

Qaanitah Hunter

Qaanitah Hunter ID Number 9307221082084 cell 0823739545 is a political journalist at the Sunday times newspaper in Johannesburg- South Africa's biggest weekly Sunday newspaper which is under the AVUSA Media Group. She has featured on International platforms such as Al Jazeera, the BBC and New Age newspaper. Her recent articles have been written jointly or independently. Among her recent articles were on:

- Mbete About-turn on returning Thuli report; this was the state capture report submitted to parliament by the former public protector and was to be kept by the speaker. However confusion reigned as to whether the Speaker had received the Report or not.
- Moseneke: State Must forge plan on Higher education; This was a call by the retired deputy chief Justice for greater access to higher education
- Lawyers advised Pravin against mediation; the need for the Finance minister to negotiate on behalf of Oakbay Investments- the Gupta owned company and the banks to have their accounts opened.

There is no clear political party that she has openly said she belongs to, however her views point to the fact that the current government needed to be changed to move South Africa in a new direction in a recent interview on Power FM during the recently concluded Local Government Elections. She is also a close friend of Phumzile Van Damme, the national Spokesperson of the Democratic Alliance.
