Fourth Annual Harborpark Day Takes Place This Saturday

by Kathy Giordano

The fourth annual Harborpark Day will take place this Saturday, September 24 in the Charlestown Navy Yard. Events are scheduled throughout the day starting at 11 a.m. and concluding with a fireworks display in the Charlestown harbor at 8:30 p.m.

"Townie Santa" Meeting

"Townie Santa" Inc. will hold a meeting on Monday, September 26 at 7 p.m. at the Mary Colbert Apartments, 20 Devens Street.

The meeting is planned to discuss the upcoming delivery of baskets to the elderly, needy shut-ins of Charlestown to take place at Christmastime. All are welcome to attend.

Mayor Raymond L. Flynn stated, "Harborpark Day is a special way of showing what a great resource our harbor is and those who come will see that we are making great progress in our efforts to develop a waterfront that is open to all, a place we are balancing economic development with recreation activities that enrich the quality of life in Boston."

Highlights of this year's event are the arrival of the USS Thomas S. Gates (CG-51), which will be berthed between Piers 4 and 5 and open for visitation between 1 and 5 p.m. For the first time, the Sixth Annual Horizons for Youth "Chowda" Fest will take place on Pier 3, offering samples of the best chowder in Boston from 15 of Boston's best restaurants.

Events include free water shuttles, rides aboard the sailing vessels of the Courageous Sailing Center and the Navy Yard Sailing Club, musical performances, magic and puppet shows and many exhibits ranging between water conservation to hands-on science displays and animal shows.

A one act play will be performed by the Charlestown Working Theater aboard the USS Cassin Young on Pier 1. Residents will be able to send a free message to anywhere in the world via Amateur Radio or view an antique auto exhibit, also taking place on Pier 1 in the Boston National Historic Park.

BRA Director Stephen Coyle has stated, "This Harborpark Day will in-

by Kathy Giordano

Bernard Cardinal Law, Archbishop of Boston, was the principal celebrant at a Mass of Thanksgiving at Saint Mary's Church last Sunday, September 18, as the parish celebrated the centennial anniversary of the present church building which stands on Warren

The Cardinal spoke eloquently of the parishioners who built the structure. He paid tribute to their sacrifice and hard work, remarking that they were not people of great means, rather ones who faced many hurdles in their own lives as Irish immigrants and Catholics and dedicated themselves to build "this magnificent house of God." The Cardinal asked, "What must they have felt when they first entered this everytime they enter this 100-year-old structure.

The Cardinal was joined in the celebration of the Mass by Reverend James B. Canniff, Pastor and Reverend Robert M. Burns, Parochial Vicor. Also on the altar were clergy representing sons of the parish who had entered the priesthood, clergy who had served in the parish and clergy from the other two parishes in Charlestown. They included: Reverend Thomas E. Brennan, S.D.B., presently serving the parish; Reverend Charles Anadore; Reverend John Donaghey, S.V.D.; Reverend Monsignor Paul Donelin; Reverend George Evans; Reverend John Fogarty; Reverend Henry Gallagher; Reverend Patrick Healy, O.M.I.; Reverend William P. Start Of Southbound Route 1 Detour Moved Forward To October

More than 42,000 drivers a day that make their way into or through Boston via the Tobin Bridge will be facing delays as all the traffic from the bridge to Route 1 south will be merged into a one-lane detour that will be put in place on Wednesday, October 12. Southbound motorists will be routed onto a temporary detour structure linking the Tobin Bridge and the Central Artery for the next four years.

The opening of the structure will eliminate the connection between Route 1 south and I-93 north. Of particular concern to Charlestown residents will be the closing of the Park Street on ramp, which will also take place on this date. Motorists traveling to the Central Artery southbound from Charlestown, will have to cross the North Washington Street Bridge and go onto the Central Artery at a Boston entrance. In order to travel northbound on I-93. motorists will have to use Exit 28 in Somerville, just beyond Sullivan Square.

The Henley Street off ramp from the Tobin Bridge will remain open at this time. The Massachusetts Department of Public Works (MDPW) has stated that access to City Square from Route 1 south will remain throughout the pro-

The detour, which was originally scheduled to go into effect in December, is part of the MDPW Central Artery North Area (CANA) project which has been designed to alleviate the dangerous intersection at the merge of Routes 1 and I-93. Representatives of the MDPW, in planning meetings with the neighborhood, outlined the necessity for this traffic detour in order to allow for the demolition of the ramp system over City Square and the subsequent construction of tunnels and new viaducts on the I-93 side of Rutherford Avenue. A MDPW spokesman stated that demolition of the overhead ramps will begin shortly after the detour is put into place. Demolition will begin on the southerly side, in the area of the dam.

"This is a major construction project and some delays are inevitable. We've put in place a number of travel options and the best advice we can offer to commuters is to take advantage of them. As we did during the Southeast Expressway reconstruction project, we are asking that motorists leave their cars at home and expore the commuting alternatives available to them, such as mass-transit and car- and vanpools, " said MDPW Commissioner Jane F. Garvey.

The MDPW, in conjunction with the MBTA and other state and local agencies has implemented a commuter relief plan that will continue to expand during the project. Mass transit service has been increased to include room for an additional 2,600 riders on the Blue Line and 600 riders on the Orange Line; and seven MBTA bus routes, including Routes 92 and 93 through Charlestown, will now be able to carry an additional 1,700 riders from North Shore communities and Charlestown to the Haymarket Station and downtown.

Other traffic mitigation measures will include the installation of computerized message boards along the roadway to inform motorists of delays. Also, a designated alternate route has been established for motorists to use traveling from Route 1 south into the city. The suggested route is Route 1 south to Route 16 (Revere Beach Parkway) to Route 28 (the Fellsway/Mc-Grath Highway/Msgr. O'Brien Highway) to Leverett Circle. This three-lane route will have police at every intersection to coordinate traffic signals and maintain a steady flow of vehicles. This designated route was designed to keep traffic out of the Charlestown community as much as possible.

"People have responded well to the restrictions CANA has imposed since May of 1987, but now the real challenge begins. The best way for motorists to reduce their commute time into the city is to use the commuting options available. Working together, we can make the CANA project as successful as the Southeast Expressway project," said Commissioner Garvey

MDPW representatives will have a table set up during Harborpark Day on Saturday, September 24th from noon to 5 p.m. in the Charlestown Navy Yard to distribute information on the detour. Flyers will be circulated by the MDPW and information published with-

THE FIRST OFFER

Your home has been listed for just a few days, and your Realtor calls with great news. The people who looked at the house last night have come in with an offer to buy it! When the agents arrive to present the offer, you're excited and nervous. Then, as they explain the price and terms, you feel that the price is a little too low and that the offer contains some terms that will be either expensive or inconvenient for you to meet. Should you try to work it out or wait for something better?

Often, though not always, the first offer to come in is the best one. When a house is fresh on the market, there is usually a rush of activity and the buyers who see it during the first few days are those most likely to be the most interested. If you're fortunate enough to get an offer right away, you'll probably be better off in the long run if you accept it or try to work out some sort of compromise if there are terms that you find unacceptable.

For solid advice on buying or selling real estate, consult the professionals at Century 21, Silva Realty Associates. Please call us at 242-7470 or drop by our offices at 142 Main Street in Charlestown.

THE MAIN STREET TOWNHOUSES

The Main Street Townhouses combine the beauty of the traditional rowhouse with the freshness of new construction. The houses are efficiently laid out and the interiors are filled with light and tasteful detail.

The Main Street Townhouses are a first for Charlestown in this century. They are built to look like the rest of the neighborhood's houses. And they are houses, not condominiums. The private parking spaces and fenced yards on each lot are prized additions to these homes. These new homes will have lasting value.

Variances On Two Charlestown Properties Approved By The Board Of Appeal

The City of Boston Board of Appeal acted favorably on the propsals by two Charlestown homeowners at the Board's hearing on Tuesday, September 19.

Tom Crosby of 79 Bartlett Street had petitioned the Board to increase the occupancy of his property. Stanley Leonard spoke in favor of Crosby's proposal and there was no opposition voiced. The Board granted approval to Crosby.

The petition of Sheila Sweeney to legalize the occupancy of 24 Sullivan Street as a two-family dwelling was approved by the Board. Abutter Kevin Roche "strongly approved" of the request. Judy Evers from the Mayor's Office of Neighborhood Services and Tom Bagley from City Councillor Robert Travaglini's office both spoke in favor of the proposal.

Fourteen Candidates Vie For Seven Seats In Neighborhood Council Election

* JULIA RODRIGUEZ of 8la Tibbetts Town Way is currently the secretary of the council. She is serving as chairperson for the housing and development committee. Rodriguez is chairperson for the Charlestown Affordable Homes Committee.

"I would like to see the council take a more active role in other areas of concern in Charlestown, other than development. There will be much linkage money made available from the Navy Yard and I would like to see some of that money go towards affordable day care for low and moderate income families. I would also like to see a focus on drug awareness programs for teens and families of people with drug problems. As for schools, I would really like to see some help going toward our two parochial schools so tuition or supplies or even structural improvements could be made," comments Rodri-

* BETTY BARNES GOLDEN of 9 Monument Square. Golden has served on the council's by-laws, housing and development and public safety committees. She has been a board member and basketball, softball and volleyball coach for Saint Mary's CYO. A 10-year volunteer for Saint Catherine's School and Church, Golden was also a delegate to the Democratic State Convention.

"I would like to see the council have even more involvement with all the city agencies and departments with regard to all issues relating to the Charlestown community, whether it be development, public safety, basic services, etc. We should be more involved in every aspect of decision making," says Golden.

KEVIN ROCHE of 13 Sullivan Street. A JFK Family Service Center board member for six years; Roche has also served two years on the Charlestown Economic Development Corporation's board of directors.

As a council member, Roche would like to "have a say on what power/authority the council possesses; set up easy-to-follow procedures for citizens and interested parties to make their 'case' before the council; separate short-term action issues from long-range planning issues; demand secretarial support from the city; and finish one task before starting a new one."

* JIM MANSFIELD of 28 St. Martin Street. Mansfield has served as a member of the council's housing and development and planning and zoning committees, and as a mitigation committee member until the Boston Transportation Department's involvement. He is on the board of directors for the Charlestown Community Schools and the JFK Family Service Center, where he serves as secretary. Mansfield works with the Charlestown Boys and Girls Club Bingo, and was the Club's former membership director. He is also involved with the Headstart Fire Fund.

"Development issues are important to this community, however, in the future I would like to see the council geared more evenly to other issues, such as youth and elderly services, jobs and job training and affordable homes. It is important for the community's well being that we reinforce the sense of community 'pride,' " says Mansfield.

TOM DESMOND of 20 Harvard Street. He is a member of the Friends of John Harvard Mall's board of directors.

Desmond says he is "interested in community-based programs, neighborhood safety, substance abuse, locally controlled development, housing and educa-

Area (CANA) Project, and the Father's Club at Pope John and Don Bosco high

"I would like to see the council pursue a full-time, fully staffed police station, control of future development, particularly in the Navy Yard, and better public transportation, particularly for the elderly people living in CharlesNewtown and the Navy Yard," Wal-

 JIM DOHERTY of 295 Bunker Hill Street. He has been a member of the council's basic services and human services committees and is involved in "several" Charlestown community

Doherty says, "Better housing, better educational opportunities, elderly affairs and employment opportunities for Charlestown residents" are what the council should focus on.

The current council chairperson, McLaughlin also chaired the Charlestown Pride Week Committee and is a founding member of the Bunker Hill Irish Heritage Society, Charlestown-To-Charlestown, Inc., Friends of Lindemann, Charlestown Against Drugs and the Bunker Hill Asso-

McLaughlin would like to see the council "(working on) the balance between the Navy Yard build out and community benefits (affordable housing, linkage, etc.), bring attention and resources to bear on Charlestown's drug problems, finish work on IPOD and develop a public process on as many issues as possible."

STEPHEN COLLINS of 1 Laurel Street. Collins works with Saint Mary's Parish Church.

"The council, in my opinion, should focus on as many issues as its time allows. This would encompass property and business development, police protection, youth enrichment programs, drug problems, education, employment opportunities and others. As elected people in the community, the impact the council has within the community and with government should be substantial," Collins says.

* KAY WHELAN of 20 Cordis Street. She has served on the council's basic services, public safety, and housing and development committees. My Sincere Thanks

Dear Gloria,

Please allow me to use your column in the Patriot to express my sincere thanks and gratitude to all those who have assisted me and my family in any way since the fire at our home on July 23.

Specifically, I would like to thank Saint Francis de Sales Parish, Saint Mary's Parish, the Boston Firefighters Relief Fund, the Halligan Club, the Sports Look, the Main Street Superette, the Russell Street Variety and my brother firefighters throughout the city, who have all been most generous on my behalf.

To name the many friends who have come to our assistance and shown their concern would be too lengthy an ordeal, and, inevitably, I would forget someone or, perhaps embarrass someone by printing their name. These people know who they are, and now, I certainly do. I will not forget what they have done for me and my family.

My friends and neighbors have again responded as true "Townies," and, through my adversity, I feel fortunate to have such friends and neighbors.

My sincere thanks, Marty O'Brien Jr.

Thank You, Charlestown Association Of Parents

Dear Gloria

On behalf of the Board of Directors of the Kennedy Center, I would like to extend our heartfelt thanks to the Charlestown Association of Parents (CAPS) for their generous donation of $240 to the Headstart Fire Fund.

On Saturday, September 17, the Association sponsored a flea market at the Training Field. More than 20 individuals from the community participated as vendors selling a wide variety of useful and intriguing items. As an enthusiastic shopper myself, I could see what a wonderful time neighbors had coming together to buy and sell and socialize, knowing that part of the proceeds would go to the Headstart program.

I agree with the many others who expressed a desire to see this happen again. It was lots of fun and raised money for a good cause. Thank you Charlestown Association of Parents! Kate McDonough, Executive Director

Would Appreciate Opportunity To Continue To Represent The Community

My name is Betty Barnes Golden and I am a current member of the Charlestown Neighborhood Council, seeking reelection on Saturday, September 24 at the Knights of Columbus Hall between 10 a.m. and 2 p.m.

Help Me To Continue To Work For You — Charlestown

Dear Friends,

I am a current member of the Charlestown Neighborhood Council, being one of the original members appointed by the Mayor in 1986. I am now running for election to the Council and would like your vote.

Being a lifelong resident of Charlestown, I have been active in many organizations and activities over the years. Currently I am President of the Charlestown Historical Society and Director of the Society's Bunker Hill Museum.

Most recently I was instrumental in bringing Precinct 3 into the Museum building to allow easy access to the polls for residents living in that precinct, especially the elderly. I instituted a drive to have a chapel included in the Master Plan for the Charlestown Navy Yard, realizing the hardship that older residents now living in the Yard are faced with in getting to Church due to the lack of transportation available to them. That proposal has been accepted by the Boston Redevelopment Authority and is to be included in the planned nursing home building at Yard's End.

I have had the pleasure of working closely with many of you, side by side, in the following organizations: Charlestown High School Booster Club, past secretary; Charlestown Boys and Girls Club Mother's Club, past president; Disabled American Veteran's Auxiliary (DAV), past commander; American Legion Auxiliary Unit 26; Townie Santa, vice president; Ward Two Democratic Committee member, 1960s and 1970s; Bunker Hill Day Civic Events Chairperson, 1970s; Bunker Hill Monument Association, treasurer; directed and produced numerous "Minstral Shows" to benefit local parishes, organizations and needy causes; and was appointed the first woman Court Officer in Suffolk County.

I hope you will get out and vote on Saturday, September 24 at the Knights of Columbus Hall between 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. and cast one vote for me. Help me to continue to work for you — Charlestown! Kay Whelan

34% Voter Turnout In Charlestown In Last Thursday's Primary Election

Some 34 percent of the registered voters in Ward Two, Charlestown went to the polls on Thursday, September 15 to cast their ballots in the State Primary Election. The present voter registration, as released by the City of Boston Election Department, is 5,577 Democrats, 425 Republicans and 1,949 Independents for a total of 7,695 registered voters. This figure is down 526 from the voters registered for the Presidential Primary this past March.

With 73 percent, Representative Richard A. Voke received the largest percentage of the Charlestown vote from Precincts 2 through 7. This is the first state election since the institution of the new redistricting plan which saw Precinct I moved from the Second Suffolk District represented by Voke, to the Third Suffolk District with Representative Sal DiMasi.

Even a heated race for the State Senate seat failed to draw out the Charlestown voters. Senator Francis D. Doris was victorious in his run for re-election against Chelsea resident Tom Birmingham. Doris received a plurality in Revere, Everett and the North End, while Birmingham took Chelsea and Charlestown.

Neither Doris, Voke nor DiMasi has Republican opposition in November.

Richard Rouse topped the ticket in the race for Clerk of the Supreme Judicial Court, in Charlestown as well as in the county.

Joseph Langone beat out Robert Collins for Governor's Council, but faces Republican opposition by Vincent Manganello in November.

Clerks of the Superior Court Daniel F. Pokaski (Criminal) and Michael J. Donovan (Civil) have no opposition in November. However, Register of Deeds Democratic nominee Paul R. Tierney will face Republican Brian Burke.

Also in the November election, Senator Edward M. Kennedy is being challenged by Republican Joseph Malone, while Congressman Joseph P. Kennedy will face Republican Glenn W. Fiscus.

Ceremony Honors Nathaniel Gorham, Signer Of The Constitution

In the hustle and bustle of the 1980s, there are few occasions where citizens pause to reflect on their heritage and to pay honor to their forefathers whose bravery and sacrifice laid the foundation for the America we know today.

Saturday, September 17th was one of those special occasions. Members of the Massachusetts Daughters of the American Revolution, along with Sons and Children of the American Revolution and representatives of the Charlestown Historical Society and the Bunker Hill Monument Association, gathered at a site in the Phipps Street Burial Ground purported to be the grave of. Nathaniel Gorham.

September 17th holds significance in American history as 201 years ago on this date, the United States Constitution was ratified by the Constitutional Convention in Philadelphia. Nathaniel Gorham was a significant figure over 200 years ago as this Charlestown resident was one of the two men who came from Massachusetts to place their signatures on that document.

Mrs. Eric G. Hook, state regent of the Massachusetts Daughters of the American Revolution (MDAR), acted as master of ceremonies for the commemoration. She stressed the importance of remembering Gorham, the only signer of the Constitution who remained in Massachusetts, and pointed out the plaque that was dedicated in his honor last year on the Bicentennial of the ratification of the Constitution.

In the invocation, Mrs. William F. Potter, MDAR State Chaplain, referred to Gorham as a "true patriot who gave of his time, talent and wealth to institute this new government."

Before leading the gathering in the recitation of the Pledge of Allegiance, Eugene Richards, Massachusetts Sons of the American Revolution (MASAR) State Historian and member of the Continental Color Guard, commented that although it is not "mandatory" to salute the American Flag (referring to the recent controversy), "We will salute the greatest flag in the world established by our ancestors as a symbol of liberty."

Mrs. Kay Whelan, president of the Charlestown Historical Society, expressed her pride in taking part in the ceremony. She stated that she was born and brought up in this community, noting that "here in Charlestown we have lived with history."

"We are proud of Charlestown and its heritage," stated James W. Conway, president of the Bunker Hill Monument Association (BHMA), "and when we get a chance to speak, we always want to let people know that Charlestown is the 'Mother of Boston.' He went on to say that Charlestown was founded in 1628, noting that if the community had good drinking water, the seat of state government would still be here in this town. Conway commended the DAR, the SAR and the CAR for being involved in celebrating "not only your Nathaniel [Gorham], but our Nathaniel," expressing a willingness to share this famous native with others who have a similar commitment to history.

Conway stated that as President of the BHMA. which commemorates the Battle of Bunker Hill each June 17th, and as an active member of Bunker Hill Post and a past national officer in the American Legion, he was "pleased to see organizations that predate ours," organizations that came out of other conflicts in other times, "walk in unison with us and being very proud of our country. being very proud of our flag." He said that we sometimes tend to forget the "sacrifices that have been made by your forbearers and families and my family in later conflicts and what they put on the line for this country." He continued, "I think it is about time we say to the no-sayers and those who are always beating their breasts telling us how bad it is here that there are good times and that we are people who love our God and country."

Hook then introduced "a special gentleman - Nat the seventh" who came from Buffalo, New York to be present at the ceremo-

This Gorham, who ran a hardware store in Canandaigua for 50 years, had several sons, the first born being Nathaniel Gorham V who died at the age of 29. His second son, named George, was the speaker's grandfather who moved to Buffalo where he became a lawyer. Wanting to perpetuate the name of Nathaniel, George Gorham named his first son Nathaniel, which meant that the name going from generation to generation would not

In this document, Herter stated that "Constitution Day, on which the Constitution of the United States was formally adopted, will ever remain enshrined in the hearts and minds of the people." It continued, "The basic principles of the Constitution still protect the civic and political welfare. Freedom is precious, but freedom without law is unwise . . . since laws are made by citizens, it is fitting that we should re-dedicate ourselves to the ideals upon which this great republic was founded - pledge ourselves to help make our

As Mrs. Hook and Mrs. Harlow S. Pond, MDAR State Historian, placed flowers at the memorial plaque, the assembly was asked to join in the dedication, repeating, "In honoring Nathaniel Gorham, may we also pay tribute to all the heroic men and women who have served our country with integrity and devotion. Let us dedicate ourselves anew to a faithful stewardship of the blessings we have inherited through their support of noble state and our world a better place."

NATHANIEL GORHAM VI traveled from Buffalo, New York to join with the MDAR in honoring his ancestor. Gorham entertained the gathering with historical data on the Gorham family.

JAMES W. CONWAY, president of the Bunker Hill Monument Association, addressed the gathering at the ceremonies honoring Nathaniel Gorham.

MRS. KAY WHELAN, president of the Charlestown Historical Society and Director of the Bunker Hill Museum, extended greetings from the Society and the community to some humorous anecdotes.

He said little is known of Nathaniel Gorham I, who was born and raised in Charlestown, except that he was a Captain, probably in the Militia, and raised a large family. One of his sons was Nathaniel Gorham II, the only signer of the United States Constitution who remained in Massachusetts. Gorham added that the second signer, Rufus King, married a wealthy widow and moved to New York state where he lived the rest of his life.

Gorham said, "I feel that in many ways, Nathaniel Gorham II belongs to you who was a financier of the American Revolution. Gorham related that Nathaniel Gorham II never left the state to see the Phelps-Gorham land purchase which ran between Syracuse and Rochester, all the way to Lake Erie. Gorham II sent his son, Nathaniel Gorham III to the area and the son remained in the little-known town of Cananideals."

In concluding the ceremony, Mrs. Hook asked the SAR Continental Color Guard to offer a musket salute. She asked them, "Do you have permission from the local police department? Do you have a permit to carry? Is your powder wet or dry?" Following a response in the affirmative to the first two questions and an indication that their "powder was dry," the color guard fired on command.

The gathering then, at the invitation of Mrs. Kay Whelan, attended a reception in their honor at the Bunker Hill Museum.

Home Sweet Home! Crilly, Charlestown Tip Latin Academy

by Bob DeCristoforo

For a change, the focus was on the football game and the kids who played it, and our Charlstown High School kids did well defeating Latin Academy 22-16 in the home opener of the 1988 Schoolboy Football season at the Charlestown High School Field on Medford Street.

John Crilly and Tommy Allen provided all the offense for Charlestown. Crilly had three touchdowns of 33 yards, two yards and five yards, respectively. He also had a two Tommy Allen's spectacular 18 yard scramble late in the game set up Crilly's eventual game winner. Allen's two point conversion sealed Latin Academy's fate.

As a member of the Neighborhood Council for the past two years, I feel I have represented the voice of the entire Charlestown community. I do not owe any allegiance to any political or special interest groups and will never endorse or support any recommendations put forth before the council they are not the wishes of the residents or in the best interest of the community as a whole.

We still have many issues facing Charlestown, as in the past, such as further development, public safety, basic services, parking issues and much more. I would appreciate the opportunity to continue representing the community and ask for your support.

Also, I would like to thank Charlestown High coaches, teachers, Principal Mr. Robert Murphy, referees, police officers for their good work.

It proves that we can play without any incidents. If people would let it be.

In Support Of Tony

Dear Sir:

I urge wholeheartedly the reversal of the National Park Service's (NPS) recent decision in awarding the bid for food service in the Charlestown Navy Yard. The bid should go to Tony Costa.

As a Grayline Sightseeing bus driver and guide, I've known Tony Costa and his family for 12 years. He is deserving for every good reason, among them . . . he's paid his dues - 42 years serving the area, a number of them now within the Navy Yard itself. For goodness sake, what message does the NPS mean to send, especially to the already maligned people and neighborhood of Charlestown?

Tony is an established institution at the Navy Yard. Involved here is precedent, neighborhood, feeling of family, loyalty, nostalgia, . . . more American values than I'm clever enough to enumerate. And, suddenly, this man and his family are "thrown out." "Something's rotten in the state of Denmark." Excuse me, but something's wrong. There's an injustice here. Something just doesn't smell right

The decision has caused frustration, bewilderment, anger, resentment and sorrow among literally hundreds of people,

I urge a reversal and your active support for a reversal. Sincerely,

James L. DeSimone

In Support Of Jim Doherty

I would like to urge the community to support Jim Doherty's re-election to the Charlestown Neighborhood Council by voting for him this Saturday, September 24.

Doherty has served the council's planning and zoning and basic services committees most recently. He is a retired Suffolk County deputy sheriff, served in the U.S. Navy during World War II and has been a lector at Saint Francis de Sales Church for the better part of two decades.

A well-known friend to the elderly in the town, Doherty actively made his stage debut in 1976 in the Charlestown Working Theater's production, "The Wedding," at the age

Born and raised in Charlestown, Doherty is a graduate of Saint Catherine's School and Boston College.

He is most deserving of your support in his re-election bid for the Neighborhood Council and I respectfully request that you cast one of your seven votes for Jim Doherty at Saturday's election at the Knights of Columbus Hall.

Thank you, Laurie Zallen

To The People Of Charlestown

The reason I am running for the Charlestown Neighborhood Council is that I am concerned with the future of our community. Over the past years I have had true pleasure in involving myself with the many issues involving Char-

I was born in Charlestown, went to Charlestown schools, married a Charlestown girl, Ann Lacey, and have four children, Jeremiah, Daniel, Teresa and JoAnne.

As a community activist, I have been involved on many occasions including People's Fire House No. 2 which saved our fire house on Winthrop Street, one of the most rewarding tasks I have taken on.

I would like to list a few of the boards and committees that I have sat on: Townie Santa, the Elderly Thanksgiving Dinner, the Bunker Hill Day Parade Committee, Board of Directors of the J.F. Kennedy Family Service Center, Past President of the Charlestown Economic Development Corporation and member of the Board of Directors of Massachusetts' largest anti-poverty agency A.B.C.D. I have participated on the CANA project and the Charlestown Committee to insure the safe de-leading of the Tobin Bridge, Little League, Pop Warner and I am presently a member of the Father's Club at Pope John and Don Bosco High

The Neighborhood Council is important. It is our voice in government and as you can see my voice has been heard on many occasions trying to fill that gap between us and I urge you to vote for our town's future and I urge you to vote for me on Saturday, September 24. The Knights of Columbus, 75 West School Street will be open for voting from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Thank you, Bob Wallace

"The Patriot" Is The Community Working Together

I have been reading the Charlestown Patriot on a weekly basis for nearly 20 years and have come to accept what the Patriot staff does as routine as clock work. The Patriot isn't just a newspaper, it's the community working together to report all the news the community needs to know and the folks down at the Patriot office deserve lots of credit for keeping "Townies" and "ex-Townies" up to date with the news we want to know about.

Recently, the Patriot covered the naming of the John Boyle O'Reilly park at the corner of Main and Austin Streets. The event took place on Wednesday, August 10 at 6 p.m., at the same time the Thursday, August 11 Patriot was being prepared. Other newspapers might wait another week to bring the story to print, but the Patriot had the scoop on everyone the following day. Now, I didn't praise anyone for that feat, because the Patriot does that kind of stuff all the time. But that effort didn't go unnoticed or unappreciated by this writer or I'm sure the regular Patriot readership.

Sincerely, Sal Giarratani

I Respectfully Request Your Support

To My Fellow Residents of Charlestown,

I am taking this opportunity to publicly request your vote in the upcoming election to the Charlestown Neighborhood Council, for which I am an at-large candidate.

For those of you who may not know me personally, I and my family have been life-long residents of Charlestown. As a member of the Neighborhood Council since its inception, I currently serve as its vice-chairman and also as chairman of the Basic Services/Human Services and the MWRA Mitigation Committees.

Before the creation of the Council, I had been active as a board member and past president of the Kennedy Center, chairman of it Education Committee, and a founding member of the Charlestown Economic Development Corpor-

In these and other volunteer capacities, I have demonstrated an active and personal commitment to addressing the critical issues of public health and safety and quality of life in Charlestown. I am convinced that the Council will continue to be the single most important forum in which to pursue these concerns in the future; and I believe that I have the dedication and perseverance and have developed the competence and credibility to do so effectively.

With pride in our past accomplishments as a community - and in anticipation of our future challenges - I would be honored to continue to serve you on the Charlestown Neighborhood Council. For that reason, I hereby respectfully request your support of my re-election - and your vote on Saturday, September 24.

Sincerely yours, Maurice "Moe" Gillen

Safe Learning Environment Is Not Guaranteed

It's reassuring to learn that Boston School Superintendent Laval Wilson is indeed in his right mind. Wilson passed the sanity test when he removed his daughter from Boston Technical High School to a suburban school for safety reasons. It's simply too bad that other parents of captive children don't have the same privilege

Over the years I have repeatedly pointed out that no one in their right mind would knowingly put their son or daughter in an unsafe learning environment. We now know that Wilson the parent is indeed sane.

However, parents of Boston's school children must find it mind altering to see Wilson, the Superintendent, take his daughter out of a documented unsafe school. Most parents are not out of their mind, they're simply economic prisoners, they can't afford to get out.

Public schools, no matter how bad the product, are guaranteed two things . . . students and money. Quality education, in a safe learning environment is not part of the guarantee and that's the shame of it all.

Wilson the parent was right. Wilson the Superintendent now knows first hand the fear, anguish and mental frustration of parents of children who have been left behind. It's making them crazy!
