights act strange.

He was in our living room, covered in a white mist. Even the dog started barking to the place where he stood.

Behind him was a kind of round tunnel, or a door. He was pointing to it.

We both were touched on our arm with something, it felt like a feather.

He was smiling, surrounded in a great white light. It looked he was talking to us, but we could not hear him.

It lasted five minutes I think, but it felt like a hour. After he was gone, I saw that my husband had tears in his eyes, the same as me.

We think he will return.

Thank you, but things get more clear to us now, day by day.

Thank you for postings here.

We love you

Dear Souls,

This are very confusing times for me.
It feels I am standing of a crossroad.
To stay in contact with you in this form, or search for other ways.
You already have a lot of my writings in this thread. But, it is to much for me to keep up, with all the questions here.

For you all Souls are on a Path.
I am on my Path. People choose their own Path. They are free to join me on that Path. If they want to go a different direction they are free to do that, and I wish them all the best in their search. Because Searching all we will do.

Besides the questions here, I get dozens of emails from Souls from all over the Planet. Many strike me in the heart, and they are asking for advice.

May I refuse those requests? Can I refuse a cry for help, turn away on those Souls. These are difficult questions for me, and at the time a big struggle for me.

I need time, to answer this question.
Maybe I will use other ways.

This would be a big change, in my private life. So I need to consider carefully. I hope, I soon can give you more information.

Let me before I go, share something with you.

Dear Gaia Man,

this time a question from me too. I live near Cologne and wish to move to Bavaria in the next years, but this is very difficult for me.

How important is the change to Bavaria for me? Is the valley of the Rhine here really unsecure? Should i move soon? Or is it important to stay for me?

Thanks, franz_liszt

Follow your heart.

I can in tune people sometimes.

But only by writings to do that is very difficult. If I had a picture of you, where I could see your eyes and concentrate it would be easier.

That is why I consider changings in my contacts with some of you in another way. A site, or by email, I am thinking what the best way would be.

These without planning to stop my writings here. But there are some Souls, I did not answer yet, but I am planning to get me more free time to answer them. I am planning to work part time, and give that time to more personal contact with you. But I have to think, in which way it will affect my personal life.

Dear Souls, the war in lebanon will escalate and turn into a world war. I will leave you then as you are all going to die soon.

You must see the fraction of souls that are reading your posts here in the world. You must see that we are of a searching soul...

in the process of all the visions you stated many times we have a portal to go to.. (and more hope)

Gaia man i am but a grain of sand in Gods eye.. along with many.. in Hope that Gods divine love will save us somehow.. There are many that have not heard of Gaia man.. and I am sure if they did know where to go here on GLp it would be overwhelming..

However God Gave you a gift and he planted into your heart to share it..

But what I dont understand in your last post is why you send no Hope...

the last post read we are all gona die..

Ok we all know that someday this will come for all of us.. but the way you put it was its due to the world war 3..

can you please explain this .. because I thought those who believed and had a choice would be going to a portal...

Dear Yehoshua,

For I can not make decisions for you.

I have my Visions and shared them with you. By the way, I share interpretations of those Visions.

Some Visions I had, I did not share, because they are not clear enough or they are too clear for me and I do not want to spread fear.

Yesterday I was shocked to hear the news about the Mexico City Earthquake.

There was a Soul, who asked me a couple times about Mexico City the last weeks. I ignored his question.

I had a Vision, already a long time ago, about a big Earthquake at that location. But I did not tell him.

I asked myself, why did you not tell him? I do not know, my answer to him was blocked.

For today, I understand. I only would give him panic on that question.

I know he felt the ground tremble, but it was not that strong.

For you can not run away, for things to come to you! Many Souls will feel pain in the coming times. Your Soul will grow through this pain.

There will be changes on many locations.

I can not see everything.

It is not wise to tell everything.

For your own location, you should study, what can happen. Its not the way, lets ask Gaia Man, and then I make my decision. I will stay at my location although I know it is not safe.

Because I can not leave all those I love. Many of them do not see what is approaching. So my choice is to stay and help them, when the day will come.

Jeez, you are really pathetic, on your hands and knees begging someone on the internet who displays most of the characteristics of Narcissistic Personality Disorder to give you advice on your child.

You obviously see only what you want to see, as you have failed to see that he has either missed every "prophetic vision" he has made or they are so fantastical that they could only come true on the silver screen.

There is nothing extraordinary or unusual about "these times."

Rather than wasting your time on the internet searching for people who will validate your feelings, you ought to be enrolled in an assertiveness training course and working on your self-esteem.

Gaia Man, unless you've already given up on this Ship of Fools, tell me honestly: don't you ever get discouraged - if not simply disgusted - by the spectacle of people fighting like rats for a few words of your wisdom in the hope that they will somehow survive (if not prosper!) from the now-and-future shipwreck of humanity and our planet Earth?

Reading through the nearly three-hundred pages of this thread, I am saddened by the incessant bickering, in-fighting, the exchange of insults and the often violent desire to snatch some illusion of safety from what may well be an equally self-induced illusion of impending disaster.

If God (or the Gods) really exist, it is no wonder that He (or They) have retreated far beyond the clamour and grasping of the maddening crowds and are no longer answering the phone.

Silence often speaks so much louder - and better - than words.

If nothing else, you are to be commended for your patience, Gaia Man: I personally wouldn't have the stomach to do what you are doing.

And as for my own survival, I have only this to say: I'm fine with myself to the point where the question itself no longer has any meaning.

Whatever may happen, I've already come though.

Peace to you, and to all....

Gaia Man, I think you are a saint.Your addressing everyone as Dear Soul and

8/15/2006 6:50 AM your compassion suggest that you are a very advanced Soul who is several steps ahead in the journey towards God. But that is why several things you have said have been troubling to me. What follows is not criticism but a genuine desire to understand:

1 Your replies suggest a bias in favor of Western Countries. Wanting Israel to watch out, Suggesting that all West must stand together, hinting that dark forces may in fact be Muslims and all Asia is a dark continent, are implying to me that not only Western people are good but their Governments-as opposed to Governments of China and North Korea to name two countries- are good and so on. This is puzzling to me because it is the Western Countries who have committed aggression against rest of the world during the past 500 years, enslaved people and militarily, economically and politically dominated them. I mean what is wrong with Leadership of Japan, India, Brazil, Venezuela and many other countries? Sounds good to hear that US stands for democracy and yet the fact is that US has supported and continues to support dictatorships around the world. Perhaps I am all wet and do not understand God's justice/ Please help!

Quoting: Seeker99 131092

Dear Seeker99,

Who I am, I did tell you already about myself a few times.
I am not a Saint. I am a normal man with a family and a job.
Like you, my car breaks down, bills to pay come in.
I sometimes get sick. Sometimes I go to a wedding, sometimes to a funeral.
I am like you. Human

Only...

I am a Human that started to get Visions around the millennium.
For you can find my writings about locations dark forces are with many.
Can you find my writing, where I found the most wonderful people
I came along during my travels? If so, you will see it's the same location.

I went around the world. Visit countries on almost every continent.
After every country I visit, I left it again, leaving behind new friends.
Saw not wise people, talked with wise people.
Yes, I have an opinion about politics, for that I am a Human.
My place of birth in this life, is directed to me. It was in the Western World.
But why is that important, I learn to see no borders.

I am here to share my Visions and interpretations with you.
Not my phone number.
You can put me on a operation table and examine and analyze me.
If you like to do that, I will and cannot stop you.
Better to do this with my Visions and writings I give you.

Like I told you on 4/25/2006

All Souls, small, same, scared.
The Muslim child feels the same joy
playing the first time with a balloon, as a Christian child playing his first game on its playstation 3. The joy is the same. The pain of losing your parents is the same for both. The tears are salt on both children. The Buddhist fears the earthquake, the Jew fear the rockets. The fear is and feels the same!
Both feel sitting on top of the volcano!
If only man could see...
We will see it with other eyes when Portals open. I am sitting in the classroom.
Paying attention.
Learn real good now
Open your Soul, to those who need it.

	Simply, start people making happy close to you! Write you book. It will be asked. Maybe out of the Portal, I will be waiting for you! But keep working on it, it will turn things to the positive

You have the question,

I Had a similar question.
I could make the step.
My life improved by it.

Gaia Man i am too from Mexico like my other fellow Tenoch, i have too some times visions like you (but i said it's like probabilities, it can be averted if we choose certain path), still i have see too the war you said.

This peace is nothing, it will spark again like gaia man says it will happen when israel do some bombing on iran territory (Irans border) with the excuse of bombing hezzbolla camps, of course UN will be amazed by Israel daring move and afraid, this is when Iran and the rest of arab countries will say enough is enough and the fight begins.

About british airways gaia man you are correct i dream seen 2 lost planes from the UK to us in the coming months (1 to 4 months from now), can you verifie if i am right???

And about Mexico can you tell us something, i have not see anything in mexico at least very dangerous for now (it can change anytime), i would like to know too about UFO's..why they come here very often, what are they looking for? are they good or bad??? because i have seen UFO up close and personal for me (sometimes the occupants , the normally greys ones on my dreams) and sometimes i feel they are not that good or at least with good intentions.

Please gaiamn if you can answer me i will be gratefull !!!
God be with everybody and have faith! shine the love to others that dont have it, be with your family, live happy!

Dear Soul,
Hola.

Yes, flying and traveling from and to other countries will see major changings. For today you still can fly from Shang Hai to the US, it will get more difficult day by day, Clayton.

I had a Vision of British Airways in relation with New Jersey. I said its not safe. But there will be more flights who will see problems in different ways. Many people will stay in their own country. Tourism will go down worldwide.

I had Visions about UFO ´s and I had a real life experience with this in my own backyard together with my girlfriend. Like you. Impressive, don't you think?
But,

Sometimes my head speaks a language I don't understand. (yet)
I am searchings for the right interpretation and words for this.

Mexicans will cross the US border by many. From there, many will end up in the US Army, to be send abroad.

Take care

Dear Souls,

My first message is send, to those who joined my contact list.
If everything worked well, you received this email:

Dear Souls,

Thank you for joining my contact list at gaiamancontact@yahoo.com
This will be my first reply to you all by email.
Meanwhile, my address book is growing fast.
Many of you want to keep in touch with me.
Some of you, asked me questions about their personal life.
Telling me their ups and downs, asking me for advice on what decision they must make.

I can not do that for you!
We all make and must make our own decisions by Free Will.
Some Souls write about their personal circumstances and the hard times they live in today.
It would take me a daytime job, when I had to answer all these questions.
I just do not have the time to answer, or I should quit my job.
But like I told you on the GLP Forum, I am a normal guy, who has to bring in some money
by working, to pay my bills, and keep my family happy.
It would force me to ask money, and I do not want that, plus I do not want to take any risk with this.
So, I hope you understand this.

Also I had requests to do interviews for papers and radio stations.
Again I have to refuse these requests, because it would affect my personal life to much.
There are Souls, who want to bring me in contact with several Organizations or "they say"
important people.
I had a Vision, that I will travel to meet someone and talk with him about about my Visions.
That moment has not come yet.
Some want to to trace my home address, for what reason, I do not know.
If you find me, come to my house and have dinner with my family. My dogs are friendly, so don't worry!
I have nothing to hide for you, but would be glad if I can keep my privacy.
Its not important, what my location is.

Maybe you noticed, I started something new, beside my writings on GLP.
You are very welcome to my Blog, where I can share more with you.
This does not mean, I am planning to leave the Forum.

For my Blog, go to:

[link to blog.360.yahoo.com]

I am now able, to share multi media presentations with you.
My first Video is called, Gaia Man - The Gift.

I uploaded the second, and it should be on line very soon from this moment.
Its called, Gaia Man - Contact.
You can go and watch it at:

[link to video.yahoo.com]

I am still writing about my Visions and Interpretations on GLP.

Go to:

Many times, I get a question, which was already asked several times.

Now you can download all my writings at:

So its easy to use, and its FREE to download.

Thank you for your words.

For I inform you on the way I can. I started writing and sharing here about these Visions.

Please, do not forget, after the Visions, I have to make an Interpretation of these.

So, I can have wrong Interpretations of these Visions.

Because the Visions come in different forms to me. Some are clear, some are not.

Now everyone is talking about the Storm in the South of the US.

Do not forget the other Storm to come from the Middle East!

Soon we will see a murder in Lebanon, Damascus.

	There will be more Storm to come to the coastal areas at the East and South coast of the US. At the east side it will travel up north along the coast. Not only States at the Coast will be affected, but also those who are more in land next to those at the coast. Prepare, for power blackouts and floods to come. But this Storm will lay down again, short after that, another will come over the Islands. Can I do more? I can not stop the Storm, neither the one with the rain, neither the one with the Bullets. You can help, by spreading my writings around the Internet. You also can warn more people to prepare. Dear Soul,

No, in real life I look uglier especially in the morning.
And does he look like a guy with the age of 46 like me? Almost 46, next month! A year older, a year wiser!

No, but still it is special to me, in a spiritual way.
The same intention I want to share as in the Video Monkey Minds!
Now, the monkey looks uglier, my girlfriend says at least.

But also it is special to me, in the same spiritual way.
It is not about the looks, but about what is behind the eyes.
And in the mind, the heart and Soul

Dear Gaia Man,

I have a special request for you...

I saw all of your videos and as always I found them wonderful and very inspiring. I especially liked 'Angels' and 'The Journey'.

However I was a little disappointed by 'The Beyond'. The title lead me to think you had chosen pictures you associate with what you actually saw on the other side. Instead you showed us further images of stars and galaxys. Could you try to find pictures or video sequences that would help visualize what you saw beyond the portals? I think this would be a great theme for your next video, don't you think?

Thanks for considering. I am an admirer of your ability to always find the right words and of your obvious artistic talent.

	That this man from Bavaria, would play a big role in future events, that was clear to me. I had a Vision about him, that he would be killed. I told you already last year. Also I saw a connection with the USA, that made me to give an Interpretation, that he would be killed in the USA. Now I never understand this, and it made me very unsure. For the Vatican, it seems to be covered in mist for me. But we will see, security building up, around the Vatican. The Pope will have to leave the Vatican, to find a safe place. I think he will go to the Swiss mountains. But I am not sure, which Pope! I think it will be the next new Pope. Or the current one, I am not sure. The Vatican will be attacked, like I told you earlier. The Pope we see today, will not be reign for a long time. I could see a dark cloud above him, when he was standing at the balcony for the first time. That he would be elected was no surprise to me. I expected him. There was a fraud in the election. There a strange powers behind the closed doors at the Vatican, but again it is very hard to see. Now I do not say, he is a good or a bad person! Do not understand me wrong. Because it is not to me to Judge any person. But simplify the question to,: Will the Pope be in danger? Yes, he will be in danger, and his last speech made this weekend, was not the end to the tensions with many Muslims. Tensions only will get higher. Dear Gaiaman,
Did you ever had vision about what happened at 9/11? Did you have visions before it happened?

also...what is your opinion about what happened at 9/11. Did the terrorists attacked us at that day or were they people with a hidden agenda in the US that were behind this?

thank you.

Quoting: Anonymous Coward 101344

Dear Soul,

No, I do not had a Vision of the attack of the Twin Towers attack and collapse. It was a shock for me to see, like for the most Souls here.

I was at home in bed, just before sleeping because I was on the Night shift. I just came home from that, and as I have the luxury to have a TV in my bedroom, I decided before go sleeping to watch the News.

So, I saw it live from the beginning.

But I knew something would happen in the USA. I had a Vision of a explosion on the Golden Gate bridge. Now what Interpretation to make from this. It is still a question for me. Was the Bridge in my Vision, in reality the WTC? Or, does it still have to come.

This is not easy.
Future will tell.
I share Visions and Interpretations,
my opinions, I keep for my self.

The same for Guatemala.

Changes on different fronts to come.

Prepare for the Chaos.

My first and strongest Vision, was my first one. In 1995. It was more than a Vision.

After that, my next was around the millennium. Since that time, I had many.

Dear Souls,

First thank you for all your best wishes for my 46th birthday!
A year older, a year wiser, they say.
I did study, and got wiser.
We are here to study in a 3D World.
Some are already in the 4th Dimension World.
Some start seeing the Shadows of it borders.

A year ago, I came to tell you, about my Visions and Message.
To tell you, you should prepare for changes to come.
From 2005 to 2012 in our Gregorian Calendar.
7 Years.

Almost 18 months ago, I did start these writings.
It started small, but it had its development.
It's about you.
You are the one, who can make a difference.
Without being perfect.
Do good and share a hand.
Instead of giving a finger.

For many the Guide already came,
And they hear and listen to their Inner Voice.
If the Voice is talking about Love, Light and Hope,
Know He has arrived! It is your Spirit Guide.

Sometimes you need to do a step back,
To get a better View.

Sit down, and be silent.
Find the peace and rest in yourself.
Talk with your Guide. Ask him!
Ask your Inner Teacher, if he already arrived!

For those who are still not be guided,
Ask for it!
Forgive others and Forgive Yourself.
Find each other. Find a reason to believe!
You find a way. Leave all the past behind.
Step out that Shadow!
I could, why can't you?

If you can get out your busy life,
Take some breath and time and meditation.

You will be able to see new things.
You should be ready to receive.
By giving to others, you will receive!

The Portal into the Fifth Dimension.
But it's a long road, we walk.
Sometimes I sit at the roof, to observe.
Observe the Starry Night!
Like Vincent.
Watch the World situation.
North Korea, Asia
The middle east.
If only I could change.
It will be upon the road.
As long as I can see The Light.
That I can.

The Light will lead us in the next dimension.
The fifth Dimension!

The past few weeks I was Silent.
Found Peace and Rest in myself.
Stayed in the 4th Dimension.
I have got some new answers.
From my Guide.

Like I told you, I had the Vision to travel, meeting with someone.
Now I know, where to travel,
I will take a plane and fly to the French-Spanish border.
To meet someone. My Guide told me the destination.
I know where to go.

After that I will return home.
I think, it will have a big impact on my Soul.
After that moment I will do my last post, I think.
So I think, this is my second last post.
But I have to say, I am unsure about that.
It will tell me, when to post and in what way.
That is for sure.

There will follow many discussions on these writings.
Many times they will say, false.

Many times they say , right.
For that, you should make up your own mind.

There are people still in darkness, who still can't see the Light.
But even the Blinds will see The Light.
No more Sorrow.
All will Pass.
Times will come, people will ask for my return
Because to explain.

Try to find it back in my earlier writings.
Someday you understand, why I did these writings.
They are not perfect and without mistakes.
They were sincere, and honest.
As long I gave you a reason to believe.
Pardon me for my accent.

Because its my Birthday, I will share a gift with you,
Given by another Soul.
You can watch and listen, it is for free.
Its about the changing's many Souls will Feel!
Feelings will change.

The World is changing right before our eyes.
I need to do a step back now.
I hope you all understand.
I have to take care to my Love ones.
Maybe, you should follow my example.

Between the trip to the French and Spanish border,
I will travel to the beach, its only short distance
I will stay there from third November to the tenth.
I will leave my footprints in the sand.
Like many did already.
Knowing..

I wonder if it is possible to keep this thread clean from bad words like fuck or FUCK THE SHUT UP or asshole and similiar vocabular?

Reading some pages back from now on, it's sometimes an affront for all of us to read such comments which use bad words like fuck, bitch and so on.

Are you totally mad? What education have you got to use such words? Where come you from?

For the new year 2007, I wish from now on this thread to be clean from such words!!! I do not want to read those words here from now on!

Do you think we can have a proper, serious and clean discussion here?

Dear Souls,

Yes, this is also a wish for me in the New Year.

To all of you, all the best wishes for 2007.

The language used the last time in this thread, made me doubt to return with some more writings.

Once I said, if there is stone throwing, throw them to me, not to each other.

You can not beat me, because I do not fight.

In almost 1,5 year I tried to set a tone, in what way people should talk to each other. Always with respect, even to those who are shouting to me. It is one of the old wisdoms. Please use this wisdom.

We can change some things by our own behavior and deeds.

We will see, if there is any reason to return for me.

Sometimes it makes me sad, to see some writings here, and makes me think to stop with everything.

I will follow the language used in this thread the coming times.

About all the Saddam questions. Think about the time I had the Visions. I am not a reporter at that time at the place.

For me seeing the pictures on the news, my vision was clear enough. I had and have not the desire to watch the mobile phone pictures.

SEARCH

Life's been a very curious road,
The twists and turns are legion;
It's led me up the highest mount
And wound through every season.

It's held the hope that soon enough
I'd find that dream-come-true,
By plunging ever forward
Along a path that's new.

But each new path I've followed,
With hopes so high and bright;
Has turned into another,
That goes on out of sight.

I followed 'long each pathway,
To choose the best I can;
At each and every crossing
A branch that met my plan

To find the great Tomorrow
Where all the wants are met.
I've searched and hoped, dreamt and chose,
But haven't found it yet!

The secret is to plan and dream.
To walk life's paths, you see
But the glory that each searches for
Is right here in you and me.

Nature lets us go our seeking way
To find what's to behold,
But smugly keeps the secret
That will for each unfold.

The key to life is deep inside
The mind and heart of each;
For love, life and beauty
That's all there is to teach.

Along the path each learns the truth
That the goal's not ahead of me;
For all along its wondrous route
As we learn to love, we see

What country did the guy you saw live in?

Dear Soul,

though I could answer your question, I don't.
But I will give you the most important sign for all of to recognize him:

He, the Antichrist, wants wealth, prosperity, and affluence for the whole world. He will explain you to not waste energy for transcendental questions, but for the here and now in the material world. He wants you to work for prosperity, not for God. He is a man of enormous intelligence, don't underrate him in any direction! He will officially prohibit, by the force of the law, to believe in God and in any religion you can imagine. From the time he has won the masses for his point of view, he is going to show his true face. And what I saw in my visions regarding this point of time, it made me very sad, for the Antichrist will urge to to abjure and to recant all kinds of monotheistic religions. The Antichrist is strong enough to be successful in his mission.

Take care, and prepare with whatever means you can achieve!

Quoting: Gaia Man 182981

Dear Soul,

Why are you doing this?

Why do you take my name, and write under that name?

I would like to know the reason behind it, maybe you can tell me, so we can talk about this. I could ignore it, but I always want to learn what is in another Soul's mind.

Now you spread confusion, is that what you want?

Did you already ask this question to yourself.

If you tell me, maybe I can help you with the answer.

I think you do not need to take my name, because you are unique and can take a name for yourself.

My name is in blue and my i.d. number is 3705, already for a long time. It switched long time ago, when I went from cable to a DSL connection, most people know.

Maybe you want to destroy this thread? Is that the reason behind your behavior?

For that I already can tell you, you will not succeed.

You will go, as you came.
Or is the reason behind it, to make me do more writings?
You can not force this, it is going by the pace of my Guide.

He tells me when to write, and what to write.
But you have certain skills, telling here I believe in Jesus.
Because, yes I do. If you did the same, you would take the other path, and did not write in my name.

We are going to the next period in my writings here.
In May it will be 2 years ago, I started this thread.
In this time, there was a lot discussion about my writings.
I came to share my writings with other Souls. They are in the same boat like me, only I am able to sit sometimes at the crows nest and have a wider look. I clime down the mast, and tell to my Soul passengers what I saw.
People give me all kind of names the last 2 years.
My real name is only known by myself and my girlfriend.

Now the boat is in the year what we call 2007.
This year will see, stormy waters. Big waves, but also calm waters. Many of you think, I can do predictions. I can not.
I am here only to share you about these Visions and pass it on. Thats all I do.

Sometimes when I have a Vision, I don't understand it at the time it was given to me. I give it my own interpretation, and after that I do what we all do.
Just sit and wait. Seeing a Vision come true, is many times the same surprise for me as it is for others.
Sometimes it is scary, but I keep holding to the most clear Vision I had. It was the Vision of the Light, that told me everything will pass, and I should prepare to make the next step in my Souls Journey. It will bring peace like we never had. But we have to undergo some hard times. Some already do now, in their personal life.
But we will see major World Events.

But Dear Souls don't you cry, there will be good times by and by. And know they are watching us, as we are all children of Him. No matter, in which country you life.
In Europe, Israel, Iran, North Korea, Australia or the USA.
Borders are made by man.

The biggest gift besides the Planet we have got was Free Will. We decide what to do with this.
God gave us the Rainbow Sign. Know he is here.
Be ready for 12 o'clock, because it is approaching fast.

Let not come negative energy to you, breath only the positive. Pass it on to others, those who need it.
The more you pass on to others, the more you will receive!
Write your book.

Write it Wise!

Dear Souls,

Its alright, your mind will change also in the coming times, use your Free Will wise!

Write your Book of Live...I write too, wel all do!

Search for Friends, not Enemies...

If you could read my mind, love,
What a tale my thoughts could tell
Just like an old time movie
'bout a ghost from a wishin' well
In a castle dark or a fortress strong
With chains upon my feet
You know that ghost is me
And I will never be set free
As long as I'm a ghost that you can't see.
If I could read your mind, love,
What a tale your thoughts could tell,
Just like a paperback novel
The kind that drugstores sell
When you reach the part
Where the heartaches come
The hero would be me
But heroes often fail
And you won't read that book again
Because the ending's just too hard to take.

I'd walk away like a movie star
Who gets burned in a three way script
Enter number two
A movie queen to play the scene
Of bringing all the good things out in me
But for now love, let's be real
I never thought I could feel this way
And I've got to say that I just don't get it
I don't know where we went wrong
But the feeling's gone
And I just can't get it back.

If you could read my mind love
What a tale my thoughts could tell
Just like an old time movie
'bout a ghost from a wishin' well
In a castle dark or a fortress strong
With chains upon my feet
But stories always end
And if you read between the lines
You'll know that I'm just tryin' to understand
The feelin's that you lack
I never thought I could feel this way
And I've got to say that I just don't get it
I don't know where we went wrong
But the feelin's gone
And I just can't get it back.

Dear Soul,

Thats true, I did say that!

Now you are telling this.

What happens when we are both wrong on this??

What will happen, when I was not right at that moment

I wrote that?

Will it change things?

No, it only means, at that time I had a wrong Vision, and now circumstances in my life are at a turning point I did not foresee, what maybe has the consequence I will not be able to work anymore for a longer time. It even could give me the loss of my job. But thats not the worst you can get, and only small to the problems of other Souls. I will managed it in my way, of course it is not good, but it will give me more time to spend time and attention on other things. One of these could be, picking up the pen, and start writing again.

Things can change, sometimes you do it yourself, sometimes there are other powers.

Some say its coincidence, but I don't believe in coincidence very much!

I now do not say, I will do 12 postings a day again, please give me the time I need, to get comfortable with this new situation in my personal life. It would be a great help!

Thank you for this understanding.

Since the last time I wrote, I saw many reactions from other Souls. Again I am no Prophet or whatever name you want to give me. I am not of outer Space also, I am from down to earth! Gaia!

My Shadow I left behind many years ago!

I stepped out of that Shadow. I don't have it anymore, because my eyes are facing The Sun!

The Sun, The Light, The Good!

To that this path is going. Straight into the Light.

No time to look back.

Not for me to point a finger on any man or anti-Christ.

Its not for me to do. Finding the message of Christ is a better way of finding wisdom.

For today we see one Sun. The time will come, we all see two. They will dance for our own eyes.

Let me be one that expresses a profound appreciation for the continued contributions of Gaia Man on this thread. He is certainly the most accurate visioneer I have ever heard of, and he offers his visions without any thought of profit nor ego aggrandizement. He is a gifted individual, a highly developed soul, a fellow guitarist :^), and lest we forget - an ordinary human being just like all of us. He apparently did not ask for these visions, they came to him - and he offers them to us out of an enlightened spirit of generosity.

Sure - there have been many visions that failed to occur - or later or earlier than expected - or not quite as described. Who knows why? Gaia Man does not know - and neither do any of us. We're dealing with a completely unknown phenomena here. These visions, to my understanding, come from outside our world of good ol' reliable Cause and Effect - in which events and factors can be studied, understood and then future events can be forecast with a certainty directly related to our understanding of their causative factors.

Also, Gaia Man has never told us that we must take his words as being the End-All Truth. He instead says "This is what I saw in my visions - here is my interpretation of what I saw - this is when I think it will happen. Please read or ignore as you wish. Have a nice day." I mean - what more do we have a right to demand from him? I'm just hoping he ignores the ingrates on this thread and understands that there are many of us out here that are extremely grateful for his shared visions.

Now, Gaia Man could be the greatest guy in the world, a great bud to talk to about life, the universe and everything - but that's not why I'm singing his praises. I have lots of good friends who I don't listen to very much when they expound on what they think is going to happen in the world, because in many cases, I don't share their foundational biases concerning human nature (we all have them), or don't agree with their figurings on causes and effects.

But Gaia Man is different for two reasons. First, Gaia Man is not using cause and effect logic to get his results. As anybody in the sciences knows, trying to use cause and effect reasoning to predict results in a environment governed by Chaos is not a fruitful endeavor. Better to observe the end results first and then backtrack to see what caused them. Gaia Man's visions seem to be these observations of end results. His Guide does not give him data and logical processes that leads one to logically deduce an upcoming event, such as "Well, you see, you have Iran over here with a potential choke hold on the Strait of Hormuz, then you got the U.S. over here in Iraq worried about oil supplies...etc." Instead, Gaia Man seems to get a snapshot of a situation - and is then left to ponder the "how's" and "why's" it will happen - along with the rest of us.

The second reason is the biggie - RESULTS, which are primarily what drives be back to this thread over and over. I've said it before and I'll say it again - there should be another PDF document listing all his hits - and they are numerous and profound. Nobody else comes close. If anybody knows of anybody that has a record approaching his - please let me know - and I'll read their predictions too.

I've posted Gaia Man's predictions on a number of hard-boiled political discussion sites - and without exception, forum members initally scoff at the idea of a "woo-woo" psychic having anything useful to say about hardcore geopolitics, international diplomacy or military strategy. Then, after I post the links to this thread and the PDF document, the other posters on that political forum thread disappear and the thread dies. Why? I can't say for sure, but those forum members are usually pretty brutal in trashing posters who they think don't have a clue, and I suspect that once they check out the PDF document, they lose all interest in rejoining a thread where everybody's yammering about what they THINK is going to happen.

So, to Gaia Man - many thanks for returning - and we all wish you a recovery from the health problems you mentioned, and that any change in your work status will be a positive development for you in the long run.

Take Care and Best Regards.

Dear Gaia Man.

Could You tell, who will be president of Russia after 2008 election? Or may be You can describe him?

Quoting: Russian 76958

Dear Soul,

A new man will come to power. He will have the approval of the people.
But,...

I do not see this moment for 2008!

I think, this will be at a later moment.

2008 elections will see many riots in your country.

I think your todays Leader will have another term, OR it could be that he is pulling the strings, and goes behind the Iron Curtain. Than he will appoint "his" man!

For what I can see, your minister of Foreign Relations could be this man.

But your todays Leader, does not want to give away his power.
You could compare it with the situation in The United States!

Dear Souls,

Today I returned from my Journey from Southern France/Northern Spain. It was a long but interesting Journey. I need a little bit rest now, because my health still gives me some difficulties. In a few days I will restart my postings here,
After that I will leave the thread, I think it will be for good.
But nothing is set in stones, so this could change.
This still is not clear to me today.

I hope you are all fine, and I like to thank the most of you who kept the thread positive and peacefull.

I noticed one or more people write under my name.

I only can ask them to stop, and write under another name.

In a few days I will try to answer some more questions.

I hope you understand, that I first need some recover time, and some time with my family, before I start writing.

In the meantime, it would be nice to read some posts with positive energies, like most of the writings here.

It feels good to be back with friends.

See you in a few days.

Everyone who is believing in the portals is making an idiot of one's self. Always remember: Not one single prophecy down the history of mankind ever spoke on portals. NOT ONE SINGLE PROPHECY!

If you believe in Gaia Man, then you declare all other religious scriptures and foreseeings as invalid, for none of them referred to any kind of portals like wormholes or that fantasy stuff from science fiction novels. Gaia Man claimed you can travel within the portals like a spacecraft in a wormhole between the stars. And now I ask you: HOW REALISTIC DO YOU THINK THIS ANNOUNCEMENT MIGHT BE?

Dear Soul,

For many years ago, a man from Switzerland set sail.
He was on the great Oceans for many months.
Then, he saw a beautiful tropical Island in the Pacific.
He got out his boat, and went on shore.
An Islander welcomed him with food and a drink.
It was a young strong boy, about 18 years old.

Together they sat down at the beautiful white sands of the beach. They start talking, and shared thoughts.

The Islander said, look at our beautiful white beach!
Look at our Palm Trees with colored birds!
Look all the colors of our tropical fish!

The man from Switzerland was astound, and said, it looks like Paradise to me, it is beautiful, I never saw that.
We don't have all those things in Switzerland.

Look, said the Islander and pointed out to the sky!
The Sun! Does it not look and feel great?

Yes, said the visitor, but in Switzerland we also have the Sun! And Snow!

Snow? The Islander asked, what is snow?
The man of Switzerland tried to explain how snowflakes are falling down from the Sky. How it looks, how it feels.

The Islander said: Not one single person down the history of mankind ever spoke on Snow to me.
HOW REALISTIC DO YOU THINK THIS ANNOUNCEMENT MIGHT BE?

The man from Switzerland said: oh, I wish I could show you!
But someday you will see snow falling!
The islander laughed, and they said goodbye to each other.
He went on fishing, and the guest got in his boat and went back to Switzerland and never returned to the Island.

70 years passed.
The Islander was 88 years of age, and the proud grandfather of 16 grandchildren.

He was sitting in the same white sands like 70 years ago.
Watching the Sunset over the blue lagoon.
He was lost in his thoughts, and the conversation with that strange guest from Switzerland came to his mind.

	Was it really already 70 years ago? He was still laughing in himself, about that friendly but foolish man. He even could remember that word, Snow! Suddenly above the sound of the waves breaking, he heard somebody calling him. It was his youngest grandchild. Grandpa,Grandpa, come get up and please go with me to our home. The boy was very excited. Why Son, asked the old man, is something wrong? Why the hurry? No, everything is fine Grandpa, but its because my Dad, he has something new in our house, you must see it. All right he said, I am coming, don't walk so fast, I'm a old man. He came in the house of his Son and saw a box. His Son was pushing a button, and then he saw pictures. Look Grandpa, said the grandson! They call it the Olympic Games! It is in Switzerland. I know said the old man, and you know boy, that white dust falling from the Sky is Snow! I know that already for a long time Son! Dear Soul, you do not have to wait that long to see a Portal! But you are allowed to laugh. Take Care. [link to www.youtube.com]

Gaia Man,

you once had a vision about the Antichrist. Two questions regarding this:

1. Are you the only person at present who knows who the Antichrist is?

2. You wrote you're not going to tell us his name.
So for what reason did you get that vision if you're not allowed to speak about your vision? Was it just for yourself?

Quoting: Anonymous Coward 254621

Dear Soul,

On your first question if I am the only one with a Vision about the anti- Christ, I do not think so. I am not unique and special. I had my Vision and interpretation of that.

On your second question I only can say, I have no clue why these Visions come to me!

It started at a moment a few years ago, and after that I started writing and sharing it with you.

Thats all I do, telling you my story, I guess.

Were and are these Visions only for me?

I thought about that, and than I made up my mind, and not to keep it for myself, but share it with others.

Some I think are personal or have another reason and those I don't share.

There is no end to look for. Sure, our lifestyle or star weather might bring us some inconvenience here and there, but I'd like to ask all people to stop bringing the fear of future to this place. This emotion has the tendency to manifest itself in reality easily. To change our future, first of all, start thinking for yourselves. Nothing that somebody else is saying to you is the definitive truth. GM knows that, do you? This troubles me more than GM's rising water. We all can wake up, but the vast majority of us decided to stay in sleep. What's worse, this majority somehow accepted dark future, end times, asteroids etc. more easily than something better. They hear the doomsayers in churches, in media or read from them on the web. Maybe you should stop asking GM irrelevant questions about paricular country and use his skills (visions) for something more productive than stocking up food or fleeing to mountains. Gaia Man User ID: 3705 7/12/2007 12:49 PM 	Dear Soul, I am still here and keep an eye on the thread. Sometimes it is wiser to be silent for a time  Hi Gaia Man: Best wishes to you. I'm glad you are still checking in on this thread, because it looks like a very important vision you had is about to come to pass. You envisioned the US crossing the border from Syria and then Iran attacking US forces in the back from the other side of Iraq. And you made this prediction way back in 2005 when everybody was counting on mideast peace, due to Sharon's "Land for Peace" initiative. "Gaia Man User ID: 308 5/16/2005 ... The war will last. From there the American boy, will cross the border to Syria. They will be attacked in the back from Iran. The other Great War then wil start, and go over the planet. It will reach Europe and USA..." It now looks like this is about to happen. Syria has told its citizens to move out of Lebanon, while at the same time all kinds of Syrian "workers" and "tourists" are flooding into Lebanon. Syria has also removed checkpoints in the Golan heights, which have been there for the last 40 years. Many other reports are surfacing concerning Syrian preparations for war. My guess is that Syria re-invades Lebanon, citing the turmoil between Hezbollah and Lebanese forces as the ostensible reason, but for a host of unstated reasons. Among them - hampering the Lebanese army's attempt to reign in Hezbollah, putting an end to the UN tribunal trying Syria in essence for the assassination of Lebanon's former prime minister, and the desire to act as Iran's proxy in instigating a general war involving Israel, the US and Iran. In response, the US, which has been aiding Lebanese forces in regaining control of their country, recognizes that Lebanon is too weak to repel a full Syrian assault and invades Syria from Iraq. It would actually be a multi-purpose invasion, since the US could also take out Syrian insurgent training camps and their cross-border weapons transfer infrastructure. Iran then launches a surprise retaliatory attack on US forces in Iraq - citing their obligations under the recently signed Iran-Syria Mutual Defense Pact. The US and Iran then get what both have been itching for, for years. An overt war. The US then has justification to take out their nuke sites. Iran gets their apocalyptic war to bring back the 12th Mahdi. The US launches air attacks on nuke sites. Iran retaliates with WMD bio attacks in the US (Chicago). Global jihad is instigated by Iran, and breaks out throughout the Mideast, Europe, Asia and the Americas. This is my speculation concerning your visions, and hour-by-hour events in the mideast, as they are moving inexorably in that direction. Where to run? Where to hide, if and when this starts? If this US-Iran war does start as you envisioned - is there much chance it could have a different outcome? Quoting: Anonymous Coward 264188 Dear Soul, Stop running, Start walking! Dear Gaia Man, thankyou for being so consistent and staying with GLP for years. Many of your predictions have come true, which is an amazing thing. I'm sorry that some people have been ignorant and disrespectful towards some of your postings on GLP - timelines and symbolic visions are not an exact science (as many intuitives know).

Do you think your Shanghai feelings could be related to an economic meltdown beginning in China soon?

Also - what do you think could be the significance of todays lunar eclipse over the Pacific Ocean?

Thankyou again for all of your postings at GLP and please keep up the good work.

Dear Soul,

Sometimes I hesitate to write some things because, I do not always know how to describe a "incoming signal" When the Tsunami in Asia happened, a week before I got a very strange signal coming in. It felt not good, but I could not give a meaning to it. A week later the Tsunami happened.

Since that, I never had that same signal again! Until 6 days ago! The same signal came in. Again I can not tell you what it means, but it is the same signal or feeling. I am very worried about this now for a few days. It could be a big event is very near.

I did not know that there is a lunar eclipse over the Pacific Ocean today. I hope, the signal I received has nothing to do with this location, and lead to a big earthquake or Tsunami. I just don't know to be precise. But it makes me think.

Take Care..
