

Two Bridges Neighborhood

The Two Bridges neighborhood on Manhattan's Lower East Side is among the most diverse neighborhoods in New York. From Chinese bakeries to Latino groceries; halal and kosher meat stores to produce stands featuring dozens of types fruits and vegetables; corner bodegas to full-service grocers, we see strength and resilience in this diversity. We also believe that food can serve as a cultural bridge between diverse members of the Two Bridges community.

People come for our affordable prices and high quality produce but it's good service that keeps them coming back.

I've learned a lot by shopping in this neighborhood and encourage everyone to explore the diverse markets that this community has to offer.

Two Bridges Neighborhood Council

Two Bridges Neighborhood Council

For more than half a century, Two Bridges Neighborhood Council's programs, projects, and activities have nurtured the unique character of the Lower East Side by building bridges among its diverse communities. We create equitable housing, celebrate cultural diversity through neighborhood-based programs, and work together with local residents, businesses, entrepreneurs, and leaders to stimulate and maintain economic vitality. Two Bridges is committed to protecting and enhancing access to fresh and affordable food in the Two Bridges neighborhood.

This guide is your passport to the neighborhood and the abundance of locally owned businesses offering fresh, affordable and healthy food.

For every $1 spent at a local small business, 64 cents remains within the local economy compared to 32 cents for big-box and chain businesses. Or put into local context, if every resident of Two Bridges shifted $1/day of their spending to a local business, we'd generate a little over $9.3M that would re-circulate through the Two Bridges local economy.
