MANAGER PREVIEW

WITH JOHN ROBERSTON

Good evening and welcome to the Caledonian Stadium for today's match against Queen of the South. I'd like to warmly welcome Alan Johnson, his coaching staff, the Queens fans and directors to Inverness.

Saturday's match was a disappointing one, we've said it all season that we've just dropped silly points. Saturday's performance keeps cropping up, every five or six games we seem to put in a poor performance and get punished for it. It's happened all season, but the players have responded very well when we have these performances and that's what we have to do again tonight.

It's a mystery because we seem to be going well then we fail to hit the standards that we're capable of. All we can do is brush ourselves down, make a few changes and freshen things up for tonight's game against Queen of the South. Queens are fighting for their lives just like Alloa and Partick Thistle. They've got an agenda that they're fighting for points to stay in the league and we're fighting for points to get out of the league.

Lewis Toshney suffered an injury in the first minute on Saturday but we're hopeful he'll be back sooner rather than later, hopefully Sean Welsh will be back sooner rather than later too and James Vincent was back in training yesterday so that's good news for us.

Thanks for your support,

Robbo

CAPTAIN CARL

TREMARCO'S PREVIEW

Welcome to this evening's match against Queen of the South at the Caledonian Stadium. I hope everyone is well!

Saturday's game against Alloa was a real disappointing and frustrating one. I don't think we reached the standards that we are capable of as a team and that is something we must address today as we look to bounce back with a win.

Queens are fighting for their lives at the bottom end of the table so this will be a difficult match. We've got the better of them twice this term and need a similar type of performance if we are to keep the points in the Highlands.

I was proud to receive my award at the last home game against Morton for recently reaching my 200th appearance for the club. It's a record I'm proud of and I have great memories during my time here and I'm hoping to make a few more special ones!

Enjoy the game,

Carl Tremarco

07.03.20 | THE INDODRILL STADIUM, ALLOA
LADBROKES CHAMPIONSHIP

Inverness fell to a disappointing 2-0 defeat at Recreation Park against Alloa, with goals from Lee Connelly and Alan Trouten securing all three points for the hosts.

John Robertson made two changes to the Caley Thistle side which beat Morton 3-2 on Tuesday as Aaron Doran and Brad Mckay replaced Roddy MacGregor and Kevin McHattie in the starting eleven. Although, the Caley Thistle boss was forced into an early change after less than two minutes played as Lewis Toshney was forced off due to a thigh injury and Kevin McHattie was his replacement.

The hosts had the lead after 12 minutes on the clock, Lee Connelly received the the ball in the box and his effort wrong-footed Mark Rodgers after taking a nick off Brad Mckay in the box and looping over the Caley Thistle keeper. After 19 minutes, Alloa had the chance to make it 2-0 as Lee Connelly's cross found Kevin O'Hara in the box but his effort was wide of the post.

Just a minute later, Caley Thistle could've been level if it wasn't for a great save from Alloa keeper Neil Parry. Tom Walsh's free-kick was flicked on by Trafford into the path of White but the strikers' effort was saved by Parry from close range.

Caley Thistle looked for a response and Shaun Rooney mustered the extra chance for the visitors as he saw his header bounce just wide after 37 minutes after meeting Doran's lofted ball. Parry was forced into two more saves before the break, firstly after 40 minutes the Alloa keeper denied Brad Mckay's shot after the defender met Walsh's corner at the back-post.

In the second-half, Ridgers had to be alert straight after the re-start as he palmed, Crystal Palace loanee, Scott Banks' effort over the bar.

Right-back Shaun Rooney made a brilliant bursting run down the middle of the pitch and played in Aaron Doran but the Irishman saw his effort blocked and behind for a corner.

After 62 minutes, John Robertson made his second change of the game as James Keatings replaced Miles Storey. Alloa could've had a third after 64 minutes, Lee Connelly saw his initial effort parried by Ridgers and the rebound fell to Trouten but his shot came off the post.

After 67 minutes, Tremarco picked out White in the middle with a great cross but his header was held by Neil Parry.

Scott Banks showed some great skill as he went past a couple of defenders and saw his shot from the edge of the area go just over the bar.

Caley Thistle's final sub came after 73 minutes as Nikolay Todorov replaced Carl Tremarco.

Tom Walsh looked to cause start a late revival fro Inverness but his effort was over the bar after 84 minutes.

In the final minute of the match, Alloa could've capped off their three points with another goal as substitute Adam Brown saw his low effort come off the post.

Daviot Healthy Hearts Visit

We have our first of four visits this week to Daviot Primary School for the healthy hearts programme. The Healthy Hearts project is a way to introduce healthy living to kids in schools. We have visited Primary Schools throughout the Highland area utilising a Healthy Heart Grant from Heart Research UK & Subway. It is designed uniquely to innovatively track each individual's reaction to exercise/diet by exploring the demands placed upon the heart through physical activity. We will be putting the kids through their paces with lots of different exercises with and without a football. They will not just work on their cardio but also their muscular endurance in each workout. To make this more fun for the kids taking part, they will be doing their exercise to music.

Crown Visit

After a month at Hilton, we are now back on Mondays at Crown Nursery for our Nessie Soccer Skills sessions. In January we had been working with Crown to deliver fun sessions aimed at kids 3-4 years old. Through these sessions we look to use our imagination with a football and relate it to fun activities such as kicking, dribbling and catching, as well as movement and improving co-ordination. We look forward to more of our visits to Crown.

Hilton Month Finished

Our February was full of sessions at Hilton Primary School, taking the classes for football. During this month we had classes from P1-7 to work on the different skills that it takes to play football. As a lot of kids may not of played football before, we made sure to challenge them even if it was their first time playing or they had played before. Thank you to all the kids and staff at Hilton for making the visit so enjoyable.

SHAUN ROONEY

Bouncing back from poor results has been something Caley Thistle have been good at this season and Shaun Rooney is hoping that can happen again this evening against Queen of the South.

It was a disappointing performance and result against Alloa at Recreation Park on Saturday and Rooney says the team want to put that behind them and get a good result today.

Rooney said: "It's always good to try and put things right, it's game after game at the moment and you are going to have set-backs in football, it happens to every team, so you always have to look forward to the next game and hopefully we can bounce back with a win."

"We said in training yesterday that after a set back we've always responded well, we've always come back and got a point or won the next game so hopefully that continues tonight. We've got to try and win tonight as Ayr and Dundee play each other again, hopefully we can gain more points on them."

It is a heavy workload for the Caley Thistle players at the moment, with so many matches coming thick and fast. Rooney thinks that you have to take each match as they come.

The right-back said: "Once you do get a run of results you can't look too far ahead of yourself, you have to take on game at a time. Obviously, they are good sides in the league and each team is good on their day and everyone is fighting to either go up or stay up."

Caley Thistle currently are 2 points clear in second-spot and with Ayr United playing Dundee this afternoon the Highlanders have the chance to gain points on at least one of the side immediately below them in the table. Rooney has stressed the importance of getting second spot, with it improving your chances of promotion.

Rooney said: "We missed out on second-spot last year and that took its toll after the two legs against Ayr. We played well in the first leg against Dundee United and then when we played the second leg we looked tired in the second-half. Hopefully we can miss out on the Quarter Final games this year and then only have four play-offs games to play then kick on from there.'

Rooney has been a consistent presence in the Caley Thistle team this season and he has been pleased with his performances but he is always looking to improve.

Rooney said: "There's some games where I think I should be doing better, in terms of getting forward more or defending better."

"Again, I'm still learning, everyday is a new day and you've always got to learn. Whether it is a new shape or formation or defending against a fast tricky winger, you always have to see how to defend against it, we have Miles [Storey], young [Matheus] Machado and Tom [Walsh] in training so that helps prepare you."

THE OPPOSITION

QUEEN OF THE SOUTH

Queen of the South head to the Caledonian Stadium this evening fighting for their Championship survival as they sit 9th in the table.

Queens currently sit three points ahead of Partick but they've played one match more than the Jags so it is tight at the bottom. The Dumfries side was recently picked up draws against Thistle and Dunfermline but their last win was back in 2019, beating Ayr Utd 2-1 at Somerset Park.

Since that win at Somerset, which at the time had Queens sitting 6th and three points off the play-offs with a game in hand, Queens' form hasn't been good. They are nine matches without victory (D3, L6)

Stephen Dobbie hit an extraordinary number of goals last term as he was the PFA Championship POTY, he is Queens' league top scorer this term with 8 goals to his name.

MATCH REPORT

INVERNESS CT 3
GREENOCK MORTON 2

03.03.20 | CALEDONIAN STADIUM
LADBROKES CHAMPIONSHIP

It took a last minute goal from Nikolay Todorov to secure the three points for the Caley Jags and to cap off a free scoring display

For the Caley Jags: Roddy MacGregor, Miles Storey and Lewis Toshney freshened up the starting line-up from the away game at Hibernian in the cup; Doran and Keatings started on the bench and Brad McKay was serving his one match of his suspension.

From the 13th minute onward, Caley Thistle got a hold of possession and turned the screw as they bombarded the goal.

Firstly, David Carson whipped in a great cross from the right hand side and Greenock goalkeeper, Danny Rogers could only just tip over Jordan White's dipping header. The corner was half cleared and Miles Storey forced Rogers into another tipped save with a fierce drive from near the edge of the box.

Again players challenged and barged for the corner, but this time it left Rogers a little shaken and bruised, struggling slightly with what seemed to be a dead leg. He unconvincingly opted to take the goal kick with his left foot, which landed to a Caley shirt, unleashing Tom Walsh down the right hand side.

The boys in blue instantly tried to test Rogers' fragility and Walsh's cross from the right was easily met by White, whose header planted the keeper to the spot as it sailed into the bottom corner.

At the restart, Cadden had a great opportunity to test Ridgers from inside the box as he lined up a volley first time, but he seemed to snatch at it and got too far under the ball; it went high over the bar.

There was a short pause in action as both sides tried to figure each other out. A goal would come at the 60th minute, via opportune positioning.

From the left wing, Lewis Strapp pulled a drilled ball across the box, which normally would have been cleared but a tangle of legs brought a Caley Thistle and Morton player to the ground and the ball arrived at Nebitt's feet in space. His placed shot went through Ridgers' legs and tied the game square – it was his third goal in four games.

Seven minutes later and the hosts would be back in front via a set-piece. David Carson was bundled to the ground around 30 yards out and from the right hand side he floated a deep ball to Rooney in tonnes of space in the box, who glanced it into the near post with ease; a relatively straight forward header for the fullback.

Nicky Cadden's right footed cross towards the back post looked to be flying out of bounds but was salvaged in the air by newly minted sub, Craig McGuffie. The midfielder scooped it back towards the middle and Reece Lyon bundled it in with the tip of his toe into an empty net from only six yards away. Ridgers misjudged the cross and was out of position, so was helpless to see it go in.

With the seconds ticking down, there was still an air of opportunity for either team to grab onto and it was the home team that got it just barely before the final whistle.

Aaron Doran's cross from out to in was flicked on by Carl Tremarco in the box for substitute striker, Nikolay Todorov who easily muscled off his mark to power the ball down off the post and in. It was second goal in two games for the Caley Jags, and what secured the win in an entertaining Championship fixture.
