Three Plans Being Considered For City Square Reconstruction

by Maria Girvin

In the last meeting held to discuss the layout for the City Square area, residents and members of the North Area/Central Artery Task Force learned that the Department of Public Works had permanently ruled out plans A-1 and D-1 and were closely looking at the options of plans I-1 and L-1.

In addition to these two favorable plans, engineers are also considering a plan favored by the task force, comprised mostly of residents of the City Square area. This is plan L-2 which would prevent the construction of ramps in City Square to join the expressway. Rather traffic would be circumvented to ramps built in the Boston Sand & Gravel area, off Rutherford Avenue.

Engineers told residents that the alignment of tunnels and streets in plan I-1 were good, preventing the least amount of construction and traffic problems. Plan I-1 extends Main

To Talk Of Many Things . . . .

by Sal Giarratani

Don't know about you but I find it incongruous for the Globe to be so concerned about offending people's sensitivities in regards to a Larry Bird swear word while thinking nothing of pushing the pro-abortion message wherever and whenever possible. As far as this writer is concerned, abortion is the greatest four-letter word. Last Saturday's SportView by Globe columnist Jack Craig only exacerbates the Bird quote.

KUDOS TO JESSE HELMS

The US Senate last week voted 52-43 to ban any federal funding for abortions except when the mother's life is endangered if the pregnancy is carried to term.

New England voted against the tide once again with only Sen. Gordon Humphrey (R-NH) voting the pro-life side. Senators Teddy and Wrangas voted against the ban.

Sen. Packwood of Oregon, in voting against the ban, said there was a "Cotton Mather mentality" growing in the country, but fellow Republican Sen. Jesse Helms (R-NC) — a sponsor of the ban — let him have it right back saying, "We're talking about the deliberate termination of human life. If that's a Cotton Mather mentality, so be it."

JIMMY KELLY, TOO!

Heard Jimmy Kelly on the Hubert Jessup radio talk show recently and he sounded really great taking on the issue of affirmative action. The libs seem to believe that affirmative action (reverse discrimination in my book) is a workable answer when it isn't an answer at all!

Jimmy has been speaking out loud and clear against affirmative action for years. Race can never be used either "Positively or negatively" when talking about equal education or employment opportunities.

Past injustices can never be answered by new injustices, no matter how good the intent. Affirmative Action is racist-pure and simple! It hurts all people regardless of race!

Jimmy Kelly, by the way, is in the running for a seat on the Boston City Council and has to be rated as a contender. He is a commonsense conservative, a commodity the Council presently has in short supply.

TOWN MEETING

As a member of the Town Council Steering Committee, I urge one and all to attend the third community-wide Town Meeting at the Kent School this coming Tuesday. More details elsewhere in this paper.

MBTA HEARING COMING

A public hearing will be held in Charlestown on Tuesday, June 9, most likely at the Kent School. It will be a MBTA public hearing dealing with the recent cutbacks in bus service in our Town. Here's your chance to tell the MBTA what you think of their service . . . A big thanks goes to Rep. Richie Voke for getting this hearing arranged. I took him over the coals a few weeks back, but at this time he deserves praise!

QUOTE TO NOTE

Memorial Mass

The Annual Memorial Mass for all the Deceased Members of the Boston Fire Department will be concelebrated by the Department Chaplains on Saturday morning, June 13th, 1981 at ten o'clock in the Church of Saint Francis de Sales on Bunker Hill Street in Charlestown.

The Boston Fire Department extends an invitation to the families and relatives, friends and neighbors of our Departed Members who have entered into Eternal Life to attend and participate in this Memorial Mass.

Strong Support Evident For Retention Of Library Services

The Charlestown Friends of the Library held a special meeting on Thursday, May 14, 1981 at 7 p.m. at the Charlestown Branch Library. The special meeting was called to alert us all to the severe budgetary crisis facing the Boston Public Library. We are facing a 35 percent decrease in the budget for the entire library system in the city which will curtail many services.

Margaret Broderick thanked a standing room crowd of 150 to 200 people for coming to show and express their deep concern on threatened cuts and closings. Margaret Broderick, President of the Friends of Library introduced Representative Richard Voke; a representative from Boston City Councillor Joseph M. Tierney's office; Mr. Brian Callahan who represented Sheriff Dennis M. Kearney; Director of the Boston Public Library, Mr. Philip McNiff; Mr. Arthur Snyder, President of the Boston Public Library Board of Trustees; and Mr. John Barrett, Charlestown Librarian, who were on the panel to let us know what problems we face with Proposition 2 1/2 going into effect July 1, 1981.

Mr. Philip McNiff let us know that his department faces "Severe Fiscal problems at this time. We look to our Legislature to increase our local aid and will help our libraries. The impact of 2 1/2 only allows for a 6 million allocation which is the same as 1970. We appreciate your interest and your concerns. We have run an effective and economic program."

Mr. Arthur Snyder, President of the Board of Trustees stated, "We are all on the same side. Many letters are received daily. Trustees have initiated a bill for those students who are not part of the system. The Boston School Department has a Library Budget four times larger. The Boston Public Library system staff is down to 400 people where by a total fully effective staff should be 552 people. The library is well managed with no frivolousness."

Representative Richard Voke said, "Your turnout indicates you are pleased with the service and want it continued. Where does money come from? There is a State Law that every community receive money from State for their library. In 1980, the City of Boston received 25 cents per person — in Fiscal Year 1981 this will be increased to 38 1/2 cents. Boston has the distinction of being Library of Last Resort. In 1981 the State gave a total of $2 1/2 - 3 million which is 30 percent of the budget of the Boston Public Library."

Mrs. Kathryn Downing of Green Street presented Representative Richard Voke, Boston City Councillors Joseph Tierney's Representative and

Mr. Arthur Snyder, President of the Board of Trustees of the Boston Public Library with a petition that was circulated throughout the town last week. 1400 signatures were gathered and made an impression on Mr. Arthur Snyder who remarked "that this is approximately 10 percent of the population of Charlestown and when you can get 10 percent of anyone to sign something, that is quite a feat."

Questions from the audience were let by Past President of the Friends, Laurette Murdock of Warren Street. She commented that libraries discover new worlds, and are used by people of all ages."

All age groups spoke regarding their various participation in many programs at our library. People spoke regarding the loss of library services that threaten the curtailing programs, book discussion groups, pre-school, story hours and discussion group, Adult Films, Films For Children. Charlestown Historical Society representative spoke, as did Charlestown Preservation Society President Don Jackson. Boys' Club representative Chris Keingsley and Headstart representatives from the J.F.K. Family Center spoke too. Mr. John Barrett, Librarian for the Charlestown Branch thanked everyone for coming especially for those friends who circulated the petition and came forward to support our library.

To Graduate From Salem State

George H. Ellison, a member of the Massachusetts Board of Regents, will be the commencement speaker at Salem State College's 171st graduation exercises at 11:00 a.m. on Saturday May 30th in the Richard B. O'Keefe Physical Education/Athletic Complex.

Honorary Doctor of Law degrees will be conferred upon Ellison; Richard D. Hill, Chairman of the Board of the First National Bank of Boston; and Attorney Michael J. Harrington, former Congressman from the Sixth Congressional district.

Approximately 825 undergraduate and graduate students are scheduled to receive degrees during the Saturday commencement. More than 8,000 families and friends are expected to attend the exercises. The Chairman of the Salem State College Board of Trustees Kenneth J. McIlraith will confer the degrees.

Among the graduates will be Thomas O'Connor of 56 Winthrop Street, Charlestown.

Charlestown residents were among the 2500 men and women at Boston College who received their degrees at the university's 105th commencement.

Delivering the main address, US House Speaker Thomas P. O'Neill, Jr. received a lengthy standing ovation from graduates when he said the Reagan Administration's defense budget would be "wasting $1.2 trillion . . . if we fail to invest in the people we need to direct and run our nation's businesses and institutions."

The class of 1981 and 20,000 of their families and friends at the university's Alumni Stadium also applauded O'Neill's emphatic declaration that the "government must carry the burden of investment in education" as well as defense.

A member of the Boston College class of 1936, O'Neill celebrated the 45th anniversary of his graduation from the university.

O'Neill, who received an honorary doctor of laws degree from Boston College in 1973, was awarded the university's Ignatius Medal, which was presented by Boston College President Rev. J. Donald Monan, S.J. The silver medal bearing the engraved image of Ignatius Loyola, founder of the Jesuit Order, was given to O'Neill in recognition of his "accomplishment in human endeavors" in a "career enriched by a religious dimension."

Charlestown graduates who received bachelor's degrees are Anne M. Kelly of 57 Baldwin Street who received an AB Cum Laude from the School of Education with majors in Elementary Education and Elementary Special Education and George E. Rodriguez of 52 Dunstable Street who received a BS from the School of Management with a major in Finance.

Graduates From Providence College

Mr. Stephen C. Simpson of 6 Concord Street, Charlestown, was among the 782 graduates of Providence College, who received their degrees during commencement exercises, May 18.

Mr. Simpson was awarded a Bachelors degree in double major Political Science and Sociology from the Liberal Arts College.

He was graduated during the college's 63rd Commencement.

Founded in 1917, Providence College is a coeducational institution with a total undergraduate enrollment of 3,400 students. Situated on a 100-acre campus, the college is conducted under the auspices of the Dominican Fathers.

FACIAL TRAUMA

Facial trauma is injury to the soft tissues or bones of the face and jaws. These injuries may compromise a patient's ability to breathe, speak, chew, swallow, or see. Hospitalization for these injuries is often necessary. Should facial injuries occur remember to ask that an oral and maxillofacial surgeon be called to evaluate the patient. Many hospitals do not routinely do this, and the expertise of these professionals with these types of injuries is lost. This could result in less than the "ideal" care of the patient's injuries.

Old Charlestown Schoolboys Hold 68th Annual Reunion At K. of C. Hall

Charlestown was founded in 1628 and established as a City in 1847. It was comprised of such areas now known as Somerville, Malden, Woburn, Stoneham and Cambridge.

In January 1874 - Charlestown was annexed to the City of Boston. A register was compiled of the 6500 males who attended schools in the City of Charlestown from 1847 to 1874. The five schools that existed in this period of time were the Prescott, Bunker Hill, Winthrop and Harvard Grammar Schools and the High School. It is significant to note that no Parochial Schools were operating in Charlestown during this period. This listing of boys was the basis for tracking such School Boys for membership in the association, which was founded in 1913....Mr. James Smiley Murphy who lived at 25 Warren Street, Charlestown and graduated from the Harvard Grammar School in 1862 and the High School in 1866 and later became the President of the Stickney and Poor Spice Company, was the prime mover in founding the association. Mr. Murphy was elected as the First President of the Association in 1913.

Life Membership at that time was restricted to those men who attended any school in Charlestown prior to 1874. This is the reason that the year 1874 is considered as the starting year. Thus, the members at the First Reunion in 1913 were all 42 years of age or older. Every five years the Officers and Executive Committee vote to change the eligibility date for membership into the association. Currently, in order to become a Life Member, one must have attended any school in Charlestown, Mass. prior to January 1, 1935, and Life Membership is still only five dollars!

Briefly, the object of the association is "to keep and to perpetuate the memories and associations of our early schooldays in Charlestown and to promote brotherly love and kind feeling among ourselves." The motto of the association is "Liberty - A Trust to be Transmitted to Posterity" - which is considered to be a timely and significant guiding principle considering life in our present world conditions.

Of great significance is the fact that the Old Charlestown Schoolboys' Association is a very unique and singular organization in that there is no other group or Association that perpetuates men having gone to schools in a particular geographical area of our Nation.

The Association was incorporated under the statutes of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts in the year 1939. The association held their first meeting after incorporating at the Boston City Club on April 26, 1939. Yearly meetings of the Officers and Executive Committee are still held during the month of April. The present Officers are Edward A. McGuinness, President; J. Brendon Sullivan, Vice President; Edward F. Connelly, Treasurer; and James P. Carr, Secretary.

On May 7, 1981, the 68th Annual Reunion took place at the K. of C. Hall in Charlestown. Reunions have been held at only three places since 1913 - namely, the Boston City Club, Charlestown Boys' Club and the Charlestown K. of C. Hall. There are 800 members living throughout the United States and, membership consists of men from all walks of life and of many different religious beliefs, but all have one common objective: To meet and to perpetuate the memories and associations of our early school days here in Charlestown, Mass. whether they were Pointers, Neckers, Stacey Fielders, Hair Pasturers, Navy Yard Gaters, Happy Valleyites, Nanny Goat Hillers, Monument Silk Stocking Kids, Mill Pond Roosters, Canal Typos or Training Field Champs.

Three Plans Being Considered

Street to the Mystic Bridge on-ramp in City Square.

Plan L-1 extends Warren Street across Chelsea Street to Water Street and requires a longer tunnel. The cost of creating two intersections and building a longer tunnel dramatically rises in this plan.

However, according to Department of Public Works Project Director Ed Fitzgerald, cost is weighed against practicability and future traffic needs. To be funded 90% with federal money, the cost for I-1 and L-1 (in 1981 dollars) ranges from $115 million to $127 million respectively. Plan L-2 which is favored by residents could run upwards of $139 million. All plans are expected to increase in cost by 20 percent by 1984 when construction begins.

A member of the task force presented reasons why engineers should continue their feasibility study of L-2. Many of their reasons centered on pedestrian access to the downtown area, the waterfront areas of the Navy Yard, and pedestrian traffic between Navy Yard and Charlestown shopping areas. Because of L-2's feature of no access ramps to the express way, traffic, noise and signs would be kept out of the City Square area.

Fitzgerald said a final recommendation of one plan will be submitted by the Louis Berger Company, (plan designers) to the Commissioner of the Department of Public Works in four to six weeks. Following his approval of the plan, designers will continue to work out the finer details, shooting for a May, 1982 date to complete 25 percent of the design. Two more years will be needed to finalize the design and begin construction which is expected to take three years ending in 1987.

Areas to be further studied in future task force meetings, beginning again in the fall, are as follows:

—retaining Lowney Way, which would cut land along Park

Street into two separate land parcels, making planning for land use more difficult;

—discontinuing Henley Street, creating one land parcel, making planning easier for that area;

—rearranging Water Street so it does not remain a through street;

—the possible termination of Main Street and Rutherford Avenue, thus creating another land parcel;

—bus routing;

—types of surfaces for open spaces;

—definition of land parcels which could be designated for housing, commercial space, hotels or office space.

THE BARBER

by Charlie McGonagle

He was twenty one - and full of run - when first he used the Clippers, While working for - his father-in-law - the "Master Of The Snippers." Then, with Jerry gone - his shop was born, and Jack became "The Barber" Cutting hair - on a swivel chair - in a town near Boston Harbor.

For several years - he used the shears - and thought of other things, Like uniforms - and touchdown bombs - and dreams that football brings. Within his shop - he had a crop - of kids he knew were tough, With a careful scheme - he built a dream - bought helmets on the cuff.

With little more - than kids in store - he brought the Town Team back, To meet the test - to beat the best - with a powerful attack. He hired bands - he filled the stands - he did the people proud. With winning ball - most every fall - he satisfied the crowd.

Then the noise - from all his boys - began to settle down, They grew to men - they married, then - some moved from Charlestown. Now some are grey - but on Saturday - a visit they extend To hoist a beer - to bend an ear - for an hour with their friend.

And a funny thing - many bring - a son to sit with Jack. And then they say - as they did yesterday - "Take some off the back." Then the little boy - is filled with joy - as the barber spins his tales Of daddy's feats - in his football cleats - the story never fails.

Then the curtain drops - in the barber shop - and the father goes away, With his happy son - the visit's done - he hears his child say, "I'm just a lad - but maybe dad - when I'm as old as you, I'll know a guy - my son and I - can visit like we do."

Open Letter To The People Of Charlestown

Some people walk with kings, and some people talk to presidents. On April 10, I was to be permitted to walk, talk with, and embrace far, far greater people than that.

For myself, and my brave firefighting brothers, a very serious disaster hit Charlestown that day. Engine Company 50, Charlestown's first line of fire defense was deactivated. To the members of Engine 50, all was lost. (Or so we thought.) But, like a mighty wave at our door came a group of people who came to save our firehouse and engine.

In one month, our company and house were saved, thanks only to this handful of people to whom we all owe our safety, and our heartfelt thanks.

Citizens of Charlestown, I have found a group of genuine, true, proud "Townies." The members of Engine Company 50 know who helped them in their hour of need. For all who did not respond to aid and assist "People's Fire House No. 2," you should take stock and find out if you are really "Townies." Wearing a hat, T-shirt, or jacket does not make you a "Townie." You must take off the wrapper to find out what's inside. If this ever happens again, I pray we will all band together in total unity with "Peoples' Fire House No. 2."

With deepest gratitude,
Firefighter James M. Cullity
Engine Company 50

May 26, 1981
I read an article that appeared on page 4 in the Parkway & West Roxbury Transcript dated May 20, 1981. This article was in the OPINION column. The article was all about the re-districting, and adding five more City Councilors to this present body of nine. I want to give my OPINION as to just why I am against adding any further Councilors to this body. If the people of this City will notice, there are people running all over this City, soliciting for enough signatures (30,000) to place this question on the ballot this year. I want the people of this City to ask the solicitor or solicitors when they ask them to sign the petition the following questions. Do you live in Boston? The answer you will get is yes. Now, ask them how long they have lived in the City and they will tell you "About two or three years". I know of what I speak, because I have asked those questions and I have been convinced that they are a bunch of out-of-state carpet-baggers that have come into this City, and now want to try and change our form of City Government.

I am sick of these out-siders coming into this City, and trying to tell us what to do. In the first place, this idea of theirs is to try and get the so-called minorities a seat in this Council. I just happen to be a minority and have been one all my life, and worked, and competed for everything I have today. If they get enough signatures to increase the Council by five new members, then it will be up to the present Council to draw up the so-called districts. The way this group of Liberal, social planning do-gooders are approaching some of the members of this Council is to make it easier for the minorities to run ONLY in their respective districts, and a fellow like me will have to run City-wide.

This to me, is outright discrimination, and I don't like it. If the so-called minorities want to run for the City Council, I say run just like the rest of us have to, and compete like I have had to do all my life.

This district plan would cost the taxpayers of this City another $1,000,000 to add five new Councilors to this body, and my financial figures are correct. God knows we are paying enough taxes now, and we don't need any new Councillors. If you should run into anymore of these carpet-baggers, don't sign the petition.

JOB-TIPS PROGRAM: A local Charlestown resident, Christene Paris, toured the Marriott Hotel Site on Long Wharf on recently. Lloyd Carhart of Turner Construction and William Kane of Associated General Contractors of Massachusetts were hosts to the Boston YWCA's Job-TIPS Program for young people training for careers in construction and technology. Much has been said about how essential it is that job training programs work closely with Private Industry in order to succeed. Private Industry can make the world of work real to trainees by offering tours, speakers, and consultation. At the same time they can benefit from well-trained and motivated employees. Turner Construction Company provided Job-TIPS trainees with an opportunity to see what construction work is really like and to make an educated career choice.

Let me give you some of the names of the groups that are supporting this proposal: The Boston Peoples' Organization, The Boston League of Woman Voters, the Greater Boston Interdenominational Ministerial Alliance, the Black Political Task Force, The East Boston Ecumenical Commission, The Boston NAACP, Councillors Sansone, Flynn, and DiCara (for the information of Flynn, Sansone, and DiCara, here is one Councillor Albert L. "Dapper" O'Neil that will oppose this right from the beginning), so now you know who the Liberals are on this Council. We have Councillors on this Council that would support any, and all groups as long as they think they can get some votes. Well I for one, will not support these groups.

A few more of the groups that support this changing of the Council are The City Wide Parents Advisory Council (CPAC). These are the same groups that have constantly stuck their nose into the School situation in this City, and we all know what a mess they made out of our School. Also the Roxbury Multi-Service Center.

I can assure them, that if they get enough signatures, that I, for one will be on that Committee to re-district this City, and I can assure them, that any, and all of these social planning do-gooders will have to run just the way I and any other Councillor does. I have no intention of giving them a free ride in this City, because I, for one, am sick of these liberals not only ruining this City, but the entire Country. What they should begin to realize, a little bit, is that this Country is going conservative and we have had enough of the Liberals tearing this Country apart. So, in conclusion, don't sign the papers, and if the minorities want to come into City Government, they will have to compete with me, and others.

See Double.

The Double Distance Championship: In the early rounds, 32 great sprinters race over the 5/16 course. Sixteen make it to the semi-finals. Eight will get to the finals. But only one will be called "Champ"... the one the others will probably be chasing for the rest of the season.

Then you can see it all again. Almost. Because 32 great distance dogs will also be doing their thing over the 3/8 Revere Course. And the distance Champ will have to prove himself the same way.

So if you love championship greyhound racing, you should get out to Wonderland. On the double.

PLEASE NOTE! I have a tan barracuda and a blue vest. Sunday, May 24, at the Oiley, two gloves disappeared. This is a damn shame. Gloves can, no longer, be bought for $5 or $6. Over the past years, I have cautioned the players to put their gloves in front, not in back or under the bench. Managers and coaches should allow nobody but their players on the bench.

SAD NOTE! For the second year in a row, the dance was a flop. I just can't understand why people can spend money for other affairs and functions and can't spare $5 for Little League. This really hurts. As for our own Little League people, those who could not make it, so informed me. Others who could have made it did not bother. This hurts too.

So it is back to scraping nickels and pennies together to pay the bills. The buffalo on the nickel will be screaming for mercy and the indian on the penny will be saying WHY? not HOW?

Wonderland Stages New $85,000 Stake

Wonderland Park will feature the best of both worlds in the first $85,000 Double-Distance Championship over the 5-16ths Revere Course next week.

There will be two fields of 32 dogs each. Each of the 29 kennels at Wonderland has the opportunity to enter one in the sprint and one over the route.

To fill the field — a minimum of three in each segment is needed if each kennel enters two dogs each — each kennel will be able to nominate a second dog, provided the greyhound is running in Grade A, and the extras will be drawn by lot.

Points in each race will be awarded according to complete order of finish on a 16-8-5-3-2-1-0-0 basis. This series is similar to last year's People's Choice.

The first round kicks-off June 2-3 (Tuesday and Wednesday), followed June 7-8 (Sunday and Monday) by the second round, the third round June 12 (Friday) and semifinals June 16.

The eight leading point-scorers in each division advance to the championship final Saturday, June 20.

Top sprinters include Jimmy Fortunato's Coasting On, Franklin Pike's Queen Dorene, White Shadows' Grand Chae, Frank Fulginiti's Minstrel Kid, Skinny Beckner's Book Rack and Ryan's Lani O'Grady.

Routes in the hunt are Ryan's Genie Aboard, Chris Randle's Go Feet, White Shadows' Good House and Win House, Dick Andrew's Dark Robber and Whispering Sandy, Paul Discolo's K's Love and Pat Dalton's Wallace.

Ted Ryan Retires

After 20 years in Football, Ted Ryan, in a very tearful press conference, announced that he is retiring as a player from The Charlestown Town Team of The Boston Park League, and will remain with the Team in a coaching capacity. Ted cited injuries and age as the reasons. Ted who will turn 37 on May 28th holds the record of leading his Team in laps around the field during practices.

Recently, Ted was chosen to play Larry Czonka in an upcoming movie on the former Football Great's Life. Ted is shown being congratulated after being inducted into the Ham & Egger Hall Of Fame. After the press conference, his friends threw him a surprise party to help him celebrate, and it was declared "Ted Ryan Day on Lincoln Street." Good Luck T., and Happy 37th Birthday!

In the follow-up victory, Eric Johnson pitched a 5-hitter aided by the sparkling play of shortstop Bill Connell.

The Executive Committee of the Charlestown Babe Ruth would like to announce that on Sunday, June 7, at 2:00 a.m. at Ryan Playground, they will unveil the new addition to the Baseball Scene: A Senior Division Team (ages 16-18). It will be under the managership of Wayne Davis - ably assisted by Ed Coughlin and Tom Carroll and batboy Brian Davis. Their opponent will be the Medford Colts. The Committee hopes to see many "Townies" in attendance.

Constitution Museum Portrays "Life At Sea" In New Exhibit

JOHN CUSHING AYLWIN

At age thirteen, John Cushing Aylwin was a man...he had gone to sea. Twenty years later he was mortally wounded in battle on board USS Constitution. The year was 1812 and the battle was with His Majesty's Ship, Java.

Imagine you are on board Constitution with Lieutenant Aylwin. Constitution, sitting in Portuguese waters off the coast of Sao Salvadore, Brazil, is on a surveillance mission. She has been held up in the outer harbor because the Portuguese, sympathetic to the British, will not send out desperately needed provisions. The men of Constitution are on a half rations and the morale is dismally low. Into those same waters sails Java, also in need of provisions as she is on her way to India, carrying the next governor of Bombay. Because the year is 1812 and the United States and Britain are at war, shots are exchanged between Constitution and Java, beginning what will be the bloodiest battle in Constitution's history.

Lieutenant Aylwin is in charge of the cannonades on the spar deck. In the heat of battle, he is wounded in the shoulder, but stays at his post. Finally succumbing to the pain, he is carried below to the cockpit, which is already wet and slippery with the blood of other wounded and dying men. The ship's Surgeon, Amos Evans, rushes to Aylwin's side. Evans and Aylwin have become good friends during the course of duty on board Constitution and it is Evans who dresses Aylwin's wound and who must witness his deteriorating condition and finally, his agonizing death.

What you have just experienced is the drama of battle, its glory and agony. As seen through the eyes of Amos Evans, Constitution's battle with Java, is depicted in "The Honors of War," a multimedia presentation which is part of a new exhibit, LIFE AT SEA, to open in June at the USS Constitution Museum in Boston. "The Honors of War" accurately and vividly details the wounding of John Cushing Aylwin and early medical practices and treatments as they were performed at sea. The presentation has been funded by the Massachusetts Medical Society, which is celebrating its Bicentennial this year. In addition to funding, the Society has played an active role in advising the Museum about medicine at sea for both the presentation and the medical segment of the exhibit itself. "The Honors of War" was produced by Joe Gladstone, Director and Producer for the WGBH Educational Foundation, and narrated by Robert J. Lurtsema of WGBH Radio.

In the LIFE AT SEA exhibit, visitors will "meet" five crew members who served on Constitution in 1812: the Surgeon's Mate, the Sailing Master, a Marine, and Able Bodied Seaman, and a Boy. These five crew members will be seen in their daily activities and in some segments of the exhibit, visitors will be able to participate in the activities like hoisting sails, steering the helm, and tying knots.

The exhibit will be constructed of areas which explain how the 475 crew members were ranked, how discipline was maintained, what their sleeping quarters were like, how 475 men were fed and what they ate, how simple diseases and complicated wounds were treated, and how Constitution was navigated.

Peter Sterling, Director of the USS Constitution Museum, expressed the uniqueness of the exhibit in this way, "The Life at Sea" exhibit is the first of its kind to present what it meant to be on board an American war ship in the 1800s. Shipboard life was not always exciting and romantic. Most of it was routine and hard work. This exhibit conveys the contrast between the excitement of battle and the uniformity of everyday life. It is a very real representation of life at sea in the early years of the American Navy."

Funding for the LIFE AT SEA exhibit came from: The Massachusetts Council on the Arts and Humanities, the Arthur D. Little Company, the Alice Willard Dorr Foundation, the Hearst Foundation, Mobil Oil Foundation, Elizabeth Killam Rodgers Foundation, Sailors' Snug Harbor, Star Market, and the Worcester Telegram and Gazette.

The USS Constitution Museum, located near Old Ironsides, is open daily. For further information, call 426-1812.

Careers

The conference is the second planned by the Continuing Education Institute (CEI) which is located in Medford. The Director of CEI, Dr. Lloyd David, says that many teachers have approached him inquiring about the various kinds of training programs offered by companies and whether their skills are transferable from teaching children to instructing adults. This conference is designed to provide some of these answers.

Included among the presenters are administrators and training specialists from the following companies: Prime Computer, First National Bank of Boston, Polaroid Corporation, MASS S.A.V.E., Digital Equipment Corporation, Sheraton Corporation, John Hancock Insurance Company, etc.

Information about the conference has been sent to each public school in the Greater Boston area. The fee for the conference, including a luncheon, is $40.00. If anyone wishes further information they can call or write to CEI, 33 Ship Avenue, Medford, MA 02155
