YOUR PLACE ...
YOUR CHOICE

OUR STORY

Back in 1980, a simple Texan began a singular quest. He searched high and low seeking the best that a hamburger could be. He hungered for perfection in an imperfect world. All he found were warmed-over compromises between bland slices of bread. The burger culture had sullied an American institution.

Finding mediocrity unacceptable, he took a wrong and made it right. He took the frozen and made it fresh. He built his own burger and his own burger place right in the heart of San Antonio, Texas. And then because the man had a sense of humor, he named this place Fuddruckers.

Over thirty years later, we at Fuddruckers still hold true to our simple recipe and values: the best quality Beef Choice complying to the highest standards, buns made from scratch every morning and throughout the day, and farm-fresh produce and all the other fabulous “fixins” that make your hamburger truly yours....because there are no shortcuts to perfection.

Today, Fuddruckers stands as a shrine to the Burger Arts—and the only place in the world where you can find the “World’s Greatest Hamburgers”. In fact, a CitySearch™ poll has called Fuddruckers “America’s Best” in cities across the USA.

We welcome you with this hearty menu and invite you to take your appetite in a scrumptious journey that you will stay forever. What began more than 30 years ago as one Texan’s fresh idea has gone on to make the World a Burger Place.

We take our meat very seriously, all our beef comes from the most prestigious ranches. To ensure the highest quality, freshness, consistency and a 100% Islamic compliancy, AFS established a special business unit to monitor and deliver our beef from reputable sources.

“It’s either fresh or fresh!” that’s how our bakery is! fresh from the oven.. & straight to your dish. At Fudds all of our baked goods are home made, hand rolled, and baked to order, take a whiff of our bread and you will know what we are talking about.

Here we use another word for fresh, we use the word “Vegetables”! So whether it’s a salad or an ingredient, we make sure that you taste the freshness and inhale the farm breeze as you taste it. At Fudds, “If it ain’t Crunch, it ain’t Lunch”.

KNOW YOUR BEEF

Our steaks are High Quality Beef and truly special! Before each juicy, delicious steak is delivered to your table, it is hand-selected. Expertly seasoned with our Fudds signature spice, grilled to perfection on hickory open flame wood grill, served with mixed vegetables, and your choice of another side (baked potato, mashed potato, sweet corn, Fudds Fries or French Fries). Ask your server how you want your steak to be done.

As part of AFS's restless efforts to present its customers with the greatest of quality, we have established a special business unit to monitor the selection, production and exporting of all beef distributed to any Fuddruckers locations in the Muslim World.

To satisfy all expectations, our chefs have perfected a system that will preset your meat as per your doneness request, e.g. Medium, Medium Well, or Well Done.

In order for us to guarantee the level of taste and quality expected at any of our reputable franchises. We keep our staff trained by quality assurance experts and examine all of our dishes regularly.
