SHADE (FIRMLY) ONLY ONE ANSWER USING HB PENCIL ONLY.

Read this passage carefully and answer the questions that follow it.

PASSAGE A

All over the world till lately and in most of the world till today, mankind has been following the course of nature: that is to say, it has been breeding up to the maximum. To let nature take her extravagant course in the reproduction of the human race may have made sense in an age in which we were also letting her take her course in decimating mankind by the causalities of war, pestilence and famine. Being human, we have at least revolted against the senseless waste. We have started to impose on nature's heartless plays human new order of our own. But when once man has begun to interfere with nature, he cannot afford to stop halfway. We cannot, with impunity, cut down the death-rate and at the same time allow the birth-rate to soon taking nature's course. We must consciously try to establish an equilibrium, or sooner or later famine will stalk abroad again.

1. The author observes that
  - A. War, pestilence and famine were caused by the extravagancy of nature.
