

Elliot Morais: A Post-Call Out Analysis (Last updated: May 2nd 2020)

Overview:

On April 16th 2020, a call out post for Laura @radblrwarcriminal on Tumblr, formerly known as Elliot Morais and André, started being written. Older URLs include @traggot and @elliottmorais. According to the document, Laura has “been severely emotionally and sexually abusive towards Ari” for three months (January 11th 2020 - April 15th 2020). The document also claims Laura showcased “pedophilic tendencies towards a minor”, which led to Ari leaving the relationship. As stated in the document, “the screenshots speak volumes on their own, but explanations have been given too alongside”. However, it will be shown throughout this analysis that the “explanations” given were written under the assumption the reader would not click to see the screenshots in question or think critically about them. Additionally, this analysis will contain commentary by Laura and outsiders who have read the call out but have absolutely nothing to do with it.

This document will be updated from time to time.

Those mainly involved:

Ari: the alleged victim in the call out’s scenario, 21 turning 22 this year (2020), FTM, known as 715 @twamsmahogany on Tumblr.

George/Rose: close friend of Ari’s, 17 turning 18 this year (2020), dysphoric GNC male, found on Tumblr as @trey-azaghot and @trap-rights-activist. Alleged victim of Laura’s “predatory/pedophilic behaviors”.

Laura: allegedly abusive towards Ari and allegedly pedophilic/predatory towards Rose, 20 turning 21 this year (2020), ex-FTM, previously known as Elliot Morais and André, found on Tumblr as @radblrwarcriminal.

Important things to note:

Laura is the host of a DID system known as the Morals System. DID is Dissociative Identity Disorder, previously known as Multiple Personality Disorder. This disorder is known to be caused by severe, repeated, long-term childhood trauma before the age of 9 which, obviously, the Morals System has experienced. The disorder manifests itself with the presence of alters, which have their own perception of self as a unique individual or entity and do not view themselves as only an aspect of a complete person. As this analysis is being written (April 26th 2020), there are at least 7 known alters in total: Laura (host), Nyx (trauma holder), Lili (little/child alter), Grem (female caretaker), João/Joshua (aggressive protector), Rena (middle/ageslider and Higurashi fictional introject) and Tiago Xavier (male caretaker).

The original call out document spreads blatant misinformation regarding DID, since it is mentioned that “the alters mentioned in text (primarily Nyx and Rena) are the same person (Elliot) in alternative identities/states of consciousness” and that “whilst each alter should be recognised, it’s also important to recognise that each alter can effectively be viewed as the same person”. This is not true:

Alters each have their own perception of self as a unique individual or entity and do not view themselves as only an aspect of a complete person. Externally, alters can display different degrees of emotional expressiveness, behave in different ways, and have different skills and abilities related to sensory-motor functioning. They have different thoughts, perceptions, and memories relating to themselves and to the world around them. They may perceive themselves as having an age, gender, sexuality, appearance, source, or even species that may or may not match that of the system’s actual body, and they may or may not be aware of these discrepancies. [...] Often, alters have their own wants, needs, desires, and opinions.

Nyx’s commentary: the people behind the call out know how DID works and that we’re not “effectively the same person”. In fact, Ari himself wrote a post in the past showing that he understands this:

as a med student, this is the most believable case of DID I ever saw. they have different typing styles, speaking styles (as I was in voicecalls with them), the whole thing is in over 90% impossible to fake.

Sexual abuse:

The webcam incident:

Laura’s commentary: there’s obviously no footage of this, so there’s no way either of us can prove what actually went down; honestly, it would be pretty embarrassing for both parties if there was, indeed, footage. Anyway, we were video calling, as we’d frequently do, and I was lying down in bed, covered by a blanket but wearing barely anything underneath, which was obvious. Ari and I had been sexual with each other before, just not while video calling. We’d commonly consensually flirt and sext, ever since the beginning of our relationship. I would frequently make sure if Ari was comfortable with certain acts and he did the same for me: 1, 2, 3. (Ari sent nudes after this, which obviously I won’t post here). 4, 5. (The first few times we flirted/sexted and exchanged pictures). 6. (Continuation of the previous conversation). The following is a couple days after we started dating, before the webcam incident: 7. As for the webcam incident, I wrote via text that I was touching myself while we were camming, but as I said, I was already naked in the call. This wasn’t “out of nowhere” and I always tried to make sure that Ari felt comfortable with our sexual interactions. Here are screenshots of the full conversation: 1, 2, 3.

The original call out document states that “this is one of the earliest examples of her conditioning attempts and also her reparation (performing the same patterns of abuse she suffered onto someone else) of trauma (Elliot has a past in camming)”. Now, I don’t want to sound like I’m excusing any of my behavior that may have had a negative impact on Ari and others, this isn’t an excuse, but an explanation: I often “joke” that I’m retarded, as many people have witnessed me reclaiming that slur around. This isn’t just a joke, I’m in fact mentally disabled and simple day-to-day tasks are difficult for me to perform, which includes social skills. To be completely blunt, I’m too fucking stupid to willingly manipulate people. The call out paints me as someone capable of conditioning another human being while planning to abuse them, but that simply isn’t true. I’m not good at lying, understanding social cues and I’m definitely terrible at making other people do what I want.

Outsider commentary:

Cole ████████

like... "manipulated" has turned into a kind of buzzword ppl use any time u just suggest something to somebody

"but ur the one who asked me to do it and even tho I had the option to say no without repercussions this means ur manipulative"

Freak born without any alters

All Andre does is go "do you want to join me" or just lustfully look at the camera like that's not "forcing"

"her reparation (performing the same patterns of abuse she suffered onto someone else) of trauma (Elliot has a past in camming)."

It's actually really not call for them to out them as a former cammer

Cole [REDACTED]

what does this even mean lol yea that's v shitty tbh

u can't just air out someone else's laundry like that

Freak born without any alters

also like the things guys did to him whilst he was camming were a lot worse than them just saying "im masturbating" also Andre actually was forced into that situation and wasn't allowed to stop if he wanted to Unsolicited pornography:

Laura's commentary: yes, I'd send NSFW drawings of me and Ari, but they weren't unsolicited. I did fuck up when I sent that kind of art to Ari before we started dating, I wasn't aware that was a weird and creepy thing to do but now I am, and I'm sorry. Due to my upbringing involving incest and CSA, I tend to be overly sexual without intending to harm those around me. That's something I need to work on and that I actively feel remorse about. This screenshot proves Ari was weirded out by the first NSFW art I ever showed him, but also that he was okay with being sent that kind of content as we were dating: 1, 2.

The original call out document tells the reader to note "the fact that she'd draw and furthermore force Ari to imagine sexual acts with a penis whilst Ari is a homosexual female." The art involving a penis is the following \(uncensored\).

This was sent under the assumption, the hypothetical that me and Ari had our ideal, anatomically male bodies. We are both bottom dysphoric, so a lot of our fantasies involved us both as male, having penises attached to our bodies. The following screenshots confirm this:

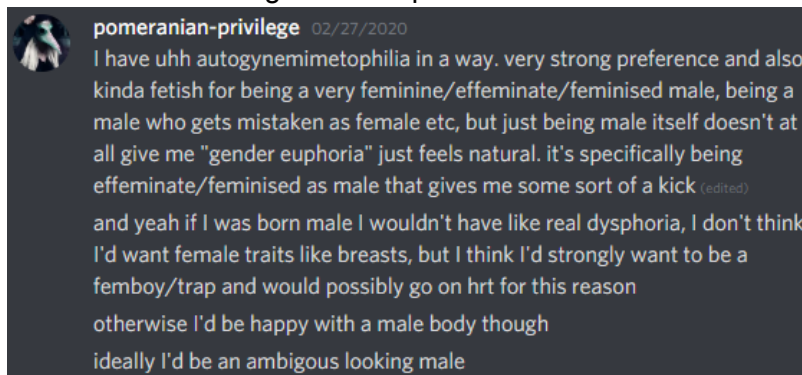

(Ari complimenting my artwork and mentioning being “very flustered” because of it). 1. (Ari confirming he’d want to have sex if we were both anatomically male).

NSFW blog screenshots:

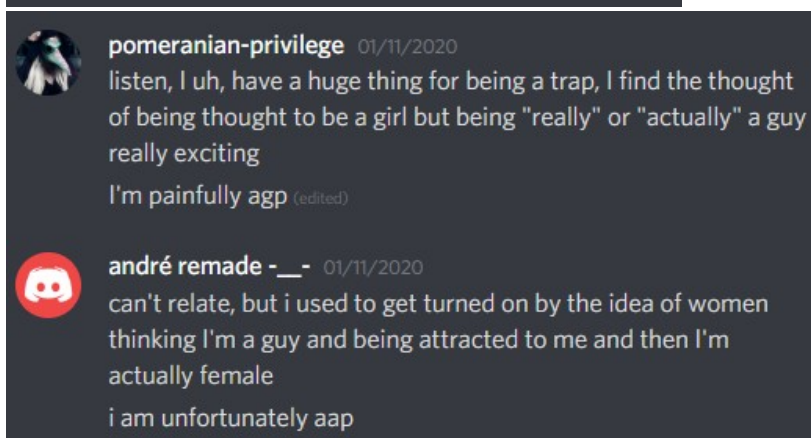

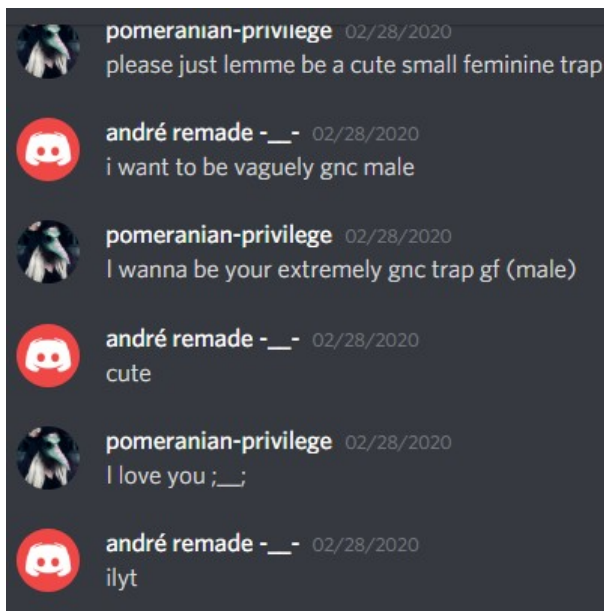

Laura’s commentary: I have nothing to add onto this section. The call out post is, as far as I’m concerned, accurate regarding this one. As explained earlier, I’m not good with social cues and I should’ve been more careful when it came to kink. During a lot of our conversations regarding kink, it made sense to me that the scenarios posed were something Ari actively wanted to do but publicly opposed. It felt like more of a political stance than something Ari absolutely did not want to do in private; turns out I was wrong. As such, I feel deeply remorseful and guilty. I apologize and acknowledge the harm I have caused.

Autoandrophilia and general cumbrainery:

Laura’s commentary: yes, I sexualize maleness to an extent. This isn’t the source of my dysphoria or transness, as I remain dysphoric and actively want to medically transition all the time, even when I’m repulsed by sex. I also feel like there’s a huge double standard here, considering Ari has admitted to sexualizing gender nonconforming maleness, being on estrogen as a male and “being a cute trap”:

More screenshots (explicit): 1, 2. (Ari enthusiastically consenting to the idea of grinding against a bulge. This contradicts what is said in the call out regarding pressuring “Ari into just accepting imagining what is essentially corrective rape and various uncomfortable situations”). Many of the screenshots regarding me “being a sadist” for supposedly wanting to cum in Ari’s mouth are taken out of context to make it seem as if Ari was visibly uncomfortable but, in fact, he’s the one who brought it up: 1. Additionally, I had talked about being disgusted by the idea of ejaculating in someone’s mouth if I were a cis male: 1. One of the screenshots in the call out talks about wanting to watch people take turns with Ari. This was in context of us sharing problematic fantasies we had with each other: 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8.

Outsider commentary:

Freak born without any alters

they're shocked that a trans man wants to have a penis

that's the point maam

Yeah, shocker, a trans man wants to have a penis and USE IT.

Freak born without any alters

it makes me wonder what they think trans men are

Cole [REDACTED]

yea like these ppl fundamentally do not understand what gender is yes, men are more likely to ID with penis having. SHOCKING

Freak born without any alters

im at the stage where they're showing examples of "general cumbrainery" and it's so boring one screen is just andre saying "make me cum"

oh the depravity

Cole [REDACTED]

oh how dare he want to cum. evil

Freak born without any alters

how to radfems think people are supposed to have sex like i dont get it

Freak born without any alters

sex but nobody gets aroused and nobody cums

Freak born without any alters

the pure horror when you have sex with someone and they cum tw: cum

Freak born without any alters

I wish they'd stop calling htis "sexual abuse"

Freak born without any alters

it's like oh no andre said sexual things to his sexual partner

Nyx:

Laura's commentary: Nyx is a sexual trauma holder who seeks validation through sex, obviously. As the host of the Morals System, I confirm that Nyx was pushy towards Ari initiating sexual/romantic contact with her. That was wrong and not acceptable. I don't condone that attitude and will make sure that Nyx gets the help that she needs in order to avoid similar incidents in the future. I apologize on behalf of her.

Coercion, masochism and exhibitionism:

Nyx's commentary: it's true that I was pushy towards Ari into beginning sexual/romantic contact with me. It was a bad thing to do. I'm sorry. I'm not a sadist, though. I'm a masochist, exclusively. I would never want to hurt anyone else other than myself and possibly people who hurt me or hurt those that I care about. I'm not really much of an exhibitionist, it's not really a fetish that I have; I am aroused by the idea of showing myself to people who will then hurt me, typically strong cis men. I know I should work on this, as I am a sexual trauma holder. I never got the ability to treat myself, I don't remember anything from any therapy session I've ever had. I still hope I can heal someday. I'm sorry for all the damage I've caused. I acknowledge it and feel bad about it.

Fetishization of FTMs:

Nyx is attracted to male sex characteristics but not penises. She can't imagine herself with a cis woman because it triggers her trauma regarding CSA. As such, she vented to Ari explaining that she felt confused about her sexual orientation:

The screenshot shows a chat conversation on a dark background. It consists of eight messages in a vertical sequence, alternating between two users: pomeranian-privilege and andré remade -__-. Each message includes a small circular profile picture icon to the left of the text. The messages discuss the user's attraction to male characteristics and their feelings about being fetishized.

pomeranian-privilege 02/09/2020
and what about women? do you ever fantasise about women?

andré remade -__- 02/09/2020
not under the same light.
i think about having a girlfriend... i want to hold her hand and kiss her.

pomeranian-privilege 02/09/2020
yeah, but are you capable of imagining more than holding and kissing? what do you feel then?

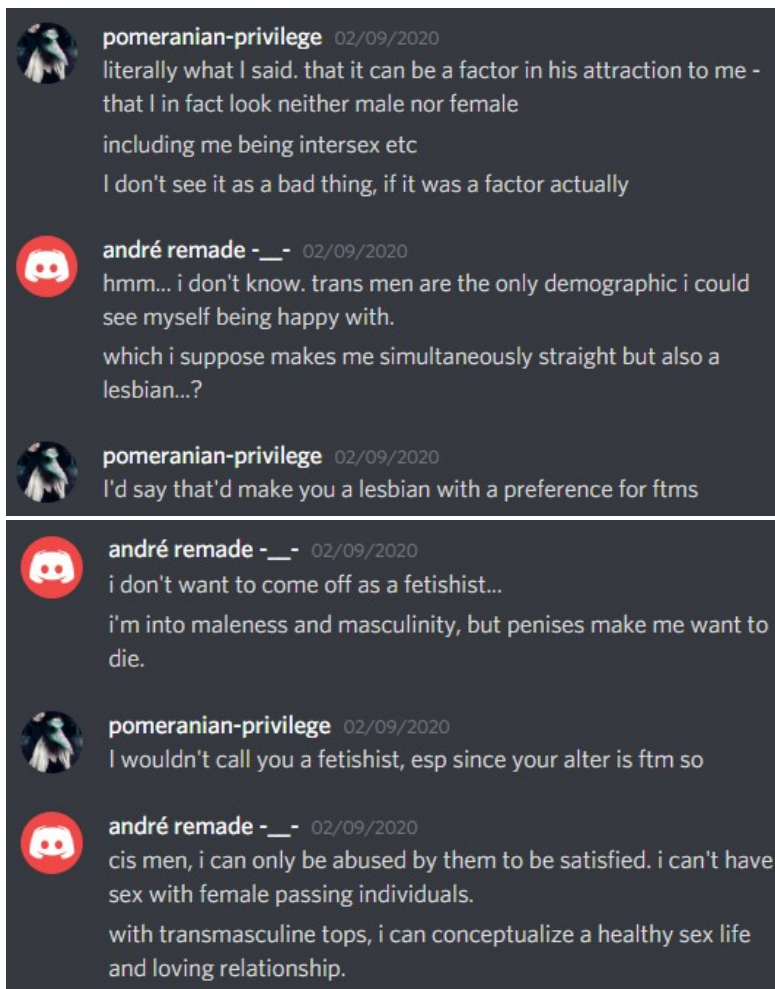

andré remade -__- 02/09/2020
anything sexual with someone who looks female makes me want to die.

pomeranian-privilege 02/09/2020
it's probably because you're the trauma holder

andré remade -__- 02/09/2020
i like trans men...
i want to have loving sex with one.

pomeranian-privilege 02/09/2020
sometimes I wonder if Andre's feelings towards me aren't partly because with my appearance I don't resemble your male or female abusers

andré remade -__- 02/09/2020
what do you mean?

These screenshots show that Nyx wasn't fetishizing FTMs (that would be, for instance, objectifying trans men solely for sex and her own pleasure), but instead struggling with coming to terms with her sexual orientation due to trauma. She self-harms via sex with cis men, so being with them is not an option. Sex with female passing individuals triggers CSA trauma. She's attracted to the same sex solely, but can only be healthily sexual with people of the female sex who pass as male. The screenshots clearly show that she wants "a healthy sex life and loving relationship", and the only demographic she can have that with is transmasculine people.

Dilator incident:

The original call out document makes it seem as if Nyx gets a sadistic kick from the idea of using Hegar dilators for vaginismus while knowing Ari has that condition. Hegar dilators are dilators used to treat vaginismus, induce cervical dilation, and for inflatable penile implant procedures. However, the full conversation shows that Nyx is, in fact, interested in dilating her own cervix for stimming purposes, rather than triggering Ari in regards to vaginismus:

Hegar dilators

Hegar dilators are dilators used to treat vaginismus, induce cervical dilation, and for inflatable penile implant procedures.

huh...

pomeranian-privilege 02/29/2020

I guess the sight of that already is painful

andré remade -__- 02/29/2020

i want these...

pomeranian-privilege 02/29/2020

by God, Nyx, what for...?

stimming?

andré remade -__- 02/29/2020

dilating.

just because.

yall don't have vaginismus, though, right?

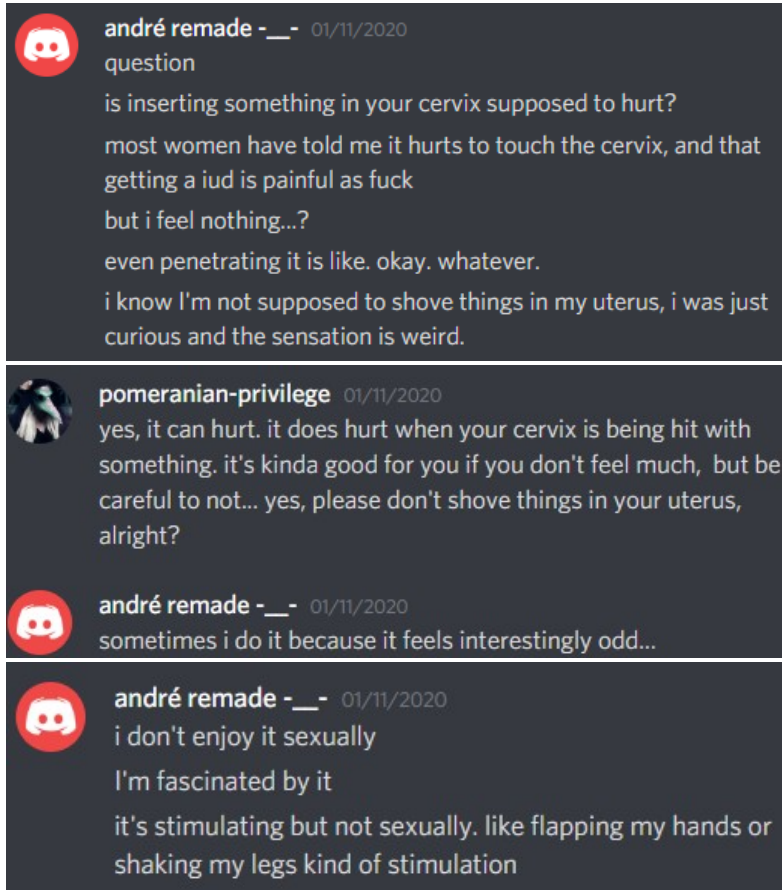

andré remade -__- 02/29/2020

no.

More evidence regarding Nyx's strange urge to dilate her own cervix for non-sexual reasons:

Emotional abuse:

Purposefully triggering of OSDD:

First off, OSDD stands for Other Specified Dissociative Disorder and has several subtypes. Ari suffers from OSDD-1, which is characterized by chronic and recurrent syndromes of mixed dissociative symptoms: this category includes identity disturbance associated with less-than-marked discontinuities in sense of self and agency, or alterations of identity or episodes of possession in an individual who reports no dissociative amnesia. OSDD-1 involves dissociative parts that are not sufficiently differentiated to qualify as alters \(sometimes known as OSDD-1a\) or individuals who do not have amnesia between alters \(sometimes known as OSDD-1b\). Some individuals with OSDD-1 lack both amnesia and highly distinct parts, and other individuals with OSDD-1 have highly distinct parts but rarely or never switch between them. These latter cases are also sometimes described as OSDD-1b.

Laura's commentary: before looking at the screenshots provided in the call out, I had absolutely no idea what it was all about. After reading through this section, I can see how I fucked up. Even having no intention to do so, I understand my actions may have caused Ari to switch, which is a terrible experience. There's no way to excuse this and I'm not trying to excuse myself either. It was straightforwardly insensitive of me to try to be sexual or express my feelings about how I felt unimportant when Ari was experiencing and showing symptoms of mental illness.

Purposefully triggering trauma and guilt tripping:

Laura's commentary: this is another part I feel remorseful about, if not the part I feel the most guilty about. Every month, close to my period, my BPD symptoms would get worse and I'd have episodes regarding isolation and identity confusion, which I exposed Ari to, and shouldn't have, because he was triggered by them and I was out of control. I answered an ask on my (now abandoned) blog explaining this situation:

i'd get episodes of very bad identity issues (the so called "bruh moments"), typically in which i'd believe i should leave everyone behind and start over. i believed i didn't deserve love and expressed this in erratic ways that hurt others around me, including 715. i remember one of those episodes involved me believing i should date a cis male in a kink relationship. i am deeply sorry for all the pain i've caused him because of these symptoms and i know i should really work on them and not act on impulse. i'm aware that trying to help me through all these episodes is extremely stressful.

another thing i remember doing that i also regret is trying to shake 715 out of suicidal ideation. i didn't really know what to do, so i tried different approaches, and some of them were pretty shitty, i'll admit. since people being harsh to me snaps me out of suicidal ideation, i assumed it would work in a similar way for him, but it didn't. he told me he was hurt by this, and i apologized, understood, and said i wouldn't do it again.

Again, I feel a lot of remorse and guilt because of the pain I've inflicted on him during those episodes. I'm deeply sorry. Not to excuse, but to explain, it was not intentional nor out of sadism, but it was still a very toxic attitude to have towards Ari, to excessively rely on him for emotional validation when he was not prepared to do so. Unintentional toxicity is still toxicity so, from the bottom of my heart, I apologize.

Outsider commentary (featuring Tiago Xavier):

Freak born without any alters

I'm at the part where they're talking about "guilt tripping" and postng discord screens but I literally see no guilt tripping at all this is just normal conversation

Cole ████████

yea literally where is the "guilt tripping"

Tiago Xavier

We admit we fucked up by having BPD episodes and relying emotionally on Ari.

I feel like that was very toxic in our relationship.

Cole [REDACTED]

I think that relying on each other emotionally, to a certain extent, is normal but sometimes bc of C-PTSD u just get guilt for it

Tiago Xavier

Yeah, but André was out of control during those episodes. Even if he apologized and they made up, damage was done.

Freak born without any alters

I can't think of any time Andre was ever "out of control" in terms of being too much emotionally tbh Laura's note: I disagree with the outsider commentary. Tiago is right.

Pedophilia:

Dodgy reblogs/uploads:

Laura's commentary: I have nothing to apologize for in regards to my abandoned blog's aesthetic posts. That's all that it is, aesthetics, no deeper meaning behind them. It was supposed to match an overall dusty theme, a mixture of urban with forest aesthetics. I always took individual posts down if someone spotted something wrong with them and warned me. Additionally, I asked people if my aesthetics were weird or problematic and I was met with this:

roz 🌹 04/02/2020

andre mate i joined in that dogpile and i dont want to say this in genchat but i just want to say i dont think theres actually anything wrong with what you rb its just like aesthetic shit even the scissor girl is like okay its a bit weird but youre not a pornbrain lmfao theres nothing wrong with it yeah?

andré remade -__- 04/02/2020

ok ok

roz 🌹 04/02/2020

i didnt read the room as like an actual callout, i dont think any of that stuff warrants even deleting, much less a callout u good?

u dont have to change what u reblog if u think its aesthetic, if u think shits aesthetic and its not like downright porn (which this isnt) people shouldnt think any less of u

andre

we're friends, yeah?

andré remade -__- 04/02/2020

yes

roz 🌹 04/02/2020

i actually know you

and i know theres nothing wrong with shit u reblog

those people dont know you whos opinion are you gonna trust

andré remade -__- 04/02/2020

yea true

roz 🍒 04/02/2020
theres no need to change your blog or whatever in order to fit this weirdly narrow view of what aesthetics are okay from a radfem perspective, okay?
u dont rb porn and thats the end of it

andré remade -__- 04/02/2020
ok ok

Nyx's commentary: I can confirm Rose did not only tell Laura it was okay, she also told me the same even though I wasn't involved in any of that.

roz 🍒 04/02/2020
hey nyx, how are you? i want to reassure you that neither you nor andré need feel guilty abt what happened today i was reassuring him on that before you switched but obv he's not here rn so

nyx 04/02/2020
i'm not even entirely sure about what happened...

roz 🍒 04/02/2020
oh it was stupid
some people got on him abt some rbs of his

nyx 04/02/2020
ari told me but i'm still confused.
do people hate me because i reblog anime?

roz 🍒 04/02/2020
only stupid people would hate you for that :) andré and you don't rb things that warrant hatred

nyx 04/02/2020
i don't post gore so i guess not...

roz 🍒 04/02/2020
and people don't hate you nor do they hate andré here, ill show you my convo with andré since u may not have seen the people in that server are like, trigger happy sometimes esp when it comes to radfem stuff and jump to attack people for nothing basically, it was dumb and im sorry i joined in, i honestly just thought it was some joke until i noticed andré was upset

nyx 04/02/2020
huh...

roz 🍒 04/02/2020
anyway i like both ur aesthetics so i don't think u should change them lol

nyx 04/02/2020
thank you...

roz 🍒 04/02/2020
😄 people who actually know you two don't feel at all negatively abt u hope u feel a bit better soon :)

nyx 04/02/2020
thank you, rose.

Also, Laura now sees the errors in her ways in regards to aesthetics:

elliottmorais

wrt aesthetic pictures: i asked the ppl involved if my aesthetic was problematic and they lied to me saying there was nothing wrong with it. now theyre arguing that they lied to me about it not being wrong so they could call me out later. which makes me think, if they saw this as a danger to minors back then, why not ban me back then, considering that the server has minors in it?

additionally the reason i reblogged gore and guns and scary things was bc the ppl i was following back then were all very edgy so i thought if my blog looked intimidating i would also look intimidating and that would protect me from harassment. here's the explanation as to why i chose the aesthetic i did back then. i recognize its harmful now and i will focus on healthier aesthetics from now on.

The George/Rose incident:

Laura's commentary: this one has been a HUGE misunderstanding that people keep on stretching and stretching to argue that I'm a pedophile. Here's an ask I answered that explains it:

i'm not a pedophile. i've been struggling with pocd ever since i was a teen. what happened was a recent split of mine, rena, had intrusive thoughts about a friend of ours and thought she was becoming just like our abusers because she'd never dealt with it before. obsessive compulsive behaviour is scary, distressful, undesirable, nothing at all like attraction. not to mention, said friend was born male and we're collectively homosexual, we are only attracted to the female sex.

many of my suicide attempts have had to do with intrusive thoughts that become so disabling i cannot function at all. they have ranged from several themes and lasted several years, i used to be scared of developing a terminal illness and that if i didn't perform certain rituals, i'd develop said illness. things got even scarier when themes such as abuse, murder and pedophilia started playing into the equation, that is, i was so terrified of becoming just like my abusers that my obsessive compulsive symptoms latched onto that. obsessions and compulsions tend to latch onto things that are important to us; protecting children from abuse is so important to me that i started having horrible intrusive thoughts about hurting them in the worst way possible.

POCD is Obsessive Compulsive Disorder that focuses on pedophilic themes. Please read this page to better understand this stigmatized disorder. I've been struggling with obsessions and compulsions ever since I was 15, and started having pedophilic intrusive thoughts when I was 16, which was around the time I started assessing my trauma from CSA.

Tumblr user @discyours also debunked some myths associated with POCD in his blog:

discyours

There is danger in misunderstanding and misrepresenting POCD and this anon clearly shows one of those dangers - a worse one is that attempting to blur the line between POCD and pedophilia ends up benefiting pedophiles who can then claim to simply be suffering from intrusive thoughts. It works both ways.

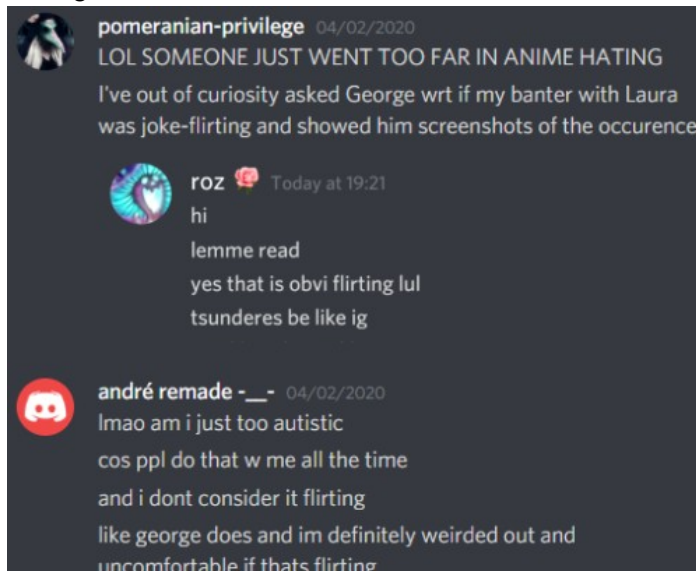

"Elliot's pedophilia went far beyond mere POCD" implies that there is a form of pedophilia that does not go beyond POCD. That mild enough forms of attraction to children fall under POCD. That's dangerously incorrect, intrusive pedophilic thoughts and/or an obsessive fear of being/becoming a pedophile are completely separate from actual pedophilia. There is no overlap. Pedophiles cannot have POCD. Please, please correct this.

None of the evidence presented here is someone acting upon intrusive thoughts. You can argue that it's someone acting inappropriately, but there is a massive difference. Please do not share stories of someone with POCD "acting upon their intrusive thoughts" when that simply isn't what happened. It's extremely damaging to people with OCD.

The callout claims that "Elliot has claimed POCD for a long time and an alter with most of her memories wouldn't freak out upon experiencing normal, long term OCD symptoms". This is not true. Rena is a 14-16 year old trauma holder alter with little experience in fronting, who manages emotions differently from the host (me). I've dealt with POCD and other forms of OCD for years, but I've barely had any therapy for it, all my coping mechanisms are self taught. If I'm tired or fragilized, I'll be more vulnerable to freaking out when faced with intrusive thoughts about anything really, and the ones that are flashing images involving harm to children get to me the most. It's normal for an immature alter who holds a lot of trauma memories to be distressed when faced with POCD symptoms for the first time herself, even if she knows we collectively as a system have experienced those symptoms before.

With that being said, I've told Ari myself I'd feel extremely uncomfortable and weirded out if George/Rose were to flirt with me, since she's a minor and I'm an adult:

I have no interest in children and avoid being around minors in my daily life, because POCD still plagues me non-stop, even if I've recovered enough to be able to function. Ever since this event, I've been locked in my bed room, sleeping it off so I don't have to be bombarded with intrusive thoughts and so I don't attempt suicide again.

I'm also not attracted to males, which Rose is. I'm a homosexual, only into those born female, with an almost exclusive interest in trans men.

Even then, I recognize the way Rena and I handled the situation was very poor. Rena should've applied coping mechanisms to her thinking patterns, and I shouldn't have attempted suicide while exposing Ari to it. I also acknowledge that Rose is fully entitled to feeling uncomfortable knowing someone who's physically an adult had POCD intrusive thoughts that involved her, a minor. It's completely fine for her to distance herself from someone who makes her feel uncomfortable.

The Breakup

Laura's commentary: Another part where I admit I really fucked up. Because of the amount of pills I took, I wasn't able to fully judge what was going on, especially during the first few days. I made stupid posts and sent stupid messages that were probably hurtful to those who read them. What is being said in the original call out document regarding this part is true. I handled the break up super poorly. I apologize and recognize I need to work on bettering myself. I'm having my first therapy appointment in a long time on April 29th 2020 and I hope I can manage my emotions better from now on. If you've read this until the end, thank you for sticking with us. You're free to cut contact with me because of this if that's what you wish, I understand. I also know it's impossible to reconcile with the main people involved but I also do not want to do that. It's better for everyone if we all part ways.

Outsider commentary in general

The following screenshots show the opinions of some people who are aware of the situation but aren't involved in any way in it. Note: not all of these opinions are shared by Laura or other alters.

Kit

"did what I had to do" yea bc someone put a gun to ur head and forced u to make ur break up a public matter how do u "have to" make someone else's symptoms and personal info public

"greater good" lmao classic cult language

"I have to do this inherently evil thing for the greater good" no u fucking do not

Freak born without any alters

this is literally a cult im sorry but literally outing Andre as a former child sex cam worker literally outweighs any "abuse" he thinks he endures

Kit

how does the child victim of sexual exploitation deserve to be publicly shamed for having that experience

Freak born without any alters

It's the fact they're also claiming he is "doing the same thing that was done to him" like it's nowhere close you absolute tools hello idk if you'll see this and i know we don't really talk but i just wanna say that i hope you're doin okay and that you're coping with all of this, its bullshit that everyone is accusing you of shit that isn't even true idk you at all i saw your wanna let you know that the callout is so so stupid i looked at what they said was you sexualizing anime minors or something and it was just an innocent photo not even nsfw LMFAO hope youll be okay

Tiago Xavier's commentary

Hello, my name is Tiago Xavier and I'm a recently split caretaker alter in the Morals System. This split started happening during the hospitalization due to Laura's suicide attempt and the consequent medical procedures performed on her in order to survive, but I only fronted for the first time a few days ago.

From a young age, we've been religiously abused. At age 10, we were dragged by our mother into what was basically a religious cult. It lasted several years and I hold memories of those events. As such, my role as a caretaker protector alter is to look after the other system members in regards to them being affected by cult-like behavior from the outside.

As someone who's not been exactly directly involved in this situation, I've decided to provide my input in regards to how it's being handled by the members of The Nunnery (the discord server that Ari, Rose/George and others are in).

Ari's behavior

The screenshots provided below showcase Ari continuously talking about a subject that was triggering Laura's trauma, despite being asked to stop:

pomeranian-privilege 02/15/2020

you almost believed in Minty's bullshit about me.. really XD

andré remade -__- 02/15/2020

no

bruh

i was confused bc i dont think u would say that shit

so i pinged u for clarification

pomeranian-privilege 02/15/2020

no, I wouldn't about Cassidy, I actually managed that case pretty well, warned all minors immediately etc

you know?

I also would never defend loli lmfao

andré remade -__- 02/15/2020

didnt look into the other links that much

pomeranian-privilege 02/15/2020

although I did say shit Nora posted wasn't childporn. but. he never posted anything explicit. he posted "cute" anime girls in situations that could be read as if they were being portrayed as attractive but since there was no nudity in there it couldn't be called cp

so I did tell Beatleshater that Luxros, a friend of mine who said it wasn't cp

was right.

because she was - on all possible levels. doesn't excuse Nora. I hate him, I'm grossed out by him.

I actually have him blocked.

I had to defend Luxros, though. she wasn't at fault.

andré remade -__- 02/15/2020

oh that made me remember that shit luxros was saying there was no evidence pointing to nora being a pedophile which made me uncomf

i mean ya what he posted is not cp

but cmon

Luxros was a friend of mine who also flirted with me and we were kinda close. for that reason I defended her. cause she was right on all levels. although I did say what Nora posted was "questionable" and that he is "probably" a pedophile cause that was my opinion you understand? I never defended Nora. if anything I defended Luxros. because Luxros did say Nora was "probably" a pedo, there was just no proof of it so she didn't say anything immoral. she was leaning towards admitting her probably was

andré remade -__- 02/15/2020

huh ok

pomeranian-privilege 02/15/2020

and they were trying to portray her as downright evil for it so I was irritated but I myself never even defended Nora directly, if anything only defended Luxros

I hate Nora btw, as I said I have him blocked cause he grosses me out

good

pomeranian-privilege 02/15/2020

but Luxros was not a bad person. she left radblr, but I remember her as a good woman tbh also Nadia accused her of being removed from some radfem server for liking lolicon whereas Luxros said it was impossible cause the Nunnery was her first radfem server ever and Nadia could never deliver any proof when I asked Minty to apologise to Luxros since Nadia never proved her accusation, she said she can delete the accusation but won't apologise because no.

I was like ok, at least delete that.

oh and Nadia also called me an aggressive male which was weird in that she called me that in the Terver, which was exclusively a female server

ya

pomeranian-privilege 02/15/2020

so I have no honest idea what she was on about

andré remade -__- 02/15/2020

i got it now

can we stop talking about this nothing personal its just gross

pomeranian-privilege 02/15/2020

yeah. of course. I just want you to understand why I made the decision I made back then that is, to side with the Nunnery and Brinn and Luxros

ye

pomeranian-privilege 02/15/2020

I was never a pedo apologist or victim blamer, I could never and you know I could never you know enough of my own trauma to be aware

andré remade -__- 02/15/2020

yes

pomeranian-privilege 02/15/2020

thank you, Morais.

it was just more rational from my perspective also, I don't know if you're jealous about Luxros, but there's no point, I haven't talked to her in half a year she's gone

andré remade -__- 02/15/2020

stop

i really dont want to talk about this anymore i believe you i just dont want to panic

pomeranian-privilege 02/15/2020

it's alright. why would you panic, though?

andré remade -__- 02/15/2020

because this is lolicon pedo shit and about actual predators and things that happened not hypotheticals

pomeranian-privilege 02/15/2020

yeah, I know. later. but at that point nobody knew really. so we were like, sticking to not knowing. and Cassidy. I did my best to contain that situation, all I could. I banned her, I took care of the minors she tried to nonce upon.

andré remade -__- 02/15/2020

are you not going to respect me?
seriously i dont wan to talk about this anymoe

pomeranian-privilege 02/15/2020

I am. I'm sorry. it's alright, I won't be talking about it anymore. I just don't want you to see me as someone who excused any fucked up shit or otherwise.

andré remade - __ - 02/15/2020

i dont dont worry

but it does upset me when you keep pressing on a topic that's clearly making me very uncomfortable

pomeranian-privilege 02/15/2020

it's alright. I'm sorry. I'm just paranoid about being in some way portrayed as pedo apologist or whatever when I was a victim so many times myself.

I was nonced on by more than 10 people before I turned 18.

i know

pomeranian-privilege 02/15/2020

I won't talk about it anymore, alright? I just don't want you to see me this way.

andré remade - __ - 02/15/2020

i know youre not a pedo apologist i was just CONFUSED ok anyway

pomeranian-privilege 02/15/2020

I didn't mean to upset you in any way. I'm sorry if I did.

I just freaked out because of the way they portrayed me

I love you, though, and I didn't mean to trigger you in any way

andré remade - __ - 02/15/2020

love u too

pomeranian-privilege 02/15/2020

are you mad at me? ;__ ; (edited)

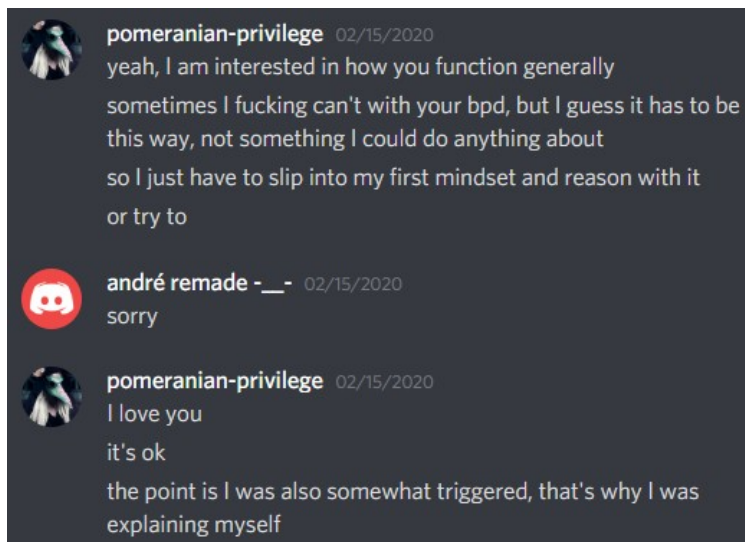

I'm sorry I didn't immediately drop that topic, I felt like you were mad at me and therefore I had to explain myself you there? I'm kind of worried ;__ ;

andré remade - __ - 02/15/2020

im not mad at you

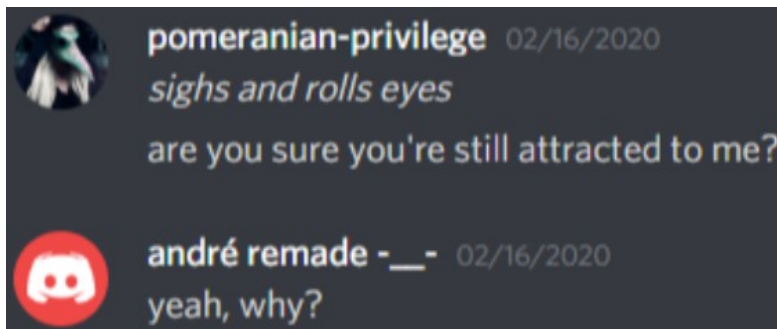

(Blaming Laura for being triggered by the subject being talked about and pinning it on his BPD). The following screenshots show Ari trying to be intimate with Laura when Laura had low libido and/or pain/fatigue due to disability. Despite Laura expressing that she wasn't in the mood, Ari kept bringing it up and constantly talking about feeling insecure/undesirable, continuously asking Laura for validation even though Laura was not in the best state to do so:

These screenshots present Laura having identity issues regarding gender, while Ari kept mentioning how Laura wouldn't be attractive to him if Laura were a feminine woman:

why... idk, I feel like in last week you're either not interested in me sexually at all or interested in some weird ways only. makes me feel kinda insecure ig ;_;

andré remade - __ 02/16/2020

i might reidentify
or idk
stop calling myself ftm ik i wont ever be able to pass or even transition

pomeranian-privilege 02/16/2020

is... that related to what I was talking about? and... I don't agree

andré remade - __ 02/16/2020

no its not sorry
i mean maybe kinda? its been bothering the past few days how i feel thats partially why my libido has been dead

pomeranian-privilege 02/16/2020

cause you feel like you'll never be able to pass?

andré remade - __ 02/16/2020

ye
i dont even look remotely close to what id like i cant do shit
plus ive been feeling more "womanly" lately whatever the fuck that means
like

plus ive been feeling more "womanly" lately whatever the fuck
that means
like

i look at the mirror and i dont entirely dislike it im like.. huh im a cute girl sometimes genderfluid 🗇

pomeranian-privilege 02/16/2020

hmm... I don't know how can I help you, because I do perceive you as male in aspect of like... perceiving, on pattern recognition level, while I also like your female traits. plus you know what my opinion is on reidentifying or whatever just because you can't pass for now or medically transition. it'd make you unhappy. but overall to me it looks like you're just... kinda co-con with Nyx a lot of the time? for some reason?

maybe

rn idk what i want to look like exactly my self conceptualization keep rapidly shifting in my head there's also a massive pressure to look a certain way when yr trans

pomeranian-privilege 02/16/2020

it... makes me afraid because I'm... attracted to and in love with you, not Nyx. if you were gonna... be sexually disinterested in me for like, long term, or become a bottom (like Nyx) and on top of that also become fem like she is (ig?), and become a woman, it'd.... wouldn't be the person I fell in love with. I... don't wanna lose you.

andré remade -__- 02/16/2020

oh i wont become a bottom for sure

pomeranian-privilege 02/16/2020

at least that...

I don't wanna lose you.

I'm scared of losing you.

andré remade -__- 02/16/2020

i think that if i cant be a man i might as well be a pretty woman but the thought of having sex as a woman makes me want to kill myself

pomeranian-privilege 02/16/2020

I'm really not much into feminine people, so if you were to become a feminine woman that'd be difficult for me... and if you were to become a woman at all, that'd still be different to the person I liked, but I could be able to cope with it... worse if you went and pulled a 180 in terms of gender, presentation and sexual behaviour... and also... if you were a woman, we'd become adjacent to a het couple. and I... don't think you would feel comfortable... tbh I think it'd be likely to make you selfhating (edited)

andré remade -__- 02/16/2020

i cant become a woman bc sexually id become suicidal ig

pomeranian-privilege 02/16/2020

I... don't think there'd be a place for me with my gender and my preferences etc in the life you imagined. I don't think you'd even want to keep me long term.

 andré remade -__- 02/16/2020
its just sometimes i feel like you make it about you when i express certain things and its not a bad thing all the time, its important to empathize etc i appreciate it
am i wrong?
this time it came off... unsavoury... like "you feel like shit but imagine how sad id be"
please dont get mad im not trying to insult you or anything im just telling you how it feels so we can reach an understanding

 andré remade -__- 02/16/2020
im sorry i made u feel this way ill try to be more attentive to yr needs

Evidence of Ari fantasizing about having power over Laura during sex: 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6.

Laura's commentary: the next screenshots show Ari's behavior towards me when I was having BPD related identity issues.

 andré remade -__- 02/16/2020
im just having a bruh moment also the goldstar discourse is getting to me i had willing sex with males why
ok they were abusive
but i consented

 pomeranian-privilege 02/16/2020
cause you wanted to retraumatise yourself and confirm your attractiveness?

andré remade -__- 02/16/2020

would a lesbian do that though?

pomeranian-privilege 02/16/2020

cause you wanted to feel sexy and validated and society and your abusers taught you this is the right way?

I had "willing" sex with males too. because I hoped it would be cool, because I wanted them to find me sexy, but I wasn't actually into them

I just wanted to feel sexy fuckable

worth something

because that's how we, female socialised individuals, are taught to confirm our worth.

gold star discourse is bullshit.

andré remade -__- 02/16/2020

sorry im making you angry

pomeranian-privilege 02/16/2020

I should be angry rn cause somebody needs to ground you so that you stop bruh momenting and BPDing over some tungle idiots who seem to have no idea how human psyche works

I am not angry though. just first mindset and trying to get to you.

andré remade -__- 02/16/2020

thank u

pomeranian-privilege 02/16/2020

sober up. you're letting bullshit get to you. reasonable people like menalez or me are well aware it's bullshit. you should disengage with the goldstar discourse if it's getting to you so hard. you're not broken or tainted in any way, and damn the hands that wanted to break you, because I will rip them fucking apart, meat from bone.

it's not your fault you're taking it so personally but it's irrational and hurting you.

you know?

I'm not angry. I'm different when I'm angry

I'm being here for you because I feel that's what you need right now.

I feel like if I just get you to confront the lack of logic in all that, and realise how nonsensical and harmful it is, it'll help you process that.

andré remade -__- 02/16/2020

yes i know

ugh

Laura's commentary: Ari would ask me for reassurance all the time. It's fine to ask for validation when you're dating someone, it's just the way he put things that rubbed me the wrong way. See it for yourself.

pomeranian-privilege 02/16/2020

I'd appreciate it you expressed appreciating my help or my looks/outfit today or like, just my effort in general, cause I was really trying and writing out long paragraphs to help you cope with shit and trying to look out for your feelings while doing that (not defensive rn, just advising)

andré remade -__- 02/16/2020

you look really good

red looks great on u but im biased cos fav colour

pomeranian-privilege 02/16/2020

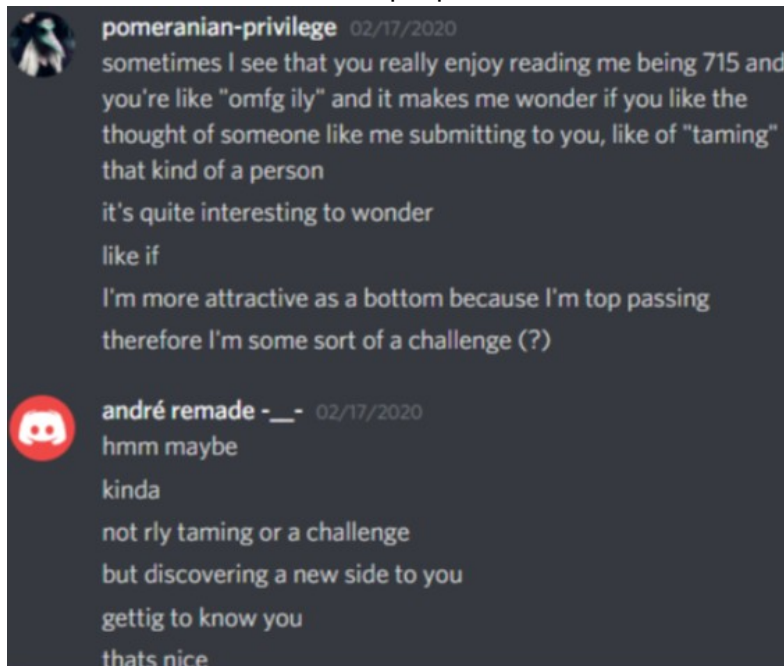

honestly I chose to wear it today cause I thought you'd like it ;_;
you know?

Laura's commentary: the following screenshots show that Ari is okay with saying the F slur as someone who's biologically female. Honestly, this is something that I'm guilty of as well. I just wanted to provide evidence of it so there are no double standards.

Laura's commentary: this is Ari asking me if I was interested in "taming" him while I clearly explained that my fascination for his alter 715 was out of getting to know his system better as a whole because I liked them as people.

Laura's commentary: Ari trying to be sexual with me while I was very drunk. These speak for themselves. 1, 2, 3, 4.

Laura's commentary: Ari unironically likes to drink human blood and would like to drink mine despite me being scared of it.

pomeranian-privilege 02/04/2020

you're not judging me tho?

andré remade -__- 02/04/2020

ofc not

jsyk tho i wouldnt be a willing participant

pomeranian-privilege 02/04/2020

may I know why? I wouldn't push you to, I'm just curious

andré remade -__- 02/04/2020

i dont wanna get my blood drawn

i get anxious

pomeranian-privilege 02/19/2020

you sound so beautiful and attractive. like always what is this song even about?

andré remade -__- 02/19/2020

vampire girls

seducing people and drinking their blood lmao

pomeranian-privilege 02/19/2020

oh... me!

andré remade -__- 02/19/2020

yes!

pomeranian-privilege 02/19/2020

won't drink yours tho cause you won't let me. valid

andré remade -__- 02/19/2020

ye ❤️

pomeranian-privilege 02/19/2020

bit of a shame cause I wonder what you taste like. your blood, that is. not something I necessarily need to know, tho ^^

Nyx's commentary: more screenshots showing that Ari enjoys drinking blood, even from a sexual point of view.

pomeranian-privilege 03/25/2020

i have rabies Today at 4:45 PM why would u drink their blood tho
I'm a sanguinarian Morais
WHY WOULD I

andré remade -__- 03/25/2020

YES BUT WHY
PEDO BLOOD
IK YOU DRINK BLOOD BUT WHY NONCE BLOOD

pomeranian-privilege 03/25/2020

I mean because I feel the craving and hunting randos is kinda immoral?

andré remade -__- 04/09/2020

fem goth vampire and his preppy werewolf boyfriend

pomeranian-privilege 04/09/2020

yeah. :3 I'm having a fantasy of licking blood off you... ;__; licking blood off your neck

pomeranian-privilege 02/29/2020

I think I'm hypomaniac rn. weird feeling. I'm experiencing some sanguinarian bullshit and fantasising about biting someone I guess? I hope it passes soon because I don't like it ig. it's not really sexual, not fully, but the thought of someone sticking something in my veins is uncomfortable.

andré remade -__- 02/29/2020

pomeranian-privilege 02/17/2020

I know :<

I actually do drink blood, but didn't enjoy having periods regardless...

pomeranian-privilege 02/09/2020

well I tend to only drink from people whom I trust in that regard. I tend to ask people to get tested for HIV if I'm gonna sleep with them or drink their blood in general

pomeranian-privilege 02/09/2020

I was a teenager, I assume. I felt a very strong urge when I was close to people and could sense their scent etc. it was like longing for some kind of warmth they possessed, but not for physical contact, exactly. when I first convinced someone to let me drink their blood I was 16.

715 (or at least someone claiming to be him) stating that a blood play kink isn't harmful:

traggot

anonymous asked:

re: blood thing again YES I am aware shit's weird lmfao come on it's just not on the level of bdsm and I'm not a nutcase who would think I'm unironically a vampire and will live forever or some shit. I have indeed drunk blood a few times in my life, never from a nonconsenting person. I do suspect it has to do with (prolonged) iron deficiency. It's Not That Deep Fam, even if it was a kink it wouldn't really be one of the harmful category. VAMPIRISM CALLOUT IN 2020 JESUS CHRIST. LOL. - 715

"Even if it was a kink it wouldn't really be one of the harmful category"... Are... Are you serious right now?
