

An Episode on Dad on Girls

If you're into family shows, you've probably heard of Dad V Girls, the YouTube family channel based on the famous show. But what exactly is this show about? It's a funny and surprisingly relatable comedy show about dads and girls. What are the most important things to know before watching the show? Read on to find out. And stay tuned to see The Girl Dad Show ! Here are some tips for deciding which show is right for your family.

Episode on dad on girls

This week on Jessa's podcast, "An Episode on Dad on Girls," Jessa is recovering from the end of her foolish marriage, and she is back home with perpetually confused Hannah. Jessa is excited to see her dad, but is surprised when she discovers that he has a new girlfriend. Played by Rosanna Arquette, Petula is just as wonky as her dad, and her presence has little to do with the storyline. Petula's nutty girlfriend, Hannah, is equally out of place, believing that the world is a video game.

The Girl Dad Show makes Loreen uncomfortable and he struggles to understand his son. Tad's revelation also results in a tense dinner with Shanaz and Avi. Tad's revelation sheds new light on Hannah's advice in Iowa, and it makes Elijah's comments about Tad ring true. A new season of Girls will be better than ever, so don't miss it!