

A scroll written by Glarthir and Nook for the protector of Achto where Nameless one once was. Underneath the water lying on the sand was the uxliftable trident of nameless one, waiting for the right one to lift it. Then it came to be three tridents in the hands of the picked ones. Kutya, Newmexico and Alatar gained their tridents. Also there was a trident of light made for the hands of the BRIGHT LORD Accal who is now also the Prodigal knight. Then there was a trident forged in obsidian and molten ash named The Trident of Evil which was for the hand of Pythas and his assassins. Then there was forged a trident of the Sea which was made for the hand of Orbay.

Then was forged a trident of stars, forged by the light for the hand of Varai. That is the complete list of the tridents. Now here are the trident holders when I Glarthir am writing: They are the grays. One stands in strength with a pointed hat while the other is the Protector of the solitude. The last is the One Who Hears Whispers in the darkness and Sees visions in the lightness. Now this is the list of the Protectors of Solitude: Nook, Son of Mairon. Accal, Son of Mairon. Glarthir, Son of Mairon and Eiven, Son Of Aron. Each one held a trident for their job (apart from Nook). These are the weapons of Nook: An ice sword and an ice bow and a Prophet Sword. These are the weapons of Glarthir: A Prophet Sword, A Prophet Dagger and a Cosmic Sword. These are the weapons of Accal: A Light Trident, which is to be used in the skies, and also a blazing sword besides a golden sword (which was once my sword) and was used to slay Melkor. But Accal is not Turin. These are the weapons of Eiven: A blazing sword with a winged hilt and as current Protector, A Trident Of Nameless One. Now this is a brief history of The Protector. Lost as a baby this child was hunted for his powers. But because Accal is Lord and is mighty and also knew what was at stake, he found the child before the shadow did. Then Accal trained the boy in the ways of the force (but he did not reveal to him the secret knowledge) in order that his power not grow too great. But because Accal is Lord, and is mighty, he had wisdom in his heart. Now Accal saw the boy was becoming strong, but in order that he not be discovered, he concealed the boy and gave him a disguised name (for his true Birth name is Avenberry and Rose). But because Accal said in his heart (and because he is mighty) he thought 'I sense this is a descendant of the Eldar and the Princes'. So this is the family of the child. Aven Berry Rose, son of Aron Rose and Rainberry, daughter of Maria Illuviar and Mairon Annatar, son of Nameless One and apprentice of Aule Of Crafts. Maria of the Forest was daughter to Orome the Huntsman, Son of Nameless One, Shaman Lord.

Now this is the family line of Accal: Accal Annatar, son of Mairon Annatar and Melody Illuviar, Daughter of Orome Illuviar, Princess of the Forest and Queen of the North. So Accal in his youth had eyes brighter than his father's, that is why he was sought for by Pythas after he was left in the mountains by his mother, who was attempting to give him back to Nameless One (for she feared for his life). But hearing of the baby being abandoned in the mountains before his father did, the scout and forest protector The Stag found him before his father. So Accal became adopted by the former samurai. So Accal ensured that Aven also was saved. But Aven's name was changed to Eiven. So Eiven then became Eivez, because he was 1% evil. Accal became hot with anger. But Eivez was empowered by Pythas. (by this time Eiven was Protector of Ach To). Now this is what Nameless One said through his prophet: "What is this Protector doing?" So he became hot with anger and said to the prophet Glarthir (me): "Write a scroll and show the anger of the forest and find a new Protector." But Glarthir replied: "Please, do not forget your sons." So Nameless one said: "I will tolerate it once, twice even, but not three times." So he declared: "1% evil, now 2% evil. But 3%? The trident in his hand will turn black." So Glarthir (me) replied: "I will tell him." So now Eivez is 2% in the world (because he came into existence twice before Eiven subdued him). But if he becomes known a third time, the Trident in his hand will become black, like the Obsidian. And it will curse whoever holds it with a terrible ending. And now Nameless One appoints a new Protector. But Glarthir once more said: "Please, do not forget your sons and be merciful." But the light disappeared and the Protector remains for now. May the Protector, Eiven, consider being reborn after fully tested by shadow. On the day of his rebirth, he will abandon his old title as Son of Accal and be called Son of the Light, Winged Warrior bringing light and his name will be Alexander. And so Nook came to give news to Kutya and then spoke to his father, The dark lord. This is what the dark lord said to nook: "I am testing Eivez. I will use his son as the test." So the Dark lord went to the teenager, SPY OF DOOM, and said: "I am commanding you today to kill [SOMEONE] precious to Eiven. Then Eivez will unleash himself on me and certainly fight me in the manner Accal did in 2016. So then he will become permanently powerful." But Nook leaked this info to Glarthir (me) and I wrote it down. Then the dark lord came to me, saying: "Write it down, because I am not stopped by a leak. What do I always do to snitches?" So nook became

a record of all the actions and deeds of Amir today, the King of Evil. Amir has been put in charge of Baraddur, because the dark lord has left Baradur and lives in Orodooom because of the disturbing reports out of the west. Also, Khamul is the lord of the black city besides him. If you see Khamul, hurl three curses at him. If you see Amir, hurl 7 curses at him. Now Amir, lord of the evil, forged a four sided saber with Obsidian and Infernal crystals inspired with artificial elements and evil speech. This saber is the most powerful saber. If you see this saber, please kill the wielder of it and destroy the saber. Also, do not let Amir talk to you, because his black breath will make you corrupted. You are to curse Amir 7 times. If anyone should be kind to Amir, he will be forgotten. If anyone is cruel to Amir, he will be celebrated and his name will become famous in the forest. That is what Glarthir says. Now this is a brief history of Varai, the lady of stars and the lady of winter skies. She became beautiful in the skies because she is the lady of the stars and all the stars were given to her and she was sheperd of the stars. When a star would die, it would form a black hole, and then Mandos would take it to be his. But Varai would cry for 8 days to remember the star and its youth. But the star was not her's, because it was her job. But she loved her job. Her mother is Varda, but Varda is no more. Varai is the true name of the lady, not Little, because she is renamed as a weakling because she forsook her place in the stars and because she kissed Pythas. So this is why she is cursed and will be called 'Little, little in the skies, Big in evil.' But when the day comes when she says: "My work in dating the black lord is over, even for good, is over. Now I curse Pythas to his face 7 times. (8 for good counting)." Then she will be Varai again. But if she does not, she will have a daughter with Pythas and she will be called 'Catya the Gloom Girl' and Catya will become more powerful than any girl ever. Then Littlez will have a son too called Hater. And Hater will kill Danito. That is the prophecy. Now please, come to your senses! Please see the peace picture page below and remember Me, when you are being tested by evil.
