Not all cleaners have the experience, knowledge and expertise to be handling couture wardrobes. The very best cleaners have resources that allow them to implement cleaning equipment and solvents that your average dry cleaner simply cannot afford. Many couture pieces should never be cleaned by a machine, only hand washed. Your average cleaner doesn't know what they don't know, and that is a recipe for fabric damage.

We go through the proper process to clean and protect from damages. The process is:

Laundry:

Our New York City wash & fold laundry experts use a special cleaning process to restore original colors and textures to the highest possible level. Check us out in Kips Bay, Murray Hill & the Upper East Side.

Wash & Hang Dry:

When your clothing needs that special drying attention, we have the fabricate knowledge and procedures to protect your investment. Finished garments are perfectly clean, comfortably soft and a pleasure to wear.

Bedding:

The cleaning experts of Suits & Shirts Cleaners work diligently to remove bedding stains and odors using an eco-friendly solution that is tough on dirt and odor, but easy on the environment. Offering drop-off or pickup services across Manhattan.
