7. How to identify Authentic, Replica and Fake goods

How to buy Authentic from abroad?

Authentic goods in Vietnam are very expensive.

Abroad, this concept is hardly considered as a word too strange? For both subjective and objective reasons in Vietnam. Products from the mid-range segment and up, we often see the so-called "auth goods".

"What is authentic goods"?

The word Authentic in English means: "Authentic", "Prove" the purpose of showing the quality of a product. This adjective is also a strong guarantee for well-known brands around the globe, because it is genuine products, strictly tested for quality through criteria of copyright, design and materials.

There are some typical faces for auth goods such as skillfully built such as: Channel, Gucci, Dior, Lancome, Nike, Adidas, Jordan, Puma, D & G It seems to be a product that represents the company, bringing its reputation to the competitive market.

WHAT IS 100% AUTHENTIC?

In other words, when seeing products with the words "Auth", "Authentic", we can understand that this is a genuine product, a brand name, a high quality product, a genuine product or a real player called a product. "Good".

And it also distinguishes clearly with the goods with the symbols Fake, Super Fake, Fake1, Fake2 ... when the market of counterfeit goods, fake goods has grown rapidly in the past 10 years.

What is Authentic? Differentiate between Authentic, Real and Fake products

Authentic goods will also originate primarily from foreign markets or in Vietnam. The goods are extremely popular with consumers.

Auth products are sometimes also known by other names such as real, original, genuine or legit.

2. SOME OTHER SYMBOLS ON GOODS TYPES

2.1 WHAT ARE REPLICA GOODS?

Rep is the abbreviation of Replica (Copy) is the word used to describe the products are copied genuine in a meticulous and sophisticated way.

The type of item is difficult to distinguish because in appearance, the detailed design of each part is remade nearly the same as a good one.

Replica goods are often similar to 90% Authentic products, so the distinction is relatively difficult for buyers.

Pros: Rep has cheaper price, cheaper simulation with accuracy like Real products.

Disadvantages: Material and durability are not equal to Authentic products. It can be distinguished if observed carefully.

+ Quality scales for Replica goods.

- A: The lowest quality scale, the product is poorly processed and has the cheapest price in the Replica price range.

- AAA: Higher quality than A but AAA products are still below average in the Replica segment.

- Perfect: Products using materials such as genuine goods, seam - stitches almost identical to genuine goods.

- Super Perfect: Perfect model is overcome some outstanding errors to help them "look" the most genuine.

- Super Max Perfect: Products with the highest quality and almost indistinguishable from genuine goods, priced quite high but commensurate with the quality because Super Max Perfect goods only appear in the high price and sophisticated models. .

In addition, we will see some products for Replica 1: 1 ie Replica 1: 1 segment (1: 1 ratio compared to genuine). This type of product is a high-class segment of Replica (copy), because it is processed and used with high quality materials and the price is also higher than regular replica products (without using genuine materials and technology). For example, a pair of "Yeezy 350v2 CreamWhite" is compared between Real and Replica 1: 1.

The term Replica or Rep 1: 1 is just a common name for high-quality fake goods. But there are still some names about the factory or factory versions such as: H12, G5, OG, or most famous are PK GOD products ... The above numbers are for processing and applying high-quality materials. famous in China today.

Derived from "Replica 1: 1" or "Like Authen", from a famous Chinese knock-off country. Different factories will produce different quality, material and processing. The picture below shows an example of a Replica shoes with high-end segment, like 95% from "form" to material, if not copied to 99%.

So should I buy a Replica?

The answer depends on each person!

Choosing for personal economy: Low cost products are always the optimal choice for the majority of the masses. So the items "Replica" or "like Authen" are a reasonable choice when there are more economical prices, easy to follow the trend, diverse styles in the society are growing rapidly today.

However, if the economy is naturally abundant we can choose the product we like.

Note: Some genuine products need to be verified, high-end replica is often mixed easily, it will be difficult to distinguish.

2.2 WHAT IS FAKE GOODS

The word "fake" in English means "fake". And in business, products labeled as "Phap" are products that are replicas of famous brands.

With similar design and almost identical to genuine goods. However, the material used to make the product is quite bad, does not guarantee the durability of the product and is often sold at a much lower price than the real product.

Fake goods are also divided into several levels: from what is f1, Fake 2, Fake 2.... Each 1 level corresponds to different quality and price is also different.

Super Fake goods will have the highest price, next turn is Fake1 > Fake2 > Fake3.

- What is SuperFake: Super fake or also known as high-end fake goods are goods that are relatively well simulated in appearance. But it still has certain differences with the real thing that the customer may notice.
- What is type 1 fake goods: F1 fake goods or type 1 fake products are product lines with lower quality and sophistication than rep and super fake goods. Fake F1 products are often wrong in size, design, color, ... but still similar in certain points.
- What is fake 2: The difference between the fake F2 and the real one can be easily identified without looking too closely. The sophistication and sophistication of the product is gone, replaced by poor quality seams. In addition to fake type 2 goods, you can also see products of type 3, type 4, ... with inferior quality.

2.3 WHAT IS 2HAND - SECONDHAND?

This can be fake or genuine goods that have been bought and worn by the owners of this outfit before, but due to the need to exchange, resell, the price of these items is also acceptable.

2.4 WHAT ARE AUTHENTIC LIKE PRODUCTS?

Like auth goods, also known as luxury goods, are considered the most advanced Fake goods in all non-genuine goods. With materials and designs that are 99% similar to genuine products, distinguishing this type of product requires consumers to have a great understanding of the product as well as a truly refined eye.

2.5 WHAT IS AUTHORIZED AUTHORITY?

In fact, it is still genuine, in the production process, there is a small number of marks, cut threads, but the material or style is still 100% genuine, the price will be lower than authentic imported and exported goods. Another way of selling auth goods is to steal goods, get out of the country, cheaper prices due to not having to pay taxes or other expenses, on the market today there are quite a lot of places selling auth goods (mostly individuals because This is a violation of the law).

2.6 WHAT ARE VNXK PRODUCTS?

Vietnam's export goods (surplus goods), or Vietnam exported goods are genuine brands of foreign companies that place the processing in Vietnam and must export 100% to foreign markets which are not allowed to be consumed in Vietnam. .

For example, VNXK shoes (Nike, Adidas, Sketcher ...) are genuine Vietnamese export goods (Authentic) but are marketed in an unorthodox way, these unorthodox ways can be slipped (sneakily brought out) via a certain line, sneak production or outsourced (surplus goods) based on excess materials.

However, the price is much cheaper than normal. This type of product usually does not come with bags, containers or accessories but only shoes. - Advantages: Very affordable price - Disadvantages: Unorthodox, does not guarantee quality,

2.7 MADE IN VIETNAM PRODUCTS

Made in Vietnam is like a VNKK product that is legally produced and distributed in Vietnam. Advantages: Ethnicity (made by Vietnamese people), quality assurance, orthodoxy. - Disadvantages: Price is higher than export goods.

2.8 MADE IN CHINA GOODS = SHIP (ITEMS THAT QUALITY DUAL GOODS?)

Made in China, or PRODUCTS MADE IN CHINA, are manufactured by a processing company in CHINA (similar to MADE IN VIETNAM made in Vietnam). Technical specifications, quality, genuine, are guaranteed, simply made in CHINA, does not mean that this product is a poor quality product, even better than Vietnamese products. because the technology and industrial manners of Chinese people are higher than Vietnamese people, don't listen to the propaganda of unhealthy competition style but underestimate the quality of SHIP.

2.9 WHAT ARE CHINESE FOR EXPORT?

This item is imported from many quality shops from small to large scale in China, then brought to Vietnam and sold at cheaper prices.

2.10 WHAT IS SAMPLE GOODS?

Sample = sample goods = not for sale (not for sale).

Probably somewhere before, you have a glimpse of some products labeled "SAMPLE - Not for sale" displayed on trial shelves, especially cosmetic products, then it is a product to try.

The sample is basically still genuine because it is still represented by the company's representative in accordance with the official quality standards and materials. hang-sample

The origin of SAMPLE products is that before being put into the mass production line, the company will produce the sample shipments and give testers (test users) to test, on average, each sample has a few dozen testers. , try shoes in all weather conditions ... on average every 3 ~ 4 weeks is to send the return sample with comments to the company.

Each sample takes about 6 ~ 8 months. After each comment is sent, the company will make modifications to the next SAMPLE form. When finished, put into mass production.

However, the main reason for testing or display is that the sample can be cut down on some production steps during production to cut costs.

You often see that cosmetic products will not be wrapped in containers (generally the shell) looks as good as the products you have to spend money to buy.

2.11 WHAT ARE COMPANY GOODS?

The concept of a company's product can be understood as a product guaranteed by a domestic company and responsible for importing goods from foreign countries to Vietnam or associating production with other countries to create appropriate designed products. trends, good quality products, domestic competition. Company products are distributed by domestic companies through shops, supermarkets, shopping centers.

The company generally assesses its quality depending on the distributor of that product, they are a large, reputable and reliable enterprise to ensure the quality of your product.

2.12 UNAUTHORIZED = WITHOUT ORIGINAL SOURCE.

Unauthorized is a phrase of shoes of unknown origin, which can be considered as "Vietnam's export goods" but of Western countries. But these "unauthorized" couples do not know if they are genuine or not, but most of them have other details about their appearance compared to genuine products, although the price is cheaper, but in terms of quality, it may be impossible. guaranteed.

2.13 WHAT ARE GLOVES?

Carry-on baggage is now a term used to refer to products that international travelers take home, which can be roughly interpreted as imported, but not mainstream.

Most portable products are new products, which means they are of equal or sometimes better quality than domestic products.

The only difference is that it is sold in another country and brought to Vietnam by someone to do business. Typically, notebooks are cheaper than genuine goods.

The level of difference still depends, but there are many less. Basically because notebooks don't have to pay as much tax as genuine goods, the price is cheaper.

However, not without weaknesses with every laptop. Usually, it is difficult to determine the quality of hand-carry items.

You can buy fake goods, poor quality goods, used goods and then sold.... take refuge in the name of portable goods.

The only solution to this problem is that you need to have a reputable place to buy, a place to sell notebooks at a good price that you can rely on and you must perform the basic testing steps directly. when buying.

In addition, the laptop is not under genuine warranty. When your shoes are damaged, you will return them to where you bought them, which will take your shoes back to the store for warranty and then return them to you.

2.14 WHAT IS UNAUTHORIZED AUTHENTIC?

U.A means Unauthorized Authentic, U.A's products are products made by the same factory, the same workers, the same materials of famous products of Nike, Adidas but not signed with these brands. The perfection of Unauthorized Authentic is higher than that of replica goods and it is difficult to distinguish genuine goods from Unauthorized Authentic. That makes the difference of U.A compared to other stores.

4. COMMON LEVEL OF AUTH PRODUCTS IN VIETNAGES

In Vietnam, items like phones or cosmetics, users prefer genuine (Authentic) goods over Fake goods, but with items such as clothes, waist bags (belonging to male accessories), users Prefer Fake products a lot more.

Why is that so, let us analyze further to see this problem:

IPHONE
